ORDER OF BUSINESS

It was moved by the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, and unanimously carried, that the Order of Business of this Annual Communication be changed at the discretion of the Grand Master.

GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

My Brethren:

It was indeed a very great honor you conferred upon me one year ago when you elected me Grand Master of this Grand Lodge. I do not believe that I fully realized, at the time of my election, how great the honor really was and I am sure I did not adequately express my appreciation. May I now say that as the year has passed quickly by and as I have visited as many Lodges, Districts and other Grand Jurisdictions as time and strength would permit, there has been a growing appreciation of the honor and responsibility of being permitted to serve as your Grand Master. From the bottom of my heart I thank you for that great privilege.

I welcome you, the members of this Grand Lodge. Some of you have been attending regularly for a number of years but many of you are here today for the first time. I do hope you will find all the sessions enjoyable, helpful and inspiring.

I also extend a most cordial welcome to our many distinguished visitors from other Grand Lodges, both of Canada and sister Grand Jurisdictions from other countries and particularly from our splendid neighbours to the south. I hope there will be an opportunity to hear from some of these distinguished leaders before Grand Lodge closes.

This is the 107th Annual Communication and we are again privileged to meet in this great City of Toronto. The attendance at Grand Lodge is now so large that it simply is not feasible to meet in any other city in the Province. We know this involves extensive travelling for some of you and occasionally we are asked if we could not return to the former system of meeting periodically in other centres. Thought, of course, has been given to the suggestion but the difficulties are prohibitive. This, of course, places a very heavy burden upon the Chairmen and members of the various Committees in this area, who have the responsibility of making all the necessary and detailed arrangements. We owe them a tremendous debt of gratitude.

NECROLOGY

Scarcely had the sound of the gavel signalled the closing of our last Communication, or so it seemed, when our hearts were saddened by word of the death of our greatly beloved friend and Past Grand Master, M.W. Bro. James P. Maher. He died on August 2, 1961. His passing meant the loss to our Grand Lodge of six of its Past Grand Masters within the short space of two years.

During the year we have also been saddened by the loss through death of two members of the Board of General Purposes, R.W. Bro. George F. Clark and R.W. Bro. H. B. Coxon.

We now record the following in grateful tribute to their memory.

JAMES PATTERSON MAHER

James Patterson Maher was born in Toronto on February 6, 1890, of Irish parents who moved to Picton, Prince Edward County, Ontario, while he was still very young. He spent his boyhood days and received his Public and High School education in Picton. He frequently referred to his fond memory of his boyhood friends and the beauties and wonders of Prince Edward County.

In 1909 he returned to Toronto where he shortly afterward became engaged in the manufacturing and retailing of shoes. He was so industrious, trustworthy and respected that soon his business began to expand until at the time of his death Maher Shoe Stores were located in communities in almost every part of Ontario. He was deeply respected and loved by his many employees and they, like we, must sorely miss him.

Notwithstanding M.W. Bro. Maher's concentration on his ever-growing business and his loyal devotion to Masonry he yet found time to render public service in very many directions. He was a Director of the National Sanatorium, Chairman of the Toronto City Planning Board, and a member of the Metropolitan Toronto Planning Board, the Toronto Board of Trade, the Property Owners' Association and, during the war years, was a Director of the Advisory Committee of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. His interest in youth and amateur sports was manifested by his sponsoring competitive hockey, baseball and soccer teams.

Of course, it is mostly as a Mason that we cherish his memory and today pay him this loving tribute. He was initiated in York Lodge, No. 156, Toronto, in 1912, was its Worshipful Master in 1930, District Deputy in 1934, and since 1939 has been a member of our Grand Lodge Board of General Purposes. In 1947 he was elected Deputy Grand Master and in July, 1949, he became Grand Master, an office which he filled with great honor and distinction. He was also a member of the Royal Arch, the Scottish Rite and the Royal Order of Scotland. In 1949, he was made an Honorary Member of the Supreme Council, 33 degrees.

The Funeral Service was held on August 4th in St. Michael and All Angels Anglican Church, Toronto, of which he was a very devoted member for many years. The Service was attended by your Grand Master and Deputy Grand Master, the Past Grand Masters and Grand Secretary, members of the Board and a large number of his many Masonic friends.

We greatly miss him but his influence will long be felt.

“For when a good man dies
 For years beyond our ken,
 The light he leaves behind him
 Falls upon the paths of men.”

GEORGE FREDERICK CLARK

George Frederick Clark was born in Hamilton, Ontario, on December 11th, 1891, and resided in Hamilton all his life. His Masonic career commenced when he was initiated into Acacia Lodge, No. 61, on April 22nd, 1914. He became Worshipful Master in 1938. He was elected Grand Junior Warden in 1946, and in 1948 he was elected a Member of the Board of General Purposes. He made a valuable contribution to the work of Grand Lodge as Chairman of the important Committee on Benevolence from 1955 to 1960. R.W. Bro. Clark was also a Charter Member of The Lodge of the Ancient Landmarks, No. 654.

Few men have been more public spirited than he was and the citizens of the City of Hamilton recognized this when he was made “Citizen of the Year” in 1954. At one time or another he served as Chairman of the Board of Governors of the Hamilton General Hospital, Chairman of the Hamilton Housing Authority, Chairman of the Winter Employment Committee and was a former President of the Ontario Chamber of Commerce.

He was a life-long member of Livingston United Church and for many years was Chairman of its Board of Stewards.

Long associated with Appleford Paper Products Company, he rose to the office of President, a position which he held until his retirement.

He passed to the Grand Lodge Above on January 7th, 1962. The funeral service was from Livingston United Church in Hamilton. Your Grand Lodge was represented by the Grand Master, Past Grand Masters, Grand Secretary and a large number of Past and Present Grand Lodge Officers. I cannot refrain from speaking with some personal feeling of R.W. Bro. Clark's death. He and I were very closely associated in Acacia Lodge, No. 61. We were appointed to office at the same time and passed up the line together, until finally, when I was Master, he was Senior Warden and, of course, succeeded me as Master.

Your lost friends are not dead but gone before,
Advanced a stage or two upon that road,
Which you must travel in the steps they trod.

HERMAN (BILL) COXON

I little expected one year ago when I appointed R.W. Bro. Coxon to fill a vacancy on the Board of General Purposes that I would today be reading his obituary.

R.W. Bro. Herman Coxon, who was known to all his friends as Bill Coxon, was born in Granton, Ontario, on September 7th, 1893. After completing his education his earliest business association was with the firm of Gordon McKay Limited of Toronto, which company he later left to assume an executive position with Gowdies Limited of Kitchener, Ontario. He retired about 5 years ago for reasons of health and moved to London where he resided with his wife, the former Nora Walden.

R.W. Bro. Coxon was a member of St. John the Evangelist Anglican Church, Kitchener, which he continued to support after moving to London. In London he attended and supported St. Paul's Cathedral.

In 1915 he was initiated in Granton Lodge, No. 483, and later affiliated with Twin City Lodge, No. 509, Kitchener, and became Worshipful Master of that Lodge in 1945. In 1951 he was elected Grand Registrar and in 1955 was made an Honorary Member of St. John's Lodge, No. 209A. He was appointed to the Board of General Purposes in 1961.

R.W. Bro. Coxon made a splendid contribution to Masonry as Chairman, for a number of years, of Masonic Education in Wellington District and was recognized as an authority on Masonic ritual.

A Masonic Memorial Service, conducted by the Officers of St. John's Lodge, No. 209A, was held on April 4th, 1962, at Logans Funeral Home, London, in which the Deputy Grand Master and many Past Grand Lodge Officers took part. Interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery, St. Mary's, Ontario.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

The Grand Master invited the Grand Chaplain, R.W. Bro. Canon A. J. Anderson, to the dais. Under the Grand Chaplain's direction the following Memorial Service was held.

Grand Chaplain:

"I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, from henceforth blessed are the dead which die in the Lord: Even so, said the Spirit, for they rest from their labours".

(A brief period of silence was observed.)

PSALM 130 (Read responsively.)

HYMN: "O God of Bethel, By Whose Hand".

Grand Chaplain: Let Us Pray:

Almighty and Eternal God, who art the Source of life and health, we remember with thanksgiving these our Brethren, who, having finished their course on earth, have passed to the Grand Lodge Above. We pray that their lives of service and example of faithfulness may inspire us who follow them to greater and more fruitful service to Thy honour and glory. Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, and giver of all comfort; deal graciously, we pray thee, with those who mourn, that, casting every care on thee, they may know the consolation of Thy love. Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Almighty God, with whom do live the spirits of them that depart hence in the Lord, and with whom the souls of the faithful are in joy and felicity: We praise and magnify thy holy Name, or all thy servants who have finished their course and kept the faith; and committing our brethren into thy gracious keeping, we pray that we, with all those that are departed in the true faith of thy holy Name. may have our perfect consummation and bliss, both in body and soul. in thy eternal and everlasting glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Almighty God, the God of the spirits of all flesh: Multiply, we beseech thee, to those who rest in the Lord, the manifold blessings of thy love, that the good work which thou didst begin in them may be perfected unto the day of Jesus Christ. And of thy mercy, O heavenly Father, grant that we, who now serve thee here on earth, may at the last, together with them, be partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light; for the sake of the same thy Son Jesus our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

The Lord bless you, and keep you. The Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. The Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace, both now and evermore.
Amen.

RECOGNITION OF ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF ACTIVE EXISTENCE

We have reached the time in the history of our Grand Lodge when more and more lodges are presenting their claims for recognition for 100 years of continued active existence. During the past year three lodges have qualified for this recognition and have been granted permission to wear gold braid in accordance with section 262.

- (a) Friendly Brothers' Lodge, No. 143, Iroquois, as of April 19, 1961.
- (b) Irving Lodge, No. 154, Lucan, as of January 28, 1962.
- (c) Peterborough Lodge, No. 155, Peterborough, as of February 15, 1963.

LODGE CENTENNIAL CELEBRATIONS

It has been a matter of great regret to me that I have been unable to attend all of the lodges having centennial celebrations during the year. I did attend all that it was possible for me to attend. The lodges having such special anniversaries were as follows:—

- (f) Union Lodge, No. 9, Napanee, one of our oldest lodges, celebrated its 150th Anniversary on March 11, 1962. It was with deep regret that I found it impossible to be present. I could only send congratulations.

APPOINTMENTS

- (a) Owing to the death of R.W. Bro. H. B. Coxon on April 2, 1962, a vacancy occurred on the Board of General Purposes, which I filled by appointing R.W. Bro. James J. Talman for the balance of our late R.W. Bro. Coxon's term.
- (b) It was with much regret that I accepted the resignation of R.W. Bro. Dr. Frank Shannon, Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee, because of ill health. I appointed R.W. Bro. Dr. George E. I am glad to learn that Dr. Shannon has largely regained his health and is able to be with us at this Communication of Grand Lodge.
- (c) Owing to the death of M.W. Bro. James P. Maher there was a vacancy on the Award Committee for the William Mercer Wilson Medal. ## PAST RANK

- (a) Wor. Bro. John S. Black served as Master of Union Lodge, No. 9, until he departed overseas on September 18, 1941, on active service and did not return until the end of hostilities. During his absence the Immediate Past Master acted in his stead. The Lodge now asks that the rank of Past Master be given to W. Bro. Black. I so recommend.

- (b) Wor. Bro. Gordon A. Gardner, Master of Richmond Lodge, No. 23, died on March 17, 1962, after serving as Master for about nine months. I recommend that he be given the rank of Past Master posthumously.

- (f) Wor. Bro. F. A. Hunt served as Master of Doric Lodge, No. 121, for only eleven months. The Senior Warden was transferred out of town by his employers and was unable to stand for election as Master, delaying the elections one month. W. Bro. Hunt was elected and installed as Master but was unable to complete the required twelve months. I recommend that he be given past rank.
- (g) Owing to a change in the date of installation, Wor. Bro. Arnold W. Harris served as Master of Tuscan Lodge, No. 195, for eleven months, being one month short of the required time. His attendance has been excellent. I recommend that he be given past rank.

- (o) Owing to the change, by dispensation, in the date of installation of Wor. Bro. Rudy E. Stubel, in St. George Lodge, No. 243, he served as Master four weeks short of the required twelve months. I recommend that he be given past rank.

I now ask your approval of these donations.

NEW LODGES INSTITUTED

During the year the following Lodges have received a dispensation and have been instituted:—

- (a) Universe Lodge, U.D., Markham, on November 21, 1961, by R.W. Bro. Wm. A. Hagan, D.D.G.M. Toronto District "4".
- (b) The David T. Campbell Lodge, U.D., Whitby, on January 18, 1962, by R.W. Bro. Charles B.

Rycroft, D.D.G.M. of Ontario District. This lodge was named after the late David T. Campbell who at his death left 30 per cent of the residue of his estate to Composite Lodge No. 30, Whitby, in trust, the income from which is to be used to assist deserving boys to continue their education. To date the lodge has received well over $100,000. and each year is assisting many boys who otherwise could not continue their education.

- (c) Eastern Lodge, U.D., Cornwall, on March 27, 1962, by R.W. Bro. R. A. Stewart, D.D.G.M. of Eastern District.
- (d) Oakridge Lodge, U.D., Byron, on June 7, 1962, by R.W. Bro. Ross C. Fuller, D.D.G.M. of London District.

LODGES CONSTITUTED AND CONSECRATED

Since our last Annual Communication one lodge has been constituted and consecrated. I was pleased to be able to attend and constitute and consecrate Aurum Lodge, No. 704, Timmins, on September 23, 1961. The hospitality of the Brethren of Timmins and the District was exceptionally gracious and greatly appreciated by R.W. Bro. McQueen and myself.

LODGE ROOMS DEDICATED

Lodge rooms of the following lodges have been dedicated during the year:—

- (a) Friendly Brothers' Lodge, No. 143, Iroquois, on the 20th of October, 1961, by M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, Past Grand Master.
- (b) Mercer Lodge, No. 347, Fergus, on the 26th of October, 1961, by M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, Past Grand Master.

- (c) Blackwood Lodge, No. 311, Woodbridge, on the 28th of November, 1961, by the Grand Master.
- (d) Scarborough Temple, Scarborough, on the 8th of February, 1962, by M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, Past Grand Master.
- (e) Hiram Lodge, No. 490, Markdale, on the 2nd of April, 1962, by the Grand Master.
- (f) Northern Light Lodge, No. 266, Stayner, on the 9th of April, 1962, by the Grand Master.
- (g) Henderson Lodge, No. 383, Winchester, on the 4th of May, 1962, by the Grand Master.
- (h) Zeredatha Lodge, No. 220, Uxbridge, on the 4th of June, 1962, by the Grand Master.

The hearty co-operation afforded by the various Grand Lodge Officers in assisting at these ceremonies of Dedication was of great value to M.W. Bro. Martyn and myself.

Officers of lodges contemplating the erection of new lodge buildings or structural changes in existing premises should always keep in mind the necessity of having their plans approved by the Grand Lodge Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings of which R.W. Bro. Geo. T. Evans is the Chairman. This is not only required by the Constitution but can be of vital importance in assuring that buildings are architecturally sound, attractive and functionally useful.

It was a matter of great regret to me that I found it necessary to direct that a reprimand be administered in open lodge, to two members of the local building committee of Mercer Lodge, No. 347, Fergus, for proceeding with the construction of a building which did not meet with the approval or requirements of the Grand Lodge Committee. The reprimand was given only after a careful investigation of the whole matter by a committee appointed by M.W. Bro. Pitts and on the recommendation of that Committee.

- (v) Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia, on June 25, 1962, by M.W. Bro. C. M. Pitts, Past Grand Master.

VISITATIONS WITHIN OUR OWN JURISDICTION

During the year I have received many gracious invitations to attend as your Grand Master various lodge meetings, district receptions and other Masonic functions. I regret that it was necessary to decline a number of these because of conflicting dates or limitation of time and strength. However, in addition to my visits to other Grand Lodge Communications and centennial and other celebrations already reported, I have visited the following districts.

- (a) Toronto Districts "1", "2" and "5" Joint Reception, Toronto, March 14, 1962.
- (b) Windsor District Reception, Windsor, March 29, 1962.
- (c) Victoria District Reception, Cambray, April 12, 1962.
- (d) North Huron District Reception, Tiverton, May 9, 1962.
- (e) Sarnia District Reception, Wyoming, May 25, 1962, combined with the celebration of the 100th Anniversary of Burns' Lodge, No. 153.

The warmth and friendliness of all these receptions have been so stimulating that it is difficult to adequately express the enjoyment and pleasure they have meant to me.

SPECIAL OCCASIONS

During the year I have attended as your Grand Master a number of Masonic and other functions which do not come under any of the general classifications hereinbefore mentioned.

I had the great pleasure of presenting to V.W. Bro. The Hon. Mr. Justice Ferguson, Grand Senior Deacon, the regalia of his office in Huron-Bruce Lodge, No. 611. I really requested this privilege because of the many pleasant years of association with him on the Supreme Court Bench of Ontario.

There were two outstanding events in my Mother Lodge, Acacia, No. 61. The one was the very gracious and heart-warming reception which the Officers and members tendered me. The other was the night in which, assisted by M.W. Bros. T. H. Simpson and C. M. Pitts, the Deputy Grand Master and other Grand Lodge Officers, I occupied the Master's chair when my son was initiated into Masonry.

On October 15th, 1961, a Memorial Service for M.W. Bros. W. J. Dunlop and J. P. Maher was held in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. It was a deeply moving tribute to these great Masons. The scripture lessons were read by M.W. Bro. Martyn and your Grand Master.

It was a unique and ever-to-be-remembered night on January 29th, 1962, in Harry L. Martyn Lodge, No. 696, when M.W. Bro. Harry L. Martyn installed his son, Murray, as Master of the lodge. I greatly appreciated the privilege of sharing in the significant occasion and the gracious hospitality extended both before and after the lodge meeting.

R.W. Bro. Dixon was kind enough to drive me to Brampton on Sunday, March 25th, 1962, where I addressed the boys in the Ontario Training School. This is a school in which a splendid effort is being made to assist and train boys who, for one reason or another, have become delinquent. It was a pleasure to speak to them. They were a responsive and keenly interested and interesting audience.

Having been previously initiated in Hamilton Chapter, No. 175, Royal Arch Masons, it was indeed an honor and thrilling experience to be exalted to the Holy Royal Arch Degree by M. Ex. Companion Charles Emmett, Grand First Principal, and the Officers of Grand Chapter.

R.W. Bro. Everon Flath became entitled this year to his 50 Year Past Master's Medal. How delightful it was to be asked to make the presentation and to hear the interesting, capable and witty response made by Dr. Flath.

On April 18th I was honoured in being asked to present to our Grand Secretary, E. G. Dixon, in Electric Lodge, No. 495, his Veteran Jubilee Medal signifying 50 years a Mason. Many past and present Grand Lodge Officers were on hand to honor our Grand Secretary. There were many messages of congratulations from other Grand Jurisdictions in Canada and the United States. In a suitable reply R.W. Bro. Dixon said, among other things, he had been initiated, passed, raised and installed by his father, an affiliated Past Master of Electric Lodge. The Lodge derived its name from the fact that so many of the Charter Members were associated in one way or another with the old Cataract Power Company.

In a very delightful evening, in May, in Kilwinning Lodge, No. 565, Toronto, I met and was able to greet and congratulate Bro. Thomas Ross, now in his 101st year.

GRAND MASTERS' AND GRAND SECRETARIES' CONFERENCES IN WASHINGTON

Each year there are held in Washington concurrent but separate conferences of the Grand Masters and Grand Secretaries of the Grand Lodges of Masons on this North American Continent. They are held for the purpose of discussing the many problems which are constantly arising and for rendering such mutual assistance by suggestion and advice as the opportunity of meeting together affords.

Your Grand Lodge was represented this year by your Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Harry L. Martyn, Past Grand Master, and R.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon, Grand Secretary. These conferences are well organized and designed to be of the greatest assistance to those attending. They have no legislative authority. It seemed to your Grand Master that the problem that was uppermost in the minds of all the representatives this year was that of a falling-off in attendance at lodge meetings and a similar falling-off in membership. There was much discussion of the reasons for this condition; numerous suggestions were made for its solution but in the end the discussion always seemed to return to the necessity of strong, vigorous, efficient and dedicated leadership by the Master of the local lodge and by those associated with him as Past Masters and Officers. No lodge can be successful under indifferent leadership. M.W. Bro. Martyn is a valued member and Chairman of the Commission for Information for Recognition. Details of conditions in countries where Masonry is seeking recognition by other Grand Jurisdictions are carefully investigated and reported to the Conference. It happened this year that there was no clergyman among the Grand Masters and your Grand Master was asked to act as Chaplain of the Conference. It is difficult for me to understand why.

GRAND LODGE MEMORIAL BUILDING AND FUND

This is the first complete year in which our Grand Secretary and staff have been occupying our Grand Lodge Memorial Building. Residing, as I do, in Hamilton, I have had the opportunity of making full use of the Grand Master's office in the building. What a delight it has been for me, for R.W. Bro. Dixon, R.W. Bro. McQueen and the entire secretarial staff to work under conditions so comfortable, uncrowded and attractive. One is inclined to wonder why Grand Lodge was content for so many years to have its executive offices in the confined, inconvenient quarters on Gore Street.

During the year very many Masons of our own Jurisdiction and other Jurisdictions have come to inspect the building. We have had visitors from West Germany, Australia, South Africa, England and many United States Grand Lodges. Favorable comment has invariably been made, particularly with reference to the Memorial feature of the building.

I directed that the Memorial Fund should officially close on December 31st, 1961. Up to that date the sum of $60,696.00 had been contributed to the Fund and even since that time some contributions have continued to come in. They now total $62,430.00.

While the Fund is now officially closed and no further appeals will be made, if there are some members or lodges who still feel they would like to have a share in the Memorial, their contributions will be gratefully received and so applied and recorded.

DISCIPLINE

A candidate was initiated into Masonry in Flower City Lodge, No. 689, Brampton. An investigating committee had been regularly appointed and had reported favorably on his application. The ballot was also favorable. Two days after his initiation it was learned that the day previous to his initiation the candidate had separated from his wife. It was also learned that he had previously been divorced. His initiation fee was paid by cheque but the cheque was returned "Not Sufficient Funds". Before the situation was brought to my attention the candidate had voluntarily returned to the Secretary of the lodge the Book of Constitution, the copy of the lodge's Bylaws and his dues card. The Secretary of the lodge quite properly referred the matter to the District Deputy Grand Master and he, in turn, referred it to me through the Grand Secretary.

The first obvious observation is that there had been great carelessness and neglect on the part of the investigating committee as the candidate was not a fit and proper person, either financially or otherwise, to be admitted to the Craft. It cannot be overemphasized that the appointment of investigating committees is no mere formality but they should investigate fully the candidate's character and reputation, home conditions and domestic relations, his financial position and his church affiliations. They should make their report honestly on the strength of information acquired by such a thorough investigation.

In the present case, such an investigation surely would have disclosed that this candidate's application should not have been accepted.

I ruled that, as the initiation fee is payable in advance, and as there had been no fee paid (the cheque having been returned N.S.F.) the initiation of the candidate was void and despite his initiation he never was a member of the lodge. I directed that his name be stricken from the roll and that Grand Lodge records be amended accordingly.

This directive was read at the next regular meeting of the lodge.

In fairness to the Worshipful Master and Officers of Flower City Lodge they have accepted in good spirit the criticism of their carelessness and I am sure such a mistake will not occur in that lodge again. I hope it will not occur in any other.

I might add that it is usually unwise to accept a cheque (particularly if not certified) in payment of the initiation fee.

BLOOD DONORS

I have had the opportunity of reading the Report of the Blood Donors' Committee which will be presented to you later by R.W. Bro. Turner.

In many respects it reveals the splendid contributions which Masons are making to this fine humanitarian service. The number of donors ranges from 563 in one district to no donors in 10 districts. Why are there 10 districts in which this service is not being rendered? I hope the newly elected District Deputies in these districts will make a special effort to have their districts organized for this service.

Remember brethren—while the life you save will not be your own it may be the life of a near relative or brother Mason. Suppose, however, it is only the life of a stranger, is not that worth-while?

MEMBERSHIP

It is regrettable that we show a loss of 322 in membership this year. Last year we recorded a small gain of 147. In 1946 we had a gain of 4,891 members but since then the gain has been consistently smaller year by year until last year it dropped to 147 and now this year we have moved into the loss column. It is small comfort that this trend seems to be general in practically all the Grand Lodges on this continent. Can we not do something to reverse the trend? For one thing there are far too many suspensions for non-payment of dues. I feel I should repeat and emphasize what M.W. Bro. Pitts said in his report one year ago, "It becomes abundantly clear that we have to stop our losses by N.P.D. and this can only be accomplished by the ardent and personal attention of, not only the Secretary of the lodge, but the Master and his Officers and the brethren who apply themselves to ascertain the cause of the brother's arrears and endeavour to assist him to solve his problems whether they be financial or emotional". There is one lodge in our Jurisdiction which has a very energetic but kindly and diplomatic Secretary and through his efforts there has not been a member in arrears for over 12 years.

GRAND MASTER'S BANQUET

To-night the traditional Grand Master's Banquet will be held in the Canadian Room of the Royal York Hotel. I hope every brother who wishes to attend has been able or will be able to get a ticket. About 1,500 persons can be accommodated and our experience is that the demand for tickets always exceeds the supply. I am most happy to announce that our speaker is our own M.W. Bro. Archbishop W. L. Wright. M.W. Bro. Wright has been much in demand as speaker in other Grand Jurisdictions and it seems appropriate that we, too, should enjoy and benefit from one of his inspiring addresses.

APPRECIATIONS

Before I conclude, I wish to gratefully acknowledge the service of those who have so ably assisted me in one capacity or another. I have been quite conscious of my limitations as Grand Master but have always been cheered and strengthened by the knowledge of the devotion of the Grand Lodge Officers.

R.W. Bro. Dixon, your Grand Secretary, and his staff have been so efficient in their work and so kind in their consideration for the Grand Master that it becomes difficult to find language to properly express my appreciation. M.W. Bro. Martyn, as Custodian of the Work, M.W. Bro. Hearn, as Grand Treasurer and Chairman of Masonic Holdings, R.W. Bro. George McQueen, as Supervisor of Benevolence, V.W. Bro. Binney as Grand Director of Ceremonies, are only a few of the many who have combined to ably assist me. The District Deputy Grand Masters and the Grand Senior and Junior Wardens have been most faithful. The Grand Chaplain, too, R.W. Bro. Anderson, by his devotion and attendance, whenever possible, at Dedications and Divine Services, deserves my heartfelt thanks. The attendance of your Grand Lodge Officers at ceremonies of Dedication of Lodge Buildings has been a revelation to me. The distances which many of them travelled must have meant great inconvenience to them and a disturbance to their work, but notwithstanding this they were rarely absent. The Assistant Grand Chaplain, V.W. Bro. Stewart, merits special mention for his faithfulness at Dedications and other Grand Lodge ceremonies. There are many others who should be mentioned by name but time does not permit.

CONCLUSION

As we enter upon another Masonic year, my brethren, who is there among us dare face that year with casual unconcern? We know that, throughout the entire world, men's minds are filled with anxiety, indeed, in many instances with actual fear. International tensions have been building up at an alarming rate. The dogs of war are straining at their leashes. There is the ever present possibility that some bone of national rivalry or discontent thrown in their midst will cause them to break loose. If they do, the world will be in the throes of an atomic war with its almost limitless powers of destruction.

Has Freemasonry anything to offer the world in times like these? Well, so far as its influence extends I believe it has. It stands for belief in the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man. Most important of all, it is based upon a belief in a loving Providence figuratively referred to by us as The Great Architect of the Universe. I emphasize the word Universe. Do you believe that a loving Providence has brought our world, even though it be but a tiny fragment of the Universe, to the point of development where it shelters men who have the religious capacity to know and worship Him, the giver of every good and perfect gift, only to have it and them shattered by a few atomic or hydrogen bombs? I, for one, as a Mason, believing in the Fatherhood of God, refuse to believe He will allow it to happen.

“This is the Victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.”

Fraternally and respectfully submitted,

R. W. TRELEAVEN,
Grand Master.

At the conclusion of the Address it was moved by M.W. Bro. C. M. Pitts, seconded by M.W. Bro. J. A. Hearn, and carried: That a committee, composed of all the Past Grand Masters present, consider and report to Grand Lodge on the Grand Master's Address. The motion was put by the Deputy Grand Master.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

This report was presented by M.W. Bro. T. H. Simpson, and on motion of M.W. Bro. Simpson, seconded by M.W. Bro. W. L. Wright, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful The Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Grand Master's Address, to which the members of Grand Lodge have listened with such rapt attention and with real interest, is one which deserves all the commendation which your Committee can accord it. Most, if not all the members of Grand Lodge, are well aware that our Grand Master has served faithfully and well throughout the first year of his term of office. All who have come in contact with him have admired his work as an administrator. We have heard the inspiring and interesting addresses which he has delivered and, having met him, have learned to admire him and the real effort he is putting forward in this high and exalted office to which he has been elected. The record of his visits alone indicates the remarkable energy and the great sincerity of our Grand Master and your Committee commends him for his excellent work during this first year of office. At the same time your Committee realizes, as everyone must do, that this is a very large Masonic Jurisdiction and these visitations are trying on the health and constitution and we suggest, in the kindest spirit, as we think you would want us to do, that he should spare himself for this next year so that he may long be able to take part in giving guidance to this great institution.

We concur in all he says with respect to the late Most Worshipful Brother James Patterson Maher and agree with it all. We also concur in his remarks with respect to those esteemed brethren. George Frederick Clark and Herman Coxon. They were both great members of the Craft and did much in their respective fields while they were with us. We note that several lodges, three in number, are entitled to recognition of 100 years of active service and your Committee approves of the Grand Master's recommendations.

We also approve of his remarks with respect to the various Lodge Centennial Celebrations. This all makes us realize that our Institution is becoming one of the old institutions of our Province and that we have a great influence in our respective communities.

Your Committee endorses the remarks of your Grand Master with respect to the various lodge centennial celebrations and also approves of the appointments which he has made as referred to in his Address. Your Committee agrees with the Grand Representative Appointments made by your Grand Master and also with the various recommendations of appointments made by him for representatives of other Grand Lodges in this Jurisdiction. Your Committee also approves of the various grants of past rank made by your Grand Master and fully endorses his disposition of these matters.

We approve of the donations that are recommended by the Grand Master in his Address. These are all most commendable and no doubt all will endorse the Grand Master's remarks in that regard. We rejoice with him in the fact that four other new lodges have been instituted in this Jurisdiction and that one additional lodge has been constituted and consecrated. It is also most gratifying to us all to know that there are so many lodge rooms being remodelled and newly built. It shows a great interest in the Order in the outlying jurisdictions. Again we approve of the remarks of the Grand Master with respect to the Grand Lodge Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings and the splendid work that is being done by the Chairman of that Committee, R.W. Bro. George T. Evans.

Your Grand Master has been most active in his visitations to other Grand Lodges. It is significant of the Grand Master that he would wish to carry the torch of Freemasonry to other Jurisdictions, and we know that he does so with a great deal of pride and pleasure and brings great credit on our Grand Lodge in his efforts to do so. His visitations within his own Jurisdiction were necessarily reduced and everyone will approve of his doing so. He also refers to the Grand Masters' and Grand Secretaries' Conferences in Washington. These are splendid associations and all of us would want our Grand Master to be present at such important meetings. We agree with his remarks respecting the Grand Lodge Memorial Building Fund. Nevertheless, while the Fund is officially closed, we agree with him that there may be and likely are many members who will still wish to contribute and show their interest in this fine Masonic Memorial which is a credit to our Craft and is so highly admired by everyone who sees it. Again we have noted the discipline which he has had to enforce and, while we regret to see that there are such unfortunate situations arising from time to time in the Craft, nevertheless it is impossible to avoid it in such a large institution. We agree with the Grand Master and endorse his action but we hope that all will take note of this and see that the record of our Grand Lodge is kept as free as possible from any such unfortunate situations in the future.

We are happy to note and most heartily endorse what the Grand Master says regarding blood donors. Those in charge of this Committee are to be highly commended.

Regarding loss of membership, this is a matter of real concern to us all. For several years past there has been this situation arising and now, for the first time in several years, we have had a net loss, and that is to be regretted. However, we are going through a phase in our civilization and we must realize that these things come about and must be faced and they simply create a challenge to the rest of us to apply ourselves towards the work at hand and to see that the Order goes forward for the future the same as in the past. There are many distractions at the present time but we feel that once conditions again settle down we will find that matters fall into their proper places. Our Institution is such that it can stand the shock. It is also a delightful reference which the Grand Master makes to the Grand Master's Banquet and the fact that the address of the evening will be given by Most Worshipful Archbishop W. L. Wright. It will be unquestionably a fine address and by one of our own Past Grand Masters. We agree with what he says in appreciation of the Grand Secretary and the staff of Grand Lodge and all of those who are working to support the work of the Order in this Jurisdiction. The references in the conclusion are typical of our Grand Master and reflect the thinking and the principles of his life. We can be proud that we have a Grand Master of the calibre and with the high standards of the present incumbent of this office. We are delighted that he has come through such a busy year with such an excellent report to give us and we can say for the future, "Carry on, you are doing a great work, we are with you, we hope for you a great year in the next year ahead and for many years to come".

This Committee consists, as is usual, of all the Past Grand Masters of our Grand Lodge. However, before closing, the Chairman may be pardoned for introducing a personal note. For many years past your Chairman has been closely associated with your Grand Master, an association which he has always valued highly. For many years we both practiced law in adjoining offices in the City of Hamilton in opposition to one another, of course. During that time we were constantly and almost daily thrown together on an intimate basis. During that same period your Chairman and your Grand Master both became members of the same Lodge, Acacia Lodge, No. 61, in Hamilton. We both passed through the same offices joining together in the effort and taking our parts in building up that lodge which is today one of the great lodges of this Jurisdiction. Your Grand Master was selected to become a Justice of the Supreme Court of Ontario and, as such, served for many years on the Bench of that Court in a very capable and commendable manner, earning for himself the respect and admiration of all members of his selected profession. It was at one time hoped by many of us that your Grand Master would stand for the office of Grand Master of this Grand Lodge but, having been elevated to the Bench, it was for a time thought that he would no longer have any such aspiration. However, as time went on, your Grand Master retired from the Bench and now is fulfilling the highest office, that of Grand Master, and doing so in the most commendable manner. Your Chairman of this Committee became Grand Master and is now the Senior Past Grand Master of our Grand Lodge and again is closely associated with the Grand Master in furthering the work of this Order in this Grand Lodge. Again the old association is renewed and your Chairman finds himself now serving and preparing this report on the excellent work of your Grand Master during his first term in that office. It is a matter of great pride and joy, and I know that the members will forgive your Chairman for introducing into this report the personal character of this reference and the fact that your Chairman is so highly pleased with being in this position and being able to record these few remarks.

All of which is fraternally submitted,

On behalf of the Committee,

T. H. SIMPSON,

LETTERS OF REGRET

The Grand Secretary advised that several letters and communications had been received from Grand Masters, distinguished brethren and Grand Lodges extending most cordial fraternal greetings and best wishes and expressing regret that they were unable to be present or represented.

PRESENTATION OF COMMISSIONS

The Grand Master invited the following brethren to the dais and presented them with their Commissions as Grand Representatives;

M.W. Bro. T. H. Simpson, as Grand Representative of The United Grand Lodge of England near our Grand Lodge.

M.W. Bro. W. L. Wright, as Grand Representative of the Grand Lodge of Ireland near our Grand Lodge.

M.W. Bro. W. Wallace Kent, Past Grand Master of Michigan, as our Grand Representative near that Grand Lodge.

R.W. Bro. John Dodd, as Grand Representative of the Grand Lodge of Japan, near our Grand Lodge.

RECEPTION OF GRAND REPRESENTATIVES

As the Assistant to the Grand Secretary called the roll of Grand Representatives of other Grand Lodges those who were present stood up and were welcomed by the Grand Master. Grand Honours were then given under the direction of the Grand Director of Ceremonies.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I beg to report having completed the continuous monthly audit of accounts of the Grand Treasurer and of the Grand Secretary for the year ended 31st May, 1962, and I have verified the statements submitted by the Grand Treasurer showing the receipts and disbursements of the General and the combined Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds for the year ended 31st May, 1962.

The investment securities of the General, Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds, as set out in the respective schedules accompanying the Grand Treasurer's report, were produced by the Canada Permanent Trust Company for my inspection. I found them in order.

I wish to extend my appreciation to the Grand Treasurer's Clerk and to the staff at the office of the Grand Secretary for their co-operation during the audit procedure.

All of which is fraternally submitted.

H. FRANK VIGEON, C.A.,
Auditor.

GRAND TREASURER'S REPORT

This report was presented by M.W. Bro. J. A. Hearn, Grand Treasurer.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I submit for your consideration the Grand Treasurer's report for the fiscal year, ended May 31st, 1962, which shows in detail receipts and disbursements together with schedules of investments for General and Memorial Accounts.

RECEIPTS:

Income from dues and fees is in excess of the previous year by $6,292.85 while the revenue from investments has increased by $9,487.76.

DISBURSEMENTS:

Expenses, while within the budget limits, increased by $12,261.75, occasioned chiefly by bank interest on overdraft and a full year's rental on the new basis which was explained in last year's report.

Benevolent requirements for the past year amounted to $59,377.42, a decrease from the previous year of $5,979.92. It should be stated here that, while requirements were less, the Committee on Benevolence have been quite diligent in their approach to their obligation.

You will be asked to approve the following donations:—

U.N.I.C.E.F. ....	$ 400.00
Boy Scouts (Ontario Division) ..	400.00
Girl Guides (Ontario Division) ..	400.00
Cancer Fund, Ontario .....	500.00
Heart Fund, Ontario .....	500.00
Ontario Crippled Children .....	500.00

Our bank overdraft was paid off as of May 31st, 1962. This meant, of course, the disposal of certain securities at a satisfactory price which liquidated our bank loan. This will save us considerable carrying charges for the coming year.

We acknowledge, with thanks, an additional sum of $14,000 received from the estate of the late Charles E. Sealey for the Memorial Account which has been invested in bonds. We are also appreciative of the continuing interest of the Toronto Lawn Bowlers in the amount of $50.00, the results of their Annual Tournament.

You will note in the schedule of investments that Masonic Holdings debentures have been reduced by $20,000.00 from a year ago. Masonic Holdings redeemed $20,000.00 during the year. The total Masonic Holdings debentures now stand at $372,000.00 bearing interest at 5%.

Our total resources continue to improve. In 1961 they stood at $1,417,889.62, this year at May 31st, 1962, the total for all accounts is $1,469,634.64, an increase of $51,745.02.

I wish to record my sincere appreciation to the Grand Secretary and the members of his staff, the Auditor and the Grand Treasurer's Clerk for their continued co-operation with the Grand Treasurer.

When everything is considered, the past year has been a very satisfactory one from the financial point of view. The Chairman of Audit and Finance has been extremely accurate in his forecast. Expenses have been kept well in line.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

J. A. HEARN,
Grand Treasurer.

On motion of the Grand Treasurer, seconded by the Grand Secretary, the Report and the Auditor's Report were received and referred to the Committee on Audit and Finance.

GRAND SECRETARY'S REPORT

This report was presented by the Grand Secretary.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I present herewith my annual report for the year ended May 31, 1962, containing a Summary of Receipts from various sources placed in the General Fund; Details of Receipts in the General Fund and Ledger Balances as at May 31st, 1962; a Summary of Receipts for the year; Details of the Returns of Lodges as at May 31st, 1962, a Summary of the Receipts and Payments to the Grand Treasurer on account of the Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds; and a Statement of the Receipts and Disbursements on the Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds Revenue Account.

As an appendix to the Proceedings I have recorded the details of the Returns of the 617 warranted Lodges and three Lodges under dispensation, as of Decembr 31, 1961.

After reporting net gains in membership for nineteen consecutive years I regret that I must report a net loss of 322, the first loss since 1942. Our total membership as of December 31, 1961, is 136,091.

Deaths exceeded last year's by only 10; resignations increased by 113, and we ask why? Have we allowed 1,142 of our members to sever their connections with the Craft and deprive themselves of the privileges of Masonry without interviewing them and ascertaining the reason for their withdrawal? Suspensions increased by 36, not a substantial increase but I am sure if an organized effort were made to contact those who allow themselves to get in arrears before such arrears accumulate a very substantial number of our members would be saved the embarrassment of suspension.

Against these losses we record 3,620 initiations, down 222; 763 affiliations, down 141; and 214 restorations, up just 7.

This year there was one new Lodge constituted and consecrated and we have four under dispensation, giving a total of 621 Lodges, which is an all time high.

Many of our Lodges have become and are becoming conscious of the need for new or improved premises as the report of the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings will indicate. Other Lodges, which are without premises of their own or lack facilities for the comfort of the members, will, I hope, make plans for improvement of conditions.

SEVENTY YEAR BAR

This year we had the pleasure of awarding two Seventy Year Bars, in recognition of 70 years and more of membership in the Craft, to the following:

V.W. Bro. Lou Johnston, St. John's Lodge, No. 40, Hamilton.

Bro. John Thomas Ibey, Golden Rule Lodge, No. 126, Campbellford.

FIFTY YEAR BAR

To the best of our knowledge, at this time, there are still three veteran members living who have been awarded a bar to their Long Service Medal to mark fifty years of service as a Past District Deputy Grand Master. They are:

R.W. Bro. A. M. Fulton, Faithful Brethren Lodge, No. 77, Lindsay.

R.W. Bro. T. Montgomery, Victoria Lodge, No. 56, Sarnia.

R.W. Bro. A. McLeod, Bay of Quinte Lodge, No. 620, Toronto.

To them, once again, we extend our warmest congratulations and our very best wishes.

SIXTY YEAR PINS

During the year 44 of our members have received Sixty Year Pins in recognition of sixty years or more of membership. Since the adoption of this Pin 338 holders of our Veteran's Jubilee Medal and 23 holders of our Long Service Medal, of whom 2 qualified this year, have received our Sixty Year Pin to their respective medals. We congratulate and pay tribute to these staunch veterans of the Craft.

FIFTY YEAR MEDALS

Once again we are pleased to note that there is an increase, though slight, in members qualifying for our Veteran's Jubilee Medal (50 years a Mason). This year 406 qualified for the Medal and 16 Past Masters qualified for our Long Service Medal (50 years a Past Master).

WILLIAM MERCER WILSON MEDAL

Since our last Annual Communication four members have been awarded the William Mercer Wilson Medal for Meritorious Service:

Bro. George Hardy Morden, Oakville Lodge, No. 400, Oakville.

Bro. John Rodger Allan, Tuscan Lodge, No. 551, Hamilton.

Bro. Alexander Gordon Spence, Cobden Lodge, No. 459, Cobden.

Bro. James Broadley, National Lodge, No. 588, Capreol.

In all 68 members have been awarded this distinguished Medal since its inception in 1945.

My duties and responsibilities as Grand Secretary have been relieved considerably by a very competent and thoughtful staff, each of whom has been so willing, at all times, to do even more than is required or expected of them to meet additional demands upon their time and energy. I could not ask for more. To each of them I proffer my sincerest thanks.

COMMITTEE OF SCRUTINEERS

The Grand Master appointed V.W. Bro. Robert Strachan, Chairman of the Committee of Scrutineers, to supervise and count the vote at the election of Grand Lodge officers, with power to name the members of the Committee.

REPORTS OF THE DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS

The reports of the thirty-seven District Deputy Grand Masters were presented by the Grand Secretary and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by the Assistant to the Grand Secretary, they were received and referred to the Board of General Purposes.

The Report of every District Deputy Grand Master is addressed to "The Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario." Each begins, "Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren," and every one ends, quite rightly, "Respectfully and fraternally submitted." To save space these formalities are omitted from the beginning and end of each Report.

ALGOMA DISTRICT

To have had the honour and privilege of coming in contact with the warmth and fraternal friendship so evident in our lodges in Algoma District has been one of the happiest and rewarding experiences of my life, an experience to which I shall always look back with a most sincere feeling of thankfulness.

I have visited each of the eleven lodges officially, and sometimes unofficially, and I am pleased to report that the condition of Masonry here is excellent. The ritualistic work is of a high order, carried out by the officers and Past Masters who take real pride and joy in their efforts. I found the financial condition of all lodges satisfactory; the books are well-kept and in perfect order, which is a tribute to the lodge secretaries. It is worthy of note that Terrace Bay Lodge, No. 662, has let the contract for the basement of a new temple and the brethren hope to occupy it this autumn. It appears that each lodge gets its share of young and intelligent candidates as new members, but even as we welcome youth into our fellowship, we are ever reminded that time marches on, as on some occasions I witnessed Fifty-Year Jubilee Medals presented to brethren who had done so much for the welfare of Masonry in past years.

During the year, steady progress has been made in Masonic Education in all lodges under the guidance of Wor. Bro. D. E. C. Schoales whom I appointed as District Supervisor of Masonic Education. There are talented brethren in all the lodges who take a keen interest in Masonic Education and many informative talks are given by these brethren. I appointed Wor. Bro. A. N. Angus as District Secretary, and Very Wor. Bro. Rev. A. H. Johnston, M.A., D.D., as District Chaplain. I am deeply grateful to them for their assistance and encouragement throughout my year in office. Wor. Bro. Angus accompanied me on all my visits and proved a tower of strength.

During the year several prominent brethren in the District have answered the last solemn summons and are greatly missed. Three of these were Past Grand Lodge Officers in the persons of Rt. Wor. Bro. C. A. Goodeve, P.D.D.G.M.; Very Wor. Bro. J. M. Allen, P.G.D.; and Very Wor. Bro. H. T. Middlemiss, P.G.S. Their love for the Craft and their friendly disposition had won for them a high place in the esteem of the entire District.

Among the highlights of the year were the celebrations of the 75th Anniversary of Fort William Lodge, No. 415, and the 50th Anniversary of Port Arthur Lodge, No. 499. Another highlight of the year was the visit of the Past Grand Lodge Officers of the District to my Mother Lodge, Fort William No. 415. Under the chairmanship of the late Rt. Wor. Bro. C. A. Goodeve, these brethren occupied the chairs for the evening and conferred a First Degree in a highly commendable and creditable manner. Their flawless work proved what I had said on many of my visits to the lodges, namely, that there is no loss of interest in Masonry by those who have served and I am happy to say that that fact was demonstrated on that memorable occasion.

Several Church services have been held by the lodges of the District. On two occasions, in recognition of their Anniversaries, Fort William Lodge, No. 415, and Port Arthur Lodge, No. 499, respectively, extended an invitation to the District Lodges to attend Divine Services with them. On each occasion I was honoured to read the lesson. It is gratifying to note the continued response and interest of the various lodges in the work of the Blood Donors' Committees under the direction of Rt. Wor. Bro. S. L. Knox, to whom I am deeply grateful.

As I find my term of office drawing to a close, it is with a profound feeling of regret that I pass the mantle of office to my successor, for I realize that there is still much to be accomplished before I can feel fully satisfied that I have been worthy of the great honour conferred on me. In conclusion, I would like to thank all the brethren in the District for their loyal support, brotherly love and interest that have been accorded me. Tennyson has Ulysses say, in the poem with that title, "I am a part of all that I have met." Similarly, I feel that my year of office as D.D.G.M. will ever be a part of me.

KENNETH M. MacKAY, D.D.G.M.

BRANT DISTRICT

I am pleased to submit, herewith, my report on the year's work in Brant Masonic District.

It has been a great honour to represent the Grand Master in Brant District. I shall always remember it as a happy and rewarding year.

My feelings of inadequacy in accepting the position were largely dissipated by the warm and friendly welcome extended to me by every lodge in the District. This conveyed to me the affection and esteem in which the Grand Master and Grand Lodge is held by the brethren in the District.

It was my good fortune to have associated with me three capable and devoted Masons. My thanks and appreciation are extended to Wor. Bro. W. L. Keen, District Secretary, Wor. Bro. Gordon P. Blight, Director of Masonic Education, and Bro. Ronald J. Warren, District Chaplain.

I regret to report that Masonry is not thriving in Brant District as we would like to see it. The majority of lodges are reasonably busy yet some are suffering from lack of work. I believe this conforms with the condition of Masonry in general and I have urged the brethren, who may have reason to be concerned with this trend, to be of good courage. I have reason to believe a resurgence of fraternal interest in the smaller lodges will soon become evident again.

I was most impressed on all of my visits with the sincerity of purpose of the Wor. Master and the officers generally in the conduct of the work. I was likewise impressed with the numerous candidates received into Masonry on the occasion of my visits. It was heart-warming, indeed, to note the favorable impression gained by the candidates.

I would like to mention in this report my appreciation of the work being done by the Secretaries in all of our lodges. Their many years of service indicate their devotion to the Craft. Likewise, their knowledge of procedures is of incalculable value to the Worshipful Masters and officers.

In every lodge I visited there was also evidence of the fine work being carried on by the Past Masters. In almost every lodge one could select a few upon whom such responsibility rests for the success of the institution. We must and, indeed, do depend very much on the work these brethren do.

I have also appreciated the work of our District Past Masters' and Wardens' Association. Wor. Bro. Harris Featherston, has presided as President this past year with the capable assistance of the Secretary, Rt. Wor. Bro. R.

W. E. McFadden. The latter has long been a tower of strength to Masonry in Brant District.

I was pleased to attend a number of Church Services and this phase of our activity was climaxed at a District Service, held in Knox Presbyterian Church, Jarvis, on Sunday evening, May 20th. The body of the large church was filled with Masons from every lodge in the District and the Service was most impressive. Bro. Ronald J. Warren, District Chaplain, delivered a stirring address which left a fine impression upon the congregation.

In conclusion, I wish to thank all brethren of the District for their kindness and support during the year. It was a year I shall cherish and remember as long as I live.

A. LAIRD MILLER, D.D.G.M.

BRUCE DISTRICT

As my year as D.D.G.M. of Bruce District draws to a close, I wish to state that this has been one of the most enjoyable and rewarding years of my life. It has been one of great satisfaction, though one would hardly expect to accomplish everything he had hoped to do upon assuming office last July.

Shortly after my installation I appointed Wor. Bro. Chester M. Merriam of Tara as District Secretary, a position which he has capably filled in spite of a very busy schedule in other fields. Bro. Alfred H. Stoppard of Hanover kindly accepted the important post of Supervisor of Masonic Education, for which he is eminently suited and which he discharged in a most impressive and efficient manner. In this capacity he has given a talk in each lodge, and has conducted two Lodges of Instruction, both of which were well attended and were enthusiastically received.

Rev. Bro. Clifford Manning kindly agreed to accept, for a second term, the position of District Chaplain. He brings to us the valuable experience of having been a former District Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of Quebec.

I appointed Wor. Bro. Geo. A. Robertson as District Treasurer, and Rt. Wor. Bro. Ross DeLong as Blood Donors' Chairman. While some activity has been reported in blood giving, no clinics have been held in the larger centres during my term, but we anticipate a considerable increase in the fall.

The love and respect which our District holds for our Grand Master have at all times been reflected in the many courtesies extended to myself, my wife, and other visiting District Deputies.

From the time of the meeting called by Most Wor. Bro. H. L. Martyn, for the purpose of instructing the District Deputies of Grey, Bruce and North and South Huron, we have visited each other many times on official visits and have done so with profit and pleasure.

All lodges but one have contributed to the Grand Lodge Memorial Fund, and I believe that this District, on the whole, has contributed pretty well according to its means.

My wife and I were pleased to be able to attend, not only some of the Ladies' Nights in our District, but also some which were far distant. We also appreciated the numerous invitations to join in others, which, owing to weather or previous commitments, we were unable to attend.

Our District was saddened during the year by the passing of several brethren to the Grand Lodge Above. One of these was Rt. Wor. Bro. Samuel W. Vogan, who was D.D. G.M. in 1950, and who had never missed an official visit in his own lodge, Saugeen, No. 197, Walkerton, since 1917. We cherish the memory of all of them in our hearts and extend our sympathy to those bereaved.

On my official visits I attempted, as far as possible, to base my talks on the degree conferred, and to conclude by relating the symbols and lectures to our everyday living, keeping in mind the Sacred Volume whence all our principles are derived. Degrees were conferred in all lodges but one on my official visits. While the work in most cases was done in a commendable manner, I was greatly impressed by the high calibre and careful preparation of the candidates. They should be kept in mind when choosing officers in the next few years.

One of my most pleasant duties was pinning a 50 Year Medal on Bro. Walter R. Laidlaw at my official visit to Hanover. Another was extending a welcome when my lodge, Maple Leaf, No. 362, Tara, held a reception, on behalf of the District, for Rt. Wor. Bro. W. M. Prentice, Grand Junior Warden. On this occasion he decorated Bro. James Duncan with a 50 Year Medal. Following the dinner a large audience enjoyed his intensely interesting talk on the history and symbolism of Masonry.

Although the Grand Master, Most Wor. Bro. R. W. Treleven, did not visit Bruce District, I was privileged to be able to attend several of his official functions and receptions and to receive inspiration from his vast fund of wit and wisdom.

A fitting climax to our Masonic year was the District Divine Service, held in Tara United Church and conducted by Rev. Bro. C. Manning, District Chaplain. The easy and pleasant delivery of Rt. Wor. Bro. the Rev. R. G. Hazlewood so inspired the large audience, as he spoke of "The Spirit of Masonry", that many of them were later heard to remark that they could have listened with pleasure for another twenty minutes.

In conclusion, I would like to thank once more my officers, who gave so willingly of their time and talents, and Bruce District for giving me the privilege of serving them as District Deputy Grand Master.

GORDON S. MATTHIAS, D.D.G.M.

CHATHAM DISTRICT

The privilege of serving as a representative of the Most Worshipful the Grand Master for Chatham District has been gratifying experience. It has been an honour; it is a pleasure to submit my report of the year's activities.

It was indeed a pleasure and of great interest to meet with M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, to receive instructions and to become acquainted with our neighbouring District Deputies.

My duties commenced with the appointment of Wor. Bro. Austin Forshee as District Secretary. He has handled the duties of his office in a most capable manner and attended all my official visits. The District Chaplain, Bro. Rev. Einar Eglisson, of the Dresden United Church, was very helpful to me and accompanied me on all my visits.

My first official and fraternal visit was to my home lodge, Sydenham Lodge, No. 255, Dresden. I was honoured by the Past Grand Lodge Officers of Chatham District who, under the direction of Rt. Wor. Bro. H. D. Paulucci, conferred a Third Degree on a candidate. Rt. Wor. Bro. Herman Bauer occupied the chair.

During my official visits of inspection to the fifteen lodges of the District, I found that whatever work was exemplified, the officers and members of each lodge did it in a dignified Masonic manner. Each Master seemed to be very enthusiastic about his work.

Chatham District was saddened by the passing to the Grand Lodge Above, of two of our Past Grand Lodge officers Rt. Wor. Bro. Roy E. Carscallen of Sydenham Lodge, No. 255, Dresden, and Rt. Wor. Bro. James Burnett of Pynx Lodge, No. 312, Wallaceburg. To their families and all those bereaved throughout the year we extend our sympathy. We cherish their memories in our hearts.

One of the highlights of my year was at the regular meeting in November at Sydenham Lodge when I had the privilege and honour of occupying the chair, and of initiating my oldest son, Douglas, into Masonry. On January 9th he received his Second Degree, and in February I had the pleasure of raising him as a Master Mason. These three occasions were very gratifying to me.

Wor. Bro. Glen Martin, Chairman of Masonic Education, gave interesting talks on this phase of Masonic work. I recommended that the officers of the lodges give their members something to do to create interest in the work of the lodge. I have tried on each of my visits to stress the need for more Masonic Education and feel that my efforts have been worth while.

My wife and I had the pleasure of attending several social evenings and Ladies' Nights, and enjoyed the hospitality and kindness accorded to us by the various lodges, Wor. Bro. Austin Forshee and Mrs. Forshee accompanied us on some of these occasions.

Many invitations were accepted to our neighbouring district. I attended a reception in London for the Deputy Grand Master, Rt. Wor. Bro. John A. Irvine, also a reception in Windsor for the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Russell W. Treleaven. There was a good attendance at both these meetings. I visited with Rt. Wor. Bro. Harry Taylor of Windsor District on his official visit to Pelee Lodge, Pelee Island, on May 5th. It was a beautiful day and we had a wonderful trip over on the boat.

Masonry and our churches are very closely related; each of the lodges held their Divine Services, most of which I attended. On Sunday, May 27th, we held our District Divine Service under a combined dispensation with Sydenham Lodge, No. 255, in the Dresden United Church. The District Chaplain, Rev. Einar Eglisson gave a very inspiring message. His topic was "Mature Men"; there was a good attendance of Masons present.

Finally I am happy to state that a fine spirit of friendship and brotherly love prevails throughout the District. I want to thank the Masters, Officers and Members for the co-operation and support they gave me. I sincerely hope that my stewardship has proved worthy of their confidence.

HAROLD L. MARTIN, D.D.G.M.

EASTERN DISTRICT

To have been District Deputy Grand Master of Eastern District during the past year has been a wonderful privilege and a challenging and rewarding experience.

My District Secretary, Wor. Bro. C. B. McDermid, relieved me of much of the details of the work by his efficient handling of the secretarial duties and by assisting me at my official and business meetings. His reports of the records of each lodge show that they are well kept and in good order.

Wor. Bro. Melville A. McEwen, District Supervisor of Masonic Education, reports that there is a growing interest throughout the District in this important part of our Masonic program. A seminar is planned for this fall, sponsored by Corinthian Lodge, No. 669, with their Chairman, Very Wor. Bro. G. A. Revell in charge.

Bro. Rev. Donald C. Munro consented to act as District Chaplain, and our District Divine Service on Sunday, May 27th, in Maxville United Church, was largely attended. Several other Divine Services were held by district lodges and, when time permitted, I had the pleasure of being present.

I visited each lodge at least once during the year. I was on all occasions received with respect and sincerity. I was impressed with the excellent degree work that was done in this District, and the capable manner in which the Officers conducted themselves. The standard is exceptionally high. At the banquet table I endeavoured to give a short address on some aspect of Masonry related to its application as it concerns our everyday life.

Mrs. Stewart and I, accompanied by my Secretary and Mrs. McDermid, have been happy to accept invitations to many social functions in the District, and have enjoyed the opportunity of meeting so many of the brethren and their ladies. We will retain the most pleasant recollections, for years to come, of the friendships made on these occasions.

Outstanding events of the year were the Dedication of two new Temples. On October 20th, 1961, Most Wor. Bro. H. L. Martyn dedicated Friendly Brothers' Lodge, No. 143, at Iroquois. On May 4th, 1962, Most Wor. Bro. R. W. Treleaven, Grand Master, dedicated Henderson Lodge, No. 383, at Winchester. At each of these events a large number of Grand Lodge Officers and Past Masters were present and assisted in the ceremonies. Preceding the Dedications, banquets were held at which Most Wor. Bro. Treleaven and Most Wor. Bro. Martyn were guest speakers.

I was instructed by the Grand Master to institute Eastern Lodge, U.D. at Cornwall, on March 27th, 1962. Here I was assisted by Past Grand Lodge Officers and Past Masters of the District.

My Official visit to Corinthian Lodge, No. 669, coincided with their tenth anniversary at which the special speaker was the Grand Chaplain, Rt. Wor. Bro. Canon A. J. Anderson.

Upon being approached by me, Bro. Dr. R. P. Randlett of Cornwall, consented to be Chairman of the Blood Donors' Clinic. Our efforts have not been crowned with success but the groundwork has been laid for future study.

At the request of Excelsior Lodge, No. 142, Morrisburg, I had the pleasure and privilege of presenting a Fifty Year Past Master's Jewel to Wor. Bro. E. Matthew Beckstead.

I cannot fail to mention the important part taken in the Masonic life of Eastern District by the Past Masters' and Wardens' Association under the able guidance of Rt. Wor. Bro. Fred Eaton.

In conclusion, I would thank all those brethren who assisted me in making this year such a success, and may the Most High prosper our united endeavours.

R. A. STEWART, D.D.G.M.

FRONTENAC DISTRICT

It was a very great honour for me to be elected D.D.G.M. of Frontenac Masonic District. I would first like to thank the brethren of the District for the whole-hearted support and splendid co-operation they gave me.

I was very fortunate to have the following brethren serve as District Officers, W. Bro. Aubrey Norris as District Secretary, W. Bro. Archdeacon N. R. Stout, District Chaplain, R. W. Bro. Bruce Caughey, Supervisor of Masonic Education, Bro. Leonard Ede, Chairman, District Blood Donors' Committee. To each of these brethren I extend a very hearty thank you.

I shall always have many happy memories of the evenings spent on my official visits to each of the eighteen lodges in Frontenac District. The cordial and gracious reception extended by the lodges is evidence of the affection the Masons of Frontenac District have for the Grand Master as well as Grand Lodge. Freemasonry is in a very healthy state in Frontenac District, each lodge being in good financial standing.

I would like to extend my congratulations to the Wor. Masters and their officers for the splendid calibre of work carried out in the lodges as well as for a considerable amount of Masonic Education which I witnessed. Thanks to R.W. Bro. W. K. Bailey for the valuable information I received including the excellent bulletins sent out by him on Masonic Education.

I appreciated the useful knowledge I gained from M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, Custodian of the Work. I tried to have a message for the candidate, especially at his invitation, and I also stressed to each lodge the importance of helping all candidates to complete the work in all degrees.

I was pleased to accompany R.W. Bro. Lyndsy Brown on his official visit to Mount Zion Lodge, Kemptville, and enjoyed a very fine evening.

In my home lodge, Westport, No. 441, at its regular meeting on January 5th, I presented R.W. Bro. W. C. Taylor with a Sixty Year Pin to his Fifty Year Medal, after which a Third Degree was exemplified by a number of Past D.D.G.M's of Frontenac District.

I attended, on Sunday March 11th, Union Lodge, No. 9 of Napanee, it being the one hundred and fifty year anniversary of the lodge. Over two hundred Masons assembled to hear R.W. Bro. Rev. Canon, A. J. Anderson conduct the Service. At this Service I was pleased to present W. Bro. Charles Walters with a Sixty Year Pin to his Fifty Year Medal. On other occasions I also presented several Fifty Year Medals.

I attended a number of Divine Services, including the Frontenac District Divine Service on May 6th, in St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Kingston. W. Bro. N. R. Stout, District Chaplain, delivered the sermon, assisted by our Grand Chaplain and the Rev. Max Putnam.

In conclusion, I wish for my successor, the same loyal support that was extended to me. My sincere thanks to the Grand Secretary and his staff for the prompt and efficient attention to my correspondence and queries. I hope, from a very humble and thankful heart, that I have been of some small service to them during my term of office.

ROY SWEETMAN, D.D.G.M.

GEORGIAN DISTRICT

I am proud and happy to present my report on the condition of Masonry in Georgian District as I have been able to see it during this year.

First, may I express my sincere appreciation to the brethren of Georgian District for the honour conferred on Equity Lodge, No. 659, Orillia, as well as on myself, in choosing me as District Deputy Grand Master and to you, Most Worshipful Sir, for confirming their choice.

I am indebted to W. Bro. Gordon A. Smith, a Past Master of Equity Lodge, who acted as District Secretary. W. Bro. Smith accompanied me on all of my visits and his devotion to detail was of great assistance, not only to me, but, I am sure, to many of the Secretaries in the District.

W. Bro. D. J. Messenger very effectively fulfilled the duties of District Chairman of Masonic Education, as did Bro. D. J. Cossey as District Chairman of Blood Donors.

W. Bro. J. J. Robins of Caledonian Lodge, No. 249, was elected Treasurer at the District Meeting last July. His excellent guidance and advice during the year have proved the wisdom of this choice. At the same time we all must acknowledge the loyalty and devotion of R.W. Bro. Thos. Robinson of Manitoba Lodge, No. 236, Cookstown, who filled this position for many years.

Each of the twenty lodges was visited officially at least once, and I am pleased to report that Masonry in Georgian District is making steady progress. It was of particular interest to note that many of the Worshipful Masters and almost all of the Officers were younger men. I found these men to be keenly interested in their responsibilities with a genuine desire to maintain their Masonic work at a high level. In several of the lodges, important charges were given most credibly by junior officers.

The outstanding Masonic event was the dedication on April 9, of the Masonic Temple erected by the brethren of Northern Light Lodge, No. 266, Stayner. On that occasion we were honoured by your presence M.W. Sir, as well as that of the Grand Senior Warden, the Grand Junior Warden and many present and past Grand Lodge Officers. I was particularly happy to present to you the twenty Worshipful Masters representing the twenty lodges in the District.

On my Official Visit to Beaver Lodge, No. 234, I was privileged to present the Veteran's Jubilee Medal to W. Bro. George Mitchell, and on my visit to Spry Lodge, No. 385, Beeton, I presented a similar medal to Bro. T. E. Little. This last pleasant duty was performed on behalf of St. John's Lodge, No. 209A, London. On May 29, I was again to have this honour when, in my own lodge, Equity Lodge, No. 659. I presented the Veteran's Jubilee Medal to W. Bro. T. D. Brown, the first Treasurer of Equity Lodge and a life member of Karnak Lodge, No. 492, Coldwater. I was present, too, in Caledonian Lodge, No. 249, Midland, when V.W. Bro. Charles Flowers received his Veteran's Medal from the hand of R.W. Bro. J. J. Robins.

In addition to attending the many special meetings held throughout the District, W. Bro. Smith and Mrs. Smith, my daughter and I were guests when several of the lodges entertained their ladies.

This past year the Georgian District Masonic Officers' Association has been re-organized. Several very interesting and thought-provoking meetings have been held and inter-lodge visits were arranged. On May 31, a Lodge of Instruction was held in the new Masonic Temple, Stayner, with R.W. Bro. R. N. Walker presiding. Fifteen of the twenty lodges in the District were represented, many of them by their W. Masters and Wardens. We are deeply indebted to R.W. Bro. Walker and his officers for the time and interest taken in preparing a most helpful and inspiring meeting.

On October 15, 1961, I joined forty-four Masons from Orillia Lodge, No. 192, and Equity Lodge, No. 659, in a flying visit to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. We journeyed from Orillia to Malton by bus and boarded a plane for Pittsburgh, where we were met by a cavalcade of cars and taken on a tour of the city. We were visitors of Layfayette Lodge, No. 652, and witnessed two Third Degrees. Following the meeting we were entertained at dinner, boarded our plane and returned to Orillia that same day. A return visit has been arranged for the week-end of June 16-17, when the American visitors will attend lodge on Saturday afternoon and join the District Divine Service to be held in the Aqua Theatre, Couchiching Beach Park, Orillia, Sunday, June 17. R.W. Bro. R. G. Hazlewood, P.G.C., the special speaker, will be assisted by local clergymen who are members of the Craft.

In concluding my report may I once again express my appreciation of the hospitality I received in every lodge and the many kindnesses shown to me during my term of office, and may I pay tribute to those Past Grand Lodge Officers, Masters, Past Masters and brethren whose loyalty, as demonstrated by their presence on so many of my visits, has been a constant source of wonder and encouragement. I can only hope that, during this year, those visits have made some contribution to the sum total of good Masonic relations created and fostered by the many distinguished men who have been my predecessors in this office.

T. J. PURVIS, D.D.G.M.

GREY DISTRICT

I would like to acknowledge, with gratitude and humility, the privilege of representing the Grand Master in Grey District. To my own lodge, St. Alban's, No. 200, to the District and to you Most Worshipful Sir, I offer my sincere 'Thank You'. The honour that has been bestowed on my mother lodge in giving it, its third District Deputy Grand Master in 93 years, will long be remembered and ever appreciated.

My duties and responsibilities were made easier and very enjoyable by the exceptional co-operation and assistance of the District Secretary, Wor. Bro. Harold Corley, the District Chaplain, Bro. Rev. F. Allen Pickering, M.A., the District Chairman of Masonic Education, Wor. Bro. Gordon Coutts, and the District Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee, Wor. Bro. Wesley Barker. My thanks and appreciation are extended to these faithful brethren.

I have visited all lodges in Grey District at least once, some more often and am happy to report that in every lodge, I witnessed degree work which was done in a most capable and efficient manner. In many cases I noticed younger members taking part which seemed to create greater interest and enthusiasm in these lodges.

Many lodges are showing true Masonic spirit in their communities with their support of local Hospital Campaigns, Retarded Childrens' Schools, etc.

Most lodges have held Divine Services; however I am sorry to report that some have not and I feel this is a most regrettable oversight. Due to my Sunday commitments, I found that, in many cases, it was impossible for me to attend these Services.

Many of the lodges have held Ladies' Nights, and Mrs. Davies and I were privileged to attend many of these pleasant gatherings. We were made most welcome on all occasions and thoroughly enjoyed meeting the brethren and their wives.

The highlight of the year was the combined District Reception to the Grand Master and the Dedication of Hiram Lodge, No. 490, Markdale's new Temple on Monday, April 2. M. Wor. Bro. Russell W. Treleaven, Grand Master, gave an interesting and inspiring address at the reception, and later, accompanied by a very large group of Grand Lodge officers, dedicated the beautiful new Temple. I would be most remiss if I did not commend the brethren of Hiram Lodge on their new Temple. It will be a memorial to those who gave so unsparingly of their time, money and talent.

Prince Arthur Lodge, No. 334, Arthur, and Harris Lodge, No. 216, Orangeville, have plans well under way for new temples and I hope their efforts will culminate in such success as Hiram's have.

On November 28, representatives of all lodges in the District met in St. Alban's Temple, Mount Forest, and, under the guidance of Rt. Wor. Bro. Bruce Fife, proceeded to organize a District Past Masters', Masters', and Wardens' Association. It was interesting to note that 100% of the lodges balloted for and supported the Association. The benefits have become self-apparent since that time.

The Visitations Committee, under the leadership of Wor. Bro. Don Dobie, organized inter-lodge visits and from all reports this was a resounding success. On April 30, Lorne Lodge, No. 377, Shelburne, in conjunction with the new Association, sponsored a Lodge of Instruction. The Grand Junior Warden, Rt. Wor. Bro. William H. Prentice, together with Rt. Wor. Bro. Dr. E. Flath, P.D.D.G.M., officiated. The evening proved to be most beneficial to all and, on my remaining official visits, I was happy to note the use of suggestions which arose at the Lodge of Instruction.

Grey District has been honoured to have received many visits from neighbouring D.D.G.M's and members of Grand Lodge during the year, and, whenever possible, I have attempted to reciprocate.

On Sunday, May 27, the annual District Divine Service was held in St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Mount Forest. Well over 100 Masons, representing every lodge in the District, were in attendance. I am most grateful to Rev. Bro. F. Allen Pickering for his excellent sermon entitled, "Look Well to Your Foundations". He summed up so capably many of the thoughts I had attempted to leave with the brethren during the year.

In conclusion, I wish to speak for my successor the same loyal support and courtesies which were extended to me and, through me, to the Grand Master. It is my profound hope that my humble contribution during the past year may produce some good, and that Masonry might benefit and prosper.

ROBERT E. DAVIES, D.D.G.M.

HAMILTON DISTRICT "A"

To have had the honour of serving as District Deputy Grand Master of Hamilton Masonic District "A" has been one of the most heart-warming and rewarding experiences of my life, and I thank all the brethren for having made it so.

It was my pleasure to appoint, as my District Secretary, Wor. Bro. A. E. Cheesman, who has twice served the office of Worshipful Master of my lodge, Corinthian, No. 513, and who, throughout the year, has been a most capable and efficient officer and of great assistance to me.

Bro. The Reverend Earl Clark was chosen as District Chaplain and, with his advice, effort and support, made a real contribution to Masonry. He was the principal speaker at one of the District Educational nights speaking on "The Role of Masonry and the Church."

It was fitting that Rt. Wor. Bro. W. L. Sommerville, an outstanding member of my mother lodge, St. John's, No. 40, continued in office as Supervisor of Masonic Education and who, by reason of his zeal and experience, provided outstanding leadership in this field.

Three excellent District Educational meetings were held. The first was under the auspices of St. John's Lodge, No. 40, when Rt. Wor. Bro. Dr. J. J. Talman of London, was the speaker. The second was at Oakville in Claude M. Kent Lodge, No. 681, with our District Chaplain as the principal speaker; and the third was at Tuscan Lodge, No. 551, (following a dinner of the Masters' and Wardens' Association), when a large gathering listened to an inspiring address by our Deputy Grand Master, Rt. Wor. Bro. J. A. Irvine.

It is interesting to note that just prior to one of these meetings the heating plant in the building failed and the meeting was held in 42° temperature. It speaks well for the enthusiasm and fortitude of the brethren that not one of those attending left before the close of the meeting, and that both old and young pronounced the evening an unqualified success.

Wor. Bro. Fred Scott again acted as Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee in his usual efficient manner.

On all of my official visits to the 19 lodges of the District, I was warmly received and royally welcomed. On each occasion I observed the lodge at work conferring degrees. The uniformity and excellence of the work speak well of the skill of the officers of the lodges, and for the leadership of the District and Grand Lodge Officers of former years. I was particularly delighted to observe, in a large number of lodges, many of the junior officers and the other brethren of the lodge, assisting in the principal work of the ritual.

The books and records of each lodge were examined by the District Secretary who reported in every instance that they were well and neatly kept. The lodges in this District are fortunate in having such efficient and devoted men to fill the office of Secretary, some of whom have been in office a great many years.

The attendance at each lodge visitation was, in practically all instances, excellent. Indeed, in many cases the facilities were taxed to the limit. This I interpret as an indication of an increased interest in and enthusiasm for Masonry in this District, also showing the wonderful support accorded me by the Masons of the area.

I shall always be especially grateful to the members of my lodge, the Grand Lodge Officers, and the various Masonic Associations for their support and encouragement. We are particularly fortunate in Hamilton to have two very active Masonic Associations of long standing. The Past Masters' Association and the Masters' and Wardens' Association are untiring in their support of all things Masonic. Another Association that made its presence felt this year was the 1962 Masters' Association of Hamilton Masonic Districts "A" and "B". Following quickly upon their installation, these brethren formed their Association and made the complete support of the District Deputies their chief effort. Their faithful attendance at my official visits I greatly appreciate.

It was my great pleasure to be present at a number of functions attended by our Grand Master, namely the receptions tendered him at Grand River Lodge, No. 151, on the occasion of their 100th Anniversary, by his own lodge, Acacia, No. 61, and the reception for our Deputy Grand Master, Rt. Wor. Bro. J. A. Irvine, at London. I was, also present when the Grand Master presented Veteran Jubilee Medals to our Grand Secretary, Rt. Wor. Bro. E. G. Dixon in Electric Lodge, No. 495, and to Rt. Wor. Bro. W. A. Laidlaw in Ionic Lodge, No. 549.

The highlight of the year was, of course, to have participated in the work the night our Grand Master initiated his son into his mother lodge, Acacia, No. 61. This was a most thrilling occasion, which I am sure will never be forgotten by the large number of brethren present.

I attended six Masonic Church Services during the year, at some of which I had the privilege of reading a lesson. All of these Services were well attended.

I was delighted on two occasions to accompany lodges of this District on Fraternal visits to lodges in New York State, and each time met with that most friendly reception for which our American brethren are noted.

While Mrs. Jackson and I were not able to attend as many of the Ladies' Nights as we would have liked, we did get to quite a few, which we thoroughly enjoyed. On each of these occasions we were most warmly received. Mrs. Jackson also appreciated the lovely flowers sent her by the lodges on the nights of my official visits and on other occasions.

I cannot close this report without a word of thanks to our Grand Secretary, R. Wor. Bro. E. G. Dixon and his assistant Rt. Wor. Bro. Geo. McQueen. We, in Hamilton, are perhaps, prone to lean more heavily on the Grand Lodge office for help than are others at a distance, but to all of us, helpful advice and friendly counsel are always available from these brethren.

Again I would like to express my thanks to all those who have given so freely of their time and effort to make my term of office a most enjoyable and profitable experience for me.

J. H. JACKSON, D.D.G.M.

HAMILTON DISTRICT "B"

It has been a rewarding and educational experience to have served as D.D.G.M. of Hamilton Masonic District "B" during the Masonic year just passed. It will always be one of my greatest memories and I take this opportunity to express my thanks to the Officers and Members of The Lodge of Strict Observance, No. 27, for proposing me as representative of the Grand Master.

I was fortunate in having a loyal body of District Officers accompany me on my official visits. Wor. Bro. R. F. Billington was my District Secretary and he discharged his duties in a most efficient manner. He reports that the books and records of the Secretaries are in excellent condition. Rev. Bro. Dr. N. D. MacDonald was District Chaplain. V. Wor. Bro. A. E. Cook was Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee and Wor. Bro. B. W. Sharpe was Supervisor of Masonic Education.

I visited the twenty lodges in the District and I was received with great respect by all. At all visits a degree was conferred and I was delighted with the efficient manner which was displayed; all candidates must have been greatly impressed.

I attended three Receptions to the Grand Master, at Grand River Lodge, No. 151, Kitchener, at Acacia Lodge, No. 61, Hamilton, and at Kilwinning Lodge, No. 565, Toronto. The large attendance was indicative of the high esteem held by the Masons in Ontario for our Grand Master.

I took part at the regular meeting of Acacia Lodge, No. 61, on Friday, March 9th, 1962, when Most Worshipful Bro. R. W. Treleaven had the pleasure of initiating his son into Masonry. The large attendance at that meeting was a tribute to him.

Masonic Education is being given in many of the lodges at each meeting, and shows great promise for the future. Two Lodges of Instruction were held during the year, at Hillcrest Lodge, No. 594, and Buchanan Lodge, No. 550; both were well attended.

Divine Services were held by most of the lodges in the District and one combined District "B" Service was held in St. John's Presbyterian Church on Sunday, May 18th, when Bro. Rev. Lorne McKay took the Service, owing to the illness of the District Chaplain. It was my privilege to read the lesson at several of these Services.

Most of the lodges held their Annual At Homes and Mrs. Truscott and I had the pleasure of attending fifteen of them, which we enjoyed very much. We also had the pleasure of the company, at some of them, of R. Wor. Bro. J. H. Jackson, D.D.G.M. of Hamilton Masonic District "A".

I was impressed greatly with the number of visitors attending the different lodges in District "B", and I deeply appreciated the support of the newly formed 1962 Masters' Association of both "A" and "B" Districts who accompanied me in such large numbers on my official visits.

In closing I would like to thank the Grand Secretary, R. Wor. Bro. Ewart Dixon, the Masters' and Wardens' Association, The Past Masters' Association, and all the lodges for their support and co-operation.

ROBT. G. TRUSCOTT, D.D.G.M.

LONDON DISTRICT

My year as D.D.G.M. of London District was a very enjoyable and pleasant one. It was made such by the utmost in cooperation from each of the twenty-four lodges in the District and the help of my district officers, namely, Wor. Bro. Rolfe N. Weekes, District Secretary, Bro. The Rev.

Andrew E. Eustace, District Chaplain, Wor. Bro. Wesley Botham, Supervisor of Masonic Education, and Wor. Bro. W. J. M. Fuller, Chairman of the Masonic Blood Donors' Committee.

I officially visited each of the London District Lodges throughout the year and, in almost every instance, the work was performed in a dignified and precise manner, according to the ritual. Wherever possible a short talk on Masonic Symbolism was given. The Master of each lodge, or their representative, attended each official visit, a practice which originated some years ago in the London District, and which is much appreciated by the D.D.G.M.

A Lodge of Instruction in the First Degree was held on Monday evening, January 29, under the supervision of Wor. Bro. Botham. Two hundred and forty-five brethren from every London District Lodge registered and the Senior Wardens of the District were the officers for the evening. A Lodge of Instruction, in my opinion, tends to make the ritual uniform in a district and helps the junior officers strive for perfection. We appreciated the assistance given to us by M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, Custodian of the Work, in clarifying portions of the work that are not covered by the ritual.

Most of the London Lodges held Divine Services of their own, but, as has been the custom, a District Divine Service was held in Empress United Church, London, on Sunday evening, April 29th, with the District Chaplain in charge. Masons and their families showed to the outside world that religion is important to the Masonic Order by practically filling the church, which seats 650, to capacity.

Mrs. Fuller and I are deeply indebted to the lodges for their many invitations to the Ladies' Nights and special functions. Also, twenty-five year member nights, anniversary nights, a Sunday morning breakfast, reunion of lodges from across the Province bearing the same name, and other special occasions helped to keep Masonry alive and active in the London District this year.

It was my special delight to have the honour of instituting the new Oakridge Lodge, U.D. on Thursday, June 7, 1962. I was assisted by most of the Past D.D.G.M.'s of London District and three present members of Grand Lodge. This new lodge has but twenty-three charter members but, with the enthusiasm shown by these brethren, Oakridge Lodge has a bright and rosy future. The brethren of Oakridge will meet on the first Thursday of each month at the Byron Masonic Temple in London.

As D.D.G.M. of the London District it is also my duty to report that the downtown Masonic Temple in London has been sold to the London Life Insurance Company. This fifty year old building has served the Masons of London well but a new temple could provide much more in the way of space for additional lodges, better banquet and lounge facilities, etc.

One cannot spend this very important year in Masonry without forming some opinions and observations. These opinions and observations I will pass on in the form of recommendations to the Grand Master and Grand Lodge:

1. I recommend that three new lodges be formed in the London District as soon as possible.

2. I recommend that Grand Lodge set up a committee to look into the redistribution of the lodges in the several Masonic Districts with particular reference to the south western part of the Province.

The last redistribution took place in this area in 1923 and, needless to say, many things have changed since that time. Space does not permit a detailed report of the reasons for this recommendation but I would be pleased to submit a report on the subject at your request.

In conclusion, it has been an honour and pleasure to have been the representative of the Grand Master in the London District in the Masonic year, 1961-62.

ROSS C. FULLER, D.D.G.M.

MUSKOKA-PARRY SOUND DISTRICT

The honour of serving as the Representative of the Grand Master in Muskoka-Parry Sound District has been a great pleasure and a most interesting and rewarding experience. The esteem and regard for the Grand Master and Grand Lodge were shown by the friendly reception and support given by the brethren of the eight lodges in this District.

My first duty was to appoint Wor. Bro. E. J. Liddle as District Secretary. He accompanied me on all official visits, and performed the duties of Secretary in a most efficient and capable manner. Wor. Bro. C. Topps kindly accepted the office of District Chaplain. He also attended all official visits and spoke briefly at each meeting. I appointed Wor. Bro. H. Mather as District Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee. He accompanied me on most of the visits and asked for the co-operation of all Masons. Bro. R. Lyle, as Chairman of District Masonic Education Committee, attended most of the official visits, and at some meetings demonstrated what could be done in a two minute talk on Freemasonry.

At all official visits I mentioned the matter of fire protection, and urged that all possible precautions be taken to insure against loss of lodge buildings by fire. One lodge, this year, has installed fire extinguishers and is contemplating building a fire escape.

On the occasion of the official visit to Unity Lodge, Huntsville, the Rt. W. Bro. Prentice was present. He also visited Muskoka Lodge, Bracebridge. At both lodges Rt. Wor. Bro. Prentice gave a very interesting and inspiring Address. Visits like these by Grand Lodge Officers do much toward stimulating interest in Masonic work, and I sincerely hope this practice will be continued during the coming year.

Last November, I visited Strong Lodge, Sundridge, and had the honour and pleasure of presenting a Fifty-Year Medal to Rt. Wor. Bro. A. M. Church.

The District Church Service was held in Powassan, Sunday, June 3rd. The Masters from seven lodges in this District were present for this occasion. Each Master was accompanied by Officers and Members of their respective lodges. The attendance was 118. The splendid sermon preached by V. Wor. Bro. Schapter will long be remembered by the brethren present.

Degree teams, under the capable direction of Bro. E. V. Elliott and Wor. Bro. N. Goodwin, visited the various lodges. These visits were a great success and of great value, not only for information given regarding correct procedure in Ritual work, but in bringing brethren from other lodges together to meet in friendship and brotherly love.

The Secretary's reports from all lodges show that books and records are well kept, and insurance on buildings and furnishings are adequate. All lodges are in a sound financial position. Degrees were conferred on official visits at six lodges, and were exemplified at one lodge. The degree work was well performed in all lodges. In the majority of the lodges visited the officers were young men, who are greatly interested in Masonry, and who performed their various duties in a most earnest manner, which I am sure made a great impression on the candidates.

In conclusion, I thank all the officers and members of the various lodges of this District for giving me the honour of serving as D.D.G.M. The very friendly receptions given at each visit and the whole hearted co-operation given by all the lodges will be a very pleasant memory, one which I will always cherish.

FRANK Wm. TOSWELL, D.D.G.M.

NIAGARA DISTRICT "A"

I am grateful for having had the opportunity of representing the Most Worshipful the Grand Master in Niagara "A" District for the year just closed and I have endeavoured to discharge my stewardship in a manner that would justify the trust placed in me and uphold the high standards of conduct set by my predecessors in office.

The respect and esteem with which Grand Lodge and its representatives are held has been shown by the warmth of the welcome extended to me throughout the entire district.

My appointments on assuming office were as follows:—

- Wor. Bro. George P. Wills of Adanac Lodge, No. 614, as District Secretary.
- Bro. Rev. Thomas H. Smith of Adanac Lodge, No. 614, as District Chaplain.
- Wor. Bro. David M. Muir of Coronation Lodge, No. 502, Smithville, as District Supervisor of Masonic Education.
- Wor. Bro. Walter Smith of Adanac Lodge, No. 614, as District Blood Donor Chairman.

The skill and ability demonstrated by these brethren in carrying out the duties of their respective offices, deserve the highest commendation and I owe to them a debt of gratitude which I find difficult to repay.

Each of the lodges in the district was visited once officially and once unofficially, and, in my opinion, any apparent deviation in the presentation of the work was the result of nervousness on the part of the participants rather than improper tuition.

The drain on our membership through the back door by suspension for non payment of dues has been brought to the attention of all lodges, and the most successful method of back dues collection to date seems to be the combination of an alert and conscientious Lodge Secretary, coupled with a follow-up committee who use the personal door bell ringing touch and do not rely on the mail or the telephone.

With St. George's Lodge, No. 15, as host lodge a meeting of the Masonic Research Council of Canada was convened in Niagara "A" for the presentation of two papers relative to early Masonry in the Niagara Peninsula. They were the work of V.W. Bro. J. L. Runnalls and W. Bro. J. McComb. Both papers were well received and the meeting drew a record number of interested brethren.

Masonic choirs add an extra something to the work in the various degrees which is most enjoyable. Niagara "A" is fortunate in having two such choirs, and they not only lend dignity and harmony to the degree work in their respective lodges, but have received high commendation throughout the district for their ability to adequately occupy the choir lofts of any or all of the District Churches on the occasion of the Divine Services. Their leaders are to be commended. Individual Lodge Divine Services were held by the various lodges, while the District Divine Service was under the sponsorship of Maple Leaf Lodge, No. 103, St. Catharines.

I am pleased to report that Masonry continues on the same high plane that has characterized Niagara District "A" in the past. The Worshipful Masters and their officers are carrying out their duties conscientiously and with decorum and all are ably supervised and assisted by Past Grand Lodge Officers, who suffer little or no infringement of our customs or deviation from established usage.

A. V. HAMMOND, D.D.G.M.

NIAGARA DISTRICT "B"

During my term of office as D.D.G.M. I made an official visit to each of the fourteen lodges in Niagara District "B". I also visited some lodges on other occasions. At Dominion Lodge in Ridgeway I presented a Fifty Year Medal to Wor. Bro. A. Bennett.

I attended six Church Parades in addition to the District Church Service which was very well attended by representatives of all lodges in the District and which was held in the Fenwick United Church, May 27th.

There is a slight increase in membership in Niagara District "B". Attendance at lodge meetings is, in a great many cases, causing concern. Larger lodges and particularly lodges in larger centres appear to be suffering mostly.

I have been concerned with a situation where three lodges in a concurrent jurisdiction all hold their regular meeting on the same night of the week in the month and I feel something should be done to remedy this situation.

Degree work is uniform and impressive throughout the District.

S. J. GILL, D.D.G.M.

NIPISSING EAST DISTRICT

I am happy to report that Masonry in Nippissing East District is, in general, in a flourishing condition. The lodges in the larger centres are extremely busy and are receiving many new members, who appear to be of high calibre. Even in the smaller communities, several of the lodges report an increasing interest in the Craft and are making satisfactory progress. In one or two of the smaller towns, where business activity is at a low level and the population is static, the lodges are not receiving many petitions for membership and, consequently, do not have the opportunity of performing degree work very regularly; but even in these cases, I found the officers to be extremely sincere in the performance of their duties and the spirit of the members to be excellent. The quality of the work which they performed at the time of my official visits was entirely satisfactory.

An illness, which sent me to hospital on several occasions between August and December, made it necessary for me to delay all my official visits until the latter part of my term and also had the unfortunate effect of delaying the Chairmen of the District Committees in organizing their work. The good work of my predecessors has, however, established in the various lodges a continuing interest in the subjects with which the District Committees are concerned, and I feel that Masonic Education, in particular, has been effectively promoted.

A District Meeting, for the discussion of matters of general interest to the lodges, will be held in Temagami later this month.

I visited all lodges in the District at least once. In most cases the work was handled very expertly indeed, being accurate verbally and smartly and confidently presented. In every case, I felt that the performance of the work was quite satisfactory. The courtesy and friendliness of the Masters and officers and brethren of the various lodges indicated clearly their regard for the Grand Master and Grand Lodge, and was most gratifying to me.

A trend which I observed, and which I felt could be of real benefit to Masonry, is the tendency of lodges to send considerable delegations to visit their sister lodges, particularly on the occasion of the official visit of the District Deputy Grand Master. Quite a few members of Elk Lake Lodge visited Sturgeon Falls Lodge, at a distance of 150 miles. when I was there; and the visit was returned by an equally large group. I understand this is becoming an annual event. Masonry can only benefit by such demonstrations of solidarity and friendship.

On every one of my visits, I was accompanied by several members of my own lodge, and I cannot sufficiently thank them for their interest and support. In particular, I must mention the work of my District Secretary, Very Worshipful Brother James Graham, whose cheerful help was absolutely indispensable to me.

May I conclude by expressing my thanks to the Most Worshipful the Grand Master for the opportunity of serving him.

M. G. GOULD, D.D.G.M.

NIPISSING WEST DISTRICT

Another Masonic year is drawing rapidly to a close and, in looking back over my term of office as District Deputy Grand Master for Nipissing West District, I do so with mixed emotions. I feel that much has been accomplished but that a great deal more might have been done for the benefit of Masonry as a whole and for the individual lodges, if only time had permitted. I am much impressed with the fact that this is mainly the result of the number of lodges in this vast area, also the extent of time necessary to travel the long distances required to visit the majority of the lodges. I feel that serious consideration should be given to forming this large District into two districts, in the immediate future. This, I believe, would result in much closer contact between the lodges and the District Deputy Grand Master.

The seventeen lodges in the District were officially visited and on each visit, degrees were conferred, with the exception of Keystone Lodge, whose officers chose to overlook my request for a degree to be exemplified. The work in the majority of the lodges was found to be of a high standard and in the event that any assistance was necessary, it was cheerfully given and gratefully received. The officers are, in the main, young, vigorous men, very active; all are a credit to the Craft, which speaks well for Masonry in this District. My visits were greeted with well filled lodge rooms and it was noted that an increasing number of the brethren were taking part in the work. It is also noted with pleasure that there appears to be an increase in the trend of exchange of degree team visitations. Two of the lodges held their dinners before the lodge meeting and it was noticed that this resulted in a much larger attendance than in the other cases and more lodges might, in my opinion, give more consideration to this procedure in future.

All lodges in the District were found to be in sound, financial condition, the lodge premises clean and well kept, and sufficient insurance carried. Masonic Education was strongly stressed and all prepared articles on Masonic Education were promptly submitted to all lodges through Wor. Bro. A. A. Watson, District Supervisor of Masonic Education. It is pleasing to note that, with the exception of four lodges, considerable time was devoted to this important subject.

The Blood Donors' Committee, under the guidance of Wor. Bro. W. Noble, resulted in fifteen lodges participating with 280 members donating. Unfortunately, no report was received from either Elliot Lake or Keystone Lodge.

Of the seventeen in this District, only three held a Ladies' Night and it is my strong recommendation that more lodges give serious thought to this very important function. I also feel that some of the Lodge Secretaries could give more attention to the prompt disposal of correspondence. The lodge books and records, on a whole, were neat and well kept. Church Services were held by eight lodges.

It is with profound sorrow that we record the passing to the Grand Lodge Above of Wor. Bro. Leslie E. Aide, Algonquin Lodge, Copper Cliff: Wor. Bro. George L. Donaldson, Gore Bay Lodge, Gore Bay: Wor. Bro. Walter Varpio, Sudbury Lodge, Sudbury: Wor. Bro. Samuel Cole, Dymont Lodge, Thessalon: Wor. Bro. E. G. Edwards and Very Wor. Bro. John R. Watt, Algoma Lodge, Sault Ste. Marie: Wor. Bro. D. Emerson, National Lodge, Capreol: Wor. Bro. Lorne Fowler and Wor. Bro. Henry Claridge, Nickel Lodge, Sudbury; and Wor. Bro. Thomas Dorrance and Wor. Bro. Albert Lomas, Keystone Lodge, Sault Ste. Marie. We cherish their memory in our hearts.

H. A. DEATH, D.D.G.M.

NORTH HURON DISTRICT

Just to have had the privilege of coming in contact with the warmth of fraternal friendship has been a rewarding experience. An official visit was made to the twelve lodges in the District, and I am happy to report that the condition of Masonry is excellent. The ritualistic work is of high order, all officers and Past Masters showing a real pride in their efforts. The Lodge Secretaries were most co-operative. There is a general increase in membership throughout the District, and the attendance at lodge meetings is good. There were many visitors present on the evenings of my official visits which afforded the opportunity of addressing the brethren on the excellence of our institution and the qualifications of its members.

I was ably assisted throughout the year by Wor. Bro. Stuart McPherson, whom I appointed as District Secretary. He has been most attentive to his duties, and his friendly suggestions were helpful, not only to myself, but to the lodge secretaries.

It was a very pleasant privilege for Mrs. MacKinnon and myself to be honoured guests at several Ladies' Nights throughout the District. All were enjoyable and reflected a very friendly and social spirit.

Our Blood Donors' Service, under the chairmanship of Rt. Wor. Bro. Harvey Linklater, deserve much credit for the work they are doing.

Most Lodges held a Divine Service during the year. A District Divine Service was held under the auspices of Bruce Lodge, No. 341, in Tiverton Presbyterian Church with Bro. the Rev. Dr. S. M. Scott, the District Chaplain, delivering a most impressive message.

It has been my pleasure to visit with neighbouring District Deputy Grand Masters, and to have them join me in visits in lodges in this District. Wherever we went we could not fail to be impressed by the spirit of Freemasonry.

The outstanding event of the year was the visit of Most Wor. Bro. R. W. Treleven to North Huron District, which was held in Tiverton on May 9. He delivered a most inspiring address at the banquet table to a large gathering of the brethren who had assembled to do him honour. We were also honoured by the presence of Rt. Wor. Bro. E. G. Dixon, Grand Secretary. This occasion helped to make my year memorable.

To the brethren of my Mother Lodge who accompanied me on so many of my visits, helping to make my term of office more enjoyable, I am deeply indebted.

To my successor I pledge my loyal support, and I ask for him the same generous co-operation of the District.

I wish to thank the Grand Lodge Officers for their assistance and guidance which enabled me in my efforts to make my duties pleasant and memorable.

To serve as District Deputy Grand Master of North Huron District has been a great pleasure for me, and I hope I have in some small way left something in the District that will be a benefit to the Craft.

JOHN L. MacKINNON, D.D.G.M.

ONTARIO DISTRICT

It is my honour to submit for your consideration the report on the condition of Masonry in Ontario District for the past year.

First, permit me to express my very sincere appreciation and gratitude to my brethren of Composite Lodge, No. 30, for selecting me as their nominee for this high and important office; also to the brethren of the District who supported their choice by electing me to serve them this year. I sincerely hope that, in the discharge of the duties of this office, my efforts will have met with your approval and will have merited the confidence you displayed in electing me to be your representative. To you, Most Worshipful Sir, I would like to express my great appreciation for confirming my election. To Rt. Wor. Bro. E. G. Dixon, Grand Secretary, and Rt. Wor. Bro. G. J. McQueen, Assistant to the Grand Secretary, my heartfelt thanks for their excellent counsel and direction; they have been most co-operative and their assistance has been invaluable.

Wor. Bro. R. W. Agg, P.M. of Composite Lodge, No. 30, and Wor. Master of The David T. Campbell Lodge, U.D. pleased me greatly by accepting appointment as District Secretary. His enthusiasm for our great Craft and his unflinching attention to the many and varied requirements of a District Secretary provided me with a staunch supporter, friend and companion. He served our District well. Bro. The Rev. S. J. Armstrong of Composite Lodge, No. 30, graciously accepted the appointment as District Chaplain. He proved a wise and popular choice. Though young in Masonry he enriched our efforts by apt and skillful correlation of the thoughts and ideals of Masonry to those we are taught by the Volume of the Sacred Law; another example of able and unselfish service.

A District Divine Service was held in All Saints Anglican Church, Whitby, on May 27th, with Rev. S. J. Armstrong, Rector, and Bro. The Rev. Canon F. Arthur Smith, B.A., D.D., as guest preacher. His very timely and inspiring message was much enjoyed by all brethren present. Following the Service, to which all brethren were encouraged to bring their families, a simple buffet-style coffee hour was provided which enabled us to relax and visit leisurely with the brethren and their families.

The custom of Cedar Lodge, No. 270, and Orono Lodge, No. 325, of having the current Grand Senior Warden and Grand Junior Warden visit their respective lodges and conduct the work was continued. Rt. Wor. Bro. G. C. Bennett, Gr. Sr. Warden, visiting Cedar Lodge on October 24th and Rt. Wor. Bro. W. M. Prentice, Gr. Jr. Warden, visiting Orono Lodge on November 9th. We were also pleased to have Rt. Wor. Bro. G. J. McQueen, Assistant to the Grand Secretary, conduct a ceremony of dedication of new regalia at Lebanon Lodge, No. 139, on September 12th.

We were greatly saddened as, during the course of the year, a number of our brethren passed to the Grand Lodge Above, in particular, V. Wor. Bro. Gordon Houlden of Lebanon Lodge, Oshawa, and V. Wor. Bro. Wm. Pringle of Composite Lodge, Whitby. They were faithful, zealous and sincere Masons and served the Craft devotedly. V.W. Bro. Pringle achieved a record, we believe to be outstanding, by discharging the duties of Treasurer of Composite Lodge for a period of 49 consecutive years. We cherish their memory.

On a happier note, I was particularly pleased to be able to present a 60-Year Pin to Bro. Wm. Barnes of Composite Lodge on September 25th, and at a later date to present to Wor. Bro. F. J. Gale, the oldest living P.M. of Composite Lodge, a 50-Year Medal.

Among the most memorable occasions of my year in office was the great privilege accorded me in being able to act in instituting a new lodge in the town of Whitby, The David T. Campbell Lodge. The recorded history of Masonry in this community dates from a petition for dispensation to the Provincial Grand Lodge, dated February 2nd, 1808. Now, 154 years later, we have laid the foundations of another lodge. The name of The David T. Campbell Lodge was taken from the name of a former resident of Whitby. David T. Campbell left this community as a young man, moving to the city of Chicago, where he proved successful in his business ventures. When he died in 1955 he left a considerable estate, 30 per cent of which he bequeathed to Composite Lodge, No. 30, as a trust fund to be used to provide further education for boys who would otherwise be unable to continue their schooling. As the capital is invested, the interest only is used. It is readily seen that this must constitute a perpetual fund. Such was this man's faith in our Craft that, in his final years, he chose Composite Lodge to faithfully discharge his wishes. Since the receipt of this bequest, 20 deserving boys have already been enabled to continue their educations. The good will and respect which Masonry will derive from the proper implementation of this generous bequest cannot be estimated. This quite briefly, is the story behind the name, The David T. Campbell Lodge.

All lodges within our District were officially visited at least once and detailed examination of their records was made on that occasion. I am happy to advise that all lodges report active committees on Masonic Education and Blood Donor Service; also those portions of Grand Lodge Proceedings are regularly read for the instruction of the brethren.

On the condition of Masonry, I am pleased to report that in the majority of cases the standard of work is of high quality; degrees are exemplified with skill, enthusiasm and dignity. It is evident that the work conducted in our lodges is very dependent on the sincerity, skill and example set by the Masters and their officers. It should probably be emphasized that most lodges regard the progression from junior offices on through to the chair of King Solomon as more or less automatic. Thus the consideration of a brother for any office in the lodge should receive as much careful attention, if not more, than the selection and election of the Worshipful Master, himself.

Our District shows, as at the occasion of the official visits, a decrease of some 20 members. However, this is, I feel, a healthy condition, rather than the reverse, as it is brought about by a number of our lodges putting their houses in order by catching up something of a backlog of necessary suspensions and demits. Arrears of dues would not seem to constitute any problem. In only one case, and this a temporary one, was it necessary to draw attention to this matter. Insurance of lodge premises and contents would appear to be adequate in all cases. Wiring and lodge premises also are in good to exemplary condition.

Mrs. Rycroft and I, usually accompanied by Wor. Bro. Agg and Mrs. Agg, were fortunate in being able to accept many of the invitations to the Ladies' Nights of the District. This year will stand out in our lives because of the hospitality we received and the friends we made on these enjoyable occasions. We regret that there were some events that we were unable to attend.

In all my addresses I endeavoured to bring attention to the practical application of Masonic ideals and teachings in our daily lives. I tried, as well, to illustrate the fact that, however great the traditions of this great Craft, however much we valued the examples and integrity of our predecessors, Masonry today is ours. It is how we live it to-day that is important.

Finally, let me say that to have served this District as D.D.G.M. has proven to be one of the most rewarding privileges of my life. I am at a loss to express fully my sincere appreciation of the wonderful support extended to me by the Masters, officers and brethren. Their encouragement to me personally and their sincere affection for Freemasonry have lightened my responsibilities and have made it a genuine pleasure to serve them. I should like to express my deep appreciation to the P.D.D.G.M.'s, P.M.'s, and Wor. Masters for their many helpful suggestions throughout the year. My special thanks go to Rt. Wor. Bro. D. E. Gibson, Rt. Wor. Bro. W. G. Bunker and Rt. Wor. Bro. James Jackson who in numerous ways have contributed to make this a successful year.

CHARLES B. RYCROFT, D.D.G.M.

OTTAWA DISTRICT

It has been a privilege and an honour to serve the Ottawa District during the past year.

Shortly after my election, the following appointments were made: Wor. Bro. C. C. Dale, District Secretary; Bro. (Rev.) W. H. LeGrow, Richmond, and Bro. (Rev.) E. L. Lake, Eganville, District Chaplains; Wor. Bro. D. B. Higginson, Supervisor of Masonic Education, assisted by Wor. Bro. Robt. Taylor, Wor. Bro. George Shepherd and Wor. Bro. V. Poland; Wor. Bro. Wm. J. Roe, Chairman, District

Blood Donors' Committee, assisted by Wor. Bro. W. M. Stanley.

Early in September, 1961, I called a meeting of all the Masters and District Officers to explain rulings received at Grand Lodge and to communicate the valuable information imparted by the Custodian of the Work, M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, at his meeting with certain District Deputies, held in Brockville in August. A frank discussion relative to various problems took place and plans were laid for the months ahead.

I visited all the lodges in the District officially and several of them unofficially on special occasions. The work in general was very good. On no occasion, when I visited a lodge, did I see degree work which would be considered of poor quality. The attendance on District Deputy nights was good, although, in some cases, the visitors outnumbered the members of the lodge being visited. As usual, many of the "old faithfuls" who have served Masonry so well in the past, were present to lend their continued support.

The books and records of each lodge were inspected and found to be in order. Where necessary, advice was offered regarding outstanding dues. Most Lodge Secretaries are to be commended for the manner in which they perform their duties.

Several lodges held Divine Services which were fairly well attended, although there is room for improvement in the attendance. Three District Divine Services have been held to date. On Saturday, February 24th, one of the stormiest days of the winter, 400 brethren and 100 of their ladies were warmly welcomed at Beth Shalom Synagogue, Ottawa, where Rabbi S. L. Eckstein delivered a fine sermon. This was the first time that Masons of the Ottawa District had attended a Divine Service in a Synagogue and it was a spiritual blessing to all. Coincidentally, the Synagogue Service was held during Brotherhood Week. In April, we attended St. Timothy's Presbyterian Church, Ottawa, where Bro. (Rev.) W. H. LeGrow, District Chaplain, preached an inspiring sermon based on the building of the Temple. In May, we were privileged to hear another excellent sermon at St. John's Anglican Church, Eganville, by our Bro. (Rev.) E. L. Lake, District Chaplain.

At present, plans are well advanced for an open-air service "under the pines" at the Y.M.C.A. camp, Golden Lake, to be held on Sunday afternoon, June 24th, which will be conducted by Bro. (Rev.) Lake, with Bro. Hilliard Argue of Cobden Lodge in charge of the choir and sacred music. This will be a "family service", followed by a picnic supper.

Wor. Bro. Higginson and his committee have devoted much time and effort to providing excellent leadership in the field of Masonic Education. From observation, it was felt that there was need for a school of instruction for Deacons and that was held in Westboro Temple in December, 1961. Lodges of Instruction were held in Cobden, covering the First Degree, and in Westboro Temple at which the Second and Third Degrees were covered. Brethren were given an opportunity to have questions answered at all these meetings. The thanks of the District is due to Cobden and Westboro Temple authorities for the use of their halls. Wor. Bro. Taylor of Ionic Lodge was especially helpful to Wor. Bro. Higginson in planning and arranging for the meetings.

Wor. Bro. Roe did all that anyone could do to arouse interest and increase support for our Blood Donor program; nevertheless results at the two clinics which were held, one at the Temple in Ottawa and the other at the Red Cross Clinic, were disappointing. The great majority of our donors are giving blood at clinics held in connection with their work. In fact, most of those who did contribute at our clinics would likely have given through industrial or office groups. I share the belief of many others, that the results do not justify the effort and that we should not be participating as a Masonic group.

It is doubtful if the Past Masters', Masters' and Wardens' Association ever had a more successful year than the one just completed. Wor. Bro. Cedric Dale gave fine leadership to an active, hard-working committee and the results were excellent. The Newsletter published by the Association and edited by Wor. Bro. Robt. Rowsome, has been interesting and instructive.

On Christmas Day, 1961, the Most High summoned the Worshipful Master of St. John's Lodge, No. 63, Carleton Place. Wor. Bro. G. C. Crampton, to the Grand Lodge Above. The call came unexpectedly and without warning to a brother who had contributed much to Masonry. The large number of brethren and friends who attended both the Masonic Service and the Church Service attested to the high esteem in which our beloved brother was held.

During the year, it was my pleasure to attend many outstanding functions, a few of which are as follows: the unveiling of the memorial to the late Very Wor. Bro. G. C. Longley (St. James Lodge No. 74), which took place at Maitland, Ontario; Dedications of Temples at both Iroquois and Winchester; the reception held by Eddy Lodge, No. 41, Hull, P.Q., in honour of the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Quebec, M. Wor. Bro. B. V. Atkinson. Unfortunately, I was unable to accept all the invitations which I received.

I am deeply grateful to the Grand Secretary, Rt. Wor. Bro. E. G. Dixon, and his staff, and to the Custodian of the Work, M.W. Bro. Harry L. Martyn, for their cooperation and advice which I sought on many occasions and cheerfully received.

My wife and I attended several of the Ladies' Nights and enjoyed the hospitality and good fellowship which prevailed at all these events.

It is my belief that the Ottawa District is too large. I feel that, with fewer lodges, a District Deputy could devote more time to individual lodges which might appear to need more attention than others; also, that more good men would be willing to stand for election as District Deputies. In my opinion, splitting this District would strengthen Masonry rather than weaken it, as some contend.

Is it possible that the greatest hope for the continued or even greater success of Masonry may lie in a long-range, carefully-planned educational program, designed for and directed at two general classes of Masons, namely, (1) newly-initiated Masons and (2) those who have been initiated within the past 5 years? It would be useful, of course, to any Mason who is interested in learning more about our philosophy.

Finally, thanks to all members of District Committees, to the Masters and Secretaries of the lodges, to all loyal and devoted Masons who have supported and encouraged me, and to everyone who has contributed in any way to make this a happy and successful year.

May the Great Architect of the Universe continue to pour His rich blessing on our Order.

PETERBOROUGH DISTRICT

To have been District Deputy Grand Master of Peterborough District for the past year, has been a great experience. My term of office has been made pleasant by the co-operation and understanding of the brethren. The wonderful reception accorded me on my official visits to the twelve lodges in the district was very gratifying and, on each visit, the Grand Master and the Grand Lodge were duly honored.

My first duty was to appoint Wor. Bro. Alexander Anderson as District Secretary, Bro. Rev. W. D. Elmslie as District Chaplain, and Wor. Bro. Evan McIlraith as Supervisor of Masonic Education.

I visited each of the twelve lodges at least once, and I was received with warm hospitality. In each lodge, a degree was exemplified. The lodges are fortunate in having a group of capable officers who are upholding the traditions of Masonry. Two of the lodges are finding it difficult to get candidates. My Secretary accompanied me on all my official visits and reported that the books and records of all the lodges were inspected and found to be well kept and in good order.

Our Divine Service was held in Grace United Church, on Sunday, April 15 at 7:00 p.m., with our District Chaplain, Bro. Rev. W. D. Elmslie officiating, at which time he gave a very inspiring address. Bro. A. Walden read the Scriptures.

Under the guidance of Wor. Bro. E. McIlraith, Masonic Education is going forward. Each lodge has an Education Committee and full use is made of the prepared articles sent out by Grand Lodge. On April 6th, a team, made up of members of the Committee of each lodge, gave a demonstration of the First Degree, which was well received by a large attendance of members.

I made a fraternal visit to Golden Rule Lodge, Campbellford, when the Wor. Masters of the District Lodges formed a team and conferred the First Degree. The work was well done and shows that our young officers are taking a very active interest in the Craft.

On May 9th, we had a very enjoyable evening at Clementi Lodge, Lakefield, when a reception was held for R. Wor. Bro. W. M. Prentice, Grand Junior Warden. All the District Junior Wardens were special guests. R. Wor. Bro., Prentice gave a very interesting address.

My wife and I were honoured guests at the annual Ladies' Night held by the Peterborough Lodges and we enjoyed the hospitality extended at that time to us.

I am sorry we have been unable to form a Blood Donors' Committee. Our brethren are very much interested in the Red Cross and have given large donations. Some brethren have given 20-30 and 40 donations. Six have given 50 and Bro. John Smith has given 70, which is a wonderful record.

I regret to report the passing of R. Wor. Bro. D. D. Brown, a Past District Deputy Grand Master of Peterborough District.

As my term of office draws to a close, I wish to extend my sincere thanks for the honour conferred on me and trust I have proved worthy.

WILLIAM ANDERSON, D.D.G.M.

PRINCE EDWARD DISTRICT

Conscious of the honour bestowed upon me when elected the Grand Master's representative, and of the responsibility to the Craft this office entails, I submit this report on the condition of Masonry in Prince Edward District.

This position has given me an opportunity to study and reflect upon Freemasonry and the activities of Masons, that I had never hoped to have. I can say, honestly, there seemed to be a profound respect for the basic principles and the established landmarks of the Order. Each of the seventeen lodges made a sincere and most successful attempt to make the occasion of my official visit one long to be remembered by me. In all but two instances, the banquet was held before lodge convened, ensuring a reasonable closing time.

W. Bro. Everett S. Fairman was our faithful and efficient District Secretary. He was able to be with me on all but one of my visits. In the matter of a District Chaplain, I broke with local tradition by appointing a Past Master of a lodge outside our District. This was so that we might have the benefit and experience of a member of the clergy. W. Bro. Archdeacon J. B. Creeggan, Rector of Christ Church (Anglican), Belleville, was my choice. He gave me faithful support at all but four of my visits, and took charge of our District Divine Service in his Church, at 3.00 p.m. of May 13th. R.W. Bro. Canon A. J. Anderson, Grand Chaplain, was the speaker, and some 300 Masons attended.

We were fortunate in having as our District Supervisor of Masonic Education, W. Bro. William G. Slack. He was assisted in a very active programme, by eight members drawn from as many lodges. They were R.W. Bros. E. C. Wood, W. J. Anderson, H. D. Haggarty, R. M. Gunsolus, and W. Bros. B. E. Portt, J. Ritchie, C. Reid, A. Hewitt. This Committee was very faithful in answering the calls to present topics of Masonic interest when invited by the various lodges of the District. Long lectures were discouraged in favour of brief discussions of a variety of items suggested by the Syllabus of Instruction the use of which we were endeavouring to foster. The use of the Syllabus was also demonstrated when each of the smaller lodges was host to at least one of the larger lodges. I was particularly pleased with the way in which all of the lodges accepted direction on this subject, and co-operated, in full measure, in what I believe, proved to be a very successful attempt to help our members appreciate the broad field open to investigation. Also, I believe that the programme was favourably received at a time when the number of petitions for membership, generally, is decreasing.

R.W. Bro. R. C. Woodley, as District Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee, also gave faithful service.

On October 28th, Temple Lodge, No. 666, Belleville, celebrated its 10th Anniversary. R.W. Bro. J. A. Irvine, D.G.M. was the Guest Speaker at the banquet. The hall was filled to capacity by many Grand Lodge Officers, non-resident members of the lodge and representatives from every lodge in the District. It was a pleasure, not only to do honour to Temple Lodge, but also to be able to use the occasion to receive our highly respected representative of our Grand Master in this District.

I visited outside my District on two occasions. One of these was to attend a Reception to our Grand Master in Victoria District.

I was called upon to attend seven Installations, to present Veteran Jubilee Medals, new regalia, and to deal with matters pertaining to Masonic Education, all of which required special visitations throughout the District.

Mrs. Bates and I attended and greatly appreciated each of the ten Ladies' Nights to which we were invited. These included a very successful one held by the Past Masters', Masters', and Wardens' Association where about 200 persons were served in the Banquet Hall of United Lodge, No. 29, Brighton.

Possibly what has given most satisfaction has been the outstanding support of my Mother Lodge, The Belleville, No. 123, by attending my official visits in large numbers, and by putting into action some of my suggestions for increasing interest in the Craft within the District. They exercised their influence in the field of Masonic Education, and by sponsoring a potluck supper which the wives attended and greatly appreciated. Then, too, in keeping with my suggestion that the wives should be sharing in our activities whenever possible, my wife was a guest during the banquet hour when I returned to my Mother Lodge to complete my official rounds. This was so well planned and executed, that I shall never forget the occasion. Rarely, have we been unable to accommodate in the Temple all who wished to attend. It was a thrilling experience for us and thoroughly demonstrated Masonic loyalty.

In striking contrast to the pleasure of being D.D.G.M. was sad news received about March 22nd, that R.W. Bro. H. D. Haggarty and Mrs. Haggarty had been seriously injured in an automobile accident, near Jessup, Georgia, while returning from a trip to Florida. They were confined to hospital in Savannah, Ga., and, as I write this report, June 1st, they have been returned to the District to continue convalescence, from which, we pray, they may be restored to good health.

In summary, I must say that our Masonic District is one of contrasts—in lodge quarters, there are the old and the very new; some lodges receive many petitions for membership, others few; some officers are encouraged by good attendance of members while others are not so much so; some are aggressive and highly organized, while others are much less so; then while most lodges are fortunate enough to have Secretaries who are meticulous in their duties and prompt in regard to reports, a few lodges are not nearly so exacting; while some lodges cannot find area enough on their summonses, others seem to have difficulty filling the space available. But in spite of weaknesses that may exist in organization, I am sure that as Masons, no better have been made than those to be found in Prince Edward District.

H. G. BATES, D.D.G.M.

SARNIA DISTRICT

Masonry being a progressive, moral science, therefore as another Masonic year draws swiftly to a close, we should pause to review the current year, and evaluate our stewardship in this great fraternity and record any progress that has been made because of a daily advancement in Masonic knowledge. Therefore it is a pleasure to report the activities of Masonry in Sarnia District.

I appointed W. Bro. Gerrard S. Cowan, as District Secretary; he carried out his duties very efficiently and capably, and was a great source of help to me throughout the year, accompanying me on all but two of my official inspections.

The first notable evening of the year was held in Thedford, in September, when the three lodges of Forest, Arkona and Thedford, played host to the Worshipful Masters and Senior Wardens of the District at a dinner, giving me the privilege of getting acquainted with them and outlining the year's program.

On each of my official inspections of the 21 lodges a degree was conferred or exemplified, with the exception of two. At one of these, the degree was cancelled, due to the extreme heat of mid-May. This was my home lodge, Watford, where I had witnessed degree work on several previous occasions.

The Wor. Masters and officers of all the lodges were most co-operative and showed an earnest desire to uphold the traditions of Masonry. But in spite of this, the degree work varied from fair to excellent.

Rt. Wor. Bro. D. H. Townsend very ably acted as District Supervisor of Masonic Education by giving talks and supplying speakers for several lodges throughout the District, as well as an after-dinner speaker for several Ladies' Nights.

Most of the lodges have held Divine Services to uphold the close connection of the Craft and the Church. Most of these I have attended, and I noted that in most cases they were well attended by the brethren.

Rev. Bro. William H. Daunt enthusiastically acted as my District Chaplain, being formerly a member of Concord, No. 71, Cork, Ireland. He came to Canada less than two years ago and has since affiliated with Havelock Lodge, 238, Watford. Bro. Daunt also accompanied me on a good many of my visits, always ready to add a short but inspiring message to the brethren. On May 27th the District Divine Service was held in the Watford United Church with the Minister, Rev. Ross Cumming, conducting the Service and the District Chaplain delivering a very inspiring sermon, taking for his subject, "The four cardinal virtues and the three theological virtues." There was a good number of Masons and their ladies in attendance.

During the year I visited with the D.D.G.M's of several surrounding Districts and was well received; the visits were returned. I also attended several official receptions for our Grand Master in other Districts and a dedication and reception at Woodbridge. Then on May 25th the highlight of the year was the reception for the Grand Master, who was accompanied by our Grand Secretary, at Wyoming in Sarnia District to celebrate the Centennial of Burns' Lodge, No. 153. Most Wor. Bro. Treleaven gave a very inspiring address to almost 300 Masons from South Western Ontario.

On April 13th, my Mother Lodge held a district banquet and reception in my honour in Trinity Anglican Church, which was well attended. Rt. Wor. Bro. John A. Irvine, our very capable Deputy Grand Master, was the guest speaker. It has been a great privilege and pleasure to have had both the Grand Master and Deputy Grand Master in Sarnia District during my year.

Rt. Wor. Bro. Stewart Rowe, my immediate predecessor, Chairman of the Blood Donor Committee, reports the usual favourable response to his appeal for donors throughout the District to support the blood banks, by those who are physically fit.

The Past Masters' and Wardens' Association of Sarnia District held three very successful meetings during the year, with Rt. Wor. Bro. Harry Russell as President: The fall meeting was held in Petrolia with the Wor. Masters of the District conferring a degree. The second was held in January at Brigden, when several capable speakers of the District spoke on subjects of Masonic Education. The third was held in my Mother Lodge, Havelock, No. 238, when we were favoured by a very informative address by Rt. Wor. George J. McQueen on Masonic Benevolence.

On November 2nd, 1961, at my official visit to Arkona Lodge, No. 307, it was my privilege to present Wor. Bro. Lorenzo Evans, on behalf of Grand Lodge, with his Veteran Jubilee Medal. On November 8th, when three members of Petrolia Lodge, No. 194, were presented with Veteran Jubilee Medals, I was unable to attend due to my official visit in Sarnia. But on February 19th, I presented Veteran Jubilee Medals to Bros. Ewart Evans, John Jervis and Rt. Wor. Bro. W. A. Campbell in Beaver Lodge, No. 83, Strathroy. I might add that Rt. Wor. Bro. W. A. Campbell is still very active both in Beaver Lodge and Beaver Chapter, R.A.M. Again on my official visit to Beaver Lodge, No. 83, on April 16th, I presented Bro. William Burnison with his Veteran Jubilee Medal, making four in one lodge within two months.

We have lost through death five Past Grand Lodge Officers since July, 1961, two Past District Deputy Grand Masters and three Past Grand Stewards, as well as many brethren. My sincere sympathy is extended to all their families and loved ones. I know that their loss will be severely felt throughout the District. We cherish their memories in our hearts.

Most of the lodges have held "Ladies' Nights", upholding the social side of our Order. Mrs. Searson and I had the pleasure of attending these and associating with the brethren and their wives, which was very much appreciated.

While Masonry in Sarnia District has not grown in membership during the past year, it is making progress in the high standards of our Order and I feel there is room for the institution of two or three more lodges in the city of Sarnia, as the population has almost tripled in the last twenty-five years. More lodges would give more of the brethren an opportunity to take part in lodge work and management.

In conclusion, may I thank, most sincerely, the Grand Master and the brethren of Sarnia District for granting me this privilege of serving Masonry in this District. I am most grateful to the Present and Past Grand Lodge Officers, the Past Master, Wor. Masters, officers and members of the twenty-one lodges for their inspiration and support. I trust that I have, in some small way, contributed to the betterment of Masonry in general and Sarnia District in particular.

GEORGE C. SEARSON, D.D.G.M.

SOUTH HURON DISTRICT

It is with a deep sense of gratitude to the Great Architect of the Universe for a marvellous year as I come to the end of my term. It has been my desire to emphasize the setting up of benevolent funds in the lodges and to stimulate the interest in Masonic Education. I have endeavoured to encourage the spiritual and moral aspects of Masonry, and I have been greatly encouraged by the response of the brethren.

Attendance at official visits was excellent with an average in 17 lodges of 80. I would especially like to voice my appreciation to the Secretaries of the District for their careful attention to all the details in keeping the official records of the lodges and in transmitting the required information.

The work of the Worshipful Masters and officers was of a very high order throughout and I was greatly impressed with the number of younger candidates being received into our lodges. I feel that many of them will play an important part in Masonry in the years to come. I had the pleasure of having my son initiated, passed and raised during the year.

It was a source of much pleasure to have visiting District Deputies at many of my official visits and also of visiting in all the neighboring districts. South Huron was honored by the visit of the Most Worshipful Bro. R. W. Treleven at the Centennial Celebration of Tecumseh Lodge, No. 144, Stratford, as guest speaker in the lodge room and at the banquet following. We were also honored by having the Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. J. A. Irvine, as guest speaker at the Centennial Celebration of Irving Lodge, No. 154, Lucan. R.W. Bro. Irvine also visited Grant Lodge, No. 483, where he presented V.W. Bro. Bruce Grant with his Grand Steward's regalia. I had the honor of presenting Grand Lodge regalia to V.W. Bro. Ross Scott of Britannia Lodge, No. 170, Seaforth.

Last September the Worshipful Masters and Senior Wardens gathered at Elma Lodge, No. 456, Monkton, for a get-acquainted meeting and the fellowship which began there followed me throughout the year. The loyalty of the Masters and Wardens has been an inspiration.

Our District was saddened by the passing to the Grand Lodge Above of R.W. Bro. Geo. Jefferson, P.D.D.G.M. and past member of the Board of General Purposes. Bro. Jefferson was a noted educationist as well as an ardent churchman. He will be sorely missed, not only by his own Lodge, but throughout the District.

I cannot commend too highly the work of the Past Masters' Association which this year celebrated its silver anniversary at our annual Past Masters'Ladies' Night which was held in Mitchell where 380 Masons and ladies gathered at a banquet to celebrate the occasion. The guest speaker was R.W. Bro. J. A. Irvine who gave a most inspiring address. R.W. Bro. Ralph Munro gave a brief history of the Association. During the year they also organized a Masonic Education meeting at Britannia Lodge, No. 170, Seaforth, under the direction of R.W. Bro. Molson Cain of Toronto.

One of the highlights of the year was the presentation of 50 Year Medals to three of the brethren of Milverton Lodge, No. 478. R.W. Bro. Flath presented R.W. Bro. P. L. Tye, a former colleague in medicine. I had the honor of presenting W. Bro. Geo. Coxon with his Medal. V.W. Bro. Herb Sparling presented Bro. Wm. Reis with his Medal. Past D.D.G.M's of the District conferred a Second Degree on this occasion and the Grand Junior Warden, R.W. Bro. Wm. Prentice, gave a brief address on the Second Degree. About 80 Masons were present.

The lodges of the District are in excellent condition and many of their buildings have been renovated during the past couple of years.

Our District Divine Service was held in Monkton United Church with Rev. E. E. New, Minister of the Church, as guest preacher, substituting for the District Chaplain, Rev. Bro. Frank Tomkinson, who was in hospital. About 100 brethren were present. Most of the lodges have held Divine Services which have been well attended. Many of the lodges held successful Ladies' Nights and we had the privilege of attending many of these and all were a credit to the Craft.

In conclusion, I would like to extend a special word of thanks to W. Bro. Clare Reith, Chairman of Masonic Education, and his committee for the excellent work they have been doing. One of their projects I would like to recommend. They have asked each lodge to send an article they have used in Masonic Education and these will be available to other lodges. In time it is hoped to build quite a library of these articles. I would also like to recommend that the voting for Grand Lodge officers be held in the district rooms. At our recent district meeting it was moved and seconded and carried unanimously that this recommendation be forwarded to Grand Lodge as we feel very strongly about it.

One final word of appreciation to my faithful secretary for his efficient and willing service, he having accompanied me on all my official visits. Wor. Bro. Charles Merryfield has made my task much lighter by taking care of all secretarial duties.

R. EARL TAPP, D.D.G.M.

ST. LAWRENCE DISTRICT

It has indeed been a great pleasure and a wonderful experience for me to serve as the representative of the Grand Master in St. Lawrence District. I wish to express my appreciation for the honour bestowed upon me.

I have been ably assisted by the brethren whom I appointed to fill the different offices. Wor. Bro. Frank Willows as District Secretary, Bro. Rev. C. K. Mathewson (a holder of the William Mercer Wilson Medal) as District Chaplain, Wor. Bro. Gerald Gilmer as District Chairman of Masonic Education and Bro. Keith Pelton as District Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee.

I have found Masonry in St. Lawrence District to be very progressive in all of the nineteen lodges. The degree work has been rendered in a very capable manner. The officers of each lodge appear to be of a very high calibre. It seems to be the general practice to inform the new members that there is a lot more to be learned from Masonry than what is explained to them when they are given their degrees. To the foregoing I most heartily agree, because Masonry should be to each and every one of us "A Way of Life". I have been very pleased with the interest taken in Masonic Education throughout the entire District. It was my pleasure on some of my visits to have a short talk on Masonic Education very ably given by some of the brethren.

It was my pleasure, accompanied by Mrs. Brown and the District Secretary and Mrs. Willows, to attend several "Ladies' Nights" throughout the District. On every occasion we were royally received and entertained.

St. Lawrence District has a very fine Masters', Past Masters' and Wardens' Association. Owing to poor health, our tireless Secretary, Rt. Wor. Bro. F. J. Latham, has had to resign, but has a capable successor in Rt. Wor. Bro. George Jackson.

On Sunday, October 29th, 1961, I unveiled a monument at the invitation of St. James Lodge, No. 74, in St. James Cemetery, Maitland, to the memory of Very Wor. Bro. Geo. Canning Longlev, the first Wor. Master of St. James Lodge. After the unveiling a Masonic Floral Emblem was placed on the grave by the senior brother of the lodge, Wor. Bro. Henry Throop. The brethren then proceeded to St. James Church where they were addressed by Bro. Rev. Canon Edmund Grant, Chaplain of the lodge.

The highlight of my year as D.D.G.M. was the visit on January 24th. to my own lodge, Lyn, No. 416, of Most Wor. Bro. Wm. L. Wright, who spent part of his boyhood in Lyn, when his father, our late Bro. Rev. J. dePencier Wright, was Rector of the Parish of Elizabethtown. Most Wor. Bro. Wright gave a wonderful address which will long be remembered by those who had the privilege of hearing him. I would again like to thank him for the honour bestowed on Lyn Lodge by his presence.

We were very pleased to have the Grand Chaplain, Rt. Wor. Bro. Canon A. J. Anderson, (who lived as a boy in Brockville, five miles from Lyn, and who married a former Lyn girl, the daughter of Wor. Bro. Bishop Lyons) accompany Archbishop Wright to Lyn Lodge.

There have been several Church Services held in the District. On May 27th. the District Church Service was held in Wall St. United Church, Brockville, and was attended by many brethren from the District.

Finally, Most Worshipful Sir, I wish to thank you for the privilege of representing you in St. Lawrence District, also, Most Wor. Bro. Martyn and Rt. Wor. Bro. Dixon for their guidance and help.

LYNDSY BROWN, D.D.G.M.

ST. THOMAS DISTRICT

It has been a great privilege to represent the Grand Master in the St. Thomas District. I am most grateful to the Past Masters and Wardens for electing me to this important office.

Each reception was extended in a friendly and gracious manner, indicating the affection and respect the brethren of the St. Thomas District have for the Grand Master and Grand Lodge.

My first duty was to appoint W. Bro. Keith McLean, District Secretary, Rev. Bro. William Eddy, District Chaplain, W. Bro. Hugh Silcox, Director of Masonic Education, and W. Bro. Sam Grantham, Chairman of Masonic Blood Donors. I wish to thank all of these brethren for their assistance and loyal support.

I visited all lodges in the District and found the work to be done in a satisfactory manner. There are Wor. Masters who spare no energy to reach perfection and are working just as hard to induce better attendance at lodge meetings.

The District Secretary reported the books and records of all lodges in the District to be in good condition and their financial affairs to be in good hands.

The District was saddened by the passing to the Grand Lodge Above of R.W. Bro. W. A. Gray, St. Thomas, and R.W. Bro. J. H. Burke, Port Stanley. Both were active and highly esteemed members of the Craft. I was greatly honoured to have been presented my regalia by R.W. Bro. Burke, the senior P.D.D.G.M. Many of the lodges also reported deaths of their members. We honour these brethren and cherish their memory in our hearts.

The Past Masters' and Wardens' Association is very active in the St. Thomas District. The Chairman is W. Bro. Lawrence Ellsworth and the Secretary is R.W. Bro. Frank Henry. Two well-attended meetings were held this year, one in Aylmer and the other in Port Stanley, which is an annual fish dinner.

Several of the lodges held Ladies' Nights and Mrs. Orchard and I were able to attend all of them. We would like to express our sincere appreciation to the brethren of these lodges for the many thoughtful courtesies extended to us.

On February 15th, the First Degree was conferred in St. David's Lodge, No. 302, by the Past Grand Lodge Officers; 175 Masons attended in support of these brethren. Then again on April 26th at an extremely well attended meeting in Talbot Lodge, No. 546, the Worshipful Masters of the District worked the First Degree. This type of work creates a great deal of interest throughout the District.

The Grand Master was not in the District this year. However, we were favoured by a visit from R.W. Bro. Prentice, the G.J.W., R.W. Bro. Barrett, Grand Registrar, and several members of the Board of General Purposes.

I was privileged to be present at the reception for Most Worshipful Bro. Treleven in Windsor, and a reception for R.W. Bro. Irvine in London. Both were enjoyable evenings and will long be remembered.

On three of my visits I had the honour of presenting the Veteran Jubilee Medal. During their long association with Masonry the recipients have seen many changes and can quite well relate how Masonry has withstood these changes.

The District Divine Service was held on May 27th in Grace United Church, St. Thomas. Wor. Bro. Rev. Lloyd Coates delivered a most inspiring sermon. Following the Service the brethren and their wives gathered for a social hour at which time we were honoured with a very interesting address by our Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. J. A. Irvine.

In conclusion, I wish to thank all the brethren for their assistance and loyal support.

DOUGLAS ORCHARD, D.D.G.M.

TEMISKAMING DISTRICT

To all Masonic members of this District for giving me the honour to represent the Grand Master, I am most grateful.

I wish to thank my officers, Wor. Bro. Harry Atkins, District Secretary, Rev. Bro. J. A. Lougheed, District Chaplain, Wor. Bro. J. Matear, Chairman of Masonic Education, and Bro. James Harling, Chairman of Blood Donors' Committee, for the excellent assistance received in my year. I could not have chosen better men and I am most appreciative of their efforts.

My special thanks to M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, Custodian of "The Work" for the wonderful assistance given in my term of office. I thoroughly endorse his program of instruction to D.D.G.M.'s. He went the extra mile on my behalf.

I want to make special mention of the Masonic Education program being carried out by Rt. Wor. Bro. W. K. Bailey. This is of great value to the lodges in our District and education is part of Masonry in practically every lodge. On all my official visits I gave a talk on Masonic Education of at least twelve minutes.

Particular attention was given to the Blood Donors' Committee this term. Chairman Bro. J. Harling did an excellent job in recording the highest ever in our District so far.

On a directive from Grand Lodge, all our temples were checked by the Fire Department as well as by an Electrical Inspector. In every case, our temples are in fine shape with the exception of a few minor alterations which will be done in the near future. Some of these temples are considerably improved since my last visit and I am most pleased to see our property being so well preserved and improved.

I am pleased to report that all lodges held Church Services. Our District held one in Kirkland Lake for the southern part and one in Timmins for the northern section. Our District Chaplain, Rev. Bro. J. A. Lougheed, conducted the Services which were well attended by the brethren.

On my official visits, I was well supported by my District Officers and the Wor. Masters of our two Kirkland Lake Lodges. Wor. Bro. Loach and Wor. Bro. Clark were always in attendance. We also had Wor. Bro. Jones and Secretary, Bro. T. Harkins from Abitibi Lodge. To these ardent Masons, I offer my sincere thanks.

Attendance at all meetings was exceptionally good and in every case, true northern hospitality was shown. Every Master in the District is well skilled and is conducting his lodge in an excellent manner. Our degrees are being conferred in this District second to none. It is indeed a pleasure to watch a degree put on and, with the exception of a few small errors or omissions, it is practically perfect.

The financial picture is very good in most lodges. In a few cases, arrears of dues were noted and the lodge was asked to endeavour to correct this without suspensions, if possible.

I am pleased to note that all lodges are paying particular attention to applications for membership. In most cases, the investigating committees are doing a good job in checking on prospective members. As a result, we are getting excellent candidates.

We were not so fortunate otherwise as the 'Grim Reaper' took a heavy toll on our members. Two Past Grand Lodge members in the persons of Very Wor. Bro. N. E. Loney and Very Wor. Bro. O. L. Wright passed to our Grand Lodge Above and will be sadly missed by our Kirkland Lake lodges and their many friends all over.

As an added note of interest, I had the pleasure of attending Golden Beaver Lodge in Timmins when Rt. Wor. Bro. D. Korman formed a lodge of all Jewish brethren and conferred the First Degree on his cousin, Bro. I. Korman. A large attendance enjoyed a pleasant evening.

I am pleased to report that we held a Lodge of Instruction in Abitibi Lodge, Iroquois Falls, on a Saturday afternoon in April, with Doric Lodge, Kirkland Lake, exemplifying the First Degree on a dummy candidate, while Corinthian Lodge, Kirkland Lake, took the Third Degree. These degrees were well presented and great interest was taken by the brethren at the question and answer period. A worthwhile Masonic afternoon was spent and was followed by a wonderful meal. My special thanks to Abitibi Lodge—they were excellent hosts.

The highlight of my year was the visit of our Grand Master on September 23rd, 1961, when Aurum Lodge, No. 704, was constituted and consecrated. He was accompanied by Rt. Wor. Bro. Geo. McQueen, Assistant to the Grand Secretary. Our Grand Master gave a wonderful address at the banquet held in the McIntyre Arena to representatives from all lodges in the District. The ceremony in the lodge room was well conducted and was witnessed by as many as could crowd into a good-sized hall. All the brethren took the opportunity of meeting our Grand Master at the refreshment hour after lodge was closed.

The following Thursday, I had the pleasure of installing the Master, Wor. Bro. Archie Graham, and investing the other officers, with the assistance of my District Secretary and Past Masters from Golden Beaver Lodge. On June 6th, 1962, I again attended the installation of officers in Aurum Lodge. This may be the youngest lodge but it is a credit to Temiskaming District. Wor. Bro. Archie Graham deserves a great deal of credit for his direction and leadership over the two year period.

I will be forever grateful for the opportunity of serving as District Deputy for Temiskaming District.

J. W. BRADLEY, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "1"

It has been a pleasure and a source of valuable experience for me to have had the honour of serving as the representative of the Most Worshipful the Grand Master in District "1". The warm and cordial reception extended to me by the officers and members of all lodges confirmed the loyalty and esteem with which Grand Lodge is held in this District.

Assuming my official duties, I appointed W. Bro. Frederick W. Thom, District Secretary, Bro. Rev. MacBeath Miller, District Chaplain, W. Bro. Clifford G. Wonfor, Chairman, and W. Bro. George McGee, Secretary of the Committee on Masonic Education for this District, and W. Bro. Harry E. Mole, Chairman of the District Blood Donors' Committee. I wish to express my thanks and appreciation to these worthy brethren who fulfilled the duties of their respective offices in a most creditable manner.

On my official visit to the nineteen lodges which comprise this District, I was pleased to note the manner in which the degree work was executed. The deportment of the officers while discharging their various duties in the lodge room, the near perfect wording of our ritual by those brethren taking part in the work, the constant concern that a full and correct interpretation of the lesson of each degree was conveyed to the candidate and the importance that he was made aware of his duties as a Freemason and a member of our Fraternity, all were most commendable.

The District Secretary, W. Bro. Frederick W. Thom, reports that the minutes of the meetings of each lodge are clearly and properly recorded, that returns are regularly forwarded to Grand Lodge, that the lodge secretaries were most co-operative and are to be commended for the care and accuracy of all lodge records, that the financial condition of each lodge is good in most cases and adequate provision is being made relative to benevolence and reserve.

Masonic Education continues to receive prominent attention by the lodges at their regular meetings. Short talks of approximately five to ten minutes duration by members of the Lodge Education Committee, who, from my observation, choose subjects which do create interest and which appear to be well received. The District Educational Meeting, held in the West Toronto Masonic Temple, Annette Street, was again an outstanding event. The theme, "an Explanation of the Symbolism of the Junior Warden's Lecture", proved to be a most interesting subject and was greatly appreciated by the three hundred brethren who were in attendance. The success of this evening was assured by the untiring efforts of the District Committee on Masonic Education and the members of the Wardens' Association.

Our District Church Service was held in Cooksville United Church, Cooksville, on Sunday, March 18th, at which time Bro. Rev. MacBeath Miller, District Chaplain, delivered an appropriate and a most inspiring sermon. Also taking part in this Service was the Assistant Grand Chaplain, V.W. Bro. Rev. Joseph W. Stewart. In addition to the District Service, many lodges held individual and combined Church Services, all of which were well attended.

The Chairman of the District Blood Donors' Committee, W. Bro. Harry E. Mole, reports continued and renewed activity in this field of Masonic Benevolence and is confident that, when all lodge returns are completed, an increase in donations will be recorded for this year.

There are occasions when one feels singularly proud to be a member of the Masonic Fraternity. Such an occasion was the reception tendered to M.W. Bro. Treleaven by the brethren of Toronto Districts "1", "2" and "5". Approximately four hundred Masons were in attendance to convey their esteem for and demonstrate their loyalty to the Most Worshipful the Grand Master and they were richly rewarded by a most thought-provoking address. On this occasion I had the privilege and honour to present to the Grand Master the Worshipful Masters of Toronto District "1".

On another occasion I had the opportunity of attending a "Ceremony of Remembrance" sponsored by Connaught Lodge at which all lodges meeting in Connaught Temple participated. The solemnity of this meeting in remembrance of "Departed Merit" was most impressive.

The limitation of space does not permit a more detailed report of the many activities of District "1" during this past year. The visit of Kenmore Lodge, New York, to Memorial Lodge, the visit of St. John's Lodge 209A, London, Ont., to Connaught Lodge, the reception to the Grand Master tendered by Kilwinning Lodge, the many social events sponsored by different lodges, to which I had the pleasure of having Mrs. Brown accompany me, are but a few which I shall retain in my memory for some time to come.

In conclusion, may I, through this medium, express to the officers of Grand Lodge, the Masters, officers and brethren of District "1" my sincere thanks and appreciation for the many courtesies extended to me during my term of office.

ROBT. F. BROWN, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "2"

May I first thank the Grand Master for confirming my election as his representative in Toronto District "2". The faith of the brethren of Sunnylea Lodge in proposing my name, and the opportunity afforded me by the brethren of the District, in electing me to this high and important office, create a gratitude that cannot be easily expressed in words. Now that my term of office has nearly run its course, my only hope is that I have been able to maintain the very high principles of Freemasonry as demonstrated by my predecessors.

The official visits of the eighteen lodges in this District were made in the company of Wor. Bro. Grenville E. Tapp, who, as District Secretary, was indispensable in carrying out and performing the many detailed duties of the District as well as the examination of the records of each lodge. Without exception, his report on the clearness and accuracy of all records of each lodge points up only one thing, that the secretaries of each lodge are performing a very valuable service to and for the brethren of their respective lodges and for this they are to be heartily commended.

Performance of the work as observed in my Official Visits was of a very high standard and evidenced careful attention to the ritual and training of the officer material. I am, therefore, very happy to report the healthy, thriving condition of Masonry in Toronto District "2".

It was my endeavour throughout the year to see that meetings were set in motion at the appointed hour and brought to a close with sufficient despatch to permit the banquet hall to be vacated by 11.00 p.m. The co-operation of the Worshipful Masters in this respect was very much in evidence and appreciated.

The very happy privilege of having the opportunity, with the District Secretary, to attend with our wives at a great number of individual Lodge Ladies' Nights, afforded us a most delightful pleasure.

A majority of the lodges held their own Divine Services which again permitted us to fraternize with the brethren. The District Divine Service, held in Kingsway-Lambton United Church under the outstanding leadership of Rev. Dr. Alan R. Husband, the District Chaplain, was very largely attended by the District as a whole, with brethren from other Toronto Districts and as far distant as Kitchener and Mount Forest.

The year 1962 was high-lighted again, when District "2", in conjunction with District "1" and District "5", had the honor of a visit from Most Worshipful Brother Treleaven, at whose reception the Grand Master endeared himself with his ready wit and forthright sincerity.

A special word of appreciation to all the Past Masters, Worshipful Masters, Wardens and members of all the Lodges, for the warm, friendly and helpful assistance tendered the Grand Master's Representative on all occasions.

The year was not without its sadness however, for the voice from Heaven called a large number of our companions to rest from their labours, some having been leaders in Grand Lodge (recorded in the Report of the Committee on Fraternal Dead), the others giving of their talents to their own lodges.

One would be most remiss if a special word of appreciation on behalf of the District were not tendered to M. Wor. Bro. Harry L. Martyn for the unstinting time and advice that were available at any hour of the day or night when any problem arose. To him my personal thanks for the wonderful co-operation.

We were most fortunate to have a very active and well-skilled District Committee on Masonic Education working under the chairmanship of Wor. Bro. David W. Forrester of Mimico Lodge and Wor. Bro. Andrew F. Nisbet Jr. as the Secretary, from Mount Dennis Lodge. These brethren were most ably assisted by Wor. Bro. Walter H. Wake of Parkdale Lodge, Wor. Bro. Howard A. Phillips of Mount Sinai Lodge, Wor. Bro. C. Norman Bell of High Park Lodge, Wor. Bro. Albert L. Lee of Melita Lodge, Wor. Bro. Mervyn L. Buckingham of Transportation Lodge, and by one who has contributed so much to the District in the person of Wor.

Bro. Leslie R. Salisbury of Coronation Lodge, as Honorary Chairman. My sincere and profound thanks to each and every one of the above, to the District Secretary and the District Chaplain for the assistance and co-operation that made the past year one that will rank as a highlight in my life.

G. H. WESTON, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "3"

My year as District Deputy Grand Master of Toronto District "3" has been a source of pleasure and valuable experience to me, and I find it a pleasure to express my thanks and gratitude to my brethren of Toronto District "3" for honouring St. Johns Lodge, No. 75, by electing me to the office of District Deputy Grand Master, and to Most Worshipful Bro. R. W. Treleven for confirming the election.

My first official duty was to appoint Wor. Bro. Fred C. Webb of St. Johns Lodge, No. 75, as District Secretary. Wor. Bro. Webb accompanied me on all my official visits and reported that the secretaries of the lodges in the District are to be commended for the capable manner in which the lodge books and records are kept. I express my appreciation to Wor. Bro. Webb for his capable assistance during my term of office.

I appointed, as District Chairman of Masonic Education, Wor. Bro. James Watt, who held two Masonic Education meetings. The first meeting was sponsored by Orient Lodge, No. 339. The mechanics of the First Degree were exemplified. The second meeting was sponsored by St. Johns Lodge, No. 75, in which the mechanics of the Third Degree were dealt with and explained. The attendance at both these meetings exceeded our expectations. On March 29th, 1962, a Masonic Study Group was organized, assisted by Wor. Bro. Watt. At this meeting the officers were elected. This Study Group has been formed for the purpose of encouraging the brethren of the District in Masonic Education and information. The initial meeting was well attended, and it has been planned to hold three of these meetings during the year, and to have a qualified speaker at each meeting.

The District Divine Church Service was held on Sunday, November 12th, 1961, at All Saints Anglican Church, The Kingsway, and was well attended by the brethren. A very inspiring sermon was delivered by Bro. The Rev. Robert H. M. Kerr, District Chaplain. It was also my pleasure to attend other District Church Services on behalf of Toronto District "3".

I appointed Wor. Bro. G. W. Furlong, Past Master of Orient Lodge, No. 339, as Chairman for the solicitation of Blood Donors, and I am pleased to report a substantial increase in the number of brethren donating to this worthy cause. I extend my sincere thanks to Wor. Bro. Furlong for his untiring efforts and co-operation.

I made an official visit to all fifteen lodges in the District, and I would like to express my gratitude for the very warm welcome and courteous reception extended to me on each occasion. I was privileged to witness the conferring of all three degrees. On every occasion the work of each degree was performed with dignity and dispatch, and in a very impressive manner. The District Secretary reported favourably on the records and also the financial position of the lodges. It was also my pleasure to attend all of the installations.

In the matter of fire insurance, I am able to report that most lodges are carrying adequate coverage. However, where this is not the case, I advised them to secure greater protection.

The Wor. Masters throughout the District are endeavouring to promote more talks on Masonic Education to encourage lodge attendance. However, it disturbs me to find a slight decrease in attendance in the District, which I hope will be overcome as a result of the efforts of the newly formed Study Group.

On March 14th, I had the privilege to attend the reception in honour of the M.W. the Grand Master, tendered by Districts "1", "2" and "5". After the banquet the brethren had the pleasure of hearing a very eloquent and inspiring address by our Grand Master.

During my term of office it was my pleasure to present a Sixty Year Pin to Bro. Arthur Watt, Orient Lodge, No. 339, and also a Veteran's Jubilee Medal to Wor. Bro. Joseph Harrison of the same lodge.

Mrs. Dodson and I will be forever grateful for the kind hospitality we received as honoured guests at several Ladies' Nights. The many kind friends we made will ever be remembered by us both.

On November 28th, 1961, it was my privilege to be present at the Dedication of Woodbridge Masonic Temple, and I was honoured by acting as the Grand Senior Warden. I also assisted in the organizing and the Dedication of Scarborough Masonic Temple, again taking part as the Grand Senior Warden. My last official duty was to assist the Grand Master in the Dedication of Zeredatha Masonic Temple at Uxbridge, and, in the absence of the Deputy Grand Master, I had the honour of acting in his place.

In concluding my report, I would like to take this opportunity of expressing my appreciation to the Grand Secretary, R.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon, for his co-operation and his prompt reply to all correspondence.

To the Wor. Masters of the lodges, the officers and brethren throughout the District, who so faithfully supported me by attending my many visits, I wish every happiness and prosperity in the future, for they have indeed made my year a happy one. I bespeak the same for my successor.

THOS. DODSON, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "4"

It has been a privilege to represent the Grand Master as D.D.G.M. and I herewith submit my report on the condition of Masonry in Toronto District "4" for your consideration.

The progressiveness of Masonry in this District is evidenced by the institution of a new lodge, the dedication of a new temple and the heavy influx of candidates into some of the more active lodges.

The District Secretary, W. Bro. Herbert K. Lee, fulfilled the duties of the office in an excellent manner and his services to the District merit commendation. Other appointments were W. Bro. Ronald V. Campkin as District Chaplain, W. Bro. Stanley Cecil as Chairman of Masonic Education and W. Bro. John J. Laing as Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee. Their achievements on behalf of the brethren of the District are praiseworthy.

I must express my indebtedness and appreciation to the many Present and Past Grand Lodge Officers who supported and assisted me on every possible occasion. There are many Grand Lodge Officers who, over the years, have been an example, and have offered encouragement, instruction and guidance. Even though busy because of their eminent positions in the Craft, they have in this past year given me such help as can never be repaid. Little wonder that they enjoy the confidence of their brethren in Masonry!

My personal thanks go to the Masters and the Wardens of each of the lodges for their support of district activities including Church Services and Education meetings. The many kindnesses extended by them, made our efforts seem well worth while.

Accompanied by the District Secretary, I officially inspected all lodges in the District. I must pay tribute to the Secretaries and the Treasurers of the lodges who, as men of careful integrity, work to keep the affairs of the constituent lodges in good condition. The ritual deserved much praise on every occasion and I feel that the high calibre of the work is due in large part to the many fraternal visits throughout the District and with other Districts. Certainly the Masters and Wardens exemplify great skill in their work and are thereby setting a fine example and offering excellent leadership to their brethren.

On each inspection, the District Secretary made a thorough examination of the lodge records and reported his findings to me. In some instances written recommendations and suggestions were later sent out. The records of all lodges are in good condition and convey a true picture of each lodge's standing.

Financially many lodges made substantial gains during the year, indicating good administration. Only one lodge showed a deficit on the year's operation. This will be remedied by an increase in dues.

While some lodges have no members in arrears, other lodges have a large number of members owing back dues. I found that the Masters and Secretaries are working to correct this situation and, in some cases, I recommended that the Past Masters be called upon to interview the neglectful brethren. We must remember that one of the more important factors in our Masonic work is the maintenance of attendance, interest and co-operation of our older brethren. Attendance remains at approximately the same level as in the past few years. This can be expected to increase in the Scarborough area because of the improved facilities of the new Temple.

Although 83 members were lost by death during the year, there was an overall increase in district membership of 48 members.

In the larger lodges, I made reference to the report of the Committee on Warrants regarding taking steps leading to the formation of new lodges.

Two District Education meetings were held in addition to other District Education activities. The first meeting demonstrated the Ceremony of Installation and was attended by over one hundred Past Masters, officers and brethren. Some thirty brethren took part in the demonstration and every lodge in the District was well represented. The second District Education meeting consisted of several short dramatizations of situations which arise from time to time in most lodges. This meeting was also well attended by well over one hundred interested Masons. Throughout the year I stressed the importance of Masonic Education and urged all brethren, officers in particular, to make constant reference to the Manual for Masonic Instructors and Students. Many Manuals were distributed through the District.

It was my pleasure to preside at the Institution of Universe Lodge U.D. on October 21st, 1961. The first Master, Wor. Bro. R. J. A. Young, is giving experienced leadership in this new lodge and thirteen of the charter members have been in the Craft over twenty-five years.

The Dedication of the Scarborough Temple took place on February 8th of this year, and is an example of Masonic team work under the guidance of a skilled Master, W. Bro. Donald MacDonald. Many successful nights have been held in this new Temple to date. It is hoped that this example will encourage the brethren of other Temple Boards to work with renewed vigour to renovate and to make available presentable premises with complete facilities, suitable for all of the activities, including Ladies' Nights, for, after all, our Temples are our Masonic Homes.

The District Church Service was held in St. Aidan's Church and the District Chaplain, Wor. Bro. Ronald V. Campkin, preached an excellent sermon of particular interest to Masons. The co-operation of all Masters and all lodges made this well-attended Service an outstanding success.

In John Ross Robertson Lodge, I was privileged to present a 50 Year Veteran's Jubilee Medal to W. Bro. Ernest Mills. There are in our District almost one thousand Masons with membership extending 25 years or more; forty-two of these have been in the Craft over 50 years. Many of these "old timers" attend their lodges regularly, many in the capacity of officers.

On many occasions, I suggested that new officers should be chosen with extreme care from among the most highly qualified of the brethren to ensure the continuance of high standards by those who will in the future represent our Fraternity.

This has been a rewarding year because of the freely-offered support and services of so many brethren sincerely interested in the work of Masonry. The year has provided many opportunities to associate with Grand Lodge officers of comprehensive Masonic knowledge and experience, and leaves me with pleasant memories to be carried throughout my lifetime.

It is with honest pride in my brethren of Toronto District "4" that I report the condition of Masonry in our District to be of the highest order.

W. A. HAGAN, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "5"

It has been a distinct honour and a privilege to have represented the Most Worshipful the Grand Master in Toronto District "5". To serve as District Deputy Grand Master is a very rewarding experience and I hope that in some small way I have contributed something to Masonry in this District.

I have visited, at least once, each of the thirty lodges of the District and I have found the ritual to be well delivered, and the degrees well conducted. The books of the Secretary and Treasurer of each lodge are well kept and the finances of every lodge are in good condition.

Masonic Education has received considerable attention in most of the lodges and two Lodges of Instruction were held, the first at Metropolitan Lodge on the evening of Wednesday, February 14, 1962, and the second was held under the auspices of Harmony Lodge, Thornhill, on the evening of Monday, April 30, 1962. These meetings were very well attended and I wish to pay special tribute to R.W. Bro. George McQueen, R.W. Bro. Willard Gordon, R.W. Bro. Frank Malcolm, R.W. Bro. James Stevenson, R.W. Bro. John Dodd, and V.W. Bro. John Eyre and all the Masters and Wardens for their very able assistance on these occasions.

The Spiritual side of Masonry has been well demonstrated in the District, as many of the lodges held Divine Services. The District Church Service was held on Sunday evening, April 28, in St. Hilda's Anglican Church at Eglinton and Dufferin Streets and was conducted by the Rector, Bro. The Rev. Keith Kiddell, who is the District Chaplain.

It has been my privilege to attend a number of Institution and Dedication Ceremonies of lodges outside this District, and these visits were of great value and interest.

Toronto District "5" together with Toronto Districts "1" and "2" held a reception for the Grand Master in the Banquet Hall of the Yonge St. Temple. The Reception was extremely well-attended by present and past Grand Lodge Officers and Masons of this area.

Together with Mrs. Lightfoot, Mrs. Lowry and W. Bro. Ralph Lightfoot, I attended many social evenings held by some of the lodges of the District. We enjoyed these evenings and made new friends and renewed old friendships.

I would like to take this opportunity of paying tribute to W. Bro. Lightfoot for his very able assistance as the District Secretary in performing his duties in a very efficient and capable manner.

In closing, may I say that the condition of Masonry in Toronto District "5" is excellent, and the future is in capable hands.

FRANK P. LOWRY, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "7"

The honour of serving as the representative of the Most Wor. the Grand Master in Toronto District "7" has been a pleasure and a very rewarding experience. As I review the many activities of the past year, I am conscious of the fact that one cannot possibly find words to express the feelings of the fellowship and the hospitality enjoyed by the D.D.G.M. during this year of office, nor is it possible to comprehend the admiration and respect with which the Grand Lodge is held throughout the District.

My many visits were more enjoyable and my duties were made much easier by the company and able assistance of the District Secretary, Wor. Bro. W. Elwood Dale. His wise counsel and the encouragement he offered were much appreciated.

The duties of Chairman of Masonic Education were carried out in a very commendable manner by Wor. Bro. G. M. Fleming. This was climaxed by a District Masonic Education meeting on March 29th under the auspices of Huron-Bruce Lodge by dispensation granted to Wor. Bro. Jack King, Wor. Master, to whom I offer my sincere thanks and appreciation. Wor. Bro. Fleming proved himself a skilled craftsman by the success of this meeting.

I am deeply grateful to Wor. Bro. Harry Jowett of Grey Lodge who agreed to act as chairman of Blood Donors' Services, we have 536 registered Blood Donors in this District. I assure you the efforts of Wor. Bro. Jowett are much appreciated.

I was fortunate in having Bro. Rev. Keith Tudor of Peel Lodge as District Chaplain. He has given both moral and spiritual leadership throughout the District. I regret I was personally unable, due to illness, to attend the District Divine Service held in Woodbridge United Church, Sunday, May 27th. The District Chaplain delivered the Sermon on that occasion and I am most grateful to him and also to Very Wor. Bro. Gordon McGillvary, who arranged the music, and to Rev. Morris and the ladies of the Church for their hospitality.

One of the highlights of the year in District "7" was the dedication of the new Masonic Temple at Woodbridge, built and completed by the brethren of Blackwood Lodge, No. 311. This ceremony was conducted by Most Wor. Bro. R.W. Treleven who was assisted by numerous past and present Grand Lodge Officers.

It would be impossible to record all the visits and pleasant experiences I have enjoyed. I was able to attend most of the Installation Ceremonies and several Divine Services and I appreciate the many invitations to Ladies' Nights and other social events which I was able to attend in company with Mrs. Russell and share with the brethren and enjoy their friendship.

I regret that I was confined to hospital for four weeks during the months of April and May, and I am most grateful to Rt. Wor. Bro. Howard Gahagan and Rt. Wor. Bro. A. E. Calverley, who very kindly carried on the work of Masonry in this District by representing the Grand Master at the official visits to Remembrance Lodge on May 4th and to Robertson Lodge on May 14th. I can truthfully say these acts were just examples of the co-operation and assistance I have received from all Masons throughout the District.

In conclusion, I am happy to report that, from my visits to all lodges in the District, I am confident that the Masters and officers of each and every lodge are dedicated Masons, well skilled in the work of the Craft and that Masonry in this District has a glorious past and a very promising future.

HAROLD G. RUSSELL, D.D.G.M.

VICTORIA DISTRICT

The honor and privilege of serving as the representative of the Grand Master in Victoria District is an experience that I will always cherish. To those who made this possible I extend my sincere thanks. I also wish to acknowledge the gracious hospitality, co-operation and support of the officers and brethren on my official and many fraternal visits.

I have been ably supported by Wor. Bro. A. H. DeBois as District Secretary, Bro. Rev. James A. Macartney as District Chaplain, V. Wor. Bro. G. K. Johnson as Supervisor of Masonic Education and R. Wor. Bro. C. H. Heels as District Blood Donor Chairman.

I visited each lodge once officially and found the lodges in the capable hands of interested and efficient Worshipful Masters. While the number of petitions has not been great, there has been sufficient work to keep the lodges busy. I found the officers faithful, diligent, anxious to perform the ritual in an accurate and dignified manner and doing an excellent job. The Past Masters have also rendered valuable assistance.

My District Chaplain was a source of strength to me and was present at all of my official visits and spoke at several, leaving with the brethren many worthwhile thoughts spiritually and fraternally.

A Chairman of Masonic Education has been appointed in each lodge in the District and brief talks were given on many occasions. In addition, the Wardens' Association has been particularly active and visited lodges on six occasions, conferring degrees and participating in Masonic Education under the direction of V. Wor. Bro. G. K. Johnson, who rendered valuable service in this branch of Masonry. This activity on the part of the Wardens has proven to be a wonderful education to future Masters, giving them knowledge of the work, confidence and assurance to qualify them for that office.

Several Ladies' Nights have been held, adding to the social side of Masonry.

One of the highlights of my term was the visit of the Grand Master, Most Wor. Bro. R. W. Treleven, at Cambray on April 12th, when around 200 brethren shared in a banquet and listened to his excellent address.

A District Church Service was conducted in the church of my District Chaplain at Cambray on May 20th, filling two-thirds of the church. Provision had been made for loudspeakers in the basement where the overflow congregation participated in the Service. Church services were also held by the individual lodges and were well attended.

Faithful Brethren Lodge, No. 77, Lindsay, is about to complete its thirteenth year with every member paid up and only five suspensions of members during that period. Other lodges report only a small number of members in arrears and the few, where this is a problem, are endeavouring to correct the situation.

A Travelling Gavel donated by the late R. Wor. Bro. Fred W. Warren of Spry Lodge, No. 406, Fenelon Falls, to promote inter-visiting between lodges in the District has made a complete circuit and is about to repeat that performance. We deeply regret the passing of R. Wor. Bro. Warren this year. He was 54 years a Mason and active throughout.

I wish to report that Masonry in Victoria District is in excellent condition; nine of the thirteen lodges own their temples; the officers are active and efficient; attendance at every one of my official visits was exceptionally good; 211 registered at my final visit in my mother lodge; five Past D.D.G.M's are Lodge Secretaries and others are Trustees, Treasurers, etc. indicating a continuing interest in their respective lodges.

Finally, for this memorable year, I extend my thanks and appreciation to all who have assisted in making it a very happy and profitable one.

SHERMAN J. MOORE, D.D.G.M.

WELLINGTON DISTRICT

I respectfully beg to submit herewith my report on the condition of Masonry in Wellington District.

No one man could undertake the arduous duties involved in properly fulfilling the position of representative of the Most Worshipful the Grand Master in any District unless he had the help and support of many devoted and sincere Masons. I have been fortunate in having brethren at my side who gave unstintingly of their time and talents because of the faith which is theirs in Masonry and its teachings. There was evidence throughout the whole District of the service given to the cause of Masonry by Past Grand Lodge Officers, Past Masters and Worshipful Masters who all had a desire to keep active the spirit and teachings of our wonderful fraternity.

All twenty-two lodges of Wellington District received an official visit and the reception accorded to me in each lodge reflected the sincere esteem that the whole fraternity holds for the Grand Master and his officers. On each of these visits a degree was conferred and it was evident at all times that the Worshipful Masters and their officers were sincere in their work and anxious to pass on to the candidates their faith in Masonry and their conviction that only the best in any man was good enough. From the reports prepared by the District Secretary I made suggestions which, I feel, may be of some assistance.

Attendance at regular meetings averages between 25% and 30% of the membership. In many cases, especially in the larger lodges, newly raised brethren are falling off after a few months and are losing interest, not only in their own lodges, but in Masonry in general. I have found that so many of us, after attaining the rank of Past Master, feel that it is no longer necessary to take an active part in lodge work. Many others felt just the reverse, that the lodge cannot do without them and that they should be called upon to participate in every degree. I have stressed that, as Past Masters, it is our duty to encourage and instruct these younger and newer brethren in the work and foster their desire for knowledge of the Craft. This, I humbly submit, would retain the interest and make full use of the talents and energies of these brethren.

Stress has been laid on punctuality in starting meetings, proper planning and expeditious handling. We do not suggest racing through the ritual and thus robbing the work of its beauty and effect. But a meeting which lasts long into the night is most ineffective in every way. I am happy to report that the Worshipful Masters adopted these suggestions and the resultant attendance and interest has justified the effort.

At the outset of my term of office I resolved to encourage and foster Masonic Education. To this end Wor. Bro. James Spark was appointed District Chairman of this important committee. He brought to his office an enthusiasm and deep-rooted conviction that has paid wonderful dividends. Interest has been increased and Wor. Bro. Spark is to be commended on his accomplishments, especially for the fact that many of our junior brethren have eagerly taken part in preparing and presenting in open lodge a brief treatise on Masonic subjects. It has been found that short talks, of from two to five minutes duration, have been presented admirably in all lodges and have created an appetite for more. Every lodge in the District has undertaken to include in the agenda of each meeting a Masonic Education topic presented in this way.

Special meetings were arranged for the District Senior Wardens and Junior Wardens and the respective Grand Lodge Wardens were guests of honour on these occasions. The interest displayed in these evenings and the pleasure with which we received our Grand Wardens pay tribute to the worthiness of these projects. A very rewarding experience was the occasion when Waverley Lodge played host to the Worshipful Masters of the District. It was an inspiration to see the Masters of the lodges gathered together with so many of their brethren and confer a degree in such an imposing manner.

This has been a busy but happy and rewarding year. I have endeavoured to bring to the office of D.D.G.M. the dignity and respect exhibited by my predecessors and worthy of this distinction. I am grateful to all those who helped to make this an outstanding period of my life and for being able to enjoy the true meaning of brotherhood with so many of my fellows.

Whilst feeling a great deal of personal pride in being the representative of the Grand Master in Wellington District, I am also very humble in the fact that I was considered worthy of that high office and trust that I have fulfilled my duties faithfully and well.

ARTHUR B. BARTON, D.D.G.M.

WESTERN DISTRICT

It has been a pleasure and a privilege to represent Western District as its District Deputy Grand Master during the 1961-62 year. To the brethren who nominated and later elected me and to the Grand Master who confirmed the election I offer my sincere thanks. Mine has been a pleasant task. While I previously knew many Masons within and without Western District, my acquaintanceship has been greatly increased by meeting and mixing with other fine Masons who make up a part of our great Masonic family.

The ten lodges in the District have been visited. Western is a vast, thinly settled area. In visiting all the lodges, plus going to and from Grand Lodge, a District Deputy Grand Master will travel in excess of seventy-five hundred miles. Possibly this is not a great distance in terms of outer space but it does represent something when travelling throughout North-Western Ontario. It has been a pleasure going about the area with V. Wor. Bro. Plumridge, my District Chaplain, and W. Bro. Moline, my District Secretary. These brethren have been excellent companions and efficient officers. I offer them my warmest appreciation.

I have seen work in all degrees and would say, without exception, it has been performed with proficiency, dignity and zeal. Minor variations do exist but I feel they are minor in character only, and while we should strive for absolute uniformity we must not lose sight of the human element with which we deal.

Our membership will show a small increase this year. We do continue to suffer heavy losses through death. This is something which we cannot control. My sympathy is extended to those whose loved ones have been called to the Grand Lodge Above.

In examining the affairs of the lodges I note that all appear in a solvent state. Adequate fire insurance is carried and premises are well maintained. Arrears of dues, with two exceptions, do not appear excessive. Lodges concerned are taking steps to rectify this situation.

A program of Masonic Education is being conducted by most lodges. Much credit for this situation is due to my immediate predecessor, R.W. Bro. Norman E. Johnson, who did much to introduce and later to encourage Masonic Education in the District. The Kenora-Keewatin Past Masters' shield for Masonic knowledge was won this year by a team from Golder Star Lodge ably coached by the Junior Warden, Bro. David Whitten.

One hundred and ninety-nine brethren made blood donations up to the date of final report. This is a substantial increase over the previous year. The figure would have been considerably more had it been possible to delay reporting for a few days. A second travelling clinic visited the District and was well patronized shortly after the dead-line for reporting. Blood donations could be increased if Red Cross can arrange clinics at points not now served. One lodge reported six of its members gave blood to save the life of a seventh. Do you know of a finer example of Masonry at work?

Due to distance between lodges an important phase of Masonry is missing in Western District. I refer to inter-lodge visits. Kenora and Keewatin, due to proximity, can and do enjoy such visits. Some of the southern lodges are also so located. Golden Star and Sioux Lookout are sixty-five miles from each other, while Chukuni is one hundred and forty miles away from its nearest neighbour. Atikokan presently has its access by road from the east only. It is two hundred and eighty miles by road to the closest lodge in the District. Rail travel from the west does not lend itself to inter-lodge visits. These distances and isolation made visits difficult and could result in lodges becoming parochial in outlook. I venture to say there are a number of brethren in the District who have never sat in any lodge, other than the one in which he was made a Mason. Such a restriction of view is not good for Masonry.

Items of interest observed in my travels was a father conferring the Third Degree upon his son. Another was twin brothers being initiated on the same evening. I mention these two incidents because I feel they belong in the pages of Masonic history.

I am glad to report that most lodges have held a Divine Service during the year. I like, too, the idea, which is spreading, for holding annual Memorial Services for departed members. It is an added means of cherishing their memory.

In concluding I wish to say that, wherever I have travelled in my District I have had demonstrated to me brotherly love and affection. To Grand Lodge has been shown the veneration and respect to which it is justly entitled.

J. A. COX, D.D.G.M.

WILSON DISTRICT

In July 1961 I was honored by being elected District Deputy Grand Master for Wilson District. It has been a wonderful privilege to have this experience. The friendly and courteous manner in which I was received in all twenty-three lodges in the District showed the high esteem all Masons have for the Grand Master and his representatives.

I appointed Wor. Bro. Howard Butler as District Secretary, Wor. Bro. George Davis as District Chaplain, and Wor. Bro. Victor Moore as District Director of Masonic Education. These brethren accompanied me on all my official visits and fulfilled their respective offices in a splendid manner.

Every lodge in the District conferred a degree on my official visit. The interest the Masters and their officers took in doing their work well showed that Masonry in the District is of a high standard. The great number of visitors that attended from other lodges showed that the brethren of the District enjoy their Masonry and are showing it to others.

I had the privilege of presenting three Fifty Year Medals and one Sixty Year Pin. On June 25 I am having the pleasure of presenting a Fifty Year Past Master Medal to R. Wor. Bro. D. M. Sutherland, a member of St. John's, 104, Norwich, my Mother Lodge.

I have enjoyed visiting with District Deputy Grand Masters from other districts and have had other D.D.G.M's and other Grand Lodge officers visit with me on my official visits. The new friends one makes by visiting in Masonry is a wonderful experience.

Most of the lodges in the District held Ladies' Nights and Mrs. Burrill and I were privileged to attend a number of these special functions and enjoyed getting acquainted with more brethren and their ladies.

Most of the lodges held Divine Services which were well attended. I attended all of these Services that was possible.

In October the District Divine Service was held in Norwich United Church with a good attendance. Very Wor. Bro. Rev. G. A. Shields delivered the message which was enjoyed by all.

I have enjoyed working with the Past Masters' and Wardens' Association which held three district meetings during the year. At one of these the brethren of Walsingham Lodge exemplified the Fellowcraft Degree and a period of questions and answers was held afterwards which proved very interesting. At the other two meetings there were speakers on Masonic Education which was of great interest to all attending.

In conclusion, I wish to thank St. John's Lodge, 104, and the brethren of Wilson District for extending to me the honor and privilege of serving them as District Deputy Grand Master. I also wish to thank all Grand Lodge officers who helped me in any way.

WELDON F. BURRILL, D.D.G.M.

WINDSOR DISTRICT

It has been a real honour and a privilege to represent the Grand Master in the Windsor District in the past year. The cordial and warm welcome which I received at every visitation illustrated the respect with which Grand Lodge is regarded by the brethren of the District.

I attended sixteen Official Inspections and eighteen Installations, as well as numerous visits on other occasions to the nineteen lodges in the District. I am deeply indebted to Rt. Wor. Bro. Geo. Turner and Rt. Wor. Bro. John Briggs who so willingly inspected three lodges during the time I spent in hospital after undergoing surgery. On all occasions I was received with dignity and respect.

Immediately on assuming office, I appointed Wor. Bro. Beverly Milner as my District Secretary. He has fulfilled his duties in a most satisfactory manner and has accompanied me on my numerous visitations. He assures me that the lodges are in good financial condition and the records have been well kept.

The Committee on Masonic Education was under the excellent guidance of Bro. Harry Harding and Wor. Bro. Norman Rattew. These two brethren gave numerous talks on Masonic Education throughout the District and are to be highly congratulated for the splendid work they performed.

Wor. Bro. Canon R. C. Brown, D.D. was Chaplain for the Windsor District, and I wish to thank him for the manner in which he discharged his duties when time permitted, owing to his heavy schedule as Rector of St. Mary's Anglican Church, Windsor.

The highlight of the year was the reception and banquet in honour of our Grand Master, Most Wor. Bro. Treleaven, on Thursday, March 29th, which was attended by over three hundred enthusiastic brethren. The Grand Master gave an inspiring address that will be long remembered by those present.

The Windsor District was also honoured on Thursday, May 24th, when our Deputy Grand Master, Rt. Wor. Bro.

J. A. Irvine, paid a fraternal visit to attend Past and Present Grand Lodge Officers' Night sponsored by Palace Lodge, No. 604. The reception was preceded by a dinner in the ballroom of the Temple, after which the chairs were occupied by Past and Present Grand Lodge Officers of the Windsor District, who conferred the Fellowcraft Degree.

The Windsor District Past Masters' and Officers' Association has had another successful year. Our Association is a great inspiration to the younger officers as, through it, the activities of the various lodges are made known. The Blood Donors' Committee, under the direction of Bro. T. Fairhurst, continues to carry out its humanitarian work and, after a slow start, is now beginning to show great improvement, due to the untiring efforts of Bro. Fairhurst and the various Lodge Committee Chairmen.

I was invited to exchange visits with several lodges in other Districts. These included visits to Chatham, Dresden, St. Marys and Thamesville. I also had the pleasure of attending the Centennial Celebration of Burns' Lodge No. 153, and the District Reception for the Most Wor. Grand Master at Wyoming on Friday, May 25th. I also attended Ashlar Lodge, No. 610, at Byron, on the occasion of Rt. Wor. Bro. R. C. Fuller's Official Visit to his Mother Lodge on the 28th of May, when they celebrated their 40th Anniversary. Several of the lodges held Ladies' Nights and on these occasions Mrs. Taylor and I were invited guests. May I express to the brethren of these lodges our appreciation for the many kindnesses and courtesies extended to us.

Individual Lodge Divine Services were held by most of the lodges in the District, in addition to the District Service which was held in the Salvation Army Citadel on May 27th., and was very well attended.

On Monday, June 4th, the Windsor District was saddened by the death of our oldest member in the person of Bro. John Liddell. A Masonic Funeral Service was held in the Masonic Temple on Wednesday, June 6th, and the esteem in which Bro. Liddell was held in the hearts of his Masonic Brethren was proven by the attendance of over three hundred brethren. We cherish his memory in our hearts.

In conclusion, I wish to thank the brethren of the Windsor District for a very wonderful year and hope that any comments or suggestions I have made will be received in the spirit in which they were given.

HARRY TAYLOR, D.D.G.M.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCE

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. J. N. Allan, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Allan, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I am pleased to submit the report of the Committee on Benevolence for the year ended May 31, 1962.

Details of the Grants for Benevolence are as follows:—

261 Grants approved and authorized at the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge in July, 1961 .....	$ 58,420.00
Interim Grants during the year .....	3,150.00
	$ 61,570.00
Less cancellations and reductions .....	3,090.00
	$ 58,480.00
Emergency Grants .....	229.00
	$ 58,709.00
Total Grants .....	$ 58,709.00

The usual meeting of your Committee prior to Grand Lodge was again held in our new Remembrance Memorial Building. The attendance was excellent and general approval of this practice was expressed by all Members of the Committee. We found that it was helpful to have the records of the Supervisor of Benevolence readily available. Your Committee completed their duties feeling assured that all applications have received sympathetic and generous consideration. We also enjoyed the privilege of lunching with our Grand Master, M.W. Bro. R. W. Treleaven, and our Grand Secretary, R.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon, at The Scottish Rite Club.

During the year, the Committee on Benevolence has suffered the loss of three of its valued Members in the passing of M.W. Bro. James P. Maher, R.W. Bro. George F. Clark and R.W. Bro. H. B. Coxon. To-day, we mourn their passing and honour their memory in paying tribute to the splendid service so graciously given to our Craft and to this Benevolent work in particular.

R.W. Bro. Geo. McQueen, our Supervisor of Benevolence, presented 249 applications for consideration; last year 259 applications were presented; 29 were new cases, being 11 less than last year. Some of these had received interim grants during the year.

Your Committee again recognizes that R.W. Bro. McQueen discharges his duties in a faithful, capable and charitable manner, and they extend their grateful thanks and appreciation to him for a job well done. We would again remind our Brethren that this Grand Jurisdiction extends over the whole of our Province. The co-operation and assistance of Lodge Officers and Members of Committees on Benevolence of the individual Lodges can, therefore, assist our Supervisor of Benevolence tremendously.

R.W. Bro. McQueen, in his report to your Committee, again emphasized the value of sympathetic guidance and assistance provided in many instances to those receiving grants, by Officers of the Lodge and by Committee Members. He was grateful too for the co-operation of those Brethren who regularly forwarded information with respect to individual cases. Such co-operation is intensely helpful to him in keeping his files up to date.

At our last Annual Communication, your Committee urged Lodge Officers to exercise the greatest possible care in completing Applications for Benevolence. We asked that full information be furnished. We were sorry, therefore, to read in R.W. Bro. McQueen's report to your Committee the following statement: "I regret to again report that we have some Lodges that have to be reminded of the importance and necessity of obtaining adequate information on the Application Forms and to see that they are returned promptly. This would indicate that there is a definite need of more intimate knowledge of the regulations as laid down in the Constitution, particularly with regard to the Rules Respecting Benevolence."

Last year your Committee urged individual Lodges to share in relieving the needs of those Members and dependents requiring assistance. We are gratified to state that most Lodges recognize their responsibility in this regard and are generous in their action. We again express the hope that very soon your Committee can report to Grand Lodge that all Lodges, without exception, are sharing this admirable practice of providing assistance for our Brethren and their dependents when such is needed.

An increase in the Old Age Security Pension during the year just past, as well as an increase in pensions to Disabled and Blind Persons and to those receiving Old Age Assistance, may have the effect of reducing requests for aid. We are, therefore, suggesting that a sum slightly less than requested last year be set aside for Benevolence this year. The gradual reduction in the amount of money provided for Benevolence is not because your Committee has been less generous in the consideration of the many cases, but rather because of Social Assistance plans provided by Governments. Hospital Care Insurance and Medical Aid now take the place of grants—often substantial ones—that were previously required from Benevolent Funds.

A study of the more than 250 cases has influenced your Committee to conclude that this increase in the grants for what might be termed Social Assistance has been helpful in another direction. More funds have been available to assist the dependents of some of our younger Members when misfortune, such as an accident or the complete loss of health, comes to the father of the family; in which instance a mother may suddenly find herself entirely responsible for the welfare of these young persons. Our Supervisor of Benevolence is intensely interested in these cases and, I may add, is most helpful in offering guidance and encouragement to such families as they face this new situation. A distinct effort is made to establish plans that will enable the children to complete their education.

Your Committee has considered all applications with the utmost care and recommends that the sum of $65,000.00 be provided for Benevolence in the year 1962-63.

We wish also to record our appreciation for the following contribution and bequest received:

Estate of Charles E. Sealey .....	$14,000.00
Contribution from the Toronto Lawn Bowling Tournament .....	50.00

We again recommend the continuance of our membership in the Masonic Relief Association of the United States and Canada.

I have deeply appreciated the thoughtful guidance and assistance of all Members of the Committee and wish to express my sincere thanks to them.

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted,

On behalf of the Committee,

JAMES N. ALLAN,
Chairman.

CALLED OFF

CALLED ON

Grand Lodge resumed Labor at 2.35 p.m., the Grand Master on the Throne.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON WARRANTS

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. W. H. Gibson, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Gibson, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is a pleasure for your Committee on Warrants to present its report for the Masonic year, 1961, 1962.

Applications for three Warrants have been received and it is gratifying to see this growth during the past year.

Your Committee has carefully examined the petitions, books and records of these three lodges and, as these are in order and neatly kept, we are happy to recommend that Warrants be issued to the three following lodges.

- (a) UNIVERSE LODGE, U.D., Markham, instituted November 21st, 1961, to be numbered 705 and placed in Toronto District "4".
- (b) THE DAVID T. CAMPBELL LODGE, U.D., Whitby, instituted January 18th, 1962, to be numbered 706 and placed in Ontario District.
- (c) EASTERN LODGE, U.D., Cornwall, instituted March 27th, 1962, to be numbered 707 and placed in Eastern District.

Your Committee further recommends that the Dispensation granted to Oakridge Lodge, U.D., meeting in the Byron Temple, London, instituted June 7th, 1962, be continued for another year.

A point of interest in examining the records of The David T. Campbell Lodge, U.D., is the fact that this lodge is being named after the late David T. Campbell, who, at his death some time ago, left a substantial Trust Fund to be administered by his own lodge, the income from which is being used to assist boys needing financial help to continue their education. We commend The David T. Campbell Lodge in providing this Memorial to this worthy Brother.

On examining the records of these lodges your Committee would make the following recommendations:

- (1) That all new lodges seek the assistance and guidance of the Grand Secretary's office in setting up their record books. This advice will be gladly given and will save time and will be of real assistance in setting up adequate permanent records which will be acceptable to Grand Lodge.
- (2) It is further recommended that all Secretaries avail themselves of the guidance given in the Book of Constitution where recommended forms and phraseology are outlined, which will assist in the proper wording of the Minutes and other details of the Secretary's work.
- (3) Your Committee would also point out and again emphasize the fact that only bound Minute Books are acceptable. There are a number of acceptable and very satisfactory loose leaf ledgers available for Membership Records. Loose cards for this purpose are not acceptable.
- (4) This Committee would also like to reiterate the recommendation made by the committees of former years that only well-skilled and experienced Masons should be entrusted with the work of Secretary of the lodge. That this has been done has very evidently been the case in the three new lodges applying for Warrants this year.
- (5) We would also recommend that copies of the Lodge Summonses should be retained and periodically bound. This is a simple and effective way of retaining accurate data in very accessible form regarding the activity of the lodge over the years.
- (6) We would also recommend that a capable and interested Brother be appointed as Historian to record the history of the lodge each year. This could be a most valuable contribution to his lodge as its history develops.
- (7) Your Committee believes that most lodges now provide fireproof receptacles for accommodating the Warrant, the Minutes, and the By-laws of each lodge. These increase in value with the years and, if they are destroyed, are most difficult, if not impossible, to replace. This recommendation is most important.

- (8) We suggest that all lodges use columnar Treasurer's Record Books. For further information in this regard please contact the Grand Secretary's office. This type of record will greatly simplify the work of the Secretary and Treasurer in handling the monies of the lodge. We also strongly urge all Secretaries to start the Minutes of each meeting on a new page and to use marginal notes in writing up Minutes, as this simplifies reference to the back items in the Minute Books.

Finally, your Committee wishes to congratulate these new lodges on the excellence of their records and to express to them our sincere good wishes for success, prosperity and happiness.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

W. H. GIBSON,
Chairman.

REPORT OF ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON LODGE BUILDINGS

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. Geo. T. Evans, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Evans, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

This 5th annual report of the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings covers a busy year with very satisfactory results.

During the year nine lodges have sent in their plans for our examination and approval, making a total of 72 since the inception of the Committee. A large number of the lodges with which we have been working in the past, have now had their Temples dedicated and the members are enjoying the benefits of their new quarters.

For the purpose of incoming Masters and District Deputies, we think it would be worth-while to re-state the purpose and procedure of this Committee.

In 1958 the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings was formed for the purpose of formulating requirements and regulations to govern the erection of new Masonic Temples, or the re-modelling of existing ones. Our particular aim is to see to the safety, comfort and convenience of the brethren. We give advice and assistance in the planning of the lodge rooms and furnish detailed instructions regarding fire escapes, stairs, toilet rooms, furnace rooms, lighting, ventilating and other matters pertaining to the construction of the building.

We have prepared bulletins outlining the procedure to be followed in initiating a building scheme and detailing the various building and electrical requirements. We also have diagram plans for the guidance of the lodge showing typical layouts of comparatively small buildings of various sizes. These bulletins and diagrams can be had, free of charge, on application to the Grand Secretary.

We would repeat what we have stressed in previous reports that lodges contemplating new buildings or alterations to existing buildings should write to the Grand Secretary for our various bulletins BEFORE any move is made to prepare plans or set up financial arrangements.

FIRE SAFETY

In our report to Grand Lodge in 1960 we expressed continual concern regarding the fire safety of our Masonic Temples throughout Ontario. In checking the plans for new or altered Masonic Temples the matters of proper exits and fire-safe construction are given close scrutiny. No plan is approved unless proper fire protection is provided.

However, up to the present time we have dealt with only about 72 of the 617 lodges in the jurisdiction and it is in remaining halls and buildings housing 545 lodges where we fear there are many buildings which are potential fire traps.

For the guidance and instruction of lodge officers in fire safety, your Committee has prepared a bulletin termed FIRE REGULATIONS No. 1. This bulletin contains extracts from Fire Regulations prepared by the Office of the Ontario Fire Marshal with accompanying notes explaining the purpose of the regulations and giving some examples of loss of life which could have been prevented by proper safety measures.

Your Committee realizes that we are entering a new field of activity which will take careful handling and should be brought into effective operation in gradual stages. We will not ask Grand Lodge for power to enforce the Fire Regulations until the lodges have had an opportunity to study them and consider what steps might be necessary to eliminate the fire hazards in their Temples.

As a starter, we recommend that Grand Lodge approve of the following steps:

(1) To have the FIRE REGULATIONS BULLETIN No. 1 printed or mimeographed and distributed to all the secretaries of all lodges and to each of the District Deputies.

(2) That the District Deputies be instructed to carefully observe the fire hazards in Temples in their district and report their findings to the Grand Secretary not later than March 31st, 1963, using a questionnaire which we will prepare for the purpose.

(3) That, if the District Deputy reports hazardous conditions, the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings be empowered to ask for a more detailed report from the lodge officers and, if necessary, have the building inspected by a competent authority.

(4) That, if conditions are particularly hazardous, the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings be empowered to require that the lodge make such alterations as may be deemed necessary to remove the hazards.

FINALLY. It is hoped that the issuing of the Fire Regulations Bulletin will be sufficient incentive to prompt all lodges to make a careful inspection of their premises and take steps on their own initiative to make their Temples fire-safe, and, if they are in rented premises, to persuade the owner to do so.

If the foregoing recommendations do not have the desired effect your Committee will report to Grand Lodge at the next Annual Communication and recommend further steps to be taken to obtain satisfactory results.

We congratulate the many lodges on their efforts to improve their Temples and wish them much pleasure and satisfaction in their endeavours.

We solicit inquiries from all lodges contemplating building and assure them of our constant desire to offer them every assistance. Needless to say, there is no charge for such services.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

GEO. T. EVANS,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL RELATIONS

This report was presented by M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by M.W. Bro. Martyn it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

No requests for fraternal recognition have been received for the consideration of the Committee during the last Masonic year. Some three or four requests have been carried over from previous years but the Committee does not feel justified in making a recommendation at the present time because we feel that we do not have sufficient information about these petitioning Grand Lodges.

During the year 1961, two new Grand Lodges were constituted. The first of these is the Grand Lodge of South Africa and it was formed on February 18, 1961. This body is made up exclusively of lodges formerly under the obedience of the Grand Lodge of the Netherlands. It had 94 lodges and 5000 members when it was constituted.

The second of these was the Grand Lodge of India, which was constituted on November 24, 1961. Preparations for the formation of this Grand Lodge have been going on for more than two years. All of the lodges under the obedience of the Grand Lodges of England, Ireland and Scotland, and situated in India and Ceylon, voted in favour, 96 from England, 6 from Ireland and 41 from Scotland. The Consecration Ceremony was conducted by the Most Worshipful, the Grand Master Mason of Scotland. The Institution Ceremony was conducted by the Right Worshipful, the Deputy Grand Master of Ireland, and their officers were installed under the direction of the Right Worshipful, the Deputy Grand Master of England. Our Grand Lodge was represented at these ceremonies by M.W. Bro. W. L. Wright, Past Grand Master.

Last year this Committee included two paragraphs in their report dealing with the Masonic situation in Cuba as it was reported to the Grand Masters' Conference in Washington in 1960. This situation is just as confused now as it was then. We can only hope the picture will clear itself and that satisfactory conditions will return to our Cuban Brethren.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

HARRY L. MARTYN,
Chairman.

REPORT OF FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, Chairman, presented this report and read the Foreword to the Reviews. The Deputy Grand Master then moved, seconded by M.W. Bro. Martyn, that the report be received and adopted. The motion was carried.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON REGALIA

This report was presented by M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by M.W. Bro. Martyn, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

This Special Committee, appointed by Most Worshipful Brother Wardley in 1944, reported extensively on matters of regalia, forms and lodge records for the three years after its formation. Following their report in 1947, Section 262 of the Book of Constitution was amended to implement their recommendations. It was considered that the work of the Committee was practically completed when this was done.

Recently it has been drawn to the attention of the Committee that while Section 143 of the Book of Constitution permits a lodge to have an Assistant Secretary as one of the officers, Section 262 does not make a provision for a jewel for that officer. It is recommended that a suitable jewel be designated for this office and that steps be taken to amend the Constitution accordingly.

It is suggested that the Worshipful Masters of all lodges should note carefully the regalia requirements that are laid down by Section 262 insofar as these requirements apply to the individual lodge. When revision was made in 1947 it was made to get some uniformity in the regalia that we use. At the same time it was intended that Masonic regalia should be in keeping with the dignity of the Order. The Master Mason's apron was the specific piece of regalia that needed to be upgraded. The Constitution calls for two metallic, silver-finished chain tassels. "The tassels themselves shall each be composed of a bar top from which are suspended seven separate chains." Some lodges have recently been providing the cheaper solid block imitation chain tassel which is definitely not what the Constitution calls for. It is expected that this irregularity will be corrected in all cases. The Master Mason is entitled to the Master Mason's apron.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

HARRY L. MARTYN,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND LAWS

This report was presented by M.W. Bro. T. H. Simpson, Chairman, and on motion of M. W. Bro. Simpson, seconded by M.W. Bro. J. A. Hearn, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Committee on Constitution and Laws begs leave to report as follows:

PART I

(1) Most Worshipful Bro. H. L. Martyn has given notice of a motion to be brought before you. The motion is intended to provide for a suitable jewel for the Assistant Secretary of a lodge where a lodge has an Assistant Secretary. Many lodges now have an Assistant Secretary under Section 143 but there is no provision in Section 262 for a jewel for the holder of this office. The proposed motion is that Section 262 of the Constitution be amended as follows:—

“In that portion relating to jewels of office for the Worshipful Masters and Officers of a Craft Lodge, after the line dealing with the ‘jewels’ for the Secretary therein, add ‘Assistant Secretary’—The crossed pens with the word ‘Assistant’ added thereon.”

There is no constitutional objection to this Notice of Motion by Most Worshipful Bro. Martyn.

PART II

This part of the Report deals with several requests which have come before the Committee and which will be presented to you to provide for concurrent jurisdiction to be granted to certain lodges and these will be dealt with in separate paragraphs.

(1) A request comes from Goodwood Lodge, No. 159, Richmond, in the Ottawa District. The proposal is that Goodwood Lodge, No. 159, should be granted concurrent jurisdiction with the various lodges in the City of Ottawa. All of the Ottawa lodges have consented to the proposal with the exception of the Lodge of Fidelity, No. 231, which is unfavorable provisionally. Richmond is 18 miles from the centre of Ottawa. Hazeldean Lodge, No. 517, at Hazeldean, which is closer to Ottawa, about 14 miles, has not sought concurrent jurisdiction. However, since the great majority of the lodges in Ottawa are favorable your Committee recommends that the request be granted.

(2) Campbell Lodge, No. 603, Campbellville, has petitioned for concurrent jurisdiction with the Burlington Lodges, of which there are two, and St. Clair Lodge, No. 135, Milton, and Waterdown Lodge, No. 357, at Millgrove. Waterdown Lodge, however, does not agree to bringing St. Clair Lodge, No. 135, at Milton, into it. St. Clair Lodge on the other hand is nearer to Campbell Lodge than is Waterdown Lodge. At the present time St. Clair Lodge, which is about 2 miles south of Milton on Highway Number 25, is now in the Town of Oakville and, therefore, has acquired concurrent jurisdiction with the two Oakville Lodges which already have concurrent jurisdiction with Burlington and Port Credit. Under Section 186 the situation is becoming somewhat complicated, since Oakville Lodges have concurrent jurisdiction with the three lodges in Port Credit which have the same rights with respect to the Toronto Lodges and this will make for a great network of lodges all having concurrent jurisdiction. Our Constitution was not originally designed to meet that sort of situation. Your Committee feels that such a situation should not be encouraged because it could eventually lead to province-wide jurisdiction for all lodges. Your Committee, therefore, recommends that Campbell Lodge, No. 603, Campbellville, be granted concurrent jurisdiction with the lodges in Oakville and Burlington with respect only to those areas which they all, combined, originally enjoyed before the Burlington Lodges were taken into the Hamilton area and the Oakville Lodges were granted concurrent jurisdiction, in 1957, with the lodges in Burlington and Port Credit. In other words, such concurrent jurisdiction will not extend to include what is now known as the Metropolitan Toronto area and the Hamilton area.

(3) This is an application by Niagara Lodge, No. 2, of Niagara-on-the-Lake for concurrent jurisdiction with the lodges in the City of St. Catharines. Ivy Lodge, No. 115, at Beamsville, at the present time shares concurrent jurisdiction with the St. Catharines Lodges, Seymour Lodge, No. 277, and Grantham Lodge, No. 697, at Port Dalhousie and Adanac Lodge, No. 614, at Merritton. The question arises whether Niagara Lodge, No. 2, should by its present action obtain concurrent jurisdiction as far west as Beamsville and vice versa. Ivy Lodge, No. 115, did not approve but there is nothing to show whether they were consulted. In 1947 Niagara Lodge, No. 2, was given concurrent jurisdiction with the Niagara Falls Lodges, also Stamford Lodge, No. 626, Stamford, and King Edward VII Lodge, No. 471, at Chippawa. The granting of this application would give Niagara Lodge a very wide-spread jurisdiction, resulting in a situation much similar to that with respect to Campbell Lodge, No. 603, at Campbellville. Your Committee, after considering this matter carefully, feels that the application should be granted but only to the extent that the wording therein provides for, namely, that Niagara Lodge, No. 2, should have concurrent jurisdiction with the St. Catharines Lodges only, and should not have in addition thereto any jurisdiction from any concurrent jurisdiction which these other lodges now enjoy. This will to some extent avoid a good deal of the confusion that might otherwise arise.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

T. H. SIMPSON,
Chairman.

DISPOSAL OF NOTICE OF MOTION

In accordance with notice duly given, M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn moved, seconded by M.W. Bro. J. A. Hearn, that the Constitution of Grand Lodge be amended as follows:

Section 262. In that portion relating to Jewels of Office for the Worshipful Master and Officers of a Craft Lodge, after the line dealing with the jewel for the Secretary, add 'Assistant Secretary—The Crossed Pens with the word Assistant added thereon.'

The amendment was adopted unanimously.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL DEAD

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. D. J. Gunn, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Gunn, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

One of the joys of attending the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge is the renewing of friendships with brethren whom we see but seldom. Conversely, we are saddened when we think of those known to us whose hands we will never clasp again and whose familiar voices are forever stilled. It is no formal tribute that we pay each year to those of our number who will be with us no more. The development of a Mason who becomes a Grand Lodge Officer is the result of years of service to the Craft. No man can have such an experience without increasing his mental capacities and adding to his spiritual awareness of man's character and his relations both with the Supreme Being and with his fellow men.

Unfortunately, not every man who joins a Masonic Lodge will make a worthwhile contribution to the Craft. There are some who seem immune to the eternal verities contained in the symbols and allegories of our ritual and who fail to catch the true Masonic spirit. Others who have an appreciation of its worth and some understanding of its teachings are prevented by urgent claims of home, business, church or other interests from attending lodge as often as they would like to do or from becoming officers in their lodges. The bed rock of Masonry, however, is the largest group of all—the many thousands of devoted men who have grasped the mission of Freemasonry, who realize their responsibility and opportunity of playing their own part in its maintenance and advancement. From this group come the officers, the Masters and Past Masters and finally, after many years of service and experience, the Grand Lodge Officers.

In Grand Lodge in recent years, our losses have been very great. Within a short time six of our Past Grand Masters have gone from among us, and our Grand East has been sadly depleted by the death of some of the most distinguished of our number. Since our last Annual Communication, M.W. Bro. James Patterson Maher has passed to the Grand Lodge Above and the record of his outstanding service to the Craft will not soon be forgotten. Doubtless the M.W. the Grand Master will pay suitable tribute to our late brother in his Address to Grand Lodge. The Chairman of this Committee who had the privilege of knowing the late M.W. Bro. Maher for nearly forty years would like to record his appreciation of the many fine qualities of a great Mason who will be long remembered, in particular for his leadership as chairman of the special committee which raised $250,000.00 towards food parcels for Britain in the time of her need. The success of the celebration of our one hundredth anniversary in 1955 was due in no small measure to his untiring efforts.

Among the widely known brethren who have gone from their earthly labours were R.W. Bro. Geo. F. Clark, a member of the Board of General Purposes for many years, and R.W. Bro. Hector E. Wilson, the Grand Senior Warden in 1960-61. We mourn the passing of these and many other fine men who rendered great service to the Craft in their day and generation.

As we pay our last tribute of respect to departed merit, we think not only of those who gave so freely of their time and talents to the cause of Freemasonry but in particular of those who were our personal friends and whose comradeship we sorely miss. As always in acknowledging our debt to them, we are again reminded of the unfinished and never ending mission of Freemasonry, and we are grateful that many fine young men are taking up the task they had to leave behind when they slipped beyond our mortal ken.

In paying our last farewell to "those whom we have loved long since and lost awhile", let us conclude by recalling to our minds the familiar words of our ritual which we have heard so often at the graveside of a departed brother.

"While we sorrow for our loss, let us lift up hearts of thanksgiving for a life well spent, for work well done; and let us humbly pray that we may be given grace and strength and wisdom to enable us to perform our duty in the pathway of life's service."

"By the light of the Divine countenance we shall then pass without fear through the Valley of the Shadow, and at last shall receive the reward of true virtue, and acquire the possession of an immortal inheritance. For death cannot keep us from the face of God, Whose strong grip will free us and lift us out of shadows into the Light that cannot die."

With gratitude to the Great Architect of the Universe for their lives and example, we remember these departed brethren.

These Tablet Pages are inscribed and fraternally dedicated
Our Departed Brethren

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON GRIEVANCES AND APPEALS

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. M. C. Hooper, Chairman. On motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Hooper, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee on Grievances and Appeals submits its report to the 1962 Annual Communication of Grand Lodge in the following parts:

1. HAMMOND LODGE, No. 327, versus W. BRO. ALVIN V. ESSELTINE.

Proceedings of this Grand Lodge for the year 1961 record (p. 246) that W. Bro. Alvin V. Esseltine was found by the auditor of Hammond Lodge, No. 327, to be short in his accounts as Treasurer in the amount of $578.44. A charge of theft by conversion of lodge funds was laid and accepted and a trial in the lodge was held after due notice to the accused brother who failed to attend.

The lodge found W. Bro. Esseltine guilty and ordered his indefinite suspension with the recommendation of expulsion.

Grand Lodge, in July, 1961, adopted the recommendation of this Committee, directed that W. Bro. Alvin V. Esseltine be notified to appear at this Annual Communication of Grand Lodge to show cause why he should not be expelled. He has been so notified but he has not appeared.

Your Committee, therefore, recommends that W. Bro. Alvin V. Esseltine be expelled.

2. DORIC LODGE, No. 382, versus BRO. SYDNEY A. McCracken.

The earlier record of this case appears in the Proceedings of this Grand Lodge for 1961 at page 247. It is there stated that Bro. Sydney A. McCracken, a member of Doric Lodge, No. 382, having been charged with conversion of money from other individuals to his own use without colour of right, was convicted in the Magistrate's Court in Hamilton on six such charges and was sentenced to a term in gaol.

Proceedings charging un-masonic conduct were taken in Doric Lodge which found Bro. McCracken guilty of a Masonic offence as charged and resolved that he be suspended indefinitely.

This Grand Lodge, at its Annual Communication in 1961, adopted the report of this Committee confirming the suspension of Bro. Sydney A. McCracken and directed that he be notified to appear at this Annual Communication of Grand Lodge to show cause why he should not be expelled. He has been so notified. He has not appeared.

Your Committee, therefore, recommends that Bro. Sydney A. McCracken be expelled.

3. TUSCAN LODGE, No. 541, versus W. BRO. WILLIAM H. HARRIS.

This case was previously reported in the Proceedings of Grand Lodge for 1961 at p. 248. A charge, laid in Tuscan Lodge, No. 541, against W. Bro. William H. Harris, alleging acts of adultery with the wife of another member of the lodge, was accepted and referred to a Commission appointed by the Grand Master.

The accused brother appeared at the hearing, when evidence of the alleged offences was adduced and was unchallenged.

The Commission found W. Bro. Harris guilty of un-masonic conduct under Rule 1. (s), suspended him from Masonry and recommended his expulsion. The report was concurred in by this Committee and was adopted by Grand Lodge one year ago. Grand Lodge, thereupon acting on the recommendation of this Committee, directed that W. Bro. Harris be notified to appear at this Annual Communication to show cause why he should not be expelled, and suspension was continued in the meantime. He has been so notified. He has not appeared.

Your Committee, therefore, recommends that W. Bro. William H. Harris be expelled.

4. WALES LODGE, No. 458, versus BRO. HOWARD J. ROSE.

A charge was laid in Wales Lodge, No. 458, against its member, Bro. Howard J. Rose, in that he obtained a loan of $900.00 by "misstating the case" (i.e. by fraud) which loan has not been repaid.

A trial was held by the lodge on notice to the accused who failed to attend. Bro. Rose was represented in interest at the trial by a Past Master who accepted that duty at the request of the Worshipful Master. From the statements made by the complainant it appears that the accused was a frequent borrower from his brethren with a negligible record of repayment. One of the brethren also referred to a case said to be pending in the Courts but this item had not been included in the charge in Wales Lodge.

On successive ballots the lodge found Bro. Rose guilty of the charge and ordered his indefinite suspension. There was no recommendation to Grand Lodge that he be expelled.

This Committee, having carefully reviewed the proceedings in the lodge and the evidence there adduced, is unable to justify a conviction on the charge as laid without more explicit evidence of false pretences. It finds, however, that the record contains allusions to other financial dealings which, if properly charged and proved, would constitute a serious Masonic offence.

This Committee feels that the suspension may be justified on the basis of the facts alluded to in the proceedings if properly charged and proved. It, accordingly, recommends that the case be referred back to the lodge with the direction that the charge be expanded to include matters said to have been before the Courts and that direct testimony be adduced touching known fraudulent dealings of the accused and that the lodge give careful attention to its procedure as specified in the rules of this Grand Lodge.

In the meantime we recommend that the conviction and sentence be allowed to stand until the next Annual Communication of this Grand Lodge.

5. DEFENDERS LODGE, No. 590, versus BRO. T. A. NORDMAN.

A charge of un-masonic conduct was laid in Defenders Lodge, No. 590, against Bro. Toino Aarre Nordman in that he, between September 1, 1959, and June 9, 1960, at the Municipality of Metropolitan Toronto and elsewhere, did unlawfully conspire to defraud members of the public by fraudulent means.

The lodge held a trial in the Masonic Temple in Ottawa on April 18, 1962. Bro. Nordman, who was notified by registered mail under Rule 5. (undelivered), did not attend but was represented at the trial by a brother who had been one of his sponsors.

The evidence in the trial consisted of a Certificate of Conviction which indicates that a trial of the accused with others charged with the same offence took place at sittings of the Court of General Sessions of the Peace at the City of Toronto extending over 20 days in September and October, 1961, "ordered and adjudged" to serve a term of three months in the Ontario Reformatory.

The lodge found Bro. T. A. Nordman guilty of unmasonic conduct and directed his indefinite suspension with a recommendation for expulsion from the Order.

Following the practice adopted by this Committee with the approval of Grand Lodge in certain cases previously decided, where trial on the actual evidence of the commission of the offence is not presented to the Masonic tribunal, but where guilt has been established beyond question, either by the admission of the accused or by the conviction or finding of a Court of competent jurisdiction, this Committee recommends that the Grand Master and the Grand Lodge, by virtue of the inherent power and jurisdiction vested in them, do confirm suspension of Bro. T. A. Nordman forthwith and further recommends that he be notified to appear at the next Annual Communication of this Grand Lodge to show cause why he should not be expelled, and that in the meantime the suspension be continued.

7. EAST GATE LODGE, No. 693, versus BRO. LAWRENCE EDGAR POTTS.

A charge of unmasonic conduct was laid against Bro. Lawrence Edgar Potts under Rule 1. (s), and was accepted by the lodge which requested that a Commission be appointed by the Grand Master to try the case.

The Grand Master appointed a Commission consisting of W. Bro. Lloyd J. Tomlinson, V.W. Bro. Leighton S. Walker and R.W. Bro. Willard M. Gordon, to hear and determine the charge. The Commission found that the affirmative evidence of the complainant was not corroborated in any way and of itself was not convincing. The accused attended the trial and emphatically denied the charge.

The report of the Commission was that no charge of unmasonic conduct had been proved.

This Committee accepts the finding of the Commission and recommends that the charge be dismissed as not proved.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

M. CLEEVE HOOPER,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PRINTING AND SUPPLIES

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. J. B. Sainsbury, Chairman and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Sainsbury, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee on Printing and Supplies, composed of Rt. Wor. Bros. H. S. Johnston, J. O'Donovan, Lyndsy Brown, A. B. Barton, J. L. MacKinnon, Harry Taylor and the Chairman, begs leave to submit the report of expenditures on printing and supplies for the year ended May 31st, 1962, as follows:

Constitutions for re-sale .....	$ 2,840.00
Manuals and Works for re-sale .....	6,334.94
Funeral Services for re-sale .....	571.65
Installation Ceremonies for re-sale .....	305.25
Proceedings and Postage .....	4,639.13
Grand Lodge Bulletins (3 issues and postage)	4,126.67
Printed forms, circulars, records, office stationery and supplies .....	2,689.36
Syllabus for Masonic Education (2 issues) ...	78.55
Fraternal Reviews (2,900) .....	865.25
Preliminary Reports (3,500) .....	1,027.30
	$ 23,478.10

There is a small increase in the total of expenditures reviewed by this Committee over the amount reported for the previous year. The substantial cost of Manuals and Works will be recovered over the next year or two as these are requisitioned by the various Lodges in the Grand Jurisdiction. There is a reduction of $1,313. in the expenditure for Grand Lodge Bulletins which, added to the amount of $3,150. required in the previous period for a five years' supply of Master Mason Certificates, largely offsets the other increases recorded in this report. The printing of the Preliminary Reports was again increased to meet the requirements of the Brethren.

The Chairmen of the various Committees are to be commended for their prompt action in completing their reports as soon as the necessary information was available.

This Committee wishes again to express appreciation for the quick and efficient service given so willingly by our Grand Secretary and his staff.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

JOHN B. SAINSBURY,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC EDUCATION

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. W. K. Bailey, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Bailey it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. and A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee on Education for the year 1961-62 composed of M.W. Bros. W. L. Wright, H. L. Martyn; R.W. Bros. E. G. Dixon, B. B. Foster, Wellington Smith, W. M. Prentice, A. J. Anderson, R. F. Brown, G. H. Weston, F. P. Lowry, G. J. Patterson, H. G. Bates, T. J. Purvis, G. S. Matthias, R. A. Stewart, C. B. Rycroft and W. K. Bailey as Chairman, begs to present its report to the One Hundred and Seventh Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

During the year five communications were distributed to the members of the Committee and to the District Deputy Grand Masters and through them to the Supervisors and Lodge Chairmen of Masonic Education. We are indebted to M.W. Bro. W. L. Wright, P.G.M. for the composition of one of the communications, "The Centrality of the Holy Bible in Daily Living" and to R.W. Bros. F. P. Lowry and H. G. Bates for the preparation of the two issues of the "Syllabus of Instruction." The latter were printed and distributed through the courtesy of the Grand Secretary's office directly to the Lodge Secretaries. Judging from the Lodge reports to the District Deputy Grand Masters there are all too many instances in which these communications are not being placed in the hands of the Lodge Chairmen and interested brethren.

Perhaps we ought to feel amply rewarded for our time and effort if at least four hundred Lodges make some use of the articles and syllabus. In any general programme it is next to impossible to anticipate the needs of any particular Lodge or District. Be assured that the Committee on Masonic Education is receptive to suggestions for improving the service which we endeavour to render to the Lodges. Many inquiries have been made from individuals and Lodges. It is encouraging to be asked to do this because we know that the material is filling a specific need and is likely to be used to good advantage.

The Committee would like to express appreciation to the District Deputy Grand Masters, Supervisors and all the Brethren who have assisted in Masonic Education programmes this past year. We would respectfully recommend, as has been suggested in the reports of many of the District Deputy Grand Masters, that provision should be made for more continuity from year to year in the personnel of the District and Lodge Committees on Masonic Education.

Outlines and brochures of Masonic Education programmes throughout the Districts are welcomed by our Committee. It is our earnest endeavour to give every assistance to the primary and essential work being done in the Lodges and the Districts. From Prince Edward District the District Deputy Grand Master reports that a visitations' schedule was drawn up whereby one half of the Lodges in the District were requested to act as hosts to the other Lodges. The guest Lodges in turn were designated to present a programme of Masonic Education using as resource material the Proceedings of Grand Lodge, History of Grand Lodge, Book of Constitution and Manual for Instructors and Students, commencing with a short talk at the 6.30 p.m. banquet hour. The requests were faithfully fulfilled, the meetings were well attended and the brethren expressed themselves as well rewarded. Eastern District Supervisor is to be highly commended for organizing a very comprehensive programme of Training in Masonic Education for Worshipful Masters, Wardens, Lodge Chairmen and Master Masons for presentation next November.

The Committee is greatly indebted to M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, Custodian of the Work and member of our Committee, in advancing the cause of Masonic Education through the regional meetings with the District Deputy Grand Masters in August and September. As a past Chairman of this Committee, M.W. Bro. Martyn was in a position to offer valuable suggestions and to stress the importance of a continuing programme of instruction and enlightenment for Worshipful Masters, the officers and the members.

It is quite unlikely that many Worshipful Masters and Wardens, other than through Past Masters' and/or Wardens' Associations, have had any formal instruction on how to employ and instruct their brethren in Masonry. This most important duty should be indelibly printed upon the hearts and minds of all Worshipful Masters. Its implementation, not only in esoteric teachings of the Craft, but also in the many teachings of the Order of which the Ritual makes no mention or only oblique reference at the most, should also be pressed home. Otherwise we can hardly find fault with the brethren who are often frank in saying that they find the never-ending succession of degree work very dull, tiresome and monotonous. In focusing our programme of Masonic Education towards the newer members, we have all too often neglected to provide for the somewhat specialized and specific instruction and information necessary to the Worshipful Masters and Wardens as they assume the duties and obligations of the highest office within the gift of their brethren.

Certainly it is not necessary or mandatory that the Master himself should do all the instructing. Most Lodges have extremely knowledgeable Past Masters and brethren, who, under the guidance of the Education Committee and with the encouragement and support of the Worshipful Master, can assist with this activity. At least these brethren can be encouraged to extend their researches and given opportunity to pass their findings along to others.

In recent years in an endeavour to create and maintain interest in ritual work, Worshipful Masters are enlisting the assistance of the members. It does not necessarily follow that because a brother has a good memory that he is a good ritualist. We are obligated to these brethren to provide instruction for them on how to prepare and deliver the work. It is quite as important to the candidate and the members how ritual is given as what is recited. We ought not to assume that because a brother has heard certain parts of the ritual many times over and can memorize easily, that he comprehends the import of the charge and can present it meaningfully and impressively to the candidate.

Many men, sensing the challenge, satisfaction and enlightenment that Masons seem to get out of their Masonry, make application hoping to partake of the fruits of Masonry, but unfortunately all too often many become disillusioned. There appears to be no fruit for them. They forget that all fruit is grown from seed and therefore the fruit of Masonry has had to develop from a seed or germ of Masonry, carefully planted and delicately nurtured to a well-informed and practising Mason.

In the ceremonies of making a Mason, we do not attempt to do more than indicate the pathway to Masonic knowledge and to lay the foundation for the Masonic edifice. The brother must complete the structure or pursue the journey for himself by reflection, by reading, by study, by action.

Our ceremonies and symbols, beautiful as they are and teaching valuable lessons of industry, morality and religion, must never be allowed to be mistaken for the lessons to be taught and caught. In other words they must never become idols before which we kneel, but rather sign posts pointing the good life for which we, as creatures of the Great Architect, ought always to strive.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

W. K. BAILEY,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CONDITION OF MASONRY

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. B. B. Foster, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Foster, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is my privilege, on behalf of the Committee, to present the report on the Condition of Masonry in this Grand Jurisdiction at this One Hundred and Seventh Communication of Grand Lodge.

All District Deputy Masters are unanimous in their declaration that they appreciate their election to office and the subsequent experience gained while filling that office. They are also emphatic in stating that the District Secretaries fill a most useful role in relieving them of essential but repetitive work, thus freeing them to deal with problems requiring their personal attention.

The report of this Committee is dependent upon the reports of the District Deputy Grand Masters. The co-operation of these representatives in getting their summaries in on time is worthy of recognition and congratulations. It is also indicative of the zeal and devotion to duty with which they appear to have discharged their obligations during the past year. The individual problems of each Lodge seem to have had personal consideration by the District Deputy.

All books and records have been kept in approved form, and the Secretaries and Treasurers of the Lodges should receive the approbation of all members. One book, however, that receives no mention, and which your Chairman considers of sufficient importance to be mentioned here, is one containing the history of a Lodge. It is admitted that the minute book includes the account of the happenings in a Lodge room, but does it encompass the complete record? Does it contain the little details that show the reasons for the success of the Lodge, and something of the character of its members? We suggest that Lodges without an active historian select one because the little items of today become the modifiers of history tomorrow.

Most reports state that the ritualistic work continues to be of a high standard. The excellent calibre of the Officers responsible is reflected by the remark of the District Deputy Grand Master of Wellington District, who observed, "It is evident that the Worshipful Masters and Officers were sincere in their work and anxious to pass on to the candidates their faith in Masonry and the conviction that only the best in any man is good enough." Lodges of Instruction are still being held in some Districts and these will inevitably contribute to uniformity in the work.

From the reports received, it would appear that this year has been quite successful. The number of Lodges has increased by five. This year we welcome the following: Universe in Markham, David T. Campbell in Whitby, Eastern in Cornwall, and Oakridge in London. Those temples that have been constructed in the past year have been dedicated; several others are in the process of being built, while many of the older ones are being redecorated. These actions are indicative of the fact that Masonry is becoming more aware of the need for buildings and furnishings commensurate with the dignity and importance of the Craft.

In the reports of this Committee in past years, many references have been made to the problem of Lodges with large memberships. Our Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. J. A. Irvine, suggested in the 1961 report of the Committee on Warrants that fifty or more Lodges might be instituted in the immediate future. This suggested increase has been thought impossible since it would require added working space. This is perhaps a governing factor but your Committee presents the following as a partial solution: that, where the number of Lodge rooms is limited, the Lodges concerned reduce the number of their meetings on an equitable basis in order to provide space for new Lodges.

Many reports list the names of distinguished Brethren who, after long and faithful service, have passed to the Grand Lodge Above. Accompanying each name is a warm personal tribute to his accomplishments. Thus we recognize the contribution these leaders have made to the Craft. Your Committee commends those Lodges which hold Memorial Services for those servants of the Craft who have departed.

The Past Masters', Officers', and Wardens' Associations continue to fire the spirit and action of the Districts in which they function. They are a unifying force, and they present an avenue through which flows an ever increasing stream of information. They also bring together the active leaders of a District to whom accrue the dividends of fellowship and the satisfaction of working together for the welfare of the Craft.

For the third year in succession this Grand Lodge has been called upon, by the most solemn admonition, to consider life's uncertainty. The passing of M.W. Bro. J. P. Maher was a further blow to those gallant leaders who have given so much of themselves to the maintenance and direction of the Craft in this Grand Jurisdiction. Those Masons who were so proud of the minutely detailed arrangements for our Centennial, and who were thrilled by its success, feel a particular sense of loss. We are certain that his unselfish service will continue to influence the welfare of this Grand Lodge in the future as it has in the past. Two valued members of the Board of General Purposes also taken from us were R.W. Bros. G. F. Clark and H. B. Coxon. Their talents were many and this Grand Lodge benefitted directly from the exercise of those talents. All of them always acted as God requires—they dealt justly, they loved mercy, and they walked humbly with their God.

All the District Deputy Grand Masters express their satisfaction when they are called upon to recognize, on behalf of Grand Lodge, the veterans of our Craft by presentation of jewels and pins. We salute our senior members for their past contributions and congratulate the increasingly larger number that is continuing to be active though advancing in years.

Your Committee is pleased to recognize the good work carried on by the Blood Donors' Committee. In this endeavour the Mason displays his greatest regard for his fellowman. Many Masons make contributions, but do not report it to the Lodge Chairman; hence the total recorded must be considered a minimum.

Our dependence upon Divine guidance is receiving continued emphasis. District Divine Services and local Lodge Services are being held in most areas. Each District has its Chaplain, and every report speaks enthusiastically of the leadership given in this most important phase of Masonic life. Your Committee joins with all Masons of this Grand Jurisdiction in expressing our gratitude to the District Chaplains for adding these Masonic duties to their own religious labours. R.W. Bro. Canon A. J. Anderson, the Grand Chaplain, has been most active at dedications, Divine Services and after dinner speeches. From a study of the reports of the last few years, it would appear that more and more Masons are learning to appreciate the privilege of worshipping together in His House.

No one can estimate the total impact of one personality on a group. All reports from Districts where the Most Worshipful the Grand Master has visited indicate that M.W. Bro. R. W. Treleaven has been able to impart his happy and purposeful disposition to his brethren. The reports attest to his ability to lead the members of this Grand Lodge to a deeper appreciation of Masonic precepts and to a realization of their responsibility to incorporate these precepts into their lives. Your Committee expresses the unanimous hope of all Masons that the Great Architect of the Universe will continue to bless our Grand Master with health and vigour to carry on his important task.

Masonic Education remains, as always, a fundamental activity of our Lodges. Each District has had a Supervisor to coordinate the work this year. It appears that 1961-2 has been a very successful year. R.W. Bro. W. K. Bailey, Chairman of the Committee on Masonic Education, has presented many workable ideas to the District Deputy Grand Masters for furthering the programme. The real success of the endeavour, however, rests squarely on the shoulders of the Lodge Chairman and District Supervisors.

Dwindling Lodge attendance is mentioned in several reports. It is an old problem which can be at least partially solved if a sincere effort is brought to bear on it. Suggested solutions include the following: 1. prompt opening of Lodges; 2. despatch in handling the business (without neglecting full discussion); 3. well planned degrees; 4. few speeches in the Lodge room; 5. more time made available for the social hour after the meeting; 6. making sure that members are able to leave by 11:00 p.m. Some Lodges have found a dinner before the meeting has improved attendance.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

B. B. FOSTER,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARY COMMITTEE

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. W. M. Gordon, Chairman. On motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Gordon, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge, A. F. & A. M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is the pleasure of this Committee to report on the activities and the condition of your Library for the Masonic year 1961-62, and we here wish to thank you for the favour that you conferred on us when you appointed us to this important task.

But before going into the details and summary of our work, perhaps you will allow us to recall a bit of the early history of this Committee, to name some of the luminaries of those earlier years, and for the record, to mention the date and place where such data may be found.

Now, the first time that a Library Committee was set up as a sub-committee of the Board of General Purposes was in 1937; (see page 389 of the Proceedings of that year). Previous to that time, there had been a Special Committee whose Chairman was the late M.W. Bro. Charles Hamilton. The late R.W. Bro. John Ness became Chairman in 1938, and he was succeeded in 1943 by R.W. Bro. G. F. Kingston; in 1944 by our now P.G.M. Harry L. Martyn; in 1949 by R.W. Bro. John R. Rumball; in 1951 by V.W. Bro. B. S. Edmondson; in 1960 by R.W. Bro. Molson Cain, and last July the M.W. the Grand Master entrusted the responsibility to me. I think that you will agree with me when I say that our Grand Lodge owes much in appreciation of the services of those who have carefully tended and encouraged this garden of Craft Knowledge over these past twenty-four years.

So much for the earlier days. Now, let me tell you what has been done in this past year. Our records show:

Visitors to the Library .....	885
Books loaned to local borrowers .....	339
Books mailed to outside districts .....	269
Letters written to brethren in the Jurisdiction and elsewhere .....	101

In addition to the foregoing expected services, our Library also acts as an information centre for travelling Masons, who may happen to be in the city and for many who ask for information as to the locations and names of Lodges in perhaps the British Isles, in Australia or in the large country to our south and other countries. Quite frequently there are calls from those who have the idea to join Freemasonry, but do not know how to go about it. Your Librarian has to answer these calls every day.

Additions to our Library sometimes come from the estates of deceased brethren as well as by purchase. We have what is probably the finest Masonic Library in Canada. It comprises the newest and the oldest books, the best of all current Craft publications; and our facilities enable us to direct enquiring brethren as to where they may purchase books which they may wish to add to their private libraries.

All of the foregoing is tinged with a rosy and hopeful hue, but we must report one feature that gives rise to some concern. We, on our part, are most happy to cater to the wishes of our borrowers. We loan, either by hand or by mail, valuable books to these brethren. The majority, by far, return those loans on time and in good condition, but there are the few that are negligent in conforming to our rules.

When this happens, books are lost—some of them irreplaceable. Your Committee would, therefore, like to point out to the membership that books retained on loan for longer than the prescribed period—or in some cases not returned at all—are, therefore, unavailable to others who desire to read or borrow them. Our resources must be shared with the greatest number.

Your Chairman is pleased to announce that a new booklet has now been prepared of the books in your Library. This booklet is available to you on application therefor to the Librarian, 888 Yonge Street, Toronto. Your Chairman desires to pay tribute at this time to the members of the Committee and to others who so conscientiously discharged this task. It is the hope of your Committee to make arrangements for a wide distribution of this booklet in order that members at large be made aware of the great fund of Masonic knowledge available at the Library.

And in conclusion, may we quote a few words from a good brother in New South Wales who said, a few years ago that "as Masonry is a progressive science, that our ceremonies of initiating, passing and raising, though admittedly important functions, that the educative work of Freemasonry should be the chief responsibility of those entrusted with the government of our Lodges". To assist and further this noble aim is, we consider, the purpose and mission of our Library.

Respectfully submitted.

WILLARD M. GORDON,
Chairman.

GRAND CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. A. J. Anderson, Grand Chaplain, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Anderson, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful, the Grand Master, Officers, and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

As a small boy I was encouraged to memorize a poem which was said to be a favourite of Abraham Lincoln. It opened like this:—

“Backward, turn backward, O time in thy flight.”

At this particular moment I can quite readily echo the thought expressed, for the past year has glided by so very swiftly that I cannot quite realize my term of office as Grand Chaplain is at an end. It has been a rare privilege indeed to follow so many worthy men, and attempt, in a small way to emulate their contributions to Masonry in this Grand jurisdiction.

On numerous occasions during the past year I have been honoured to be present with some of the brethren at district and local Divine Services. The most kindly reception has always been afforded me, and for this I am grateful. Perhaps I may be permitted to say that if any one of these services stood out above others, it would be one held in Holy Trinity Church, Plevna, in the northern part of Frontenac County. This service was under the auspices of Sharbot Lake Lodge, and I felt extremely privileged to worship with brethren, many of them old friends, who travelled from far and wide to be present.

I beg to report, Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren, that all but two or three Districts in this Province have appointed District Chaplains—at least, all but this number have reported such appointments. To these District Chaplains the Craft owes much, and I am confident that many a District Deputy Grand Master will bear this out.

A special tribute has been earned by the Assistant Grand Chaplain, whose unswerving enthusiasm for Masonry has been a tremendous help to the Grand Chaplain.

An emphasis made in the report of the Grand Chaplain last year, bears repetition here. It has to do with the holding of Divine Services. The general public is only vaguely aware of the meaning of Masonry, and that our Craft is God-centred. We have in the Divine Service an opportunity to witness in strength to the face we hold.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

ALLAN J. ANDERSON,
Grand Chaplain.

REPORT OF BLOOD DONORS' COMMITTEE

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. G. E. Turner, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Turner, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Blood Donors' Committee begs to present the report of its activities for the year 1961-1962.

Prior to the submission of this report, I would like to express our sympathy to Rt. Wor. Bro. Frank Shannon on his illness, which necessitated the relinquishing of the Chairmanship of this Committee, our thanks to the G.A.O.T.U. for restoring him to health, and our hope that his good health will continue for many years to come.

At the time of compiling this report, there was a decrease in the number of donors amounting to 312, which gives a grand total of 5,307 donors. The following is a list of Districts, together with the District Chairmen, and the number of donors reported from each District, compared with the number last year.

DISTRICT	DISTRICT CHAIRMEN	DONATIONS
		1961	1962
Algoma	R.W. Bro. Stewart I. Knox	425	222
Brant	Bro. Wesley Clark	130

Let us briefly consider the above table. Hamilton "A" District has reported the largest number of donors, and we heartily commend Wor. Bro. Fred Scott for his untiring effort. There was an increase of donors in 21 Districts, a decrease in 6, and 10 Districts failed to report any donors. Among the 10 Districts failing to report, there are 5 which have failed to report for 2 years, and of these, 4 have failed to report for 3 years. We must assume, either correctly or incorrectly, that these Districts are not interested in this undertaking. The Committee would like to assure any Chairman of assistance in setting up his local committee.

We tender our sincere thanks to those who have assisted in the preparation of this report. Our particular thanks go to the District Deputy Grand Masters, who, although busy with other duties, have so graciously assisted the Chairmen whom they have appointed. The Chairmen have been of great help, and we hope that they too, have benefited from their experience. Finally, our appreciation is extended to the Grand Secretary and his staff for the many services extended during the year. I would also like to extend my personal thanks to R.W. Bro. Shannon for his unselfish help during the year.

This Ancient Order, if it be true to its traditions, has work to do. Let each and every one of us go forth from this meeting, into our great jurisdiction of 136,000 Masons, full of determination to support the Blood Donor Service of the Red Cross Organization. Let us return next year full of satisfaction that we as Masons, have shown the world at large, that we are willing to practice that great Masonic virtue, Charity, which we all hold so dear to our hearts.

Since this report was submitted to the Grand Master for his consideration, two further reports have been received.

DISTRICT	PREVIOUS	NEW REPORT
Sarnia	0	250
St. Lawrence	0	262

This increases the number of donors reported from 5307 donors to 5819, and this results in an increase of 200 in the number of donors instead of a decrease. Keep up the good work.

GEORGE E. TURNER, M.D.,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON AUDIT AND FINANCE

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. R. C. Berkinshaw, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Berkinshaw, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Reports of the Grand Treasurer, the Grand Secretary and the Auditor, which have been referred to this Committee for consideration by this Annual Communication of Grand Lodge, appear to fully and accurately set out all pertinent details relative to the financial position of this Grand Lodge for the year ended May 31, 1962.

They contain full information on all receipts and disbursements in respect to the General Fund, the Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds. They also include details of all transactions and changes in the Capital Account and schedules of the securities in which Grand Lodge funds were invested as of the above mentioned date.

Your Committee makes the following observations on certain subject matters covered by these reports:

1. The total par value of the above mentioned securities as of May 31, 1962 was $1,458,002.36; Cash on Hand and in the Bank amounted to $11,632.28, bringing the sum of all resources to $1,469,634.64, as reported by the Grand Treasurer. This is an increase of $51,745.02 over the corresponding figure of a year ago. This gratifying result was attained despite the fact that during the year securities to the total par value of $156,000.00 have been sold from the General Fund Investment Account and the proceeds used to retire the balance of Bank loan indebtedness incurred in financing the construction and equipment of the new Grand Lodge offices in the City of Hamilton. It is noted that, in addition to saving carrying charges, this latter transaction also had the effect of releasing from escrow investments previously held for the account of the Bank as security for loan requirements.

2. All securities in which Grand Lodge funds are presently invested are in the category of Trustee Investments, with the exception of 5% Series "A" and "B" Debentures of Masonic Holdings purchased under authority of Grand Lodge to a total par value of $372,000.00 — $20,000.00 less than the $392,000.00 reported as being held a year ago and reflecting a corresponding redemption by Masonic Holdings of $20,000.00 of its outstanding debentures during the year under review. This Committee has been advised that it is the intention of Masonic Holdings to periodically redeem these debentures whenever funds are available for such purpose.

Grand Lodge securities, with few exceptions, are registered as to capital and interest. They are held by the Canada Permanent Toronto General Trust Company as its duly appointed Custodian and are insured against loss. However, this Committee suggests that since the risk involved is negligible and the premium on this insurance relatively high, this coverage should not be renewed when the present policy expires during the current month.

3. Receipts for initiation fees, dues, commutations, interest on investments, etc., amounted to $232,294.45, being $8,144.40 in excess of the forecast. On the other hand, total disbursements of $196,107.58 were $17,026.02 less than the estimates. Two items of expense mainly contributed to this unusually wide discrepancy:

- i Only 40%—$5,072.78 of the premium payable under the Contingent Liability Insurance Policy was paid during the past year in accordance with a new method of instalment payment extended over a three-year period, as arranged with the underwriter.
- ii The Amount of $44,070.00 paid out of the General Fund toward Benevolent Grants was substantially lower than the appropriation provided for this purpose in the Budget.

A strict control of all expenditures has been maintained.

According to the audited statements, grants for Benevolent purposes amounted to a total of $59,377.42, almost $6,000.00 less than the figure for the previous year.

Under this heading your Committee again draws to the attention of Grand Lodge the fact that, though no known cases of need which fall within the responsibility of this Grand Lodge have been neglected to the slightest degree, there is a continuing downward trend in the number of cases and in the demands on Grand Lodge funds for Benevolent Grants—a condition which has arisen from the development and establishment, during recent years, of a broad system of social security benefits supported by general taxation.

Since, as reported by the Auditor, the resources shown in the General Fund Account include an accumulated sum of $124,008.96, which is available for Benevolent purposes only, in accord with the provisions of Section 245 (m) of the Constitution, the present time would appear to be appropriate for (a) a reappraisal of Grand Lodge position vis-a-vis its possible future obligations and responsibilities to render financial assistance to Brethren in need, taking into consideration current conditions and those which are likely to prevail in the future; and (b) a full consideration of ways and means of putting these funds to more advantageous use within a broader concept of benevolence than has been envisaged in the past.

Requirements for Benevolent Grants for the current year are estimated at $65,000.00, of which amount your Committee recommends that 50% should be paid out of the General Fund. The income and income funds available from the Combined Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds will be sufficient to provide the balance. Your Committee recommends that all the income derived from capital investments of these two last mentioned Combined Funds should be applied to the fullest possible extent in meeting Grand Lodge annual obligations for Benevolent Grants.

The practice presently followed in making payments of authorized grants appears to be unnecessarily complicated; consequently, your Committee suggests that a more simplified procedure be developed, subject to the consent and approval of the Grand Lodge Auditor.

The time, thought and careful consideration given to all cases requiring financial assistance of this Grand Lodge by the Chairman and members of the Committee on Benevolence, especially the Supervisor, R.W. Bro. George J. McQueen, merit the highest praise and commendation of our membership.

Your Committee recommends that Grand Lodge approve the six special donations made under the authority of the Grand Master and itemized in the audited statements submitted by the Grand Treasurer, namely:

U.N.I.C.E.F. ....	$ 400.00
Boy Scouts, Ontario Division .....	400.00
Girl Guides, Ontario Division .....	400.00
Cancer Fund, Ontario .....	500.00
Heart Fund, Ontario .....	500.00
Ontario Society for Crippled Children .....	500.00
Total .....	$ 2,700.00

Details of insurance coverage, placed by Grand Lodge and currently in effect, have been checked by the Auditor and verified by the members of this Committee, who are satisfied that Grand Lodge property, wherever it may be situated, is adequately covered against loss by fire, theft or other hazards.

This Committee has received the fullest co-operation and assistance of the Grand Secretary, the Grand Treasurer and the Auditor of Grand Lodge accounts in its review of all matters covered by this report and formally recommends to Grand Lodge the adoption, without amendment, of the reports submitted by the above mentioned Officers, who are to be commended upon the conscientious and faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices. This Grand Lodge is fortunate in having the benefit of their talents, experience and devoted service. The interesting and informative statements which they have presented deserve the thoughtful consideration of all Brethren in this Jurisdiction.

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted.

On behalf of the Committee,

R. C. BERKINSHAW,
Chairman.

RE CHARITABLE TRUST

At the request of the Grand Master, R.W. Bro. R. C. Berkinshaw, Chairman of a Special Grand Master's Committee charged with the duty of reviewing and reporting to the Grand Master on the subject of a re-apportionment of the per capita fee as levied under Section 245 (m) of the Constitution, submitted an interim verbal statement covering a proposal for a revision by amendment of Section 245 (m) and the establishment of a Foundation or irrevocable Charitable Trust.

In his remarks, R.W. Bro. Berkinshaw pointed out that a study of the above subject revealed the following facts:

1. In recent years, grants by Grand Lodge for benevolent purposes, both in number and amount, have shown a diminishing trend, although adequate and appropriate provision has been made for all cases deserving assistance.
2. This downward trend is likely to continue due to the fact that the present system of social security benefits, which is supported by taxation, has relieved Grand Lodge to a substantial degree of many obligations which it would otherwise be called upon to assume.
3. As a result of this trend, there has accumulated in the General Fund account, as of July 31, 1962, a substantial sum which is available for benevolent purposes only under the present rigid constitutional apportionment of the per capita fees.
4. If present revenues continue, this accumulated sum will continue to build up year after year to disproportionate figures unless some remedial action is taken such as is proposed by the Committee.
5. That a fixed constitutional apportionment of the per capita fee is no longer necessary nor advisable.
6. That a more flexible procedure should be adopted to provide for changed and ever-changing conditions without the formality of a constitutional amendment.
7. As one means of accomplishing the objective set out in item No. 6, the Board of General Purposes could be authorized and empowered to periodically, as required, make such apportionment of the per capita fee as may be necessary to meet all obligations of Grand Lodge for benevolent grants.
8. That the time is opportune for a reappraisal or reorientation of Grand Lodge policy in relation to benevolent grants—indeed, towards benevolence in its most general form.

Consequently, as a result of these findings and deliberations, the Special Committee proposes that certain recommendations as set out below be submitted in due course for consideration of Grand Lodge.

- (a) That Section 245 (m) of the Book of Constitution be amended by striking out the words "of which sixty cents shall be used for benevolent purposes only and sixty cents shall be paid into the General Fund" so that it will read as follows:

- (m) "for every member of a Lodge whose fees have not been commuted to Grand Lodge, including honorary and charter members, $1.20 per annum; for each member whose fees have been commuted to Grand Lodge after July 1st, A.D., 1960, the Lodge shall pay 10 cents per annum.
- (b) That appropriate legal action should be taken by resolution of Grand Lodge pursuant to notice duly given, to provide:—
  - i That all monies in the General Fund designated as to origin or purpose—particularly for benevolent purposes only—be merged in such Fund without separate identification or restriction as to use.
  - ii That the Board of General Purposes shall have authority and power to designate from time to time appropriations from the said General Fund in such amounts as the Board may deem adequate and expedient, according to the needs and requirements of such Grand Lodge activities and obligations (including grants for benevolent purposes) as may be recognized and sanctioned from time to time by the said Board.
- (c) That Grand Lodge take such steps as may be necessary to create a Charitable Trust or Foundation.

In connection with this last recommendation (c), R.W. Bro. Berkinshaw outlined in general form certain characteristics which, in the opinion of the Committee, should be given due consideration in providing for the establishment of a Trust Foundation:

1. It should be incorporated under the laws of the Province of Ontario as a non-profit organization without share capital.
2. Under its charter, it should be given broad powers and objectives, such as receiving, holding, managing and distributing funds or assets to or for the benefit of charitable and philanthropic endeavour of any nature which will effect the purpose of Masonry.
3. Both capital and income of the Foundation should be available exclusively for such charitable, scientific or educational purposes as Grand Lodge may from time to time recognize, sanction and confirm.

4. The Trust or Foundation should have all the qualifications of a charitable organization as defined by law to which all contributions, bequests, legacies, devises or transfers may be deductible, either in computing the taxable income of the donor or from the value of an Estate for Succession Duty purposes.

To attain the above objective, it will have to be constituted as an irrevocable Trust.

5. It should be managed by a Board of Directors and should operate under the terms of a Deed of Trust between Grand Lodge and the Foundation defining the scope of the projects and objectives which could or should be underwritten or supported by the Foundation.

6. The capital of the Foundation may be provided or obtained from several sources; e.g:

- i Initially, by transfer from the General Fund Investment Account of a sum equal to that which has already accumulated in said Account and is to be used for benevolent purposes only.
- ii By such amounts as may from time to time be deemed by Grand Lodge to be available for transfer from the General Fund Account.
- iii By annual appropriations of such portion of the per capita fees as may be deemed available for this purpose by the Board of General Purposes.
- iv By contributions, gifts, donations, legacies, bequests, etc., which it is anticipated would be made by individuals, especially Masons who may desire to aid a worthy charitable endeavour, the character and activities of which were favourably and widely known.

In making this interim report, R.W. Bro. Berkinshaw pointed out that before the details of the proposed plan could be submitted to Grand Lodge for final consideration and appropriate action, certain legal formalities must be complied with, including Notices of Motion and the preparation of an appropriate and satisfactory Deed of Trust, the terms of which would clearly establish a basis for the operations and activities of the proposed Foundation.

He therefore, requested that Grand Lodge favourably consider the appointment of a Special Committee to give the subject further study and submit its recommendations to the next Annual Sessions of Grand Lodge in July, 1963.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

To the Most Worshipful, the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee on Fraternal Correspondence for the Masonic Year 1961-62, composed of M.W. Bro. W. L. Wright, R.W. Bro. J. A. Irvine, R.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon and M.W. H. L. Martyn, Chairman, reports as follows:

FOREWORD

As has been the custom for several years the Committee Report is presented as a Foreword to introduce the Reviews of approximately sixty Grand Lodges from far and near. The members of our lodges are given an opportunity to get an insight into the workings of the Masonic Jurisdictions in other parts of the world. The Committee hopes that these summaries will be informative and interesting to our members.

One can find in these pages the problems that Masons meet in other jurisdictions. It is interesting to note that many of these are common to all jurisdictions. Then again we may compare the various ways that Masons are attempting to meet these problems and to strengthen the institution of Masonry wheresoever dispersed over the face of the globe.

No attempt will be made to give a subject index to the different topics. However, an odd suggestion might be made to direct the readers to some of the pressing Masonic questions of the present.

Many lodges and Grand Lodges are giving attention to their finances and the dues' structures in their lodges. The reader may find interesting comments and decisions on this under Arizona, Nebraska, Oregon and Maine.

It should be no surprise to us to find significant comment on the link the Order has, and should have, with the Church. Some of these appear in the review of Colorado, Michigan, South Dakota, North Dakota and South Carolina. This topic will also be mentioned in many of the other Reviews.

In all these Reviews the attention of the reader is directed toward differences and similarities in procedure and operation and one soon realizes that Masonry is a very vital and living force in the world now as it has always been in the past. In order that we may do our part to ensure the future of the Order, we must be aware of trends abroad as they might influence our lodges. Masonic Education, lodge attendance, qualification of lodge officers and such related subjects will be found discussed in these pages. The comment on the "Examination of visitors" as taken from the Utah Review has something for us to think about.

So we leave the printed word to the individual. Much time and expense have gone into the preparation of the Reviews. We feel that this can be completely justified if our members will take advantage of the opportunity of getting the broad view of world-wide Masonry. We can then feel that we are an integral part of this great institution which stretches far beyond the bounds of our Masonic Jurisdiction.

The Committee desires to express its appreciation to our Reviewer, R.W. Bro. James J. Talman, for the masterly way he has prepared and written the Reviews. All that follows comes from Brother Talman's pen.

Respectfully submitted,

H. L. MARTYN, Chairman.

ALABAMA—1961

141st Annual Communication—November 21-22

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. G. L. Evatt
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. A. R. Fant

Lodges, 434.                      Membership, 76,511.                      Gain, 106.

Since the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of F. & A.M. of Alabama for 1960 arrived too late for inclusion last year this review actually covers two years of activity.

Of the several ceremonies of laying cornerstones the most satisfying during the year was that for the new chapel at the Alabama Masonic Home.

Another singular event was recorded when a new Lodge building was dedicated and consecrated for Lee Lodge No. 454. This Lodge laid the cornerstone, completed construction and retired all indebtedness during the current year.

The Grand Master pointed out that the Masonic Home of which all in the Grand Jurisdiction are justly proud "is big business, and expensive." The Home has 115 residents, a great portion being ill and requiring attention. The total Masonic Home budget, including farm operation was $223,920.00 for the year.

The Grand Master recommended that an official Grand Historian be appointed to prepare for the coming Sesquicentennial of the Grand Lodge in 1971. He also recommended that in 1963, and ending in 1970, three cents per member, excluding Ministers of the Gospel, be set aside with the annual returns in a special fund to celebrate the occasion.

During the year it was noticed that the Grand Lodge seal was wearing out and needed to be replaced. At the same time the absence on the old seal of any reference to "Free and Accepted Masons" was noted. A new seal was designed with the words added.

The first Sesquicentennial of any Lodge in the Grand Jurisdiction occurred during the year. The Lodge is Helion No. 1. From the roll of Lodges it would appear that eight more Lodges are on the eve of similar anniversaries.

ALBERTA—1961

56th Annual Communication—June 14-15

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. W. H. Harper
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. M. G. Merner

Lodges, 170.

Membership, 19,237.

Gain, 306.

Much interest is apparent throughout the Province in the formation of new Lodges, particularly in new areas and in the larger cities, according to the Committee on the Condition of Masonry. Grand Lodge has cautioned all petitioners to be sure that there are sufficient permanent members in a community to continue satisfactorily. The reports of the District Deputies seemed to indicate that when a Lodge reaches a membership of over 300 the percentage of attendance declines. The Committee added: "The parking problems and the long distances to be travelled from the newer areas surrounding our cities undoubtedly have an adverse effect on attendance."

The Grand Master refused a request to move a Charter to put on degree work in the same city as he thought that members should not be deprived of the privilege of witnessing the conferring of degrees on new members and the same result could be obtained by inter-lodge visits.

R.W. Bro. G. Towers, D.D.G.M. District No. 4 spoke highly of the welfare of Masonry in his District. "I have no complaint to make whatsoever with regard to the work, zeal and qualifications of the Masters and Officers of the several lodges." He was concerned, however, over the records of attendance and made a point, not often brought out, but no doubt valid, when he wrote: "I find that it is not just the newly made Mason who is drifting away but what is more noticeable is the absence of the Past Masters at the meetings." He pointed out the great responsibility of these Past Masters to contribute their inspiration and guidance.

The only Lodge in the North West Territories is Yellowknife Lodge, No. 162. It continues to thrive despite the fact that the membership is of a transient nature. Both attendance and membership increased during the year. The Lodge maintains a high standard of work and also carries out a full social programme with a bonspiel, golf match, family picnic and a very successful Masonic Ball. Strong representations have been made to establish a Lodge at Fort Smith, also in the N.W.T.

The speaker at the Grand Lodge banquet was our own M.W. Bro. C. MacL. Pitts. He was received most enthusiastically.

Masonry, clearly has progressed a long way in Alberta and all members are associated with a thriving and ever growing fraternity, as the Committee on the Condition of Masonry concludes.

ARIZONA—1961

79th Annual Communication—April 24-25

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. E. A. Spitler

Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. H. W. Holley

Lodges, 60.

Membership, 12,589.

Gain, 319.

The full name of this Grand Lodge is The Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Arizona. Of the twenty-five living Past Grand Masters, twenty-one attended Grand Lodge.

One of the special meetings of the year in the Grand Jurisdiction was the Annual Texas Canyon Outdoor Communication which the Grand Master attended. A good soaking rain, greatly needed in the area, did not dampen the spirit of the occasion.

Of thirty amendments to by-laws approved, ten raised fees, ten raised dues and eight raised both fees and dues. The trend to raise fees noted last year evidently is continuing.

The Constitution of the Grand Lodge provides that a Master-elect must qualify for a certificate of proficiency before he can be installed. This year one of the Masters-elect failed to qualify and the Grand Master ruled that the Master should continue in office until time, circumstances or constitutional procedure warranted a new election. Evidently the Grand Lodge is wisely determined to maintain high standards among lodge officers.

One interesting question was put to the Grand Master "Are beer and wine considered as liquor by the Grand Lodge of Arizona?" He ruled that they are.

The Grand Lodge was host to the third annual meeting of the Masonic Conference, in September, 1960. The Conference is made up of representatives of the Grand Lodges of Arizona, Arkansas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas. The subjects covered were "Public Relations," "What is being done to retain the interest of the newly made Masons?" "Public Schools," "Trial Procedures," and "Should a Lodge sponsor or participate in a project serving to identify the Lodge with its community?"

The interest of the Grand Lodge in education was shown by the setting up of scholarships of $400. each.

ARKANSAS—1961

120th Annual Communication—November 21-22

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. J. B. Donham
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. B. M. Butt

Lodges, 381.                      Membership, 55,200.                      Loss, 504.

Although the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons of Arkansas suffered a fairly substantial numerical loss, the year was one of great physical expansion. Seven cornerstones for new Temples were laid and several new ones dedicated. One new Lodge was constituted. Peace and harmony prevailed so universally in the Grand Jurisdiction that the Grand Master was not called on to make any recommendations, decisions or interpretations throughout the year.

The Grand Master attended two open air meetings. At the first held "in the Gravel Pit in Harrisburg" there were about 500 in attendance. This is an annual affair. The second meeting "held in an open field on Buttermilk Bend on Black River near Pocahontas" also attracted 500. The Master's Degree was conferred.

The Grand Master concluded: "Brethren, if you will permit me to give you my opinion of these meetings, I will have to say, 'What can we do? What kind of a program can we have that will entice the brethren of our state and other Grand Jurisdictions to drive hundreds of miles to come and see the degrees put on in an intelligent manner?' They do not come for the fried chicken or catfish so to speak; they come for the association and fellowship with the brethren and to hear the ritual and see the floor work."

During the year the Grand Master wrote to every newly raised Master Mason welcoming him into the Fraternity. In the same period one hundred fifty-year buttons were awarded.

Arkansas Research Lodge No. 739 is a most active organization. One paper prepared by the Lodge on Fay Hampstead, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Arkansas for fifty-three years, a poet and a historian, was printed in the Proceedings. The Grand Master put forward a proposal to erect a bust to the memory of this distinguished Mason in the Albert Pike Memorial Temple, Little Rock. It may not be generally known that Albert Pike was the first Arkansas Mason to attain high distinction in world Freemasonry. An article of Pike was included.

Another article prepared by the Research Lodge was a timely one on Masonry in Arkansas during the Civil War. In spite of the trials and difficulties of the time, Masonry was active. When the war between the States ended, leading Masons from every section of the country assembled at Columbus, Ohio, determined that peace and harmony should prevail. Had their example been followed by other elements in the nation and particularly the political, much subsequent hardship and injustice probably could have been avoided.

BRITISH COLUMBIA—1961

90th Annual Communication—June 22-23

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. C. G. McMynn
 Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. J. R. Mitchell

Lodges, 166.                      Membership, 26,729.                      Gain, 221.

The Grand Master spoke at length on the importance of Masonic Education. In part he said: "In this modern world, with many changes taking place, I feel we should be continually endeavouring to improve and expand our efforts in the promotion of Masonic Education. . . . I feel it is too much to expect that the basic facts and fundamental principles of Masonry can be taught by the conferring of the several degrees by the Lodge, and the candidate learning the work required of him. The operative Mason in ancient times spent seven years before he became a skilled Craftsman and a Master Mason. In Speculative Masonry we become a Master Mason in a few short months.

"Freemasonry cannot be learned in a few easy lessons. Every candidate should receive individual instruction in the basic facts and fundamental principles of Freemasonry. Time is not sufficient for this to be done in the Lodge. Problems brought to my attention during my travels, some small and some of great concern to the individual or Lodge, would not have occurred had those concerned been better informed. We cannot expect to eliminate problems, human nature as it is, few or any of us are perfect, but through expanding Masonic Education we can reduce the number of problems. This should be our objective."

At the same time the Grand Master was pleased to be able to report that he had not been called on to make any rulings.

The reports of the D.D.G.M.'s show that they were active and found the work being consistently well done. Most Lodges have improved their financial positions. Interchange of fraternal visits continued. King Solomon Lodge No. 17 visited Bellingham Bay Lodge No. 44, Bellingham, Washington, for the fifty-fourth year.

The Committee on Fraternal Correspondence commented on the tendency of some to blame sparse attendance at meetings on activity in so-called "appendant organizations." The Committee noted that they found that Brethren active in these organizations were also regular in their attendance in their Lodges. They added "Although we find some other Grand Lodges refer to their Constituent Lodges as 'Blue Lodges' we in this Grand Lodge consider it proper to designate our Lodges as 'Craft Lodges.' "

CALIFORNIA—1961

112th Annual Communication—September 25-29

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. A. F. Breslauer
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. G. B. Mize

Lodges, 700.                      Membership, 243,346.                      Gain, 1,527.

Last year the Grand Master recommended that a special committee be appointed to study the propriety of adding "and HAWAII" to the name of the Grand Lodge. The Committee met with representatives of the Lodges in the Hawaiian Islands and recommended that the name be not changed. So the full name of the Grand Lodge remains "The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the State of California."

Once again the Grand Jurisdiction enjoyed a most successful year. Lodge No. 801 was constituted in Honolulu. Thus, for some time future Lodges will be numbered in the 800's. In addition to the 700 Lodges shown above as working in California there are four active Research Lodges. There are now ten Lodges in the Hawaiian Islands, seven located in the vicinity of Honolulu and one on each of the outlying islands.

After many years of planning, the Grand Lodge Library was brought into existence in the California Memorial Masonic Temple. It is hoped that in time the Library will be the finest collection of material dealing with the early Masonic history of California and Hawaii.

Each year sees the laying of many cornerstones in California. But this year in addition, saw what must surely have been something unique when on two occasions the Grand Lodge was convened for the special purpose of re-laying cornerstones which had been laid with Masonic ceremonies one hundred years previously. The first was at the century-old Columbia Elementary School House. The second meeting was called for no less a purpose than to re-lay the cornerstone of the State Capitol, at the request of the present Governor of California. The first occasion was May 15, 1861, the second May 13, 1961. "Masonry received most favorable comments in the press for these events."

There are some interesting statistics presented regarding the Home for Children operated by the Grand Lodge at Covina. With an estimated capacity of 178, the number in residence has dropped steadily from 148 in 1938 to 47 in 1960. The pleasing feature of the drop in totals is that one of the factors making for the decline is generally improved family stability and financial resources. A question does arise, however: "Should terms of admission be made wider in order to make fuller use of the facilities?"

The Committee on Policy and General Purposes considered a resolution that minimum dues in all Lodges be raised to $15.00 per year from the present statutory $12.00. The Committee was unanimously opposed to the proposal. Only 121 Lodges have $12.00 annual dues, one $14.00 while all the rest have dues $15.00 or higher. Many of the Lodges with low dues do not require extra income as they own their own temples and operate inexpensively. Of the other Lodges one sets the annual dues at $25.00, four at $24.00 and twenty-two at $20.00. The average in the Grand Jurisdiction is $15.56.

The Grand Lodge has operated Masonic Homes for over sixty years. Inevitably, some of the buildings are no longer new. A handsome new hospital building was opened at Union City and in a few months the population reached a peak of 96.

The old town of Columbia is now a State Park where several buildings have been restored. The Grand Lodge, at the cost of many thousands of dollars has rebuilt the old Masonic Temple to its original condition. It is now frequently used for conferring degrees. The Committee on Masonic Cemeteries recommended that the Grand Lodge also restore the Masonic Cemetery there to a presentable condition.

COLORADO—1961

100th Annual Communication—January 24-25.

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. C. M. Ray
 Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. L. H. Snyder

Lodges, 167.                      Membership, 47,098.                      Gain, 235.

Since this was the one hundredth Annual Communication of The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of Colorado, accounts of the plans for the celebration of the centennial of the organization occupied a leading place. The state wide celebration was planned for Denver in September and many local commemorative meetings were planned. A sum of $52,000 has been budgeted for the celebration. The Committee has worked hard and well and next year's Proceedings, which describe the events, should be interesting to read.

The Church and Masonry work well together in Colorado. The Grand Master presided at the Summer Sunday Evening United Worship Service of the Denver Area Council of Churches. This service always has a large attendance. But on this occasion the attendance was the largest on record.

The Grand Master was also invited to lay the cornerstone of a United Presbyterian Church as part of the Sunday morning services. While the request was unusual the Grand Master acceded to the wishes of the congregation in view of the circumstances and conditions that we as a fraternity face today. The Grand Master discovered that the Grand Master of New Mexico also laid the cornerstone of a church during a Sunday service in 1959. The Grand Master concluded "I know that in our Grand Jurisdiction there is a strong feeling in favor of support of churches, which stand for the concepts and ideals on which our fraternity is founded."

Further evidence of the fraternal feelings between the Grand Lodge and church bodies was shown in the decisions of the Grand Master. A lodge wished to allow the Divine Science and Lutheran Church groups to use their Masonic building and lodge room for services on Sunday mornings until they could complete their new buildings. The question was would this be permissible? The decision was that it was entirely permissible and a matter for the lodge to decide, providing there was no money involved which might cause technical complications regarding taxes, and, of course, providing that all lodge paraphernalia, equipment, etc., were removed.

Another uncommon enquiry posed the problem "as to whether or not a petition should be received from a man of sub-normal stature, more commonly known as a midget." The decision was that the stature did not matter as long as the petitioner had the "thinking, attitude, concepts and qualifications to becoming a Mason."

The Grand Lodge has a Committee at work to investigate the possibility of developing pleasant and inexpensive housing accommodations for such members of its constituent bodies in good standing, their wives and widows who cannot otherwise obtain satisfactory housing upon reasonable terms. This proposal follows the decision of the year previous that Colorado would not set up a Masonic Home.

During the year the Grand Master constituted four new lodges and granted dispensations to two more.

Masonry in Colorado is in a healthy condition.

CONNECTICUT—1961

173rd Annual Communication—April 5-6

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. R. H. Milnes

Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. P. D. Collier

Lodges, 133.

Membership, 47,645.

Loss, 295.

The Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Connecticut is the full name of this Grand Jurisdiction.

The former Committee on Masonic Education is now known as the Committee on Masonic Culture and Public Relations. The first fruits of their labours is an officers' manual. This is a digest of the material which has accrued over the years through the efforts of the former Committee. A careful perusal of the Manual should enable any officer to have a much clearer idea of his duties and responsibilities.

Another new Committee on the Condition of Masonry suggested that it appears that one of the most prevalent difficulties in Connecticut Freemasonry today is the lack of knowledge and information on the part of some Masters and other officers of Lodges. The Grand Jurisdiction is evidently doing something to alleviate the situation.

Although poor attendance is mentioned, it may be noted that a dispensation was granted to Wolcott Lodge No. 60 to hold its stated communication in a memorial hall, adequately tyled, because the regular meeting place was too small to accommodate the expected attendance. Twin sons of a Past Master of the Lodge were to receive the M.M. degree.

Likewise, St. Alban's Lodge No. 38 received dispensation to work a degree in a high school as the anticipated attendance was expected to exceed the safe legal capacity of the regular Lodge Room. The Lodge invited six other Lodges with the name "St. Alban's" to be its guests. The Lodges were from far afield: Foxboro, Mass., Bristol, R.I., Marshall, Mich., Jackson, La., Glendale, N.Y. and the Canadian representation from Montreal, Que.

In 1955 the penalty for non-representation at the Annual Communication was raised from $8.00 to $25.00. Since then the Lodges have been represented 100%. One Lodge failed to file its annual return on time. The fine of $15.00 set by the regulations was promptly paid. The Grand Jurisdiction is evidently operated in a most businesslike manner.

The Grand Lodge operates, most successfully, a Home and Hospital for men and women. The total assets are approaching seven million dollars. Between the two institutions three hundred are accommodated.

During the year the Committee on Delinquency and Finances of Lodges graded the constituent Lodges into: Class A, those which were operating on dues alone, Class B, those which were operating on dues and fees and Class C, those which were operating at a loss. The Lodges classed as C are few in number. Forty-three Lodges have raised or intend to raise their fees or dues, or both.

For a number of years Masonic Education, Libraries and Publications have been the subjects of consideration during informal conferences in New England and adjoining Grand Jurisdictions. Connecticut acted as host in 1960. More than sixty individuals registered representing fifteen Grand Lodges.

The Grand Historian reported: "On March 2, 1961 occurred the 250th anniversary of the birth of David Wooster, Father of Freemasonry in Connecticut. This was appropriately observed in Hiram Lodge (1) of New Haven (which he founded in 1750).

"The year just ahead is notable for the occurrence of the 150th anniversary of the founding of Warren Lodge (51) now of Portland, and of Mt. Olive Lodge (52) of Essex. And still more so for the 200th anniversary of old St. John's Lodge (3) now of Bridgeport, marking two centuries of unbroken Masonic history in Fairfield County."

There are important anniversaries approaching in many Lodges not to mention the coming 175th anniversary of the Grand Lodge itself.

The Committee on the Condition of Masonry recommended the encouragement of the formation of lodges in suburban towns where a local lodge is in a position to be of service to the community. More than one Grand Jurisdiction is recognizing the importance of locating lodges where the Brethren can attend close to their homes.

The same committee added "Whenever a brother moves from the local jurisdiction, we would further suggest that the lodge secretary write a lodge in the Mason's new place of residence, to alert that lodge of the arrival of another brother in their community."

The Grand Lodge Reviewer is M. Wor. Bro. E. K. Haling. He devoted a full page to the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

The Grand Lodge of Connecticut, in addition to having a long and honorable history, clearly is well served by its constituent Lodges and Committees. It appears to be in a most healthy condition.

DELAWARE—1961

156th Annual Communication—October 4-5

Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. H. C. Johnson

Lodges, 25.                      Membership, 8,829.                      Gain, 124.

The full name of this Grand Jurisdiction is The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of Delaware. Of the twenty-four living Past Grand Masters, no fewer than nineteen attended the Annual Communication.

Since the Grand Jurisdiction is small, the Grand Master is able to visit each Lodge annually. At these visits, it has become the practice of the Grand Master to present fifty-year pin awards. This year he presented forty-two.

The Grand Lodge has a fine Home maintained by a competent staff. Part of the support comes from voluntary contributions of the Masons of the State. An average of forty-two out of every one hundred Masons in the State contributed.

It is a matter of interest that after more than a century and a half of activity, there is a lack of uniformity in the ritualistic work, particularly between the upper and lower sections of the State. A Committee has been working on the problem and it is expected that uniformity will be established.

Although the Grand Jurisdiction has shown a consistent, though small, increase of members over recent years, the Grand Master expressed his concern over the number of highly qualified able and upright-living men who have never developed an interest in the Craft. His conclusions are extremely well-reasoned. "So much for our problems. They are far from unique to us, but it is here in Delaware that we can do something about them. We are faced today with the problem of adjusting to the space age. There is no use for Masonry or for the World to look back at the glories or the comforts of the past. We can go only in one direction—forward. But we can move intelligently with the benefit of experience and adapt ourselves to changing conditions so as to attain maximum good.

"What can we do? We can make it easier for brethren to come to lodge. We can make more brethren want to come. And, we can improve the popular image of Masonry so more of the right men become Masons.

"To do this we must have more and smaller lodges. These lodges must be accessible, they must have parking space. In our larger cities it is physically impossible for a brother to have dinner with his family and attend lodge. We must take the lodge to him. To get members to meetings we must make them part of the meeting. No brother is going to come month after month to sit in the lodge and passively listen to the same old words. Nor do I think that entertainment is the answer. There is far better entertainment available by television and radio in the comfort of his own home, if that is what he wants. He must be made part of the activity. He must become an officer or a member of a team on some project. If a Mason has something to do, something to hold his interest, I am not worried about attendance. I have observed many times, in many organizations, that the ones who come out are the ones who are actively participating in what is going on."

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA—1961

Proceedings and Sesqui-Centennial Celebration (1811-1961)—
February 22, and 151st Annual Communication—December 20

Grand Master, 1961—M.W. Bro. R. McP. Wolfe

Grand Master, 1962—M.W. Bro. C. B. Dean

Lodges, 48.                      Membership, 22,623.                      Loss, 524.

At the Sesqui-Centennial Celebration, M.W. Bro. Baker Harris, P.G.M. gave a brief history of the Grand Lodge, F.A.A.M. of the District of Columbia. He showed that Freemasonry has not only existed in the National Capital from the very first days, but it actively and publicly participated in the founding events. The narrator went on:

"It was more than a decade thereafter before the Lodges within the Federal District determined to form their own Grand Lodge. The records show that the Brethren were most reluctant to sever their ties with the Grand Lodge of Maryland. Finally in 1811, with the blessing and assistance of the Mother Grand Lodge, the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia was organized and has had continuous life to the present day. From 5 lodges and a few hundred members it has grown to 48 Lodges with some 25,000 members, all within the District's small geographical area of only 69 square miles.

"As early as 1815 the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia was invited to lay the cornerstone of historic St. John's Church on Lafayette Square, across from the White House. Thereafter, our Grand Lodge during the 19th and this 20th century has been invited to lay scores of cornerstones of public buildings, institutional buildings, churches and monuments, located in all parts of the Federal District. This has given our Grand Lodge a unique and literal tie with the physical growth of our National Capital."

The observance of the Celebration took a four-fold character. First an evening of entertainment, to welcome guests from Grand Lodges throughout the United States and Canada; secondly, a service of thanksgiving in the Washington Cathedral; thirdly, a dinner for Grand Lodge Officers, past and present, Masters and Wardens and their wives; and the bringing of the History of Grand Lodge up to date.

ENGLAND—1961

Quarterly Communications—March 8, June 14, September 13
Annual Investiture—April 26

Notices of Meetings, dated December 2, March 3, 1962

Grand Master—The Rt. Hon. The Earl of Scarbrough, K.G.

Grand Secretary—V.W. Bro. James W. Stubbs

The Notice of the Quarterly Meeting to be held on March 14, 1962, reported that in 1961 there were, 6,996 Lodges on the Grand Register and that eighteen Lodges had been warranted since December 13, 1961. The list again shows the wide range of the United Grand Lodge of England for Lodges were warranted in Transvaal and Ghana.

At the June Quarterly Communication the Grand Master announced that a Warrant had been granted to St. George Lodge, No. 7763 which was the first English Lodge to be formed in Nyasaland.

The Board of General Purposes emphasized that so-called "Masonic" Tours had no official sanction. They also drew attention to the practice of inserting into advertisements or circulars references or phrases which could hardly fail to convey to the initiated reader that they were written by Freemasons and designed to catch the eye of Freemasons. The practice, they declared, is liable to bring Masonry into disrepute and contravenes a Grand Lodge ruling.

The Grand Lodge recognized the Grand Lodge of Southern Africa. This Grand Lodge was formed when the Netherlandic Lodges in South Africa broke away from the Grand East of the Netherlands. The first Grand Master, bearing a most distinguished South African name, is M.W. Bro. Col. C. Graham Botha. He was installed in Cape Town on April 22. There are 246 Lodges in South Africa on the Roll of the United Grand Lodge of England. The rights of the United Grand Lodge of England are preserved and there is nothing to prevent that Grand Lodge from giving Warrants for new Lodges in South Africa should they see fit to do so.

The Grand Lodges of Ireland and Scotland also have accorded recognition to this new Grand Lodge.

The Quarterly Communication, September 13, received a report concerning India. In 1960 a Committee was formed in India at the instance of the Grand Masters of Ireland, Scotland and England to consider what steps should be taken to establish an independent Grand Lodge of India. The Committee recommended that Lodges of all three Constitutions be asked to express their views by ballot. The results showed that ninety-six English Lodges and a substantial number from the other two Constitutions wished to join the new Grand Lodge.

November 24, 1961, was the date fixed for the establishment of the new Grand Lodge and the installation of its Grand Master, R.W. Bro. H. H. The Nawab of Rampur, P.G.W.

It is the intention of the Grand Master not to warrant any further English Lodges within the territory occupied by the new Grand Lodge.

The Board of General Purposes with regret took leave of the ninety-six Lodges which had been in some cases for many years, a distinguished element of English Freemasonry.

FLORIDA—1961

132nd Annual Communication—April 18-20

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. J. E. Larson
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. F. G. McQueen

Lodges, 285.                      Membership, 68,551.                      Gain, 1,366.

The official designation of the Grand Lodge is The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge F. & A. M. of the State of Florida. All seventeen living Past Grand Masters attended the opening proceedings. During the year two Past Grand Masters died. One M.W. Bro. S. Caldwell, Grand Master in 1929-30, was stricken while delivering the Grand Oration, in 1960. Another severe loss came through the death of R.W. Bro. G. W. Huff who had retired during the year after serving as Grand Secretary for twenty-three years.

Feeling the need for a school for Lodge Secretaries, the Grand Master appointed a special committee to organize one. The "pilot" school so far exceeded all expectations that a second was held during the year and the committee recommended that the incoming Grand Master authorize three in various sections of the State.

Subjects were selected to cover all phases of the duties of the Lodge Secretary. Many of the responsibilities have to do with applications for admission to Masonic Homes, which would not be applicable in Jurisdictions where there are no homes. Other subjects covered had a universal application: Relations with other Grand Jurisdictions; Masonic Etiquette; Lodge Room Decorum; Grand Officer Reception; Grand Lodge Returns; etc. The assumption is that the Secretary usually has a long tenure of office and if he is well informed he can be of invaluable assistance to his fellow Lodge Officers and brethren.

Also in the line of education the Chairman of the Masonic Education Committee undertook a study of all the Masonic Education booklets as well as various Handbooks and reprinted all in revised form.

Feeling the need for an official Masonic publication which would afford an opportunity to the Grand Master and the Grand Lodge Officers to convey messages to the Craft, the Grand Master appointed a Special Committee to assist in the publication of "The Florida Mason." The experiment proved to be most successful in achieving its purpose.

An original proposal was put forward by the Brethren of Leesburg Lodge, No. 58. They suggested that they build a facsimile of King Solomon's Temple to promote the advancement of Masonry in Florida. The city of Leesburg agreed to provide the site. The record does not say whether the facsimile is to be life size or a reduced scale model. It will be interesting to learn how the project succeeds.

During the year various Grand Lodge officers laid nine corner-stones. One of these was for a Junior High School and another an Appellate Court Building.

The five year planning committee presented a full report on the possibilities regarding the erection of a new Grand Lodge Building.

The Committee on arrangements of Grand Lodge Proceedings advanced the opinion that the proceedings of the Grand Lodge had, in recent years, been carried on with too much haste. In stating the view, the Committee gave a brief but clear account of the extraordinary development of the Grand Lodge during thirty years.

"For instance, the same time is allotted now for the annual Grand Communication as was allotted 30 years ago at the Grand Centennial Communication in Tallahassee. At that time Master Masons in Florida numbered approximately 30,000; since then the membership has more than doubled. At that all the financial transactions of the Grand Lodge totaled less than $100,000.00. At that time, the Grand Lodge had just succeeded in selling $200,000.00 worth of bonds to put the Grand Lodge in a solvent condition. Today our annual budget is many times what it was 30 years ago and our aggregate resources amount to approximately $4,000,000.00. The necessary increase in committee work and paper work during the annual Grand Communication has almost obliterated real discussion on the floor of the Grand Lodge and real participation in Grand Lodge Proceedings by the rank and file. In our opinion this is not sound and healthy. Haste makes waste; and 'in the multitude of counselors there is safety'; and we believe that more participation in the work of the Grand Lodge by the rank and file is most desirable."

Undoubtedly the most trying episode experienced in any Grand Jurisdiction in 1961 was that reported by the Grand Master. He received a letter from Most Worshipful Dr. Juan Jose Tarajano Gonzalez, Grand Master of Masons in Cuba, saying that he, his family, the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer were in exile in Miami. After setting up a committee the Grand Master met with Brethren from Cuba and learned that the records, paraphernalia, membership list and other records of the Grand Lodge of Cuba had been seized and confiscated by the civil authorities of Cuba and that the Grand Master and other officers had had to flee for their lives.

Later the Grand Master received a petition from the Grand Master of Cuba for permission to reside in the Grand Jurisdiction of Florida and to conduct the affairs of the Grand Lodge of Cuba and take whatever action might be suitable and appropriate.

The request was unusual but the Grand Master of Florida acceded to the petition and authorized and permitted the Grand Master of Cuba and Grand Lodge of Cuba to reside within the boundaries of the Grand Lodge of Florida and "to take such official and fraternal action in Masonic affairs as is appropriate under the circumstances to the same extent and in full measure as they would or could within the boundaries of the Grand Jurisdiction of Cuba."

Altogether, the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Florida provide a full and varied record revealing the work of a fine Grand Lodge.

IDAHO—1961

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. J. C. Herndon
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. C. W. Simmons

Lodes, 84.

Membership, 14,916.

Gain, 23.

The Proceedings open with the full name of the Grand Lodge which is described as the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of Idaho.

Among the ten rulings of the Grand Master two were of more than usual interest. The first dealt with the question as to whether or not a candidate who had the E. A. Degree and then had the misfortune to break his leg which was still in a cast could proceed. The Grand Master ruled that if he was otherwise proficient permission should be granted, with due caution being taken under the circumstances. The second request came from Weiser Lodge No. 23 for permission to spend $2,500.00 for a new carpet. The Grand Master was pleased to concur and added his congratulations on the financial condition of the Lodge. Actually the Lodge is not a large one, having 181 members. The annual dues are $6.00. There is a Lodge which must enjoy excellent management.

The Grand Lodge convened in Pocatello, Idaho, for the purpose of laying the cornerstone of a fine new public library. The Grand Master concluded "This is the sort of thing we need to do more often. The beautiful ceremony not only provides incentive for the profane, but strengthens our Masonic reputation throughout the land."

The Grand Master issued two proclamations to the Lodges in his Grand Jurisdiction. The first suggested that a programme or programmes, open to the public and held in some place readily accessible to the public, should be planned to emphasize the history, origins and interpretation of the provisions of the Constitution. The second proclaimed a public school week during which brethren were to be encouraged to visit the public schools of the State.

The Grand Secretary reported a very definite drop in losses from N.P.D. He, rightly, took this as an encouraging sign and added "it is our belief that with a little work and some personal contacts we can almost eliminate this type of loss from our Lodges."

The Grand Historian gave an address devoted to the meaning of the names Lodges derived from Indian words. Surprisingly, he found that one name many thought to be Indian actually is Mormon: Lemhi, No. 11. Others, obviously are French, derived from names brought to Idaho by French Canadian fur-traders. The excellent paper suggests the possibility of a similar study of the names of the Grand Register of Canada. Certainly, Idaho does not seem to have names to equal Penewobikong, No. 487 or Kaministiquia, No. 584.

The Grand Master spoke at the dedication of a new Masonic Temple and the Grand Orator at the laying of a cornerstone of a public library. Each gave a full account of the ceremony which his hearers had witnessed. The former told of the occasion on August 1, 1636, when "a view" was taken by one of the Masons of the Company, on the completion of the "Church of St. Olave in the old Jury," after which the members attended a banquet to celebrate the event. The latter said in part: "You may be surprised to learn that the precedents in America for inviting a Grand Lodge to lay the cornerstone of a public building extend back over two hundred years, and much earlier than that in the British Isles, and the practice of laying cornerstones or foundation stones was inherited by speculative Freemasonry from medieval and far more ancient times."

A reader of the Proceedings is left with the impression that Freemasonry in Idaho is in a live and active condition.

ILLINOIS—1961

122nd Annual Meeting—October 6-7

Grand Master, 1959-61—M.W. Bro. P. R. Stephens
Grand Master, 1961-63—M.W. Bro. H. D. Ross

Lodges, 903.                      Membership, 235,803.                      Loss, 4,110.

The Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Illinois put the severe shrinkage of membership in its proper perspective.

"Again Illinois shows a growing loss in membership. This loss does not mean that Masonry is on the down grade in all departments. Nor does it mean that all lodges are gradually weakening.

"A great part of the loss is in the number of deaths with which we are faced each year and which we cannot control. A part of the loss is due to conditions in certain sections of cities which show such a deterioration that Temples are not in desirable locations. This condition will continue and lodges will be forced out of business or into a consolidation. A number of lodges have petitioned to move into more desirable locations and in most instances permission has been granted. . . .

"This loss in membership does not reflect the true picture of Masonry in Illinois. During the past two years it has been the pleasure of the Grand Lodge to convene in occasional meetings many times for the purpose of laying cornerstones and dedicating halls. As Grand Master, I have presided at 8 cornerstone ceremonies and 14 dedications. On the occasion of each cornerstone ceremony, there has been a great thrill in noting the interest of lodge members in the erection of a home. Many temples have been built with the membership furnishing a great percentage of the labor. In each case, Masonry can be extremely proud of the buildings erected and the beautiful interiors. One of the great thrills I experienced was on the occasion of the laying of the cornerstone of the new addition to the Masonic Temple at Springfield, our State Capitol. This addition is to be known as the Scottish Rite Cathedral and is for the use of all the Masonic bodies of Springfield. A project of well over a million dollars which will be devoid of any debt when completed. A dedication ceremony is to be held in 1962."

The Grand Jurisdiction suffered a severe loss through the death of M.W. Bro. R. C. Davenport, elected Grand Master in 1924 at the age of 38. He was appointed Grand Secretary in 1928, elected in 1929 and continued to serve in the office until his death, January 31, 1961. The newly appointed Grand Secretary is M.W. Bro. E. L. Lawrence, P.G.M., who also does a superb piece of work as Chairman of the Committee on Masonic Correspondence. As Chairman he writes the Fraternal Reviews.

The 57th annual report of the Illinois Masonic Home at Sullivan told of a full year. Membership totalled 299. Attached to the Home is a flourishing Holstein dairy herd. The farm also produces more pigs than can be used in the Home.

Most of the beef eaten is also raised on the farm. The cost for each member cared for at the Home each day is approximately $4.60.

The Board of Managers of the Illinois Masonic Childrens' Home submitted their seventy-sixth annual report. There were 41 children residing in the Home. At Christmas the Governor of the State, a member of the Craft, visited the Home with his family.

INDIANA—1961

144th Annual Communication—May 16-17

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. J. H. Jefferson
 Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. H. S. Jackson

The Proceedings of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Indiana are a joy to read. The Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Dwight L. Smith (Grand Master, 1945-46,) presents a statement more complete than can generally be found. Twenty pages give a historical table of all the Lodges which have ever been chartered in Indiana, showing how and when they were organized and when they received their charters. An explanation as to what happened to all extinct Lodges is included. The list shows that there have been 741 Lodges in Indiana.

For fourteen years the Grand Secretary also has reviewed the Proceedings of other Grand Lodges. He does this by subject and not by Grand Lodges. Thus if one is interested in Grand Lodge Temples and Office Buildings or Masonic Homes he needs only to look for the subject. From the many entries under some of the headings it would seem that little of the factual material recorded in sixty-eight Proceedings can have been omitted.

No fewer than six of the ten Lodges chartered at the Grand Lodge on May 30, 1860, celebrated their centennials in 1960. In 1861 seven Lodges were chartered of which six are still active. Five of the seven chartered in 1862 are still active. The figures are notable as those were trying days in the United States. In 1960 one new Lodge was consecrated and constituted.

During the year two Lodges suffered from disastrous fires. It is interesting to note that the Volume of the Sacred Law was not damaged in either case although otherwise the losses were almost complete. The fires, the Grand Master pointed out, demonstrate the need for sufficient insurance coverage which should be ample in these days of high replacement costs.

The Grand Lodge Committee on dual membership reported that a study revealed many problems arising from the shifting of the population. Some of their findings, which probably hold true of other States and Canadian Provinces, have not generally received much notice. The first point made by the Committee is that every year twenty per cent of the country's population changes its address. On this basis one out of every five Masons can be expected to move, in the same period to a different neighbourhood, city or state. When dual membership is not permitted the Mason is faced with the decision of whether to retain membership in his original Lodge or to seek affiliation with one in his new home. The Committee might have added that, apart from the question of dual membership, one fifth of those otherwise qualified to be candidates surrender their residential qualifications for a year by moving.

Another significant point made by the Committee is that in the period from 1929 to 1939, the U.S. birth rate was twenty per cent less than the average for the rest of the twentieth century. As a result there was a dip in the population now represented by the age group 22 to 32. Here may be a partial explanation of the decline in new members in recent years.

The "exploding population" and development of long strips of built up areas also should be considered, now, when siting new Masonic Temples. Altogether, the Committee produced a most thought-provoking report.

The Ritual Committee recommended that the flag of the United States "should not be used in the opening or closing ceremonies of a Masonic meeting other than to occupy its position of honor in the East." The recommendation was adopted.

IOWA—1961

117th Annual Communication—September 20-21

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. E. B. Delzell
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. L. C. Eddy

Lodges, 546.                      Membership, 92,641.                      Loss, 953.

This Grand Lodge has the word Ancient in its name and is officially described as The Grand Lodge of Iowa, A. F. & A. M.

The Grand Master's programme included five objectives; a campaign for safety on the highways, the feasibility of establishing a home for boys, a meeting in each Lodge on or near February 22 emphasizing the life of Bro. George Washington, a "reobligation night to be held in each lodge or group of lodges," and at least two fellowship nights to be held in each Lodge providing attractive programmes for non-Masons and a night to include ladies.

Among the several recommendations of the Grand Master were; Support a still greater effort toward Ritualistic proficiency and Masonic Education at the lodge level, study seriously whether or not Masonry is not too cheap in one's Lodge, and that the brethren extend the band of charity and friendship before resorting to the whip of suspension.

Of five cornerstones laid during the year one was for a post office, one for a high school and one for a federal building.

As usual the Library report was excellent. No fewer than 4,267 persons signed the guest register during the year. An average attendance of about 150 readers each working day of the year suggests that the collections must be extremely rich. The accounts show a disbursement of $6,500 for microfilming valuable books and papers. Here is a worthwhile project which might well be widely imitated.

The Grand Lodge supports the Masonic Sanitorium at Bettendorf which "is designed and is used for the care of those Masons and their dependents who by reason of their necessities and infirmities cannot be otherwise properly cared for." During the year, the Sanitorium served a total of 64 patients.

In addition the Grand Lodge, through trustees, has constructed and is operating a home for worthy and needy Masons provided by the will of Bro. Herman L. Rowley who bequeathed $150,000 for the purpose. The home is named the Rowley Memorial Home and is located at Perry, Iowa. Major expansion is planned.

IRELAND—1961

Annual Report of the St. John's Day Meeting and the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge, held in Belfast in October.

Grand Master—M.W. Bro. Raymond F. Brooke

As the Grand Master felt unable to face the great strain of the St. John's Day Meeting, the Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. George S. Gamble, was in the Chair. It is customary, on that day, for the Grand Master to give a report on the progress of Irish Masonry.

The Deputy Grand Master reported:

"It has been necessary during the year to make a lot of alterations to the Laws of Grand Lodge to bring them into line with the changing positions as regards Dominions and Colonies. These were passed at the Meeting of Grand Lodge in December, and I would mention that the lion's share in this work was done by our Grand Master, with of course the assistance of the Grand Registrar.

"One of the notable events of the year was the Constitution of the New Grand Lodge of Southern Africa. This was, shall I say, a breakaway from the Netherlandic Constitution and caused us some anxiety at first. However, their Declaration of Principles and assurances they have given made us happy as to the position of our own Lodges in South Africa, and we were able with confidence to agree to their request for recognition and exchange of Representatives.

"The Reports of all the Provincial Grand Masters show the very healthy state of Irish Masonry throughout the Provinces, and as time is getting short I would not care to single out any particular items for special mention.

"The Report from the Grand Secretary of Instruction shows the keen interest that is being taken in the Ritual not only in Dublin and Belfast but also in the Provinces.

"The Report from the Secretary of the Benevolent Institutions is also satisfactory."

The reports from Provincial Grand Lodges in many parts of the world are particularly interesting. For example, R.W. Bro. Lt. Col. W. D. Adendorff of South Africa, Northern, told of the Annual Combined Masonic Church Service, attended by approximately 1,500 Brethren of the four Constitutions in the Province.

R.W. Bro. G. J. Thomson, Southern Cape Province wrote: "The past year has been one of progress in my Province with a steady flow of desirable candidates. Despite the difficult times we are passing through, my Deputy and I had the company of 25 of our local Brethren on our annual 700 mile journey to Port Elizabeth and East London to carry out the Installations in our two Lodges there."

The Masonic Benevolent Institutions include a Masonic Girls' School, a Masonic Boys' School, and an Annuities Fund, with 312 on the register. Although no summary of Lodges and membership is given, by adding the Lodges on the list of payments to Grand Lodge, it would appear that there are 839 Lodges on the Grand Register.

JAPAN—1961

Fourth Annual Communication—March 17-18

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. Kiyoshi Togasaki
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. C. T. Nakamura

Lodges, 17.                      Membership, 2,766.                      Gain, 144.

The guest speaker was M.W. Bro. Sadaichi Horiuchi, P.G.M. He stated that it is now twelve years since some of the Lodges commenced their work and later incorporated into this Grand Jurisdiction which began its functions nearly four years ago. These Lodges are seriously looking into the future prospects of Masonry in Japan.

Most of his remarks were devoted to a description of the activities of the Board of Trustees of the Zaidan Hojin, Tokyo Masonic Association. The financial position of the Association is sound and they hold some of the most valuable land in Tokyo. But the speaker reminded his hearers, "We must remember that the legal object of the Zaidan Hojin is one of charity in addition to the promotion of fraternal facilities."

The Grand Master reported that the Fraternity in Japan is in a healthy state, sound financially and rich in spirit and experience.

KANSAS—1961

105th Annual Communication—March 8-9

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. R. W. Kinzie
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. J. H. Murray

Lodges, 439.                      Membership, 99,177.                      Loss, 867.

The Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of Kansas met in Wichita. Attendance was better than in 1960 though 96 Lodges were not represented.

The Grand Master for 1961-62, M.W. Bro. John H. Murray, is among the youngest to hold office in the history of the Grand Lodge of Kansas, having been born in 1914. However, he has a solid background. The thirty-ninth attorney to become Grand Master, he has served eight years in the State Legislature as a Representative and four years as State Senator. He is now serving his second year term as a Senator.

Kansas is one of the States where the laying of Cornerstones is still popular. In addition to ceremonies connected with Lodge buildings, Cornerstones (or foundation stones as they are called in three cases, where from the pictures the stone does not appear to be at a corner) were laid at a Court House, a field house at a school, a new school, a post office and federal building and a new library on the campus of Baker University.

During the year two Lodges were consolidated. The membership had dwindled, reflecting the changing agricultural pattern of the region. Small communities find it hard to exist as fewer families are required to work the farms where operations are becoming larger.

Five Lodges held centennials. But, the Grand Master pointed out, there will not be many celebrations of this kind during the next few years as, obviously, the Civil War a century ago disrupted Masonic activity. Other Grand Masters, particularly in the South, told how the war between the States prevented the organization of Lodges. Each of the five Lodges that observed centennials deserved commendation for originality in their planning. The Grand Master offered two most sound words of advice to those who planned observance of their lodge anniversaries "Start early."

One paragraph in connection with installations stands out in the Grand Master's Address. "The installation at Winfield Lodge No. 110 was open to the public. The ceremony of installation contains so many of the beautiful doctrines of Freemasonry it is certainly worthy of presentation to the families of Masons and to those who do not belong to the Fraternity. I recommend that more of our Lodges have public installations."

Last year, these Reviews reported that there was some concern over the fact that attendance at the Annual Communications of Grand Lodge had been poor. Indeed, in 1960, when the weather was most unfavourable, the total attendance dropped to 778 with only 288 Lodges represented and 152 not represented. The year 1961 saw a marked improvement. Attendance rose to 1,004 with 343 Lodges represented and 96 not represented. In 1960 a by-law was adopted providing that disciplinary action might be invoked if a Lodge is not officially represented for three consecutive years. Grand Lodge provides a mileage and per diem allowance.

The Grand Master recommended that every Lodge in the Grand Jurisdiction regularly appoint a chaplain, hitherto not a requisite in the Constitution. He also recommended a definition of the duties of the Committee on Temple Building and Remodeling: to "act in an advisory capacity to the Grand Master upon all matters pertaining to the sale or purchase of property, the construction of buildings, and major remodeling of Masonic Buildings including the financing of such projects. It shall be the duty of this committee to study all plans and projects which may be referred to them by the Grand Master," and to report on them.

LOUISIANA—1962

151st Annual Communication—February 5-6

Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. Morris Shapiro

Grand Master, 1962-63—M.W. Bro. D. A. Dahmes

Lodges, 277.

Membership, 51,234.

Gain, 31.

The Grand Lodge of the State of Louisiana, F. & A.M. met in Emergent Communication on February 4 to conduct a Pilgrimage to the various statues and portraits of famous Masonic patriots in New Orleans. The roster of names lists many persons distinguished in American history but possibly less well-known in Canada for their connection with Freemasonry.

The statue of Benjamin Franklin stands in Lafayette Square. He was initiated in Philadelphia in 1730 and was installed as Grand Master of Pennsylvania in 1734 only four years after he became a Master Mason.

Henry Clay is another great American patriot whose statue stands in Lafayette Square. He was Grand Master of Kentucky in 1820-21. Clay was honest and forthright and his view of Masonry was sincere but realistic. On one occasion he stated: "It (Masonry) does more good than harm, although it does not practically affect all that it theoretically promises. I would not denounce and formally renounce it to be made President of the United States." It might be added that it was Henry Clay who declared "I would rather be right than President."

A third Grand Master recognized was Andrew Jackson, of Tennessee. His statue stands in Jackson Square. His early Masonic career is not clear. But he was Grand Master of Tennessee, 1822 and 1823. In 1825 Jackson introduced the Marquis de Lafayette to the Grand Lodge of Tennessee—on his last visit to the United States. Lafayette was received in a special session of the Grand Lodges of every state he visited. His portrait hangs at the Cabildo in New Orleans.

Other distinguished Masons including Albert Pike were honoured. The Pilgrimage ended at the statue of George Washington. At each picture or statue a wreath was laid and an appropriate address given.

The Grand Orator in the course of his official address told a story which portrays well the aims and spirit of the Fraternity. It concerned the death of a Northern naval officer who had expressed a wish to be buried on land with Masonic Rites. But since the shore was still in Southern hands it was necessary to carry the request under a flag of truce. The difficulties faced by the Southern Masons and their efforts on behalf of a brother in arms against them provided a moving tale.

The Sesquicentennial year was marked by the publication of a history of Masonry in Louisiana. The project was a long cherished dream of the Committee on History. The Committee concluded: "Every Mason in the State has made a contribution toward the production of this work. It is to be hoped every Mason will find opportunity to read it."

MAINE—1961

142nd Annual Communication—May 2-4

Grand Master, 1960-62—M.W. Bro. L. M. Sanborn

Lodges, 208.                      Membership, 47,829.                      Gain, 24.

When the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Maine opened, the American and Canadian flags were presented. Verses from America, God Save the Queen and Two Countries by the Sea were sung.

The Grand Master in reporting on the Condition of the Fraternity declared: "I find the general overall condition healthy. Most lodges and most districts show good interest and activity.

"This good interest and activity seems to be most prevalent in those lodges where the officers with the help of the Past Masters under the leadership of a hard working Worshipful Master present planned programs and promote fellowship.

"Masonry is based upon true and, often, tried fine principles and sound philosophy. There is nothing wrong with these principles and philosophy. There is nothing wrong with Masonry that clear, deep thinking and plain hard work will not correct."

The Grand Master stressed the great importance of keeping Masonic Temples in good condition and the grounds around neat and clean. Residents of a town or city should be able to point with pride to any Masonic Hall as an outstanding part of the community.

Under dispensations, the Grand Master reported that he had refused many requests for permission to transfer candidates from their own lodges for the conferring of degrees. He refused all of these "believing that a candidate is entitled to receive his degrees in his own lodge. Also, that the members of his lodge are entitled to see him receive his degrees in his own lodge."

He also recommended that lodge dues be sufficient to take care of the normal operating expenses of the lodge without having to use initiation fees and other income for that purpose.

In some lodges, the Grand Master was surprised to find that Secretaries were sending notices only to members living close to hand. He pointed out that all members in good standing should receive notices and furthermore that members of other lodges residing in the jurisdiction of a lodge might also be put on the mailing list.

The Grand Master made one thought-provoking observation: "I find very few of the lodges protected by liability insurance. If an accident should occur and a member or visitor injured or sickness resulted from the consumption of food or beverages, the lodge or any individual member or members of the lodge could be sued . . . I recommend that this Grand Lodge pass a Standing Regulation requiring each and every lodge to provide liability insurance to properly protect the lodge and its members." It would be interesting to know how applicable such observations would be in other American states or in Canadian provinces."

Orchard Lodge, No. 215, visited and was visited by Zetland Lodge, No. 12, Montreal. The Grand Master attended Canadian-American Day, at Old Orchard. Masonic ties between Canada and the United States evidently are close in the region. The Grand Master attended no fewer than seven hundredth anniversaries of lodges and a committee meeting regarding the "200th Anniversary, Portland."

The Grand Lecturer noted a great decline in requests for permission to use "special charges" in connection with the M.M. Degree. He was gratified as the trend indicated a greater appreciation of the time-honoured charges.

The Grand Lecturer also stressed the need for dignity and decorum in degree work. He was disturbed by rumours of infractions which indicated that some Officers and brethren had lost sight of the impressive lessons of Masonry. He promised that if an infraction is discovered "it will be dealt with with dispatch."

The Special Committee on the Organization of Masonry in Maine reported that in 1962 Freemasonry will complete the second hundred years of existence in the State. Only a few Masonic bodies throughout the United States can claim such a distinction. Massachusetts, the Mother Lodge of Maine, dates back to 1733, sixteen years after the formation of the Grand Lodge of England. Only a few others date back to the early 1700's. Plans are under way for a fitting celebration.

The Committee on Condition of the Fraternity reported that the membership in Grand Lodge had showed a very slight increase. The fact that the population of Maine shows little change from year to year makes this a sound situation. In addition Maine already has "one of, if not the highest percentages of Masons in the country." Thus if the Lodges are to maintain quality the gains must be modest. "It is far more important that strength be gained through quality than to weaken the strong fabric of our fraternity by raising less than well qualified applicants."

M.W. Bro. R. J. Pollard, Chairman of the Committee on Correspondence, issued a special report on membership which stated that the problem of attendance was not new. Bro. Pollard added: "It has been with us for a long time, and, by now, Freemasonry should be accustomed to living with it. It was a problem in the olden days, when so many of our Maine brethren were away at sea, working in the big woods, or holding down a job 'up in Boston'. It was a problem when the writer first became a Mason, more than forty years ago, and it was still a problem when he later served as Master of his lodge. It is a problem today, and in all probability, it will be a problem in the year 2,000.

"It has long been noted that this problem is more pronounced in our larger lodges. Personally, we feel that this problem is probably inherent in our American system of large lodges and relatively low dues. It is one of the prices we must pay for bigness and cheapness. Our English brethren, with their small lodges, do not have this problem, but they do pay a great deal more for the privilege of lodge membership. Probably the best long-range cure for this problem will be found in more and smaller lodges, where more brethren can really be put to work and where a warmer and more intimate fraternal spirit can develop.

"We do not feel that the situation is quite as bad as some of the statistics would indicate. Figures do not always tell the whole story. Every lodge, for instance, has a number of non-resident members. In some cases, this is a very sizable group. There are the older and physically disabled brethren, who cannot possibly attend lodge. And, in every community, we find men whose hours of employment make it impossible for them to be present at a meeting. In fairness, these groups should all be deducted when percentages are being figured.

“But, after making all allowances, the situation is still bad enough.”

While the Proceedings of all Grand Lodges provide rewarding reading matter few are as rich as the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Maine. Furthermore, few are as attractively or as clearly printed.

MANITOBA—1961

86th Annual Communication—June 7-8

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. A. J. Sawatzky
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. B. S. Parker

Lodges, 121.                      Membership, 16,255.                      Loss, 103.

When Grand Lodge opened twenty Past Grand Masters were present. In point of years M.W. Bro. A. J. Hatcher was senior, having been Grand Master in 1920.

The Report of the Board of General Purposes dealt with many important topics. Particular reference was made to the work of a special Committee operating under the name of the Masonic Appraisal Committee. The purpose of the Committee is to solve the problem caused by the Constitution which sets the income of Grand Lodge at a per capita fee. One result has been a “growing state of paralysis in the functions of Grand Lodge.”

The Committee felt that its work would be more effective if its responsibilities were enlarged. The Board concurred and the body has already made several recommendations. Notice of motion has been given to amend the Constitution so that each Annual Budget of the General Fund will be presented to the Annual Communication for approval. All members of Grand Lodge will thus have an opportunity to examine the proposed expenditures which in turn will set the per capita fee.

That many Lodges recognize the problems of Grand Lodge was evinced by the action of several which voluntarily increased the per capita fee. Flin Flon Lodge with a total membership of 205 made a donation of $200.

During the year M.W. Bro. R. E. Emmett came on a great volume of old records in the Grand Lodge store room.

Now that the records have come to light the hope is to secure a fireproof depository for their preservation.

The Grand Secretary reported that the average fee is $61.50 and dues $11.30 and added "Comparing these statistics with those reported two years ago, indicates that while increasing costs bring about adjustments in fees and dues, the cost to each individual member remains at a very low figure."

The Grand Master described his travels to Lodges situated in Manitoba's Northland. Lynn Lake, Flin Flon, The Pas and Churchill were on the itinerary. He said in part: "The trip from The Pas to Churchill was most interesting and pleasant. The weather was clear and provided perfect visibility of just what our North Country looks like from the air . . . The warmth of welcome and hospitality we met on arrival has to be experienced to be rightly appreciated. Masonry has good leadership in this northern outpost and its influence is making its proper contribution in the development of this community. The meeting was well attended and the brethren are enthusiastic in their work. The weather was good to us and we were able to cross the river and visit the Old Fort as well as Sloop's Cove where Samuel Hearne spent a winter about two centuries ago."

The Grand Lodge, at the invitation of the Board of Trustees, laid the corner-stone of Vincent Massey Collegiate in Fort Garry.

The Grand Historian gave his twenty-first address to Grand Lodge. This year he completed, or made great progress in his efforts to find, information regarding the pioneers who "unfurled the banner of Freemasonry" in what was destined to become the Province of Manitoba. He now has a great deal of personal information on every officer and charter member at the institution of Old Northern Light Lodge where a Dispensation was issued by the Grand Lodge of Minnesota. The first meeting was in 1864. M.W. Bro. William Douglas, the Grand Historian, is to be congratulated on the success of his excellent research, which will, undoubtedly, be greatly used in 1964, the centennial year.

The Committee on the Condition of Freemasonry reported in part: "In the rural areas the attendance at Lodge meetings is, generally, being fairly well maintained. However, in the urban parts of the Jurisdiction little or no improvement is evident in this respect."

The Lodge Directory precedes some of the Lodge numbers with an A. This indicates American Work. Thirteen Lodges are listed this way.

MARYLAND—1961

Semi-Annual Communication—May 16
 175th Annual Communication—November 21-22

Grand Master—M.W. Bro. M. H. Kinsinger

Lodges, 128.                      Membership, 48,547.                      Gain, 205.

The 175th anniversary of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Maryland was recognized with a brief history in the Proceedings, written by M.W. Bro. Daniel Hope, P.G.M. Various records and news items indicate that Masonic Lodges existed in Maryland as early as the year 1750, some chartered by the Modern Grand Lodge of England, some by the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, and several by the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania. It was not until after the surrender of Cornwallis in the autumn of 1781 and the signing of the treaty of peace with England in 1783, making each colony a sovereign state, that the formation of a Grand Lodge in Maryland was considered. On April 17, 1787, the Grand Lodge was established.

The Grand Master spent some time discussing the problem of keeping the Baltimore Temple in a good state of repair. It used to be said that there were more Masons in Baltimore than in the rest of the state. The situation changed in 1960 owing to the shift of population. However, the gain in membership was the largest since 1958.

MASSACHUSETTS—1960

4 Quarterly Communications, 16 Special Communications, and Stated Communication, December 27.

Grand Master, 1960-1962—M.W. Bro. L. E. Eaton

Lodges, 343.                      Membership, 135,144.                      Gain, 53.

Of the 343 Lodges in the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts 332 are in Massachusetts, 7 in the Canal Zone, 3 in China and 1 in Japan. The origins of these non-state Lodges must reflect an interesting chapter in the history of the Grand Jurisdiction.

Philanthropic Lodge of Marblehead celebrated its two hundredth anniversary. An extended and copyrighted history of the Lodge compiled by Bro. Tracy L. Sanborn was appended to the Proceedings. The history is interesting even to Masons living outside the Grand Jurisdiction.

Philanthropic Lodge is the third oldest in Massachusetts, the eighth oldest in New England and nineteenth in the United States.

Times and manners change. It is to be hoped that the author will forgive the printing of one paragraph on activities in 1778.

"Convivial souls indeed were the old Brethren of Philanthropic. Right merrily flowed the brimming bowl as the following record indicates: 'It was agreed to pay Bro. Burdick 3 shillings a head for dinner, 6 pence for each Bottle Wine more than first cost, 2 shillings for a Bowl of Punch and 1 shilling for a Bowl Grogg.' Later is mentioned the appointment of certain Brothers as Stewards 'for procuring Rum, Sugar, Candles, Bread & Cheese, Pipes & Tobaker.' All the Tiler had to furnish for the meetings was water and it is hinted that his duty was not exactly burdensome."

Bro. Sanborn is to be congratulated on compiling an interesting Masonic history of wide appeal. The Proceedings contain several other histories of Lodges. Indeed in every case where a Grand Lodge Special Communication was held for any purpose in connection with a Lodge, a history was included regardless of the age of the Lodge concerned. In the years to come, these histories will provide a rich and readily available storehouse of information for the student of the history of Freemasonry in Massachusetts.

It comes as a surprise that the Lodges bear names but not numbers as is the almost universal practice.

The Grand Master spoke of declining membership in a well reasoned way: "Nearly all Masonic groups are experiencing a decline in membership, and many reasons are advanced for this decline. Our membership has always had its cycles of ups and downs. During the early twenties especially, the Lodges were very busy, and a large number of candidates were being received. No doubt a fairly large percentage of those who came in at that time represent a goodly portion of those who are now over the three score and ten mark, and a busy Lodge can easily show a loss in membership.

"There is no occasion to lose faith in our Fraternity because of a temporary decline in membership. Let's all pull together to offset those who would destroy it by ridicule and slander."

The Grand Master ruled that no Lodge should "use its name or the Masonic emblem on any publication, circular, flyer, invitation or other material which refers to the use or sale of alcoholic beverages at a social, dinner or any other function of the Lodge." As was suggested earlier, other times other manners.

The report of the Grand Lodge Library and Museum covers twelve pages. It records numerous noteworthy occasions.

As can be seen above, the Grand Lodge meets on the Feast of St. John the Evangelist. The Grand Master explained the reason. "It is an ancient custom that has been performed in this Grand Lodge, I believe, since the very beginning of Masonic time in Massachusetts. The earliest Grand Masters sent here from England were instructed to celebrate the Feast of St. John the Evangelist, probably over two hundred years."

At the dinner, called "the Feast," toasts were drunk to the Memory of the Holy Saints John, to the Memory of our Illustrious Brother George Washington, to the Memory of our Departed Brethren, and to the Brethren wheresoever dispersed.

The dinner ended with the singing of the first stanzas of America, God Save the Queen, and Two Countries by the Sea.

Once again, the Proceedings of The Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Michigan, to give the full name, provide a wealth of solid information about affairs in this Grand Jurisdiction. The Grand Master, M.W. Bro. W. W. Kent, estimated that he had made speeches to between twenty and thirty thousand people during his term of office. While Michigan suffered a net loss of members during the year the loss was lower than that of the previous year. The Grand Master soundly concluded: "I am certain that continued attention to the fundamental principles of the fraternity will continue to reduce the net loss and ultimately result in further gains in membership."

The Grand Master was disturbed over the failure of twenty-three Lodges to attend the Annual Communication.

Although an absence of less than five per cent does not seem to be alarmingly high, the Grand Master requested an explanation. It appeared to him that unless the matter is corrected it will be necessary to adopt some penal provision. "This could be in a nature of a fine or in some cases a suspension of the charter."

It became necessary for the Grand Master to call attention to the fact that no lodge room shall be used for any public purpose on Sunday "except for funerals, Lodges of Sorrow, or rehearsals." He did rule, however, that a lodge room might be used for church services where a local church has burned and no other meeting place was available.

Plans for seven new Masonic Temples were approved.

During the year, Michigan acted as host to the Mid-West Conference on Masonic Education. There was an excellent attendance from the twelve states which comprise the body.

Discipline is strict in the Grand Jurisdiction. The Grand Master reported: "I have found it necessary to discipline only one lodge during the course of the year. That lodge was placed in darkness for a period of approximately 60 days because of its continued failure to comply with Masonic law with relation to the conferring of the Third Degree, and also because of the failure of the officers to be properly informed as to the ritual and work. I am pleased to say that the lodge is no longer in darkness and that the Grand Lecturer has reported to the Grand Master that observation of the manner in which the work is performed during rehearsal satisfies the Grand Lecturer that we will have no further cause for complaint."

Later on he stated: "While I have had no further actual complaint in this regard there have been rumors about roughness in lodge rooms and speaking for the other officers of the Grand Lodge it should be called to the attention of each of the Masters and other officers present that roughness will not be tolerated and is not a part of the ritual."

The Grand Master restated the fact that gambling, or any kind of lottery, is contrary to Masonic Law and will not be tolerated in the Grand Jurisdiction. He also warned against canvassing for office in Grand Lodge, referring to certain actions during the previous Communication when pencils, matches and other such material were disbursed freely in an effort to win votes.

Last year these Reviews referred to events in South Africa, as described in the Report of the Committee on Fraternal Relations. It is fitting that the next chapter should be taken from the same source. The Grand Lodge of Southern Africa was organized on February 18, 1961. An editorial in the "Masonic Journal of South Africa" declared that the close collaboration which has existed between Lodges of the English, Irish, Scottish and Netherlands Constitutions for many years would continue. The United Grand Lodge of England and the Grand Lodges of Scotland and Ireland will continue to administer their Lodges through their District and Provincial Grand Masters.

MINNESOTA—1961

108th Annual Communication—March 22-23

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. M. H. Voss
 Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. S. King

Gain, 288.

The Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of Minnesota is the full name of this Grand Lodge. Once again the close ties between the Grand Lodge and Canada were shown when the U.S. colours and the Union Jack were presented by an honour guard, after which the assemblage sang "America," "God Save the Queen," and "Two Countries by the Sea."

Unfortunately, the Grand Jurisdiction suffered serious blows early in the Masonic year. The Grand Master on June 8, while driving with his wife to attend a Masonic function were met head on by a truck. Both were in hospital for three and one half months. Almost the last meeting the Grand Master had attended was that of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba. Since every Grand Master has in mind his own ideas for the progress and development of Masonry in his Grand Jurisdiction the Grand Lodge of Minnesota was deprived accordingly. But that was not enough. The Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. E. L. Gruber, carried on most acceptably until he was suddenly stricken and died on September 11. Episodes like these point out the great demands made by high office in Freemasonry and the willingness with which the holders of those offices take on the heavy responsibilities.

The most heartwarming event of the year was the presentation of the "Regents Award" by the Regents of the University of Minnesota to the Masons of Minnesota in recognition of their acts of "benefaction, fidelity and leadership" in making possible the building of the Masonic Memorial Hospital, and their continuing interest in it. In 1955 some Masons met and proposed that members of the Craft should raise $500,000 towards the million dollars necessary to build a hospital for cancer patients. In a few months the Masons requested permission to raise the whole amount themselves. As a result of their efforts, in 1958, the hospital was opened for the care of patients suffering from cancer, regardless of race or creed, and for research in the field of care and treatment of cancer and other diseases.

Two dispensations granted show that, under dispensation, it is permitted to conduct the public installation of officers in Minnesota and that blizzards in the same state can force cancellation of the annual election of officers of a Lodge.

An uncommon predicament, surely, is that recorded where the Officers of a Lodge reported that they had made every effort to find their Charter, which was lost, without success. The request for a duplicate was granted.

MISSISSIPPI—1961

143rd Annual Communication—February 14-15

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. E. J. Smith

Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. C. E. Walters, Jr.

Lodges, 313.                      Membership, 50,781.                      Gain, 19.

The Grand Lodge of Mississippi Free and Accepted Masons met at Jackson, Mississippi. The Grand Master in his address stressed the importance of the Masonic Home which supports an average of fifty-one children. He declared that for approximately 51,000 Master Masons to support the Home meant a ratio of about 1,000 to 1. He therefore recommended an assessment of ten dollars on all Masons in the Jurisdiction in order to improve the accommodations.

During the year the Grand Master dedicated three new Lodge Buildings. The official visit to the three oldest Lodges in Mississippi, Harmony, No. 1, Andrew Jackson, No. 2 and Washington, No. 3, (the Lodges which formed the Grand Lodge of Mississippi) was a notable event. These Lodges must be about 150 years old. Not a few of the meetings, both for installations and dedications, were "an open type" attended by relatives and friends of the members. For example, under the date January 6, the Grand Master reported "I installed officers of Deer Creek Lodge No. 356, at Rolling Fork, this was an open meeting, public invited." The next two meetings of January 7 and 9 were also open. The Grand Master put in a very full year.

The Grand Master's Address reveals clearly a great appreciation of the dignity and importance of Masonry. One proposal, among many, made by the Grand Master was that Lodges that owned or rented buildings in need of repair should do something about them. During his year in office he took a picture of every Lodge building which he hoped to show at the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge.

The report of the Fraternal Correspondent Bro. C. C. Buchanan, which was adopted, does not attempt to review the activities of each Grand Lodge but rather presents a statement in general terms. Readers of the Fraternal Reviews of the Grand Lodge of Canada for 1960 will remember that in that year the Grand Correspondent recommended terminating relations with the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia because it had "agreed to allow the subordinate Lodges to accept applications for membership from the infringing Prince Hall group." It is gratifying to be able to report that the same Correspondent now declares. "At the suggestion of the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia I have made further study of the matter and, after due reflection, I now feel that our action at that time was precipitate and that I have led my Grand Lodge into a position open to just criticism." He therefore recommended that the proper officials of the Grand Lodge of Mississippi immediately proceed to reestablish fraternal relations with the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia, subject to the concordance of that Grand Lodge.

In the same report the Correspondent recommended that recognition be granted to the Grand Lodge of Israel with the comment that in so doing, "we are the last of the Grand Lodges in the United States to effect this exchange of amity and fraternal relations."

As he reported last year, the Fraternal Correspondent believed that he discerned a development of friction between Masonry and the Church. He did add, however, "Here in the South we have not yet encountered much opposition from this source. Many of our leading preachers of most denominations are members and supporters of the Masonic fraternity who know that no conflict exists between the two and that both seek to elevate the moral and spiritual character of men along paths parallel but entirely separate and never conflicting." It is to be hoped that the Correspondent may have drawn general conclusions from a few specific instances. Certainly, not only in the South are clergy found who are supporters of the Masonic Fraternity. At the same time, he does show a deep and sincere appreciation of the values of Masonry, revealing the amount of research and thought he has given to his task.

MISSOURI—1961

140th Annual Communication—September 26-27

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. B. H. Hunt

Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. R. H. Mann

Lodges, 595.                      Membership, 123,432.                      Loss, 789.

The full name of this Grand Lodge is the Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Missouri.

Although, in 1961, several Grand Masters commented on the decline in total membership, M.W. Bro. Hunt gave one of the clearest evaluations of the problem.

“For four consecutive years the reports of lodges have resulted in a net loss in membership. The mere fact that a slight loss in membership is apparent does not constitute a tragedy. If we are concerned with numbers alone that problem is easily solved. All that we need to do is to drop the investigating committees and throw away the ballot boxes. We continue to be more concerned with the Masonry within the man than with the number of men in Masonry. Science has delved far beneath the surface of the earth in search of knowledge, and has explored the depths of the oceans in an effort to learn more about the world and all it contains. Now we are busily engaged in a competitive race to probe the far flung reaches of outer space. Freemasonry continues to apply its science to the fathomless depths of man himself. It appeals to his moral and spiritual nature, and endeavours to lift him above all those things physical and bring him closer to the very summit of human knowledge—his duty to God and to man.

“Statistics will be quoted in the report of the Committee on Chartered Lodges, and will be reflected in the report of the Grand Secretary, that will indicate a recession in membership. The reports of the District Deputy Grand Masters throughout the state indicate a healthy, stable fraternity in Missouri. New temples have been erected and others paid for. Interest and enthusiasm appear to be at a commendable level. My experiences during the past year have convinced me that Freemasonry in Missouri is in good condition. I am convinced that the lodges in this jurisdiction are capable of meeting and solving any problems with which they may be confronted.”

In addition to his comments on membership, the Grand Master had some sage remarks to make on Masonic buildings.

“I cannot bring myself to close this report on the condition of the Craft without making an observation and issuing a word of caution. It has come to my attention gradually and over a period of years that certain of Missouri's fine Masonic Temples are becoming serious problems. In the majority of such instances there is no immediate threat of the loss of property, but the problem of maintenance and upkeep is becoming acute, and in some instances even burdensome. Some temples were 'over-built' in the beginning and others have outlived their usefulness. In certain localities wise management has resulted in the sale of outmoded and undesirable temples, and the erection or acquisition of more suitable quarters. Others at this particular time are in the process of formulating plans for the disposition of temples, have acquired land upon which to erect new temples and have architectural drawings of beautiful new homes for Freemasonry which will be more adequate for their use and not in the burdensome class."

He concluded with a sound word of warning: "Always, there are those who resist any suggested change. In the case of Masonic Temples, always, there is a minority of brethren who resist vigorously any suggestion to dispose of the old and to erect the new, even though they may admit that to remain where they are will place heavy, perhaps too heavy, demands on the membership. The question must arise, should Freemasonry devote the major portion of its energy and facilities to the maintenance of inanimate objects made of brick and stone and mortar? Should the basic tenets of Freemasonry become secondary to mere Masonic buildings? It is my belief that Masonic lives, well lived in accordance with the fundamental principles of Freemasonry, are greater monuments to the Ancient Craft than all the Masonic edifices that have ever been erected. Wherein, then, lies our primary duty and obligation?"

"I feel compelled to issue this word of caution to those who are in the process of building, or who contemplate a change in meeting place. Build adequately for your requirements, but do not over-build. Build for the present and for the foreseeable future. In all building programs keep maintenance in mind."

The Committee on Grand Master's Address did not see entirely eye to eye with the Grand Master and added: "We agree that Freemasonry does not exist in brick and stone but rather in the hearts of Freemasons. We do feel, however, that an attractive Masonic Temple may inspire the members."

During the year more than five hundred fifty-year buttons were presented.

The Grand Jurisdiction operates a most successful Home and Hospital. During the year there were 346 guests in the Home and the Hospital averaged 142 patients daily. Financially, the Home is in a strong financial position. The endowment of about $3,500,000 was increased by a bequest of $1,500,000, making a total $5,000,000.

A Sesquicentennial Committee is already at work planning for ten years from now. Clearly the Grand Master was correct when he said that Freemasonry is in a healthy and stable condition in Missouri.

The list of living Past Grand Masters totals twenty-four. The Grand Master in 1940-41 was M.W. Bro. Harry S. Truman.

MONTANA—1961

97th Annual Communication—June 26-27

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. J. R. Hopper

Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. J. R. P. Reinemer

Lodges, 142.

Membership, 25,895.

Loss, 143.

Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of Montana met in the Bow Theatre, Butte. Once again the close relations between this Grand Jurisdiction and those in Western Canada were shown in the presentation of the flags of the United States and Canada and the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" and "O Canada." For many years visits have been exchanged between Alberta and Montana.

With the centenary of the Grand Lodge approaching, the Grand Master stressed the way in which the early Masonic history is interwoven with actual Montana history. The year was dedicated to the memory of the deeds of the pioneer Masons of Montana. Both Captains Meriwether Lewis and William Clark, famous for the Lewis and Clark Expedition, were Masons.

The Grand Lodges of Colorado, Utah, Wyoming and Montana, join annually in the Rocky Mountain Conference. This year the meeting, the tenth, was held in Casper, Wyoming. Realizing that the similar Banff Conference owes much of its continuing popularity to the charm of its surroundings and by holding it in a central spot each year, the Grand Master proposed that the Rocky Mountain Conference be held annually at Canyon Village, Yellowstone National Park.

The list of dispensations shows that outdoor meetings are not uncommon in the Grand Jurisdiction. Four Lodges received dispensation to hold an outdoor meeting, on July 30, "at approximately the site of the first known meeting of Masons in Montana, on Mullan Pass, southwest of Helena. . . there to open and close a Master Mason Lodge, but to confer no degrees." All caution against the approach of cowans and eavesdroppers was required and all resident members were to be notified.

Another Lodge, North Star No. 46, held an outdoor meeting "at the former Thos. McPherson ranch about 2½ miles north of the Fort Peck powerhouse in the Missouri River bottom" and conferred a Master Mason degree. Two other Lodges held outdoor meetings where they conferred "the second section of the third degree."

The Grand Master had a journey few Masons are privileged to enjoy. On September 15 he left Vancouver for Europe and did not return until November 4. In the meantime he visited representatives of Grand Lodges in many countries. His comments on his meeting with V.W. Bro. James W. Stubbs, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of England, are worth repeating.

"October 8, 1960 — On this date I had an appointment for a meeting in London with V.W. Bro. James W. Stubbs, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of England. I went to Freemasons' Hall on Great Queen Street for this exchange which houses what is unquestionably the greatest Masonic museum in the world. Here can be found Masonic relics and mementos of priceless value, many of them from the 1700s. The hall in which the Grand Lodge meets is a most inspiring room which must be seen to be appreciated. One of the interesting objects found in this building is the Grand Master's installation chair which is hundreds of years old and a real ceremonial piece. Another prized object is the apron of Edward VII worn when he was Grand Master.

V.W. Brother Stubbs . . . holds a most unique position in regular Freemasonry because of the fact that he is Grand Secretary of the original Grand Lodge of 1717 or the 'mother' Grand Lodge of us all. Because of this, his office is under great pressure in many matters that pertain to regular Freemasonry, all over the globe, and it is necessary that they must use extreme care and caution in all their recommendations, documents, recordings, etc. To do less might lead other jurisdictions into areas of action simply on the basis of England's attitude and therefore, it is, obviously, meticulous in all areas of legislation and fraternal action that others in the Masonic world carefully watch."

NEBRASKA—1961

104th Annual Communication—June 6-7

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. J. G. Futcher
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. H. A. Ronin

Lodges, 275.                      Membership, 44,067.                      Loss, 28.

This Grand Lodge, while showing the abbreviated form of its name as Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Nebraska, actually is fully described as The Grand Lodge of the Most Ancient and Honorable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons of Nebraska. Nineteen Past Grand Masters attended the Communication.

During the year the Grand Master approved amendments to the By-Laws of 115 Lodges, most having to do with an increase in dues or fees.

Nebraska Masonic Home is proving to be increasingly costly. The Grand Master stated that there is an urgent need for the Grand Lodge to adopt some plan to obtain or solicit funds to benefit the endowment fund. During the year much was done to clear up the property. However, improvements, which cost in the neighbourhood of $300,000, are required. As the life span increases, the age of residents constantly rises with an increasing demand for care. Of the ninety residents only five do not require care or supervision.

In addition the Grand Lodge sponsors a home for children.

A new project proposed some years ago is coming to fruition, without expense to Grand Lodge. This is an apartment house project called Masonic Manor. The feeling was that things were being done for destitute brethren but not for those who could pay their way for living quarters. The new building will be for Masons over sixty-two years of age and their wives and widows. The proposal is to erect sixty apartments and sell them for between $3,000 and $4,500 which will give a "perpetual" (presumably life-time) lease.

The Grand Master ended his Address on a high note. Referring to the many causes assigned to the decline in Masonic membership and particularly the apparent lack of interest in the age groups between twenty-one and thirty-nine years he declared:

"Before we convince ourselves that any of these reasons, singly or collectively, is the cause of the continuing downward trend in membership, we should indulge in some self-analysis. First, we should make a greater effort to so conduct our lives toward our brethren and our fellowmen as to be an example of the true spirit of brotherhood which, I believe, would encourage men to affiliate in membership with Masons. We must demonstrate in our conduct the true significance embodied in the symbolism of the trowel. We should not consider ourselves to be our brother's keeper and set ourselves up as a guardian in the ethics and morals of each and every member of the Fraternity. We cannot be hypocrites. We should not expect a higher degree of conduct from our brethren and our fellowmen than we ourselves are willing to demonstrate.

"Each of us should extend greater effort to exhibit to the world a complete unity and harmony among all Masonic bodies, for in harmony there is strength . . .

"If we will follow this course we can be assured that our Fraternity will remain as it has in the past, an example of freedom of the individual, of dignity and of true brotherhood. Then and only then have we no concern that our membership will decline, but our beloved Fraternity will grow in strength and influence."

NEW BRUNSWICK—1961

Grand Master, 1959-61—M.W. Bro. F. C. Thomas
 Grand Master, 1961-63—M.W. Bro. C. D. Dickison

Lodges, 48.

Membership, 8,959.

Loss, 2.

This Grand Lodge uses the word "Ancient" but in the form followed by some of the Grand Lodges in the United States. The full name is The Ancient and Honourable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons of New Brunswick. The Brethren were profoundly shocked to learn that M.W. Bro. J. W. Duncan, Grand Master 1951-53, suffered a seizure and died during the noon hour between the morning and afternoon sessions.

In speaking on the state of the Order, the Grand Master referred to matter of numbers, degree work and examinations in the Third Degree. He summed up much thought in two brief paragraphs.

"We are about holding our own in numbers which is not too bad in these days when many jurisdictions are showing losses every year. We are having many new members but are losing too many in demits and suspensions. Those taking demits and being suspended mostly never did have too much interest in Masonry but I believe those who are remaining are taking a greater interest than ever before. The Degree work is being well done but I feel that a social evening once in a while would be a good thing in some Lodges that have a goodly number of candidates. I feel that four or five candidates for the Third Degree on a regular Lodge night should be discouraged as I am sure it is not too good for the attendance.

"As our Ritual has an examination for the Third Degree I would recommend that all candidates be instructed and examined on the Master Mason Degree. Also that the instruction and examination in all Degrees include the obligations."

What we would call Constituent Lodges are called Private Lodges in New Brunswick.

The Grand Historian told of a full year, which seemed to be one of many anniversaries.

NEWFOUNDLAND—1961

District Grand Lodge of the United Grand Lodge of England

90th Annual Communication—April 26

District Grand Master—R.W. Bro. G. R. Williams

Lodges, 18.

Membership, 2,369.

Gain, 10.

Once again the District Grand Master's diary reveals a full year of great activity. Under June 24 is recorded: "St. John the Baptist's Day and the historic date of the discovery of Newfoundland, by John Cabot in 1497. Landfall Lodge observes the anniversary by holding its annual Installation and banquet."

Three further brief entries tell much in few words: "September 30. Arrived safely at St. John's after a trip involving 1,700 miles in twelve days."

"October 13. Annual meeting of Avalon Lodge, which I joined 63 years ago."

"March 3. My eighty-fourth birthday. I had a surprise visit from my Mother Lodge Avalon."

The oldest Lodge in the Province is Saint John's No. 579 originally numbered 844. It was founded November 29, 1848. Prior to 1870 Newfoundland was included in the Masonic Province of Nova Scotia.

NEW HAMPSHIRE—1961

102nd Semi-Annual Communication—November, 15, 1960

172nd Annual Communication—May 17

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. P. H. Bennett

Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. R. C. Duncan.

Lodges, 82.

Membership, 17,306.

Gain, 137.

The full and formal description of this Grand Lodge is the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of the Ancient and Honorable Fraternity, Free and Accepted Masons of the State of New Hampshire. The seal shows simply The Grand Lodge in New Hampshire, with the date 1789.

The report on the Masonic Home at Manchester stated that there were forty members in the home. No fewer than five of the men residents, of a total of only nineteen, are over ninety.

Three Lodges celebrated their centennials and one, Humane Lodge, No. 21, Rochester, celebrated its 150th anniversary.

The Grand Lodge approved two recommendations of the Grand Master: that a complete study be made of the organization of districts, which had been assigned when railways were the most common means of transportation and that a Grand Historian be appointed. As the Grand Master said: "We in Masonry live and exist on our traditions. We are steeped in the aroma of beautiful memories, but of what value are they if not recorded for posterity." Plans are under way to celebrate the One hundred and seventy-fifth anniversary of the Grand Lodge in 1964.

The Committee on Masonic Education reported a busy year. Much has been accomplished on a new book to be published on Masonic Courtesy, Protocol and Customs. The Committee has also published pamphlets on the Life of General John Sullivan, the first Grand Master of New Hampshire, and "101 Questions About Freemasonry." In an active Grand Lodge, the Committee stands out for its activity.

As usual M.W. Bro. Harold O. Cady, P.G.M., provided a noteworthy report, of 180 pages, on Fraternal Correspondence. In his Foreword he says. "It has been noted in many Grand Jurisdictions that the larger the Lodge the smaller percentage of attendance. Much of our finest officer material goes to waste in a large Lodge, since there is no opportunity or hope of ever taking an office." The Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario received over three pages.

NEW JERSEY—1961

174th Annual Communication—April 19-20

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. S. B. Brosius
 Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. H. W. Earl

Lodges, 290.                      Membership, 107,033.                      Loss, 224.

The Grand Lodge of the Most Ancient and Honorable Society of Free and Accepted Masons for the State of New Jersey is the full name of this Grand Lodge.

The photographs of two new Masonic Temples reflect a new and imaginative architectural treatment. With the promise of the exteriors, the interiors must also be both attractive and practical.

All but two of the Lodges in the Grand Jurisdiction were represented at the Annual Communication.

Preparations are going forward for the celebration of the 175th anniversary of the Grand Lodge. It is expected that $15,000.00 which has been appropriated will be required for a successful celebration. A souvenir and condensed history of the Grand Lodge will be provided for all members of the Grand Jurisdiction.

The Grand Lodge operates a large Home. During the year there were a total of 238 guests. There is great pressure on the Infirmary, owing to the higher age level of inmates. Thirty-two guests are over 80 years of age. The average age is 81½. The total operating cost of the Home, including Infirmary care was $675,451 or a per capita cost of $2,838 per year. The Permanent Fund of the Foundation has reached more than $6,200,000. Expansion of the Home is planned.

NEW MEXICO—1961

84th Annual Communication—March 20-21

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. W. L. Ranville
 Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. R. J. Lofton

Lodges, 63.                      Membership, 15,176.                      Gain, 146.

The full name of this Grand Lodge is The Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of New Mexico.

Of the five special communications of Grand Lodge one was for the purpose of laying a cornerstone of a new elementary school and one for a hospital. Earlier Proceedings over the years have consistently reported activities like these. As in other years, too, the Grand Master was able to visit every Lodge in the Grand Jurisdiction and some of them more than once.

The year was marked by peace and tranquility. Attendance at meetings continued to be the biggest problem. Plans and financial arrangements for the erection of three new Lodge buildings were approved. Since the cornerstone for a fourth was laid during the year Lodges in New Mexico, when the total in the Grand Jurisdiction is considered, are extremely active. By-laws approving the increase of dues were passed in ten cases, making a total of thirty-five in two years.

Three Lodges lost no members by demit, death, suspension or expulsion. Over loss by death a Lodge has no control but the remaining causes of loss usually can be attributed to a Lodge failure somewhere. The Committee on Chartered Lodges rightly congratulated the three Lodges. During the year the number of members increased by a shade under one percent. The greatest gain was shown by newer Lodges and the greatest loss by the older. Although a net gain was recorded the Committee felt that it should be greater as New Mexico is a growing State.

NEW SOUTH WALES—1961

73rd Annual Report of two Special and four Quarterly Communications—1960 and 1961

Grand Master, 1959—M.W. Bro. H. R. Maas

Lodges, 890.                      Membership, 130,245.                      Loss, 2,750.

The question as to what is the proper attire in Lodges received a great deal of attention from the Grand Master. Readers of these Reviews will recall that the matter has been discussed in other Grand Jurisdictions in Australia.

The Grand Master was specific in the procedure he laid down. "Correct attire at our stated meetings is of utmost importance and our reputation for dignified proceedings can be attributed in no small measure to our insistence upon the wearing of formal dress. However, the Board agrees with me that there might be some compromise upon those occasions when heatwave conditions subject the Brethren to considerable discomfort. . . . All things considered, I have decided to introduce the following procedure for a trial period during the forthcoming summer—

(1) Brethren will arrive at their lodge meeting attired in accordance with a former Grand Master's edict, i.e. dinner suit and black bow tie, or full dress suit and white bow tie. A Brother who is travelling without dress clothes may appear in the darkest lounge suit and darkest knotted tie in his possession at the time.

(2) If, in the Worshipful Master's opinion, the temperature is high enough to cause discomfort he may grant permission to Brethren who are dressed in the prescribed manner, to remove coats, vests and braces before entering the Lodge Room.

"I wish to emphasize that this consideration is not to be regarded as a relaxation in our standards but rather as an emergency measure to meet extreme weather conditions. Should it be found that the spirit of this instruction is being abused in any way I will be compelled to withdraw the privilege which is now being offered. The Brethren of Grand Lodge Rank will understand that their regalia must be worn over a dress coat and that the position will therefore remain unchanged so far as Grand Officers are concerned."

A severe loss during the year came through the death of Viscount Dunrossil, the Governor-General of Australia, after only one year and one day in office. During this brief period he had created a great impression on the people of the whole of the Australian States. He was initiated in 1917 and had always evinced a great interest in Freemasonry. He had already affiliated with two Australian Lodges.

The continuation of the Jubilee Choir, a noteworthy feature in the activities of the Grand Jurisdiction since 1938, was endangered by the retirement of Bro. Charles Miller after twenty-two years of service. Fortunately, Bro. Allan R. Bellhouse of Lodge University of Sydney, took on the responsibility.

A new and original problem, undreamed of in the early years of Freemasonry, came to light. It was dealt with expeditiously. The Grand Master reported on the incident:

"It has come to the knowledge of the Board of General Purposes that a tape recording machine had been operated in a Lodge Room, and in another case, the Ritual was recorded for the purpose of learning same, and on the recommendation of the Board I now direct:—

"That the use of artificial means of recording and reproducing any part of the proceedings inside a Lodge is not permitted, and must not be used by a member of a Lodge for the recording and retaining any portion of Ritual or Ceremonial. Such action would constitute a violation of an Obligation."

The following ruling of the Grand Master reveals that some Lodges in New South Wales permit the use of alcoholic beverages and others do not. Evidently an "endorsement on the Charter" is used to exclude the use of liquor at Lodge meetings.

"A Temperance Lodge with an endorsed Charter approached the Board of General Purposes in respect to it being permitted to allow the presence of spirituous liquors at its social functions. After consideration it was resolved that the endorsement on the Charter would not prevent it from allowing same, provided that no funds of the Lodge were expended thereon, and I am in full accord with this."

NEW YORK—1961

180th Annual Communication—May 2-3

Grand Master, 1960-62—M.W. Bro. C. W. Peterson

Lodges, 1,061.                  Membership, 299,035.                  Loss, 3,538.

In addition to the total of 1,061 Lodges, which includes American Lodge of Research and Sun & Field Lodge, No. 1, the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the State of New York lists eleven Lodges in the District Grand Lodge of Syria-Lebanon. These Lodges are located in such places as Beirut and Damascus.

The Trustees of the Masonic Hall and Asylum Fund presented a full report. The Masonic Home, at Utica, has been in operation for nearly seventy years. It has grown from a single building to a planned system of a dozen or more buildings covering approximately one hundred acres of resident land and some three hundred acres of farm land. In addition the Trustees, for thirty-seven years, have maintained a Camp at Round Lake.

In the beginning the Home was established for the Master Mason, his widow and orphan. But times have brought great changes. Today there are few children in the Home and the adult residents are becoming older. The Home is changing steadily into an "Infirmarium and Hospital".

The Grand Lodge property on 23rd Street is causing concern. A committee to investigate the problem gave a full history of the buildings. In addition to housing the Grand Lodge offices and Masonic Hall, one part houses commercial tenants. The ravages of time are making costly repairs necessary. Just what should be done, and there are many possibilities open, is going to take much thought.

The Chairman of the Committee on Law Enforcement reported on "The Matter of Bro. Charles Van Cott and his book-Freemasonry, a Sleeping Giant." The Chairman stated "The book expressed opinions and ideas at variance with the basic concepts of the Order . . . . It tends by obloquy to hold Masonry up in sham and hypocrisy before the world, and poses a threat to the good name and reputation of our beloved Fraternity by bringing its dignity, honor, integrity and good sense into disrepute."

The Grand Historian drew attention to the hundredth anniversary of the beginning of the Civil War and told something of the views expressed and Masonic activity a century ago. He quoted from the Grand Master's Address in 1861: "amid the storms of passion by which society has been convulsed to its utmost depths, Masonry has stood calm and dispassionate, pursuing with measured and unfaltering step, the mission set apart unto her, and closing the avenue of her Temples for the very echo of discord and strife." In spite of the troublous times thirty-five Lodges were granted charters in 1860 and in 1861.

The Library and Museum of this Grand Jurisdiction is notable. During the year 12,923 books were lent, 9,411 by mail. The Chairman included an informative paragraph on "Where the Reading and Reference Materials Come From" in which he said:

"The oldest Masonic book, now known as the Regius manuscript, was produced almost 600 years ago in England. It was copied from still older books, since lost. Its principal contents were the 'old charges' for proper Masonic conduct day by day, together with a traditional history of the Fraternity and its mission in the world. These are the basic subjects for practically all Masonic books, of which there are now many thousands emanating from England and the United States and other countries of the free world, well represented in our Grand Lodge Library and Museum by about 45,000 copies of books and pamphlets, 350 linear feet of printed and typed reference material in vertical file cabinets, and 7,500 museum items in exhibit cases and in storage."

One might get the impression from what has been written that Committee reports overshadowed the Grand Master's Address. But such a conclusion would be far from sound. The Grand Master ended the Communication with some brief pointed remarks which merit reprinting here:

"Masonry, it seems to me, has two primary purposes. The first of these great purposes is to uplift and strengthen the characters of the member Masons. It is for this reason that we perform Masonic Degrees. Each of these Degrees is designed to teach a moral lesson. As we progress with these Degrees we learn not only more about the meaning of Masonry but also more about ourselves and our relations with other people. These, thereby, become like a recitation of our responsibilities to our God, to ourselves and to all mankind.

"The second great purpose of Masonry is to spread our ideal of Brotherhood throughout the world at large. We are all aware that actions speak louder than words, and for this reason Masonry takes upon itself the responsibility for a vast number of charitable endeavours. There are those who are continually amazed by the number and the variety of the charities which we organize and support. They should not be, for these benevolences are in no sense the extra-curricular or spare-time activities of Masonry. They arise out of the very nature of the Order itself. Should we ever cease our efforts to improve the lot of mankind our Masonic ideals would become meaningless and Masonry itself would not survive.

"There is, of course, still a third aspect of Masonry. This aspect is a social one and arises out of the other two. In the course of our Lodge activities and charitable endeavours it is only natural that we should derive great satisfaction in associating with others who are participating in these programs. This is certainly as it should be. Although we as Masons are dedicated to high ideals, we need not look upon our obligations as crosses to be borne in silence. We should rather go about our tasks with joy and enthusiasm and encourage others to do likewise. Social programs in all our Lodges should be expanded and diversified. Membership in Masonry, in short, should be more than a responsibility. It should be a pleasure. . .

"Finally, and most important, we will be bringing nearer the day when our Masonic ideal of universal Brotherhood becomes a fighting reality."

NEW ZEALAND—1961

72nd Annual Communication—November 22

Grand Master—M.W. Bro. William Martin

Lodges, 414.

Membership, 46,669.

Gain, 307.

The Board of Benevolence reported a successful year. The unexpected balance on operations amounted to £20,968 which enabled the Board to recommend special grants of £20,000 to the Masonic Homes, Masonic Associations, and National public charities.

Attendance in the Papakura Masonic Boys' Home dropped to such a low level—five children, of whom two were leaving in a few months—that it was decided to close the Home and apply to the Supreme Court for the widening of the objects of the Trust.

The Northern Association completed a Home and this was opened officially by the Governor-General in March, 1961, "in brilliant sunshine" and before an assembly of over 3,000 Masons and their wives and other guests. There were eighty-nine residents in the Home. The objective is to cater to the needs of two hundred elderly citizens.

The Grand Lodge also provided thirty-four bursaries to assist students in advancing their secondary or professional education. These bursaries provide "that little extra assistance" which enables young people from homes less fortunate financially to be educated to a standard they could not otherwise attain.

The Grand Master, in his address, reiterated his remarks of the previous year on the need for a better informed membership, and on the need for more positive action to arrest or prevent the heavy annual loss of members who resign and do not link up with any other Lodge.

He went on: "Prior to their joining a Lodge, few candidates have any clear conception of the character and objectives of our Order, and even after they have become Master Masons many find these objectives still somewhat nebulous; yet if Freemasonry is to accomplish the purpose of its being, these objectives must be crystal clear to every member. For lack of adequate instruction the ritual is to many a beautiful but rather purposeless ceremonial. It is only as each individual member realises its purpose and potential, and is led to translate its tenets into a code of behaviour, that Freemasonry can confer its benign benefits on mankind. The power and influence of Freemasonry is just what we choose to make it.

"In every community Freemasons are judged not by what they know but about what they do; but their actions are largely conditioned by their knowledge and convictions. The interest taken in Freemasonry is usually proportional to one's knowledge of the history, tenets, symbolic, philosophy, aims, duties, and potentialities, and to the extent to which experience in its working is gained. Lacking this background, it is easy to see why to many the continual working of the same three ceremonies leads to boredom, loss of interest, irregular attendance, and frequently to resignation . . .

"The primary purpose of every Lodge is not to make members but Masons, and this necessarily involves time for adequate instruction as well as regular Masonic employment. A Lodge that limits its activities to initiating, passing, and raising candidates is not fulfilling one of its major functions."

The Grand Master then discussed the four topics: The Annual Intake of Candidates, the Selection of Candidates, the Promotion and Maintenance of Interest, and the Limitation of Lodge Membership. Under the last heading he said:

"It is not possible to name any figure as a desirable maximum, as circumstances vary so widely; but in general terms a Lodge has become too big when Masonic work cannot be found for every member, when a majority of the members cannot ever hope to hold office, when one section of the members is quite unknown to the others, or when that intimate friendship so characteristic of the smaller Lodges is missing. It would seem desirable in the interests of all concerned for every Lodge where any of the above conditions apply to consider the advisability of sponsoring a daughter Lodge."

The Grand Master spoke also of the remarkable quickening of interest in the charitable activities of the Order in New Zealand.

NORTH CAROLINA—1961

174th Annual Communication—April 18-19

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. H. W. Smith
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. J. W. Brewer

Lodges, 360.                      Membership, 62,496.                      Gain, 365.

The Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina, to give the official name, held its Annual Communication in New Bern for the first time since 1792. The year saw no fewer than ten emergent communications for the purpose of laying cornerstones of new Masonic Temples and six for the purpose of dedicating new ones. As the Grand Orator declared at the first day, night session, "Masonry is on the move in North Carolina."

For the first time in the history of the Grand Lodge, the installation of Grand Lodge Officers was open to the public. The Board of General Purposes early in 1960 commissioned the Committee on Miscellaneous Masonic Ceremonies to write a special installation ceremony for this event. This new form was used and the ceremony itself was televised for showing over various television stations in North Carolina.

The Grand Lodge operates a Masonic Home and also an orphanage. A maximum of 75 can be accommodated in the former and the capacity of the latter is 313, of whom 19 are children of Masonic heritage. The Oxford Orphanage evidently is a most active institution, where vocational training is stressed. The Proceedings of the Grand Lodge are printed at the press there and the annual report showed that the dairy herd was showing a nice profit. A new cow barn was near completion, replacing one lost by fire. Many new buildings have been completed during recent years. During this year a new dining hall and kitchen also were built.

Since the Grand Jurisdiction will be holding its 175th Annual Communication in 1962 many suggestions have been put forth regarding fitting ways in which the occasion may be recognized. Many believe that a complete history of the Grand Lodge should be published. The interest in history is revealed by the Grand Historian who reported that he had written to every Lodge, which had not done so previously, to appoint a historian or committee who would record the important events and activities of his Lodge from its institution. To date over two-thirds of Lodges in North Carolina have done something along this line. The Grand Historian concludes: "There is no doubt that the subordinate Lodges are becoming more and more history conscious."

The Grand Historian and Grand Secretary have in preparation a brochure on the Grand Lodge Executive Office Building, including a short historical sketch of all the episodes in the history of the Grand Lodge depicted by the murals in the building.

NORTH DAKOTA—1961

72nd Annual Communication—June 19-21

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. G. L. Paxman
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. J. M. Kyle

Lodges, 120.

Membership, 13,789.

Loss, 146.

The Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M. of Dakota Territory was constituted in 1875. This Grand Lodge was divided into the Grand Lodges of North and South Dakota in 1889. This division anticipated statehood by some months. Thus these two Grand Lodges are older than the States which they represent. The name of the Grand Lodge of North Dakota perpetuates the original form, including the word "Ancient."

Each year's Proceedings reveal the close ties between the Masons of North Dakota and their brethren north of the border. This year was no exception. Something was added, however, when for the first time the Grand Officers of North Dakota were escorted into the Grand Lodge room to "the melodious strain of a bagpipe, played by Brother William Sutherland of Brandon, Manitoba."

Once again the Stars and Stripes and the Union Jack were placed in the Grand East. But this year they were new flags, a gift from the Past Grand Masters of Manitoba and were being used for the first time. At both the opening of Grand Lodge and at the Grand Lodge dinner "America" and "God Save the Queen" were sung.

The account of the Grand Master's travels records many visits between North Dakota and Manitoba. A joint meeting of the two Grand Lodges was held at Morris, Manitoba, at which M.W. Bro. Paxman gave the main address. Perhaps relations were even more cordial than usual this year because the Grand Master was married, presumably to a Canadian, in Winnipeg in 1928.

One of the most important events of the year was the twenty-fourth annual Lookout Point Meeting. The list of dispensations shows that Malta Lodge, No. 131, was permitted to hold an open air tyled lodge meeting. But actually it was an international occasion. The meeting began with an afternoon church service followed by a picnic. As soon after six o'clock as possible a tyled meeting was opened by officers of Manitou Lodge, No. 30, of Manitoba. After receiving distinguished Masons from Canada the chairs were turned over to the master and officers of Malta Lodge, of Grand Forks, North Dakota, who received the Grand Lodge Officers from North Dakota. The principal address of the evening, entitled "Tolerance," was given by M.W. Bro. A. J. Sawatzky, of Manitoba.

The Grand Master made gratifying remarks about the Banff Conference at Banff, Alberta, which is composed of the Grand Lodges of the four Western provinces. He said "It is the most compact and best of them all and one that constantly produces great results."

The Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Education has been most active. The Grand Lodge Library of North Dakota which has long had the distinction of owning one of the best libraries of Masonry had another good year.

Although once again the year saw a net loss in membership the figure is becoming smaller. Many of the lodges, and especially the larger ones, have such a backlog of petitions and unfinished work that they cannot recess for the summer.

The Grand Master made several recommendations. Among them were: that it takes two black balls to reject a petition, "to do away with pettiness;" that the incoming Grand Master appoint a committee of three businessmen to study the operation of nearby Grand Lodge offices, with a view to modernizing and streamlining the operation of the Grand Jurisdiction; and that wherever possible lodges or Districts hold at least one Divine Service.

In conclusion the Grand Master declared: "In this high-powered age there are many things competing for our Masonic time, but we are the only one that has only Masonry to sell. The terrible state of world affairs would indicate that man has not yet learned to live with man, the world is in dire need of the tenets of our Craft; Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth. It has need for a knowledge of and a practice of our belief in the Brotherhood of Man, under the Fatherhood of God. It behooves us, my Brethren, as Masons, to practice outside of the Lodge, those tenets which are taught in it; if we do, Masonry, whose members had such a large part in the creation of our Government and has grown along with the United States, will continue to grow and assume the rightful place it has always held."

NOVA SCOTIA—1961

96th Annual Communication—June 26-27

Grand Master, 1959-60—M.W. Bro. C. H. Colwell
Grand Master, 1960-62—M.W. Bro. W. E. Moseley

Lodges, 114.                      Membership, 14,662.                      Loss, 132.

The Proceedings open with the report of the Divine Service attended by the Grand Lodge in First United Baptist Church, Wolfville, June 25. The Grand Chaplain R.W. Bro. H. M. Buntain's Sermon is printed in full. It was both inspiring and thought-provoking. Speaking on the subject "Changing Standards" he used the illustration of a modern clover leaf design for intersections on modern highways, in contrast with the simple cross-roads of earlier days, to show how involved is the age in which we live. In addition one must make decisions well in advance if we are not to become hopelessly confused.

"Let none of us presume" he went on "that by ritualism, ceremony, annual communications, and symbolism we fulfill the great principles of Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth. The forms and roads of travel along life's highway have changed tremendously within recent years and many fine welfare organizations and governmental plans would seem to make life and travel for all more carefree, but let us not fool ourselves. That which man most needs cannot be bought with money alone or fulfilled by proxy. . . . The higher values in life are best and most effectively transmitted by personal devotion and sacrifice."

The Masonic Home is the one big charity of Freemasons in Nova Scotia. This is the only Grand Jurisdiction in Canada which conducts such an institution. Progress was made during the year and the Home operated with a small surplus. The Golden Jubilee Fund in support of the Home is still some distance from its objective.

The year 1962 marks the 225th anniversary of the initiation on November 14, 1737, in St. Johns Lodge, Boston, of Major Erasmus James Philips of the Fortieth Regiment, the founder of the first Lodge on Canadian soil. It is also the centenary of the present Annapolis Royal Lodge, No. 33.

In the absence of the Grand Historian, his report was presented by M.W. Bro. R. V. Harris. He stated that there had been a great revival of interest in Masonic History in Nova Scotia. New Caledonia Lodge No. 11, Pictou, observed its 150th anniversary and four celebrated their centenaries. No fewer than an even dozen histories were completed or are in preparation.

OHIO—1961

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. C. H. Strayer
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. D. C. Jenkins

Lodges, 671.                      Membership, 281,341.                      Loss, 1,052.

The Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Ohio assembled in the Sports Arena, Toledo. The members of the Grand Lodge sang "America," "God Save the Queen," and "Two Countries by the Sea." The last time a Grand Lodge session was held in Toledo was 1928.

The Grand Master received an increasing number of requests for the holding of meetings and conferring of degrees out of doors. In view of the numbers the Advisory Committee considered the matter and concluded that all such meetings which members of the Committee had attended had been properly tyled and worthwhile. It was, therefore, agreed that the D.D.G.M. for the District where it was proposed to hold such a meeting should make the necessary checks and arrangements.

The Committee on History hopes to have ready for next year at least one article on the general subject of Ohio Freemasonry in the Civil War.

The Special Committee on Lodge Size Limitation did not make any definite recommendations but did put down several paragraphs on the pros and cons of the matter. Smaller Lodges, they agreed, have approximately the same attendance as larger ones. Consequently, a larger percentage of members does seem to attend in smaller Lodges. A greater percentage of members can take part in smaller Lodges. And active members are interested members.

The Committee cited the success of the many Lodges in London, England. The approximately 1,500 Lodges there are, with few exceptions, small, the average being about 100 members. It is not unusual for them to have almost one hundred per cent attendance.

On the other hand, in Ohio, smaller Lodges have trouble with finance. The maintenance of Temples would be more difficult and since many Temples already are fully occupied each night, provision of the extra accommodation would be a problem.

The Committee could not agree on the most desirable size. They did suggest, however, that further study be made of the question along the lines of limiting the number of petitions a Lodge can accept in a given time rather than to limit the actual number of its members.

OKLAHOMA—1961

53rd Annual Communication—February 14-16

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. E. C. Morris

Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. J. E. Cole

Lodges, 383.

Membership, 86,179.

Loss, 704.

The official name of this Grand Lodge, established in 1909, is The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Oklahoma. During the year nine cornerstones were laid, four for new lodge buildings, and one each for a high school, a public school, a court house, a Methodist Church and a building at a state penitentiary. The number and variety of these occasions suggests a wide popular acceptance of Freemasonry in Oklahoma.

Though there has been a decline in membership, progress has been made in increasing interest of the members in various educational activities. The Grand Secretary believes that suspensions for non-payment of dues are entirely too high. He points out that each member of the Craft in Oklahoma is actually a member and stockholder in a large corporation conservatively worth at least $2,500,000 and caring for nearly 200 persons who are not able to care for themselves.

The roll of Lodges contains Canadian, No. 22, meeting in Canadian with 57 members, and Ottawa, No. 478, meeting in Picher, with 138 members.

OREGON—1961

111th Annual Communication—June 14-16

Grand Master 1960-61—M.W. Bro. J. M. Swanson
 Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. H. C. Belton

Lodges, 192                      Membership, 44,172.                      Loss, 206.

The title page of the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of Oregon shows that the Grand Lodge can trace its origins through Missouri, Tennessee, North Carolina, the District of Columbia and Maryland to the Grand Lodge (Moderns) of England and the Grand Lodge (Ancients) of Pennsylvania.

The Masonic and Eastern Star Home, said the Grand Master, is in dire need of adequate financing. Over the years many brethren have given devoted service and many improvements were made during the year. Extra rooms were provided and furnished. Salaries were increased. But the increase in cost of operation proved to be a severe strain. The home has a capacity of 101.

The Grand Master ruled that a District Deputy might hold an installation on Sunday "provided the Lodges were not opened."

Amendments to By-laws approved show that thirty involved increases in initiation fees or dues. Several of the increases amounted to fifty per cent. One dispensation permitted Lakeview Lodge, No. 71, to assess each member $5.00 per year for three years, with the option of paying the total amount the first year. The revenue is to be used to complete the Lodge Hall.

The Grand Secretary published a revealing statistical table which shows that the largest Lodge in Oregon has 1,193 members, the smallest 30 and the average 230.

With a history extending well over a century, it is well that the Grand Lodge has a loyal and dedicated Grand Historian, R.W. Bro. J. Wilkinson, who has worked tirelessly for many years to get the record down for future generations. While much work remains to be done, printing is the final objective.

The Portland Masonic Service Bureau is an active body. One example of their efforts is to be seen in the sixty-nine funerals they arranged and conducted for sojourners. Incidentally, one was a member from Saskatchewan.

The Clackamas County Blue Lodge Association presented a memorial in which they stated in part, "With deep appreciation of the able and constructive part Freemasons and Freemasonry have played in the community, state, and nation and with a belief that during the past two decades some complacency had crept into Oregon Freemasonry, we the members of Clackamas County, urge all lodges to take inventory of their actual accomplishments in inculcating Masonic principles, tenets, and interest in their members. We believe that no organization can long endure that does not continually strive to do something for the betterment of its members, and for the well being of mankind.

"It is not the purpose of this memorial to catalogue a list of complacencies or prescribe a list of cure-alls. The extent of the problem, and its many facets, would make such action on our part presumptuous; but there is one phase, regarding which we have a strong conviction, and respectfully submit for your earnest consideration. We believe that the interest and active participation of a lodge's members is in inverse ratio to its size;--the smaller the lodge, the greater the interest and active participation of the members. We, therefore, humbly and respectfully petition this Grand Body to encourage and, where necessary and advisable, offer assistance in the formation of new lodges. This petition is submitted with the sincere and fervent hope that such action will, in due course, result in compact active lodges; lodges in which Masonic principles, tenets, and obligations will be most meaningful."

In conclusion one cannot do better than give a short paragraph from the Grand Master's Address:

"With all due respect to those who have said that they wonder what the destiny of Freemasonry is going to be in these perilous times, I can tell you without reservation, that I feel that there is as much need for our Fraternity now as there ever has been in any period of the past. I can report to you that our Fraternity in the State of Oregon is in good shape and will progress with a glorious future."

PENNSYLVANIA—1961

Annual Communication—December 27, and Quarterly Communications, March, June, September and December

Grand Master, 1960-61—R.W. Bro. M. F. Balcom
Grand Master, 1962-63—R.W. Bro. W. L. McKinley

Lodges, 596.                      Membership, 257,935.                      Gain, 224.

The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania has an all-inclusive name: The Right Worshipful Grand Lodge of the Most Ancient and Honorable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons of Pennsylvania and Masonic Jurisdiction Thereunto Belonging.

On reading the Proceedings one is immediately struck by the esteem in which the Grand Lodge is held. This esteem is evidenced by the numbers of benefactors who remember the Grand Lodge, while alive and in their wills. One bequest had an approximate value of $700,000, the income on which is to be used in the various charities of the Grand Lodge. Others were by no means minor.

Indeed, the entire report stresses benevolent institutions such as the Masonic Homes, Elizabethtown, and the Thomas Ranken Patton Masonic Institution for Boys. The Masonic Homes have 715 guests, of whom 265 are in hospital. The salary budget alone is $1,000,000.

The Instructor of Ritualistic Work reported that he and "the Regional Instructors have met together several times during the year to check proficiency so that uniform instruction is maintained throughout the state. Regular visits have been made to the Schools by the Regional Instructors at least twice during the past year. The Instructor of Ritualistic Work is also continuing his visits as time permits. . . .

"It is our opinion that these Sectional Meetings are creating a sincere interest in the ritualistic work and we are confident that the standard of proficiency and excellence will be raised to a new high performance."

PHILIPPINES—1961

45th Annual Communication—April 25-27

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. L. B. Bewley

Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. J. S. Alano

Lodges, 116.                      Membership, 10,409.                      Gain, 277.

The Grand Master reported an increase in membership. At the same time he gave a breakdown of the membership which showed that 51.5% are Filipinos, 42% Americans 5.1% Chinese, .1% Japanese, and all others 1.3%. Four new Lodges were constituted and five organized under dispensation during the year.

An architect for the new Grand Lodge Headquarters was retained. Since $3,500,000 will be required for imported materials alone, it can be seen that this is a major project.

The Hospital for Crippled Children had a successful year. One generous bequest was received.

A ritual in Filipino has been completed.

The Grand Lecturer made an astute observation on membership, at the same time revealing an extremely high regard for the Institution:

"Certainly we would like to have a bigger membership, but our methods have denatured Freemasonry. We made it too easy for them to join the Fraternity. We have destroyed that glamour which charmed our older brethren. . . . The solemn dignity that was synonymous with Freemasonry is no more. Committees on Investigation are lax and indifferent and often make favorable report on material that should be barred from our doors.

"The Fraternity must be made up of strong Masons, only men of established integrity and upright principles, men who can honestly subscribe to the things that Masonry stands for. Our door must be well guarded if we are to get the kind of men who will avail themselves of our Masonic opportunities when made Master Masons. Our strongest bonds are with those who come through the door of their own free will and accord.

"Many Lodges are confronted with the nagging problem of inactive members in big numbers. Many new Master Masons never return to the Lodge after they have been raised. They refuse to pay their dues. Evidently they do not care about Masonry. They joined the Fraternity perhaps out of mere curiosity, or because they could not refuse their friends who had asked them to sign the petitions.

"We should not try to retain such poor material. They must be immediately dropped from the roll. We should ever endeavour to prevent such misfits from joining our ranks.

"Let us exert our utmost to restore to Freemasonry that dignity, that devotion to ideals, that adherence to the principles, that loyalty to things right and good, that made Freemasonry the greatest of all Institutions."

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND—1960

85th Annual Communication—June 22

Grand Master, 1959-60—M.W. Bro. D. R. Walker

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. J. E. S. Maynard

Lodges, 16.

Membership, 1,485.

Gain, 10.

During the year the Grand Master visited all Lodges and developed the theme "More Light in Masonry."

The Grand Lecturer also visited all of the lodges in the Grand Jurisdiction. The enthusiasm of all senior officers was outstandingly evident. Two different rituals are being used. The Grand Lecturer stressed the need for "emphatic pronunciation, smooth flowing enunciation, and well timed inflection" in the work.

QUEBEC—1961

91st Annual Communication—June 1

Grand Master, 1959-61—M.W. Bro. L. J. Robb
Grand Master, 1961-63—M.W. Bro. B. V. Atkinson

Lodges, 108.                      Membership, 17,994.                      Gain, 8

Although the Grand Jurisdiction is not large in numbers it makes many demands on the Grand Master. His travels with the Grand Secretary and others on both shores of the St. Lawrence and to Gaspé tell something of the wide range of Freemasonry in Quebec. A visit to St. Paul's Lodge No. 374 on the Eng.'sh Register, in Montreal, when that Lodge tendered an informal reception to the Deputy Grand Master of the United Grand Lodge of England, Lord Cadogan, also reveals something of the development of Freemasonry in Quebec.

The Grand Chaplain of Montreal District No. 4, R.W. Bro. W. A. Bockus, spoke in a forthright way on Masonry and religion and also on the position of Chaplain.

"I sometimes wonder if Freemasonry is not becoming a substitute religious outlet. A half century ago, it was stated, 'There is an almost universal recognition by Masons of the spiritual nature of their work. They feel the sacred character of their symbolic ritual. Their simple way of expressing this is in saying that he who has Masonry needs no other religion.' This is all wrong. For years now I have felt that if our Order lived up to its tenets for just one year we would have such an irresistible force that we would change for good the whole course of history. If we served the Church with but half the zeal we serve the Lodge what a difference it would make. . . .

"We tend to belittle the overflowing religious side of our Masonic life. We put the Master in the brilliant East, the Junior Warden in the warm and sunny south and the Senior Warden in the radiant West, but we consign the Chaplain to the cold bleak north, the Masonic Place of Darkness. . . . Even at this Grand Lodge he is an embarrassment because no one really knows what to do about him. He is neither sheep nor goat. My own feelings are that in Masonry the Office of Chaplain is like a third thumb. To me the work he does should, by logic, be done by no less than the Master of the Lodge or at least a Past Master. This is not Masonic heresy. The Office of Chaplain of a Lodge and I quote, 'Is one which is not recognized in the ritual of the United States of America, although often conferred by courtesy.' The Office of Grand Chaplain is a very modern one having been instituted on the 1st of May, 1775 on the occasion of the laying of the foundation of Freemason's Hall in London."

A reader of the address is left with a feeling that the outspoken declaration was designed to draw attention to the two final paragraphs which must have been as fine as any spoken by a Grand Chaplain in some time.

"Centuries ago the medieval monks had a Latin expression, 'Laborare est orare', To labour is to pray; or in other words labour is worship. This divine doctrine that labour is worship has been advanced and maintained as a leading dogma in Masonry. No other institution sets it forth so boldly. We hear constantly that Freemasonry inculcates Morality; it fosters the Social feeling; it teaches brotherly love; but let us never forget that while over its vast temple there is inscribed in symbols of living light the great truth that 'Labour is worship', we must never forget that this worship is intended to prepare us better to take our places in our synagogues and churches and with our training help others along the road that leads to God on high.

"Let us labour together, and let us worship in spirit and in truth that in so doing we may bring honour to our Order, strength to our synagogues and churches and above all spiritual welfare to ourselves wherein we may endeavour to emulate those earlier operative Masons in their noble and pious work, 'but with the higher purpose of turning every human heart into a temple dedicated to the worship of the Great Architect of the Universe, remembering that while time will crumble into dust the most massive walls, and level with the grounds the loftiest spire, the Spiritual edifice is eternal; and that those who carry the peaceful but ennobling banner of morality and science are the true children of the Great Light and the real benefactors of mankind."

The Reports of the District Deputy Grand Masters are full and interesting and reveal the healthy condition of Freemasonry in Quebec. The District Deputy of Quebec and Three Rivers, for example, stated: "I was again impressed by the fact that much more of the work is now being performed by younger members of the Craft; their knowledge and ability is to be highly commended."

Similarly the District Deputy of Montreal District No. 4 wrote: "The true spirit of Fraternity was always evident and I think that the Craft has a right to be proud of the quality of its membership, regardless of the walk of life of the individual. One could not but feel that the Lodge members were the kind of persons with whom it is an honour to be associated."

The year saw the publication of a history of Freemasonry in the Province of Quebec, 1759 to 1959. Written by R.W. Bro. A. J. Milborne, a noted Masonic scholar and historian, it is an excellently documented and authoritative record.

The Report on the State of Masonry commented on the changes times have wrought.

"In concluding this report, we feel that a general reference should be made to problems facing the Craft due largely to the lapse of time. The changes brought about on social, economic and cultural conditions, as well as movements in population have been greatly accelerated since the two wars through which our Country has passed in this century. We are faced by problems of policies and administrative procedures initiated many years ago, under completely different conditions than those existing today. Many of these policies and procedures need rethinking so as to adapt them to modern requirements. Needless to say, the Landmarks of the Order are inviolate and must never be tampered with, but within this framework, Masonry, too, must be progressive, and these problems must be faced up to. Incidental to this is the duty of Lodge officers to study more carefully the Book of Constitution to familiarize themselves therewith. Emphasis should also be laid on the necessity of study of the published Annual Proceedings which always contain important committee reports and more particularly the Grand Master's annual report. These often contain rulings which, upon adoption and confirmation by Grand Lodge, have binding effect throughout the Jurisdiction."

The Report was most sanguine. Losses in membership, generally speaking were in rural districts. Gains in metropolitan or urban centres more than offset the losses. But more important than gains in members is evidence "of an increase in vitality and activity in a substantial number of Lodges." The Committee concluded: "Where vigorous and imaginative leadership is forthcoming, not only are candidates attracted, but many of the older members are having their interest rekindled." Certainly, a reader of these Proceedings is left with the feeling that Freemasonry in Quebec is getting vigorous and imaginative leadership.

QUEENSLAND—1961

40th Annual Report—One Special and Four Quarterly Communications

Grand Master, 1958-61—M.W. Bro. H. B. Milliner
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. J. Paterson

Lodges, 454.                      Membership, 37,191.                      Gain, 350.

In his address on July 13, 1960, the Grand Master urged all members to take an active interest in Civic and State affairs. He showed clearly the contribution which Freemasonry can make in these days. "We all realize that at the present time there is a tremendous amount of unrest throughout the world. We as individuals, with the teachings we have received as Freemasons should take an active part in national affairs. We must see to it that those who are placed in power to rule and govern us are men of integrity and of high moral principles. It is very necessary today that only men of ability be placed in positions of power and authority to guide the destinies of our Nation."

The Board of General Purposes is endeavouring to compile a pictorial record of all the Masonic buildings in the Grand Jurisdiction. To this end, owners of Temples have been circularized with a request for photographs of the front, side, and front approach to their Temples, also a graph plan to scale of the site, showing the shape, size and position of the building on the land.

A history of one hundred years of Freemasonry in Queensland has been published. It consists of 320 pages of letterpress and seventy-two pages of illustrations. It is most reasonably priced.

In the northern suburbs of the metropolitan area of Brisbane a desirable site has been acquired for the construction of a new Temple. The new Temple will provide convenient accommodation for at least twenty Lodges. Heretofore they have been meeting in local halls with all the inconveniences of accommodation not designed or furnished for Masonic purposes.

In connection with a proposal to elect the Grand Master by a postal ballot throughout the whole Grand Jurisdiction, the President of the Board of General Purposes gave a good account of various methods of election in the world and also the considerations involved in the Queensland method.

"The method of selecting a Grand Master varies throughout the world. In one country the ruling Monarch is always

Grand Master. In other jurisdictions the retiring Grand Master appoints his successor. Some reach the office by annual progress as a Grand Lodge officer.

"I know of no jurisdiction inside Craft Masonry where a postal ballot is held.

"In our case the Constitution lays it down that the Board of General Purposes shall nominate a brother for the office, but a proviso exists that it is open for any other qualified brother to be nominated, and which may be regarded as a safeguard and an acknowledgement of the supreme authority of Grand Lodge (Article 15).

"This appears to have worked well over the many years of our existence as a United Grand Lodge, as on only three occasions has there been a contest for the office.

"One of the reasons, no doubt, that prompted the designers of our Constitution to make it incumbent on the Board to nominate a Grand Master is that the Board is the only body competent to sift and know the background of any brother in the Jurisdiction. Consequently, when a nomination is made by the Board, the Craft as a whole can have complete confidence that the nominated brother possesses the necessary qualifications to fill the honoured office."

M.W. Bro. H. B. Milliner, after four years in office, installed his successor M.W. Bro. John Paterson. During his Grand Mastership M.W. Bro. Milliner saw thirty-four Lodges consecrated, thirteen temples dedicated and five Foundation Stones laid.

By any measure, Freemasonry is flourishing in Queensland.

RHODE ISLAND—1961

Semi-Annual Communication—November 21, 1960

170th Annual Communication—May 15, 1961

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. I. L. Tucker
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. J. S. Stafford

Lodges, 45.

Membership, 18,987.

Loss, 13.

As does the name of the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario, the name of this Grand Jurisdiction goes a long way back in history: The Most Ancient and Honorable Society of Free and Accepted Masons for the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations.

Some Lodges on the Roll of Constituent Lodges are described as A.F. & A.M. while others follow the practice of using only F. & A.M. Two Lodges received their Charters from the Grand Lodge on April 26, 1793. Both had earlier Charters. One is St. John's, No. 1, Newport, the other St. Johns, No. 1-P, Providence. There must be some interesting history associated with these two numbers.

This year the Grand Master instituted a new programme of opening an Occasional Grand Lodge in each District where he made a few remarks after receiving the Officers of the District and then introducing the speaker of the evening. Eight such meetings were held.

One Lodge helped maintain the frequent interchange of visits between Lodges in the United States and Canada by visiting at Ormstown, Quebec.

The Dedication and Constitution of Lafayette Lodge, U.D., Arnold Mills, was a notable event for this Lodge was formed to reactivate an old Lodge of the same name, numbered 19, which went out of existence during the Morgan episode, about 136 years ago. The Grand Master remarked: "With the declining membership in our City Lodges, I feel that if Masonry is to survive, we must constitute more Lodges in our rural communities." Here the Grand Master appeared to be expressing a view different from that of many Grand Masters who have referred to the decline in rural populations. His continuing remarks amplified the statement and he went on to say that Lodges should be established in the "Dormitory" towns outside the large cities where members could attend Lodge and maintain interest in Masonry near their homes.

It is a matter of surprise to see that one of the most active Lodges in the Grand Jurisdiction is Berlin Lodge, No. 46, Berlin, Germany. During the year the Lodge held 53 meetings. The Lodge was constituted in 1948 and has 447 members.

The cornerstone laying at a Baptist Church brought out clearly the changes that have occurred in 140 years. The Church was first built in 1821 at a total cost of $2,000. The new building in 1961 cost $175,000. Provision is being made for a Sunday School of 460. The Grand Master used the occasion to remark, "We are grateful for the wonderful cooperation that exists between our Grand Jurisdiction and Churches of all denominations."

SASKATCHEWAN—1961

55th Annual Communication—June 21

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. L. H. Bergstrom

Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. J. E. Burt

Lodges, 208.                      Membership, 17,541.                      Loss, 108.

In telling of the Constitution and Consecration of Mystic Tie Lodge No. 213 and Sherwood Lodge No. 214, in the Institution of Esterhazy Lodge U.D. and the amalgamation of two others the Grand Master observed: "The virility of man-made institutions is measurable in part by their capacity to adapt to changing conditions and needs without impairment of the fundamental principles upon which they are founded. The Masonic Order is no exception."

The comparatively recent settlement of Saskatchewan is shown by the news concerning fifty-year anniversary celebrations of Lodges. This year eight reached the half century milestone. Three joined the elite group with a history of seventy-five years. Six Lodges, in all, have attained this age.

The Grand Master was concerned to note that sixty-eight Lodges were not represented at the 1960 Communication. Indeed only eighty three Lodges were in regular attendance during the past five years.

The Committee on Condition of Masonry reported that the overall situation Masonically is basically sound and healthy. There are trends towards deterioration in several of the smaller Lodges situated in towns that have been adversely affected by shifts in population.

In commenting on membership figures, the Committee wrote: "Masonry, we believe, likes to perform the good deed quietly and without publicity. Its teachings offer an introduction to a way of life that will make its members better citizens and that is something that those of us who believe in Masonry can exemplify in our everyday life and in that way attract those worthwhile members of any community to seek membership in our Order. Not quantity but quality should be our aim, and so brethren let us not be so concerned about lack of membership gains that we are tempted to let down the standards of our requirements for membership, or deviate in any way from Masonic teachings and landmarks. Those are the things that attract those that are good membership material. Let us keep them intact even at some possible sacrifice in members."

Reports of the D.D.G.M.'s indicate that there has been much done in making Lodge premises more attractive and comfortable, inside and out. A large percentage of Lodges also are keeping their historical register up-to-date.

M.W. Bro. C. MacL. Pitts gave a thought provoking and inspiring address at the Annual Banquet.

SCOTLAND—1961-62

M.W. Grand Master Mason—The Right Honourable
The Earl of Eglinton and Winton

R.W. Grand Secretary—Dr. Alexander F. Buchan

Lodges within Scotland, 626.

Overseas, 407.

At the Quarterly Communication, February 2, 1961, it was announced that the Grand Master Mason accompanied by the Grand Secretary was about to set out on a long and arduous trip to Pakistan, India, Thailand, Hong Kong, Manila, Malaya, Western Australia, New Zealand and on the way back Colombo, Aden and Malta, all regions with Lodges under the Scottish Constitution.

On May 4, the Grand Master Mason reported on his visits to District Grand Lodges in those countries. The Grand Lodge has twenty-four District Grand Lodges, literally scattered over the four quarters of the globe, and the Grand Master Mason and Grand Secretary have now visited twenty-three.

The first Masonic engagement to Erect and Consecrate Lodge Mahbed-i-Suleman, No. 1580 in Pakistan ran into difficulties. Through an oversight the occasion was scheduled during the Month of Ramazan when all Moslems fast from sunrise to sunset. Since most of the members are Moslems and could not attend, the ceremony was postponed.

At the meeting of the District Grand Lodge of Pakistan there were three Volumes of the Sacred Law open. The columns and gavels of the Master and Wardens were made of ivory.

Lodge St. John, No. 1072, Bangkok "intrigued" the Grand Master Mason. Here he installed as Master Bro. Gunnar Caspersen, a Dane. The Lodge has fewer than sixty members but it includes a number of nationalities, including several Thais. This small Lodge is one of the most generous contributors to the benevolent funds of the Grand Lodge.

At Hong Kong the meeting was in Zetland Hall, according to the Grand Master Mason, one of the most beautiful Lodge Rooms he had ever seen, and he has seen many. The Hall was built after the Japanese occupation by Brethren of the English, Irish and Scottish Constitutions. Here the visitor installed as Master in Lodge Naval and Military, No. 848, a Chinese, Brother Ong Teong Seng. The occasion led the Grand Master Mason to add "Wherever I have gone, Brethren, I have spoken about the Universal Nature of our Science, and how convinced I am about the part that Freemasonry is playing in bringing about a better understanding between all nations, no matter of what colour, creed or religion."

It is unfortunate that a more detailed account of this journey cannot be presented here. But since the narrative covers sixteen tightly packed pages even a digest is impossible. Suffice it to say that the Grand Master Mason found Lodges of the Grand Lodge of Scotland in flourishing condition and working in harmony with Lodges of other Grand Jurisdictions.

During the absence of the Grand Master Mason and Grand Secretary, from Scotland, the Senior Grand Warden died. He was R.W. Bro. Robert Cohen. His association with Grand Lodge extended to close on forty years. He was a devout and orthodox Jew, proud of his race and proud of being of the priestly class. He loved mankind and his Church. His high position in Scottish Freemasonry further bore out the Grand Master Mason's remarks regarding the Universal nature of the science.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA—1961

Half-Yearly Communication, October 19, 1960 and Annual Communication, April 19, 1961.

Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. D. B. Ross

Lodges, 205.                      Membership, 27,775.                      Gain, 445.

In this Grand Jurisdiction the Grand Masters frequently hold office for several years. Recently, they have been re-elected twice making a total of three years in office. The roll of Grand Masters shows that the bench and legal profession have been well represented in the Grand East. Of the total of eighteen Grand Masters, eight have been Judges, two K.C.'s and one LL.B.

During the year one new Craft Lodge was constituted and Consecrated. The average membership in all Lodges is 136.

The Board of General Purposes emphasized its concern at breaches of the policy of the Craft to avoid Masonic functions on Sundays and of "the absolute prohibition in the matter of secular functions on those days. The promotion under the auspices of one or more Lodges, of picnics or other outings for members and their families on Sundays is neither seemly nor permissible."

The Grand Inspector of Lodges said that reports from all his inspection staff indicated that Officers of Lodges were performing their work satisfactorily both with respect to ritual and ceremonial. He added, somewhat wryly, "During most of our visits the retiring of candidates at the appropriate time was observed, although on a few occasions we concluded this was solely due to our presence."

The Grand Jurisdiction is outstanding in the work of benevolence. The War Relief Fund is maintained for the relief of incapacitated brethren returned from war service. A system of scholarships has been set up for necessitous, not necessarily brilliant, pupils. An annual appeal is made for Christmas Cheer for occupants of the Cottage Homes. Twelve double-unit Cottage Flats were completed for the accommodation of aged Freemasons and aged wives in necessitous circumstances. Plans are going forward to expand the housing scheme.

The Grand Master expressed his gratitude for the complete loyalty and support he had received. He expanded on the subject. "Loyalty is an essential characteristic of the true Freemason, and one of the important loyalties enjoined upon him is that which is due to Grand Lodge. When a W.M. tenders his gavel to the Grand Master or his representative, or when a Lodge at the festive board honours the toast of Grand Lodge, there is a pledge by the Lodge and its members of this obligation towards the governing body of Freemasonry. Grand Lodge is the parliament of Freemasonry and its legislative powers are very wide. It is, however, a most democratic body on which all Lodges are represented. You, Brethren, tonight constitute Grand Lodge, and every member present has a constitutional right to speak and vote on any matters properly brought before it. But when once Grand Lodge has made a decision or edict it is, of course, the duty of every brother to unhesitatingly accept and obey it. A brother may have opposed such decision; he may perhaps feel that it was unwise, but it is his clear duty as a loyal member of the Craft to bow to constitutional authority. I have no doubt that this duty is and always will be fully recognized and cheerfully observed by all the brethren."

The Grand Master paid particular tribute to the service rendered to the Craft by the Deputy Grand Master, the Grand Wardens and other Grand Officers. There are 205 Lodges in the Jurisdiction and very few conduct their own installations. The task falls on the Grand Lodge Officers who year after year carry out the important work. The two Grand Wardens between them carried out 149 installations and attended many other Grand Lodge ceremonies.

South Australia evidently has a strong and active Grand Lodge and Freemasonry, in general, is flourishing.

SOUTH CAROLINA—1961

224th Annual Communication—April 27-28

Grand Master, 1960-62—M.W. Bro. H. N. Layne

Lodges, 303.                      Membership, 50,078.                      Gain, 758.

The official name of this Grand Lodge, The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient Free Masons of South Carolina. The omission of the word "Accepted" is unusual.

The Grand Lodge will hold its Two Hundred and Twenty-fifth Annual Communication in 1962. The Grand Master recommended that the Grand Lodge make an appropriation from the General Fund of a sum sufficient to commemorate this important milestone in the history of this Jurisdiction in a fitting manner. Mindful of the role Charleston played in the birth and growth of Freemasonry in Colonial America as well as the present Grand Jurisdiction, he also recommended that the Annual Communication be held in that city.

Age, however, has not weakened the Grand Jurisdiction as the gain shown here reveals. The erection of new Masonic Temples and the planning for even more encouraged the Grand Master to believe that growth and prosperity would continue. Dispensations were issued for two new Lodges and one was constituted. The Grand Lodge met no fewer than ten times to dedicate Temples and eight times for the laying of cornerstones. One of these occasions was the laying of a cornerstone of an Episcopal Parish House.

It is a matter of interest that the membership includes 1,182 ministers and 1,611 forty-year members who are exempted from payment of Lodge and Grand Lodge dues.

Seven Lodges observed their centennials. Since one of these Lodges was No. 101, it would seem likely that the seventy-five Lodges which precede this one numerically most likely are of like age.

One out-door meeting held in a rock quarry for the twenty-first time has become traditional. Brethren attend from many States of the Union and from Foreign Jurisdictions. Although the weather was threatened a "large host" attended.

The Grand Master, in addition to his many other duties, wrote letters to 584 newly raised Master Masons. His diary showed 142 meetings attended in the Grand Jurisdiction, most involving an address, besides many visits outside.

The flourishing condition of Freemasonry in South Carolina is not an accident. The only problem in the Jurisdiction seems to be non-attendance at meetings.

On September 9-10, 1960, the Grand Master met with Grand Masters or their representatives in Atlanta, Georgia, for the purpose of organizing a Conference of Grand Masters of the Southeastern States. Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee were represented. Louisiana planned to participate following the organizational meeting.

The first annual meeting of the newly organized Conference was held at Pascagoula, Mississippi, November 9-11, 1960. The Grand Master of South Carolina read a paper on "Better attendance through Masonic Education." The next meeting was scheduled to be held in Florida.

The Special Committee on a Grand Lodge Building reported fully on proposed sites and recommended two sites in the City of Columbia, the State Capital.

SOUTH DAKOTA—1961

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. J. S. Rowe

Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. G. F. Westover

Lodges, 168.

Membership, 20,098.

Loss, 222.

The name of this Grand Lodge, Grand Lodge Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of South Dakota, includes the word "Ancient" as does North Dakota. This is to be expected as both were formed from the earlier Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of Dakota Territory, in 1889. South Dakota, however, numbers the Annual Communication as 87th dating from the first Grand Lodge, whereas North Dakota numbers its as 77th, dating from the division. This is logical as the site where the first Grand Lodge was constituted in 1875 is in South Dakota.

Each year the Grand Master appears to put forward a special theme. This year, the Grand Master, at all meetings, stressed the fact that "we as Masons should be very active in our Church, Sunday School and Civic Life . . . The time has come when the Masons must take a serious stand in the affairs of the community in which they live."

The Grand Lodge Library had a busy year. The students of Augustana and Sioux Falls College make regular use of the library during the school months. Such use cannot be usual with most Grand Lodge libraries.

The Grand Historian has had correspondence with some of the Lodges about the desirability of placing bronze plaques to mark important Masonic events or facts. One such project is the setting up of a highway marker indicating the existence of the Grand Lodge monument at the site where the Grand Lodge was constituted in 1875. The Grand Historian correctly states. "When the place where a first Masonic meeting of any of the older Lodges is involved, the historical fact becomes more and more interesting as the years wheel by. Increasing difficulty in determining just where some of these affairs occurred makes this type of activity highly important." He suggested that for events of state-wide interest the Grand Lodge could bear the entire expense; if local, the expense could be shared with the local Lodge.

TASMANIA—1961

70th Annual Communication—February 25

Half-yearly Communication—August 20

Grand Master—M.W. Bro. H. V. Jones

Lodges, 68.                      Membership, 8,777.                      Gain, 19.

The Grand Inspector of Lodges reported: "New Candidates being admitted seem to be of a very high standard; the continued exhortations of our Grand Master and other Officers in regard to their selection appear to be bringing the desired result." These remarks coupled with a gain in membership speak well for the condition of Freemasonry in Tasmania.

The Grand Master outlined developments which he hoped would occur in his Grand Jurisdiction. As he himself said the list was long, but it was most thought provoking in its completeness.

The first point called for a true perspective of Freemasonry. "There is a growing tendency," he said "for the social side to dwarf the true significance of Freemasonry, for a social function to assume greater importance than day to day living, with the result that the Brother who stresses the spiritual values of Freemasonry tends to lose interest in his Lodge." One hardship he felt is the visiting programme in Hobart and Launceston. To him it seemed out of proportion and to reduce the time each Master could devote to his own Lodge.

Other points dealt with were: Re-dedication night, Active support of the Church, and Masonic Education.

At the Half-yearly Communication, the Grand Master stressed the great importance of instructing Candidates before permitting them to proceed to higher degrees. He continued:

"My second point concerns the ever increasing amounts spent on Lodge refreshments. When I remember that if the world's hungry people were arranged in single file, they would form a line extending round the globe twenty-five times, I wonder whether it would not demonstrate a better Masonic spirit, if in the balance sheet of each Lodge the amount given to charitable causes and to Grand Lodge for its administrative expenses should not always be at least equal to the cost of refreshments.

"I commend the zeal of those Brethren who devote so much of their time to the work connected with our Masonic libraries. To them it must often appear a thankless task, because so few Brethren evince the slightest interest in the treasures on these shelves. A Masonic library is not a luxury, but a necessity of life to all true Freemasons. Books are the windows through which the soul looks out. Cicero once said: 'To be unacquainted with what has taken place before you were born is to be always a child, for what is human life, unless memory is able to compare the events of our own times with those of bygone ages.' I hope that every Mason in the jurisdiction will become actively interested in our libraries and thoroughly acquainted with the story of our rich heritage."

During the year the Grand Master's purpose in his remarks and addresses emphasized and stressed the value of Freemasonry to the individual. As he said: "Its glorious truths applied to each individual life quicken and enrich it, and give it a purposeful objective and a sublime ideal for which to strive. When Freemasonry is interpreted in this manner, its potentialities for good are unlimited, but any lower interpretation makes it an empty shell."

UTAH—1961

89th Annual Communication—January 23

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. J. P. Coombs
 Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. R. L. Marimon

Lodges, 31.                      Membership, 6,830.                      Loss, 4.

The M.W. Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons of Utah is the full and correct name of this Grand Lodge. No fewer than seventeen Past Grand Masters of Utah (there are twenty living) attended the Annual Communication. Though admittedly the Grand Master is elected for a one year term only the figure seems remarkable. Of the three absent two had moved from Utah and the third was ill. The oldest living Past Grand Master was elected in 1916.

The reports of Lodges showed that all are in sound financial condition. The Grand Master pointed out the need for Lodges to keep sufficient reserves. His observations on loss of members through non-payment of dues are well considered. "It is questionable whether the members dropped are in financial difficulties or have lost interest and prefer to be dropped rather than demit. Our Secretaries should make every effort to keep all members in current condition. The first year of delinquency is the most important because each year thereafter the member is less inclined to bring his dues up to date, resulting in the loss of a member."

The roll of Lodges, beginning with Wasatch Lodge, No. 1, Salt Lake City, chartered originally by the Grand Lodge of Montana (as No. 8) in 1867, shows that only one charter has been surrendered in the history of the Grand Lodge, and that in 1888.

The Masonic Research Club, completing its second year, produced an excellent paper on "The Examination of a visiting Master Mason." In Utah only Master Masons are eligible to visit. In addition to strict trial and due examination, no Mason may be permitted to visit a Lodge in the Grand Jurisdiction unless he produces written evidence under the seal of his Lodge and attested by the Grand Secretary's signature and seal of the Grand Lodge under which the Lodge of the visitor is working. However, when the visitor comes from a Grand Jurisdiction where such certification is not required he does not have to produce this evidence.

An interesting suggestion is that while at least one member of an examining committee must be completely familiar with the procedure, other members preferably should be less well-informed. Brethren can thereby learn and gain experience in Masonry. "In this way the examination serves a dual purpose. Not only does it screen unqualified persons from the meetings, but it serves to stimulate interest among the newer members."

Among other points the article points out that the aim of the test is to keep non-Masons out of the meetings and never to embarrass a less skillful Brother. "Examining committees should always remember that if a visitor is qualified we want him to meet with us. He may be an eager candidate for affiliation." While unaffiliated he is deprived of the privileges which the Fraternity provides and the Lodges lose the benefit of his aid and fellowship.

The Grand Orator, according to the Proceedings, gave an eloquent address. It certainly must have been eloquent, but it was much more than that, being a clear, comprehensive, well-reasoned and historically accurate interpretation of the issues involved in the Civil War.

VERMONT—1961

168th Annual Communication—June 14-15

Grand Master, 1960-62—M.W. Bro. N. D. Rowe

Lodges, 103.                      Membership, 17,954.                      Loss, 191.

The M. W. Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Vermont is the full designation of this Grand Lodge. The Proceedings are most attractively printed and the information clearly and fully presented.

Convinced "that a better informed Mason is a more valuable brother" the Grand Master set up a schedule of Schools of Instruction through the Masonic Education Committee. The results were gratifying and the Grand Master recommended an expansion of the programme. Furthermore, the Grand Master expressed his view that the Lodges had not been using the Past Masters group as well as they might have. He concluded "In order to make more meaningful a State Past Masters' Association, we need and can use District Associations of Past Masters."

More than one Grand Master, during 1961, stressed the importance of keeping up Lodge property. M. Wor. Bro. Rowe expressed the same view extremely well: "One item that causes me a great deal of concern, and I feel should be brought to your attention very forcibly, and that is the condition of the physical Lodge as we look at it from the street. So many of our Lodge Halls are not painted, are not well kept up, the lawns are not mowed, there is very little landscaping done about them, and all in all it is not a good advertisement for the fraternity. It seems to me that a painting 'bee' or a cleaning-up 'bee', or something of that sort, held in many of our Lodges would have far reaching consequences. The slogan 'Paint up and Clean up' could be adopted for a challenge for each subordinate Lodge which has a building."

In line with this thinking the Grand Lodge spent a great deal on repairs to the Grand Lodge Temple and also acquired an adjoining property. The new addition has greatly improved the looks and value of the whole unit.

The Grand Master had a word to say about the ritual. "In some Districts there has crept into the Past Master's Degree some informality which demonstrates a lesson. However, in other Districts this ceremony has developed beyond the bounds of propriety. Anything which desecrates the dignity of a man is improper Masonic degree work."

The Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence reported that the 1947 Code of Masonic Law (equivalent to our Constitution) had been revised and printed. There was some discussion as to the advisability of binding the Code in loose-leaf form. To this reviewer at least, it seems fortunate that the loose-leaf proposal would have added prohibitively to the cost and that the Committee therefore decided to bind the Code, with a pocket inside the back cover in which to file amendments.

VICTORIA (AUSTRALIA)—1961

Quarterly Communications, March, June, September, December

Grand Master—M.W. Bro. His Excellency General
Sir Dallas Brooks

Grand Secretary—R.W. Bro. C. W. Davis

Lodges, 803.                      Membership, 113,157.                      Gain, 516.

The Grand Master could not be present at the March Quarterly Communication when his re-election was proclaimed as he had been appointed Administrator of the Commonwealth of Australia. This appointment involved his residence in Canberra. The Pro Grand Master, M.W. Bro. His Honour Judge Nelson, read a message from the Grand Master in which he paid tribute to the "splendid team" of Grand Lodge officers. He also paid high tribute to the Grand Lodge Choir. M.W. Bro. Sir Dallas Brooks was first elected Grand Master in 1951.

Unfortunately, severe illness prevented the Grand Master from attending the June Quarterly Communication. He made a good recovery, however, and was able to be present at the December Communication when he was again elected.

The Grand Inspector of Workings reported that a high standard of dignity and ceremonial was being maintained in the Grand Jurisdiction. To assist in maintaining uniformity the exemplification of the working of the three degrees was held in eight Temples.

M.W. Bro. Rev. C. T. F. Goy was appointed Pro Grand Master for the ensuing twelve months. He spoke feelingly of the honour which had been done him. At his initiation on August 20, 1924, it never occurred to him in his "wildest imagination" that one day almost thirty-eight years later he would occupy such a high and exalted office.

"I can only attribute this to four important factors" he said. "Firstly, to my intense love of the Craft, which began with my introduction to it and has grown deeper with the passing years. Secondly, for the continued joy I have found in serving it in many different capacities. I say that with nothing but feelings of humility. It has provided me with a wonderful field of ministry which I have tried to exercise for the advancement of the Order and for the deepening of our faith in the noble things for which it stands. Thirdly, and here I acknowledge a very deep debt I owe for the affectionate interest, valuable instruction and inspiring friendship and patience of so many of my Brethren during the passing of the years, in guiding and directing me in the antient landmarks and procedure of our Order. Fourthly, and above all, to the great guiding and invisible hand of Him Who is the Supreme Architect, who plays so vital a part in the planning of our lives and the shaping of our destiny. He it is Who leads us on."

The Pro Grand Master added: "The second thing I wish to say is something not often said, I am sure, to a group of Past Grand Masters. It has been a matter of great amazement to me that so many men holding high and extremely busy positions in the community—men held in high regard—men of integrity and leadership—are attracted to our Order and to accept the highest office in our Constitution. These Past Grand Masters go on serving the Craft long after they have gone out of active office. They are ever ready to offer guidance where it is often necessary in an Institution of this kind and continue to take their part in our Ceremonials."

VIRGINIA—1961

183rd Annual Communication—February 14-16

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. C. M. Flintoff
 Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. E. C. Glover, Jr.

Lodges, 339.                      Membership, 69,631.                      Gain, 516.

The full name of this Grand Lodge is the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

One Emergent Communication, to pay the last tribute of respect to M.W. Bro. R. R. Cooke, Grand Master, 1951-52, and an Occasional Communication, for the purpose of laying the cornerstone of Christ Episcopal Church, Richmond, were reported. The laying of cornerstones under Masonic auspices, as can be seen, is still common in many Grand Jurisdictions in the United States. Since churches of various denominations follow the practice there is a suggestion of the wide acceptance of Masonry in those bodies.

One of the highlights of the year was Grand Master's Day at the Masonic Home. More than five thousand brethren and the members of their families attended the dedication of the new East Wing of the Charles H. Callaghan Building and to take part in the seventieth anniversary celebration of the Masonic Home.

The Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. A. B. Gay, made a revealing analysis of initiates by age groupings. He found that the largest percentage of men coming into Masonry fall in the grouping between 30 and 39 years. During the earlier years of this century many young men joined in their twenty-first year. Now the group 21-29 falls below the group 40-49 in the percentages. He concludes from these facts a "knowledge of the age grouping of our new brethren should enable us to plan a more effective educational campaign to fit their needs and to arouse their interest in the deeper meaning which Freemasonry should have for each of us. Ours is a Society of mature men who are interested in the problems which confront this generation and age. They also have need of some of the finer things of life such as fellowship and the opportunity to develop their Masonic friendships. Perhaps our planning should lie along these lines and we should strive to create a corps of Lodge officers who are as skilled in planning and programming their meetings as they are in the conferring of the degrees. We have attained a high degree of proficiency in one of these areas and perhaps we should now start on the other."

Regarding membership, the Grand Secretary rightly says, "While membership gains are not a measure of the success of a Masonic Lodge, or for our Grand Lodge, we are concerned about maintaining our effectiveness as one of the basic moral institutions of our society. Gains and losses should be studied by us in order that we might discover if there is anything we can do to make our Freemasonry more effective. We cannot and must not solicit petitions from the profane, regardless of the station and status of the individual. There are however, hundreds of Masonic Sojourners in almost every metropolitan area in Virginia, and these brethren have lost contact with Freemasonry because they have moved from the circle of their mother Lodge. We should make some effort to contact them and endeavour to secure their active participation in the work which Freemasonry is trying to do. We might also seek to devise some method of following the brethren to other locations when they move from the jurisdiction of the mother Lodge."

It is well to note, however, that year saw a larger gain in membership in Virginia than in 1959 or 1960.

WASHINGTON—1961

104th Annual Communication—June 20-22

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. A. J. Ring
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. E. C. Huntley

Lodges, 283.                      Membership, 68,845.                      Loss, 147.

Although the Grand Jurisdiction includes sixteen Lodges in Alaska, the official name is The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Washington.

During the year no fewer than forty Lodges were granted permission to attend Divine Services clothed as Masons. The rulings and decisions show that Lodges from Washington visited in Trail, Vancouver, and Ladysmith, B.C.

The Masonic Home, at Zenith, is in a flourishing state. Membership totalled 142. The Committee on Endowment for the Home reported that the Endowment had reached approximately three million dollars. The annual budget is $242,628.

As usual the Fraternal Correspondent M.W. Bro. Fred Winkels wrote a thought-provoking Foreword to his reviews. Two paragraphs stand out.

"Let our Lodges provide 'Light' for their members in accordance with time-honored customs and designs and thus fulfill their true purpose. When this is done effectively, competition from other sources will be minimized, our members become interested and attentive and an ever increasing number of desirable men seek admission into our Fraternity 'because of a favorable opinion conceived of the Institution.'

"Instead of telling people how good we are, let us show the world that an application of the principles of Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth will provide a fair, equitable and co-operative solution for our tangled economic life, that the sincere practice of the concept of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man will lead us out of the wilderness of religious bigotry and race conflict, remove the tragic threat of war and rumors of war and provide the only basis for a just and lasting peace."

WEST VIRGINIA—1961

97th Annual Communication—October 11-12

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. D. E. Williams

Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. S. G. Wygal

Lodges, 164.

Membership, 48,714.

Gain, 185.

This Grand Jurisdiction includes the word "Ancient" in its name: "The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of the State of West Virginia."

On May 10, 1965, the Grand Lodge will celebrate its 100th Anniversary. A special Communication will be held in Wheeling. A history of Freemasonry in the State will be published for the occasion. Each Lodge has been asked to prepare a history, following a well-organized outline which has been drawn up.

During the year many improvements were made at the Masonic Home, which housed fifteen men and thirty-seven women. The per capita cost was $1,753.00. The average age of the residents is just under eighty-three. A picture of the Home shows it to be a large and attractive building standing in a heavily-treed landscape.

The Committee on Grievances and Appeals reported "Peace and harmony prevail throughout the Grand Jurisdiction. No matters have been presented to the Grievances and Appeals Committee at this annual communication or during the interim period."

WESTERN AUSTRALIA—1961

Quarterly Communications—August, November, 1960,
February, May 1961

Grand Master—M.W. Bro. J. L. Rossiter

Lodges, 317.                      Membership, 22,452.                      Loss, 109.

Attendance at the August Communication was so great that many brethren, some having come a great distance, could not find standing room.

Plans are under way to mark the sixtieth year of Grand Lodge. One suggestion is to build a new and worthy Freemasons Hall and Headquarters in Perth.

In his annual report, the Grand Inspector of Workings reported: "The 1960-61 survey of the Craft, through the ranks of Inspectors of Workings has revealed a comfortable satisfaction that in almost every avenue of their official Craft activity, a healthy state of affairs exists.

"Standards of ceremonial are reported to range from good to excellent, with few exceptions. It is gratifying to note that by far the greater majority of Worshipful Masters and Directors of Ceremonies, are following closely the latest Ritual, the Manual of Rulings and the more recently published Guide to Ceremonial Working. . . .

"The uniformity of ceremonial in this Jurisdiction, which is now so apparent, is a forward step, of which every contributing Brother may well be proud."

WISCONSIN—1961

117th Annual Communication—June 13-14

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. E. W. Stegner
Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. C. H. Little

Lodges, 305.                      Membership, 63,033.                      Loss, 658.

The Grand Lodge Free and Accepted Masons of Wisconsin is concerned with the changing pattern in Masonic homes. Guests in the homes are becoming older than they once were, requiring greater care. The Grand Master pointed out that with the changing times it might be well to take a realistic view of the financial ability of the Grand Lodge to provide facilities which may be duplicating accommodations already available in county institutions. Masons are paying their share in the support of these public facilities through taxes.

The Grand Lodge took no action on the proposal to set up a "District Deputy System" described in last year's Reviews.

Special dispensations show that Acacia Lodge No. 329 visited Connaught Lodge No. 511, Fort William, Ontario, and that two Lodges were granted permission to allow two congregations, one Episcopal and the other Congregational, to use their Lodge rooms for religious purposes until their own buildings were completed.

The Grand Lecturer once again reported a most successful year in the Schools of Instruction. The work remains at a high level throughout the Grand Jurisdiction. He also reported on various proposals to consolidate certain Lodges where shrinking population seemed to suggest such action. He gave his opinion that as long as a small corps of dedicated and devoted Masons could keep the Light of Masonry burning they should be encouraged. Consolidation should be postponed as long as possible.

The wide range of Masonic interest revealed in the Proceedings published by various Grand Jurisdictions cannot be better illustrated than by the report that a generous Brother had presented "a full-blooded, registered Holstein bull," to the Masonic Home farm at Dousman.

A majority and minority report were brought in by the Committee on Temple Financing. The former concluded: "Looking at the entire matter, your committee feels that, properly and closely supervised, temple facilities other than the lodge rooms, could be used by outside non-Masonic groups with a resulting improvement in relations between Masons and non-Masons plus a partial answer to the increasing heavy financial burden which temple-owning lodges are facing."

The minority concluded: "We cannot fail to realize that, since it is costing more every year to operate the local lodges, the Grand Lodge and the Masonic Home at Dousman, it will necessarily cost more to remain a Mason, it will cost more to become a Mason . . . . The answer is plain enough—each member must be called upon to place a higher value upon his Masonic ties by paying a greater share toward the financial needs of his Lodge."

WYOMING—1961

87th Annual Communication—August 28-29

Grand Master, 1960-61—M.W. Bro. R. C. Witherspoon
 Grand Master, 1961-62—M.W. Bro. C. R. Snyder

Lodges, 55.                      Membership, 13,083.                      Gain, 101.

The Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of Wyoming convened one Special Communication to lay the cornerstone of a new elementary school building. At the Annual Communication ten of the eighteen surviving past Grand Masters attended.

The Grand Master was pleased to be able to report that Masonry is growing in Wyoming. Indeed the statistical table in the appendix to the Proceedings shows that since 1874 there has been a net loss in only nine years and seven of those were in the 1930's. The total membership of 13,083 is the highest the Grand Jurisdiction has ever attained and best of all the Lodges "seem verp active, in good financial condition and are complying with the ritual and Code."

Fees for dispensations except those for attending church services are $5.00. Two dispensations were for holding out-door meetings in the mountains. One dispensation, for which a fee was charged, was "To Harmony Lodge No. 24, Lusk, for changing its meeting place from the old hall to their new Masonic Temple in the same city."

The Grand Master was asked the good question, whether it would be permissible to advertise a Lodge in hotels, motels and on road signs, giving the name, number and date of meetings and a welcome to visiting members. The Grand Master ruled that notices in hotels and motels seemed to fall into the same category as notices in newspapers and were permissible. Notices on road signs, he felt, should be discouraged.

Plans were under way to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the first Masonic meeting in Wyoming on Independence Rock, on July 4, 1962. Included in the plans was provision to include "the purchase of a bronze plaque to replace the one originally installed by Casper Lodge, No. 15, which was later stolen."

APPENDIX "B"

GRAND MASTER'S BANQUET HELD IN THE CANADIAN ROOM, ROYAL YORK HOTEL, TORONTO, ONTARIO, JULY 18th, 1962.

M. W. BRO. R. W. TRELEAVEN:

A long time ago, approximately 2000 years ago, a very wise man and great teacher said "a prophet is not without honour, save in his own country." Our speaker tonight is much more familiar with the Book in which those words are recorded, I am sure. The fact remains that on the statement in general it may be true there are exceptions to most rules, and there are exceptions to that statement that a prophet is not without honour save in his own country and the situation tonight is certainly an exception to that rule because our speaker tonight is with great honour not only in other countries but in his own country.

Our speaker tonight is no stranger to any of us; he has been highly honoured in his own city, highly honoured in his church, he's Archbishop of Algoma, he's Metropolitan of Ontario, and in our Grand Lodge he has been highly honoured by being one of our Grand Masters, and I am sure that the Past Grand Masters who are here will agree with me that he has been one of the best.

Now it seems to me, my brethren, that it was just not quite right that Archbishop Wright should be asked to speak in other jurisdictions, should travel far, be well received, and that we should not, at least once in awhile in our Grand Lodge and on this occasion, hear him. I was just delighted when, under certain urging,—because he was very modest about it and he said "oh, they all know me, they have all heard me"—but under certain urging from me and other Past Grand Masters when he agreed to be our guest speaker tonight. And so it gives me more pleasure to introduce him to you than I think it would give me to introduce to you some stranger from a long way off. My brethren, I am delighted to give you our own M.W. Bro. W. L. Wright. (Applause).

M.W. BRO. ARCHBISHOP W. L. WRIGHT:

Most Worshipful Sir, Distinguished Guests, and Brethren all: I would be a strange person indeed tonight not to be touched by that most gracious introduction which has been accorded me by our mutual friend and esteemed Grand Master. I feel confident that you will agree with me that, at the very outset, I should make this statement that he himself exemplifies in his high office, a quiet dignity, a warm-hearted fellowship, and a sincere desire to manifest those Masonic virtues which characterize our Order.
(Applause).

I am also deeply touched tonight by the generous welcome accorded me by all of you, my friends. Yes, I'll go so far as to say my brothers. It is like coming home again. I see so many of you here tonight that I have had the privilege of meeting during the time that I was Grand Master, and at this late date once again I acknowledge with sincerity the many kindnesses granted to me when I visited your respective Districts.

The Grand Master said something tonight about a prophet being without honour. That reminds me of a story about a Premier of this Province who was returning to his own home town a few days after his election. Only four or five days had elapsed and he was on his way down to this village not too far away from where he was brought up. So, as he approached the station, he just casually put his head out the window—I think he anticipated of course that the village band would be there and all the many friends—but he just saw two people on the station platform, one was the station agent at the far end who was throwing on a couple of cream cans on the baggage car, and at the other end of the station leaning against the building was an old chap who was lacking in some of the mental qualities that bring one into the world of reason. Well, the train stopped; the Premier jumped out a little taken aback; he went up to old George and said "Well, George, I suppose you knew I'd been elected Premier?" George said "oh yes." The Premier said "Well, what did the folks sav?" Old George put his foot up against the side of the building, spat out his chew of tobacco and said "Oh, they just laughed." (Laughter)

That was one reason why tonight I was rather reluctant in accepting the kind invitation to be present as your speaker. As a matter of fact I'll give you the real truth of the matter as to how I am here: A few months ago when we were arranging for this Grand Communication we came to the time when we would discuss on the agenda the nature of this programme tonight and, of course, as usual I guess I spoke out of turn and I said "Well, whatever we do, keep the calibre of entertainment up and make sure you get a mighty good speaker because this is one of the highlights of the Annual Communication." (Laughter). The Grand Master sat there, innocent looking you know, and said "Well, brethren, let's get down to business; we come now to this whole business of the Banquet, who shall we get as the Speaker?" My so-called friend and brother, M.W. Bro. Hearn, in a crisp and businesslike manner, spoke up and said, "I'll move that M.W. Bro. Wright be the speaker." (Laughter). I said, "Oh yes, that's what you think"—anyway, I'm here as you can see.

That just reminds me of the coloured parson down in the southern States who was preaching to his congregation for three-quarters of an hour on the whole subject of the waters of salvation being free. He said, "You know, brethren, the waters of salvation are free, the waters of salvation are free" and he reiterated this time and again. At the end of his sermon he turned to his elders and said "And now we shall take up the collection." One of the elders got up and said "Parson, I thought you said the waters of salvation were free." The parson said "Yes, my good man, but we gotta pay for the pump." (Laughter) Well, I'm paying for the pump here tonight by having spoken out of turn—I can see that.

But, be that as it may, I am deeply touched by being here, it's like coming home and addressing you, my good friends, all of you, who have evinced so many kindnesses to me.

"Breathes there the man, with soul so dead,
 Who never to himself hath said,
 This is my own, my native land!
 Whose heart hath ne'er within him burn'd
 As home his footsteps he hath turn'd
 From wandering on a foreign strand?"

I am home tonight. I do not feel at all nervous as some of the Grand Masters who were thinking I would be. I'm at home. I feel that amongst you I have the greatest sympathy and tolerance and understanding and intimate friendship and that together, in reality, we are brothers indeed. Therefore, it is a great joy and one of the highest honours that shall ever be accorded me to have the privilege to speak to you tonight on a subject which I think is of great importance, and that subject I call "the Eternal Qualities in Freemasonry."

THE ETERNAL QUALITIES IN FREEMASONRY

Freemasonry to me will never exhaust itself for the simple reason that I have the greatest joy of edification in my reading of Masonic books in trying to understand some of its philosophies. It is, as I know and, as some people have rightly said, a group of men who meet together as a club, that it's something more; it is a fellowship in which the spirit of goodwill permeates the lodge rooms whenever we gather together; it's that but it's something more: it is a philosophy of life that gives to man that inspiration that lifts him from the mundane things of life and grants to him something of those eternal qualities that give significance to all true and successful living.

It is a philosophy so simple that a man who is a Mason with a limited academic potential can assimilate those qualities. It is so profound that even some of the most outstanding Masonic rights have never been able to probe to the depths the great lessons of Freemasonry. It is so universal that wherever you go over the face of the globe you will discover, as I did just before Christmas when in India, Masonic brethren who are trying to exemplify, to the best of their ability, those eternal qualities which are so sorely needed in our day and age.

It was a wonderful experience for me when I was attending the Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches in New Delhi, India, to be there at the same time as the formation of The Grand Lodge of India, to share together with my brother Masons—over 1400 in number at the time—in this great thought that they together with myself in our own limited capacity were trying, to the best of our ability, to show to the world that there are those eternal qualities in Freemasonry that the world needs, and that together we can accomplish those ends.

Thus it is tonight that I take advantage of this opportunity of presenting to you and asking you to think with me seriously of those eternal qualities in Freemasonry. What are they? What is their relevance for our day and age? Because, my brethren, unless Freemasonry, as a philosophy of life believing in the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man, has some contemporary relationship to present day society, then it is out of date, then it has no particular concept for our time and age.

And if you were to ask me what are those four eternal qualities I would give you, in order that you can remember them, four words and the first word is Faith, there is no doubt about that. Freemasonry through the Volume of the Sacred Law brings to man the great truth about God, secondly the great truth about man, and thirdly the great truth about human destiny. These are qualities which are so sorely needed to be understood properly at the present time: Faith in God; Faith in Man; Faith in Human Destiny.

What do we as Freemasons believe about God? It was so beautifully expressed, I think, and so beautifully outlined in that wonderful Hymn that we sang this morning, "Until the hills around do I lift up my longing eyes". What do Freemasons through the Volume of the Sacred Law believe about God? Here's what we believe; here's what's inculcated into our hearts and minds and souls; here is the teaching, that God the Great Architect of the Universe is the creator and sustainer of this universe. He is Almighty; this is His world: it's not man's world: God is in control, never let us forget that. And because God is Almighty and is the sustainer of this universe and is in control, there are certain obligations resting upon those who are made in His image.

What does Freemasonry through the Volume of the Sacred Law say about man? It says this; regardless of creed, colour, culture and all of these other characteristics, that deep down and basically all men are brothers because all are made in the image of God.

What does Freemasonry through the Volume of the Sacred Law say about human destiny? It says this; when man dies, man will be taken into the Father's presence providing he has observed certain moral laws, but if he deliberately desires to follow his own selfish ways, he will do nothing else but banish himself from the presence of the Most High.

What is the situation as we look around contemporary society today when we think and look at the first eternal quality of Freemasonry, namely, faith in God? Russia and her satellites maintain there is no God; they say that man occupies the centre of this universe; that wherever you look amongst her satellites you will see discouragement when it comes to acknowledge the majesty, the holiness and all these qualities which pertain to the Most High.

When you look into contemporary society, what is the situation regarding man? So many in our day and age seem to feel when the wheels of industry move in monumental immensity, that man is only a cog in a machine—which is a damnable lie. Man made in the image of God possesses a sacredness of personality. Wherever you look you will discover so many who say that man is only a puppet on the stage of civilization and his only significance is insofar as he will advance the welfare of the State. What is the lie about human destiny? It is this: That when you die that's the end of you; let's eat, drink and, therefore, be merry.

But the challenge that calls out today to all Freemasons regarding the first eternal quality, namely Faith, is this: That as a Mason is taught through philosophy and through the drama of that philosophy about God, that he will revere His name and will dedicate his day, the day of the Lord to the Lord's service. I may dilate a little more fully on that later.

What is the challenge of Freemasons today when it comes to this thought about the place of man in society? It is this: to recognize that every man regardless of his creed, colour, culture, background, that that man is made in the image of God and that, therefore, that man must be treated with respect, and that the man who goes about his daily avocations will express in his daily life the spirit of integrity which will reflect something of the great teachings he holds regarding the belief and the truth about God.

What is the philosophy to which a Freemason must hold regarding human destiny? In a word it is this: It is not to be so interested in being a going concern as to be interested and to be concerned where you are going. There, in short, is something that we need to keep in mind in our day and age, as in every day and age, because faith is an eternal quality.

We read in our Masonic ritual about two great kings, Solomon and Hiram of Tyre, who were resplendent in their background and they had opportunities of going to palaces and meeting other kings and so on. But there was a man who was a widow's son who never knew what it was to enter the portals of a palace, and yet by the life and witness, according to the legend of Freemasonry, he exemplified all three qualities of a firm faith in God, a deep respect for man and a reverence for human destiny.

The first eternal quality in Freemasonry is, has always been, and must always be in the future, Faith—that is my first word—Faith.

The second eternal quality in Freemasonry, as I see it, is Work. I need not take time to illustrate my point, but suffice it to say that as the day is divided into several parts, each part is given to certain particular calls, a man is called to work. I know full well what Jerome K. Jerome meant when he said "I am so fascinated by work I could sit and look at it all day long." When I go down some of our highways and observe some of our construction crews, I know they have similar sentiments. (Laughter). But that is not my main point in this illustration.

The fact is that work from time immemorial in the annals of Freemasonry has always brought before man a philosophy of life that he needs to hold. The original masons were stone-masons; they built great cathedrals; they had the will to work; they had the tools to work with; they carried with them the compass, the plumb rule and all these other things. When the temple was being built they carved out the stonework from the quarry miles and miles away and brought it over, chopped down the trees in Lebanon and brought the timber there; the women folk did all the needlework.

There is relevance between work in its Masonic implications to our day and age, and I shall give to you as my brother Masons four basic principles in work that I think we need, not only as Freemasons but as men in contemporary society need to hold, and the first is this: That every man has the right to work; a man not given employment spends his months or years with those gifts that God has bestowed upon him lying dormant; he begins to lose his own self-respect and those great gifts which were to be placed to the advantage of society become atrophied. Man not only has the right to work, he has the duty to work; there must be no drones in the community. Nothing should bar any person in society from working except sickness and old age; this holds for everybody.

We have ample evidence of this, Masonically, as you look back in the annals of Masonic history to show how everybody, regardless of their stand in society, everybody had something to do. And the third principle, as I see it, in the relevance of work as an eternal quality of Freemasonry in our day and age is this; that the conditions under which a man works must be conducive to the development not only of his own personality but for the well-being of his family.

Every man has the right to marry, to bring up a family, to educate his children; every man must have those conditions where he will have a living wage. We cannot imply that we have a sound belief in the morality of Freemasonry with anything less. And the fourth principle as far as work is concerned as an eternal quality in Freemasonry in its relevance to our day and age is this; that a man has the right and the duty to give a full day's honest work to his employer if his employer is to guarantee him the proper conditions in which to work.

I will leave it with you as to which of these four principles need to be stressed more and more today, but there is a tendency all too often that man will skip in his work; he will not be sufficiently honest; and he will not realize that, whatever he does, no matter how menial it is, there's no such thing as meniality in work because it's all done to the glory of the Most High and it is done for the motivation of integrity.

Therefore, I submit to you tonight, my brother Masons, that I believe that the second great eternal quality that must be preserved in Freemasonry in its relevance to society in our day and age is Work—Faith—Work.

The third eternal quality, as I see it, which should mark all Freemasons and is prominent Masonic philosophy, is character or reality. Character is the cornerstone of personal and social well-being.

I am getting rather weary when I find so many people say that these tumultuous days of which we have entered are due to science; I don't believe it at all. I think that if science had had its own unhindered way, man would be happier in many respects than he is at the present time. It's not science's fault. The scientist has harnessed the lightning and the waterfall; the scientist has sent man into outer-space; the scientist has brought gadgets to our homes to make life worth living. I maintain there is something far more serious than that. The great problem of our day and age is that there is a sag in human character. Man has, it seems, everything to live with and nothing to live for. Man is unable to keep pace in his personal life with the great advantages which the scientist has brought to him.

I remember Dr. Young a number of years ago telling the story of that great historian, H. G. Wells. When H. G. Wells depicted the life of a beautiful maiden named Ruth who went out into the fields of Boaz to reap the grain, and as Mr. Wells sits down with his pen he depicts her with all of her glory, integrity, marvellous spirit, and he says: "Doubtless in our day and age in this Twentieth Century, we have much improved upon the signal that Ruth used so many centuries ago but" Wells said "we haven't improved upon Ruth."

It was that great man, Tolstoy, the philosopher, who, when confronted by a young man who came into his office one day and was asked this question, he said: "What am I to do to make this world a better place in which to live?" Tolstoy sat back; he looked at him in the eye and pointed his finger at him and said, "Young man, if you desire to make this world a better place in which to live, the place to start is with yourself." That is eternally true. Wherever you look in the whole drama of Freemasonry and all its ritual, you will discover the emphasis is placed upon character.

Gibbons in the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire brings before us in a very timely manner the reasons for the decline of that Empire, circus and its pleasures, selfishness, greed, lust; and the contemporary historians of our day of which Butterfield, Cambridge, is paramount, has shown that when nations find the moral disintegration setting in within their country, it is not long before they become an easy prey to those outside forces which they would have laughed at the years before. And I believe it is most timely and fitting for me, as I stand before you tonight, to remind you of this great and paramount eternal quality of Freemasonry shown in all its parts, namely, character.

There was an old Athenian philosopher who said: "If, what you want me to do is right I'll do it because it is right; if, what you want me to do is wrong, I will not do it for all the gold in Athens."

Better no vows in Masonry than hollow vows. Better no obligations in Masonry than obligations which are going to be shaken off within a matter of time. Better no words in Freemasonry than words which conflict with a man's own selfish opinions. The time has come when we must gird ourselves and take seriously to heart this paramount and important eternal quality, namely, character. And I cannot help, in my dual position that I occupy in the church and Freemasonry, to reiterate what I said a few years ago, namely, the relationship of the church to Freemasonry. I make no apology because I may duplicate this part.

A man who is a good churchman will be a better Mason. Religion is the upward stretch of a man in reaching to acknowledge the sovereignty and the holiness and the majesty of God. Morality is the outward, horizontal, stretch, as no man can put his best into the morality, into the outward stretch, unless he has received the grace from the Most High as he exemplifies his duty in the upward stretch of worshipping The Almighty.

I therefore, tonight ask all of you, my friends, my brothers, never neglect the church or synagogue of your choice but ever to remember this; that if your faith in God, who is in control of this universe, is to be a faith worthwhile and meaningful, it is your duty, it is your responsibility, it is indeed your privilege, Sunday by Sunday, week by week, to worship God in church in order to acknowledge His sovereignty and to receive His grace to go out and, in our case, be a better Mason.

Thus we discover that those who have learned the secret of the upward stretch, together with the outward stretch, are those who have in part learned the secret of true living. Man is a being made in the image of God; his significance ultimately depends upon his relationship to God.

Now I have one more point before I launch into business. I must tell you a story that I heard when I was over in the States a few years ago about a chap over there on a barnstorming tour; he was trying to become Governor of the State. He went to this small village and everybody was out to hear him and he got along fine; he got a lot of applause. After about the first ten minutes he ran into a little difficulty; he heard a strong voice at the back of the hall saying "too dull, too dull". Well, he got a little upset, gasped for breath but kept on going. About eight or nine minutes later he heard the words "can't hear ya". He was getting a little more nervous still but he kept on going. In about another nine minutes he stopped for breath and all of a sudden he heard the words "too long". The Chairman came over and kicked him in the shins and said "don't pay any attention to him, he's just the village moron, he only tells what he hears everybody else say." (Laughter).

Now it may be just possible that I take that moral to heart as the time rolls round, but I want to bring to you what I believe is the fourth eternal quality in Freemasonry that we might very well emulate, and especially in these days. This lie of Swinbourne "Glory to man in the highest" of man in charge of things is wrong.

This century of ours opened on an optimistic note. Robert Louis Stevenson brought it out; he articulated the mood when he brought to our attention these words; the world is so full of a number of things, I'm sure we shall all be as happy as kings." Here we come at the present time and we discover the morass in which we are found and, therefore, the fourth eternal quality that I submit is the quality of brotherhood.

The competition between totalitarianism and democracy is not the whole truth in our day and age. All of these in a competitive spirit don't spell out the whole story. What we are concerned with is this; it's either brotherhood or destruction; that's what's involved. And, therefore, it behoves us all to realize that the quality of human trust is so important.

The President of the United States of America, a few weeks ago, spoke about the doctrine of interdependence. True, there's no such thing as an independent nation any longer. Those of us who have travelled to the far east and other parts of the world have found that to be true.

In the whole philosophy of Freemasonry the thought of brotherhood is always uppermost, but the challenge before us is to put it into practice, and put it into practice on the local scene, first of all, every man, regardless of what he does, when he goes through the portals of a Masonic lodge he's on the same level.

I like to, when I'm visiting around my diocese, go into some of these little villages, go into a little store on the side of the road where, when you open up the door, the little bell at the top will jingle to let the proprietor at the back know somebody is coming in, go in there and sit down on an egg crate and talk to him; he's a Mason, and yet we sit there together and he says, "say, it's good of you to come in". and I say, "why shouldn't I come on in, there isn't any difference." It's an illustration, surely, of the brotherhood that should be exemplified that a man should go and speak to anybody else regardless of the position he holds because there you have the whole form of brotherhood—why shouldn't you?

One man holds a conspicuous place in society. Another man's work day by day is not seen. That doesn't make any difference. What does make a difference is this, that there is an intangible bond between the man who holds a great responsibility and that other poor unfortunate who may think his work is menial, so that when their paths cross their personality meets personality; the one embraces the other as a true brother. That is the outward exemplification of the true form of brotherhood.

May Divine Providence bring to us all those manifold blessings that are so sorely needed in our day.

My brethren, Most Worshipful Sir, I have submitted tonight for your consideration and action what I believe to be four eternal qualities in Freemasonry, namely, faith, work, character, brotherhood—faith, work, character, brotherhood. If these qualities in our day and age through the media of our Masonic philosophies can be put into practice, then that brotherhood of ours will encircle the world and everywhere people shall see that we are not only strong Masons but really men of God. Thank you. (Continued applause).

R.W. BRO. JOHN IRVINE: (Deputy G.M.)

M. Wor. Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Wright, Distinguished Guests and my Brethren: I don't think it's necessary for me to tell you that I approach this assignment at the present moment with a great deal of timidity. However, I do feel that I would be remiss if I didn't, on behalf of this Grand Lodge, express to M.W. Bro. Wright our extreme thanks for the wonderful message that he has brought to us tonight.

On the other hand, my brethren, I think that I would be very much out of order if I were to try to cover even one of the points that he has mentioned to us, because it's just beyond the bounds of any possibilities of mine. I am sure that anything I might say would perhaps just detract from this wonderful message.

I think that perhaps the greatest token of appreciation that our speaker has received tonight could be summed up in two different items; one would be the wrapt attention that you gave him throughout his complete dissertation; and I think the second one would be the standing ovation that you gave him, not only before he rose, because we knew him by reputation, but after he had delivered his message to us.

So, brethren, I think I, perhaps, should content myself, on behalf of each and every one of you here, by saying simply to him, first of all, that we love him very much, secondly that we are proud to have him as a member of this Grand Lodge, and that we are even more proud to have him as a brother and our esteemed Past Grand Master.

On behalf of each and every one of you here, I would like to shake his hand. (Applause).
